CUSTOM-WORK & WARRANTED.

J. C. CARR.....34 MARKET STREET,

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by all who know that provisions are rendered very much healthier by being placed in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed, and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. It is also well known that in most ice chests is a sure indication of this poison out and offensive tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is effectually ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice.

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provisions in the chamber.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

HON. JOSEPH R. CHANDLER.—The Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Tribune, thus sketches Joseph R. Chandler, whom Mr. Buchanan recently appointed Minister to Naples:—

"The time we live in being full of political marvels, one must not be surprised at seeing a Democratic President appointing a foreign mission such a man as Joseph R. Chandler. But the last two years have occasioned sad political and social dislocations. Chandler is a living evidence of their irremediable severity. His whole history is a curious one. He came here from New England a great many years ago, and opened a school in which he taught grammar by a machine. Having occasion to advertise a good deal, he fell in with the proprietors of the United States Gazette, who knew how to print a good paper, though not competent to write even a paragraph. Finding him to be a ready writer, and withal extremely industrious, they engaged him to furnish original matter for the paper, which he did so satisfactorily that he was finally installed as editor, whereupon he dropped his grammar machine and school, and devoted his whole time to the press. In this vocation he labored so successfully that the Gazette rose rapidly in public estimation, and became the leading Whig journal in the State. He next became joint partner, and finally sole owner. During a long editorial career, Mr. Chandler was a model Whig, the boson friend and champion of Henry Clay, and as such was elected by this city to Congress. Some years since he married a Roman Catholic wife, whereupon he abandoned the Puritans, and united with the Romanists. The strong native American feeling of this city revolted at such a representative, and he was accordingly laid on the shelf. He had no refuge but in the camp of his life-long adversaries, the Democrats. But they took him in, as they do all others. So, when Mr. Buchanan came out, Mr. Chandler voted for him, and has now turned up a regular trump, just like that old Whig William B. Reed. The twain were model Clay men. Mr. Chandler finally sold his establishment for a large sum, and it became merged in the present able North American. Being thus a man of ample fortune, he will no doubt have a good time of it at Naples. But it is nevertheless one of the oddities of the times that such a man should have been so utterly transformed from what he was in the days of Henry Clay as to become acceptable to such an administration as is now in power.

GERRIT SMITH gives an account, in Frederick Douglass's paper, of a day lately spent at the home of Joshua R. Giddings:

I found him living just as he should live. A democrat in his education and theories, he is a democrat in his intercourse with his neighbors, and in all his domestic arrangements. He resides in a small two-story white house, on six acres of land, which he purchased from Francis Granger, of Canandaigua, more than thirty years ago, for seventy-two dollars, and the forest on which his own hard hands helped to remove. His two oldest sons are married and live near him. His other son and his two daughters are a part of his own family. No intoxicating liquors are drank by himself, wife or children. His daughters, with the help of their excellent mother, performed the house work. Everything is neat and comfortable. Nothing is expensive or showy.

ADVERTISING.—Men who will pay $500 more for a store on a business corner than just such a store would cost on a secluded street, grudge an outlay of $100 for advertising, though the conspicuous corner brings them in view of only thousands, where the advertising would introduce them to hundreds of thousands. A capitalist who freely spends one hundred thousand dollars to build and furnish a grand hotel, whereof the vital element is custom, would stare if you suggested an outlay of $5000 in letting everybody know that such a hotel had been opened; and so he spends ten thousand dollars on rent, for servants and superintendents, &c., while waiting for his house to become known, and so to fill up, which a judicious outlay of $5000 for advertising at the outset would have saved and transmuted into profit. He pays his mason, carpenter, carpet dealer, &c., rapidly, because his father and grandfather did so before him, and their charges seem inevitable; he wastes ten thousand dollars in leaving his house comparatively unknown and unfrequented for months if not for years, because his grandfather did not happen to live as he does, in an age when business goes ahead by lightning and steam.—New York paper.

The correspondent of the Cork Examiner, who is making a tour of observation through this country, writing to that journal his first impressions of life in the United States, speaks of the hotel system, and mentions the facility with which a Yankee adapts himself to circumstances. He says:

"At the Tremont, one of the principal inns of Boston, there is a waiter in the coffee room, and one most studiously attentive, who, three years ago, was President of the principal railroad out of that town, having millions of money at his command."

CHARADE.

Against my first the kingly beast
His anger dare not show;
For God's command forbids a feast
In that dread chasm below.

The wise men from the east did come;
Their guide a shining star.
An offering to the new-born son
My next, brought from afar.

Unto the far-off western wild
My whole speeds on his way—
A pioneer through the forest mild,
'Midst nature's grand display.

BOILING ROCK.

☞ They are tanning the elephant's hide at Cincinnati. It was purchased by a furrier in Wisconsin, where the animal, which belonged to a menagerie, died. The freight to Cincinnati cost $15. It is an immense hide, so bulky that the tanners handle it with great difficulty. It is nearly two inches thick, and full a year and a half will be required to tan it thoroughly. It will be a curiosity when thoroughly tanned and seasoned.

The decay of the reputation of many men is owing to its never having been deserved at all.

From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examisers of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LANGDON. } Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. F. N. PRESSGRAVE,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JUNE 23, 1858.

BEER vs. SOMETHING STRONGER.—A good citizen of our city, who is a thorough temperance man, gives it to us as his opinion that, since the manufacture of ale has been commenced here, and since many of the rum-drinkers here have rather "switched off" from drinking R. G. rum to drinking ale, they are less noisy and uproarous, less quarrelsome, &c. We give this, as we would, in common fairness, give every fact and view on the subject.

Our own view is, that the less intoxicating matter any one uses, the better—and that total abstinence from all such substances is the best of all, and the only course really safe.

Quite apropos, at this moment, comes up from a drawer of scraps the following item, which may be new to some:

Alcohol, the intoxicating principle, is not an original product of creation. It is not found among the original works of God. Nor is it in any living substance.—It is no more the direct work of the Creator than gunpowder, or a dead carcass. It is obtained from various articles. But the articles must become dead; they must be decomposed, be in a state of decay, to produce it. It is obtained by fermentation and by distillation. It is mixed with various other substances, taking different names. But wherever it is, under whatever form, by whatever name, it is poison. It is a hurtful article, always injurious, when taken as a drink. The quantity of alcohol, in different substances, is very diverse. In the various kinds of beer, ale, porter, and all malt liquors, alcohol exists. Some of them have more, and some less. In perry, it is mixed with the juice of the pear, in cider with that of the apple, in wine with that of the grape, in gin with that of juniper berries. Whiskey is obtained by distilling grain: in England, from barley; in the United States, from wheat, rye and corn. Rum is distilled from the juice of cane, brandy from wine, but in the United States from cider and perry.

Brande's table shows the proportion of alcohol in distilled and fermented liquors, by measure per cent. The lowest is small beer, which is 1.28; ale, 5.56; perry, 7.25; cider, 9.87; wine, gooseberry, 11.84; currant, 12.55; champaign, 13.30; Burgundy, 16.60; Madeira, 16.40; Port, 25.83; gin, 51.00; Scotch whiskey, 54.32; rum, 53.62; brandy, 53.39. Persons may hence easily calculate how much alcohol they take in the fermented or distilled liquors which they drink. If one drinks ale, he takes a little more than five and a half parts in a hundred of the poison; if cider, nearly ten parts; if gin, it is a little more than half, and so of the rest.—However the liquor may be mixed with water, with lemon juice, or anything else, the alcohol is not changed in its nature, or any of its properties. The more it is diluted, the less will be the quantity taken at a time.

Perhaps some may not be convinced that alcohol is a poison; that when they take any of the articles named, they take a certain amount of poison into their stomachs.

But it is even so, invariably.

☞ Lieut. Davis, of the British flag ship Indus, arrived in New York on Friday, with despatches from Admiral Stewart for Lord Napier, and proceeded to Washington. He reports that the steamer Devastation, which had been despatched with peremptory orders to the Styx and Buzzard not to overhaul any more American vessels, had returned to Bermuda, and reports having fallen in with those vessels and delivered the orders to their commanders.

☞ Mr. Frederick J. Gant, late surgeon to the military hospital in the Crimea, has recently made a very interesting investigation respecting the unwholesomeness of the flesh of very fat cattle, veal, poultry, &c., as an article of food, which fully establishes the unfitness of such flesh for human sustenance.

WEALTHY COLORED PEOPLE IN LOUISIANA.—The Plaquemine (Louisiana) Gazette of the 12th inst. states that the plantation of the late Samuel T. Harrison, some three or four miles from Bayou Goula, was purchased on the 5th by the son of Cyprien Ricard, a free woman of color, for $240,600, at sheriff's sale. The mother of the purchaser owns a large plantation in the neighborhood.

DESTINATION OF THE MORMONS.—It is intimated that the ultimate destination of the Mormons is the island of New Guinea, and that they will gather at the Mexican port of Guymas, in Sonora, for this purpose. New Guinea is one of the great islands in the Indian Archipelago, and large and fertile enough for the establishment of a powerful nation.

THREATENING LETTER.—George S. Stanwood, a young man 23 years old, was arrested in Salem, and taken to jail on Saturday, for sending a threatening letter to a gentleman of Salem, with a view to extort money from him. The police set a trap for the offender at the Post Office, and he was snugly caught and jugged.

THE EXECUTION OF JAMES MCGEE for the murder of Deputy Warden Walker, in the Massachusetts State Prison, a year and a half since, took place in the rotunda of the Boston Jail, in the presence of some four hundred persons, on Friday morning. During the whole time of his imprisonment he has retained the most stolid indifference to his condition and fate, and so continued to the last. If he made any revelations they were of a private character to his chaplain; but even with him he showed no signs of penitence and expressed no wish to escape his fate.

McGee's history is briefly given in the Boston papers.

He was born near Huntington, Canada East; his parents, who were emigrants from Northern Ireland, being farmers in a small way. He was quite young at the time his father and mother died, when the family circle was broken up. He then went to Northern New York, where he still has a married sister living. From New York, about the year 1850, he went to the vicinity of Manchester, N. H., where he purchased a small farm. Here it is said, he had some trouble in consequence of his ungovernable temper, and committed an assault, which but for the interference of others, might have resulted fatally. Afterwards he came to Massachusetts and obtained work at a brick yard in Somerville in order to get money to pay for his farm.

At this place he made the acquaintance of a young Irish woman, to whom he was soon after married. In the summer of 1851, he caught his wife, as he alleges, in the act of crime, and meant in the moment of violent passion, which overcame him, to kill both her and her paramour. He however, assaulted his wife, was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill, was induced by some person to plead guilty, and was sentenced to twelve years in the State Prison. This was in 1851. The story of the wife is different. She denies the charge of crime on her part, and alleges that McGee assaulted her to obtain possession of $200 belonging to her.

In 1855 he was sent from the prison to an Insane Asylum, where he remained until the following November, when he was returned to the prison, where he remained until the fatal act was committed in December, 1856.

On his trial, insanity was attempted to be proved, but failed. On the same ground a commutation of sentence was asked from the Executive, but refused. Whether he was really insane or not, will never be known; but on the morning of his execution, his conversation with his counsel would indicate a shattered mind, though possibly his manner may have been assumed. It is certain that he had self control in some respects and determined, as he expressed it, not to show the "white feather." He would not converse respecting his soul, and made no speech on the scaffold.

This is the first execution in Massachusetts since the hanging of Dr. Webster.

AN EXECUTION IN GEORGIA. — On the 21st inst., Bradford J. Crockett was hung at Augusta, Ga., for the murder of a man named Landrum. The high respectability and piety of young Crockett's parents—his association and connection with a notorious clan of thieves and assassins; and above all his free and unreserved confession of all this, as well as of the murder of Landrum, united to create a deep sensation in the community, and to invest his case with a degree of interest more intense than perhaps was ever before manifested in Georgia on any similar occasion. Between eight and ten thousand people attended the execution, which took place outside the city. The criminal was cool and collected, and betrayed not the least agitation on the dreadful occasion. Crockett's spiritual adviser expressed to the multitude his firm belief that he had made his peace with God, and was prepared to meet his fate.—He was baptized by immersion a few days before his execution. His wife displayed the noblest devotion to him. She remained in the cell with him nearly all the time after his incarceration, sustaining and comforting him by the most ardent affection, and after the execution claimed his body for interment in the family tomb.

TO BE EXECUTED FOR SLANDER.—Mr. Lindaal, the editor of Fredernoslandet, a newspaper published in Stockholm, has been recently condemned to death by the axe, for having falsely and with evil intentions accused Mademoiselle Mendelssohn of incest. His counsel, Mr. C. G. Uggla, has been condemned to one months' imprisonment and to the interdiction, for having, with full knowledge, undertaken the defence of an unjust cause.

GRATITUDE.—A man by the name Wm. Evans, now a resident of Boston, has just made a donation to the town of Smithfield of ten thousand dollars, as a grateful tribute for the support of himself and parents by said town during his infancy and childhood. We are informed that he was a native of Peterboro'. His parents with himself and other children, were paupers in said town of Smithfield, and were for many years supported by the town.

☞ The police of Concord have captured four gamblers, who plead guilty, were fined to the laws extent, and paid their fines.—When the police, about 2 o'clock in the morning, broke open the door, and rushed in, the four men were gambling with cards at a table, with the money displayed. One of the desperadoes raised a lamp to strike one of the unwelcome intruders, but the party finding themselves completely caught, gave up. The money was hustled away, with the exception of some $9 which fell into the hands of the police. In the room were found three tables and some twenty chairs. In the closet were found various kinds of liquors, bottles, and a large quantity of cards. The persons arrested were: Wm. H. Lovejoy, who had charge of he room, Albert H. Brown and Samuel E. Colby, employees upon the railroad, and Edwin H. Houston, an old offender in this line of crime. Lovejoy was arraigned on the charge of keeping a room for gambling purposes. His plea was "guilty," and he was bound over in the sum of $200, to answer at the Supreme Court.

☞ The Herald gives a grievous account of the Field Driver in Newburyport.—First somebody pulled a rail off the Pound, and let their cows out without leave or fee. The keeper petitioned the city for his pay—but has not got it yet.

The other day a most scandalous attempt was made to defeat his taking a horse and a cow at the lower part of the town, against which complaint had been entered. As Bartlett seized the horse—rather an aged animal—by the head, to lead him away, the owner caught him by the tail to pull him back. It happened this time Mr. Bartlett had the best end of the animal, and he was going off with horse and owner; but the wife of the owner following, a compromise was made and the beast let off on half pay. 'Well,' said the officer, as he let his horse prize go, 'there is the cow, I must have her.' And now came the worst of the case. The women seeing that her other half had done something with the horse's tail, caught hold of the cow's tail and began to twist it so that she might run away from the field driver. The cow was younger than the horse, and disliking this interference with her parts, kicked, plunged and ran, to the great scandal of the law by which she should have been holden, and the endangering of officer Bartlett: nor had she gone far before she fell into a cellar that was open and from which the field driver could not lift her, so that on her his whole fee was lost.

☞ In Boston, Friday evening, James Burroughs, aged 26, after trying three times to cut his throat with a razor, and attempting to take poison,—finally succeeded in drowning himself off a bridge.—He had delirum tremens—and it is a pity that all such chaps don't take to water.

☞ A little child of Mr. Mark Ham, in Russell street, was badly if not fatally burnt by burning fluid, on Friday evening. Two children, left alone, were attempting to fill a lighted fluid lamp, when both lamp and fluid jug exploded, terribly injuring one of the children.

Mr. John Nealley, of Meredith, while riding upon the tongue of his cart, met a stranger, apparently a foreigner, who rather unceremoniously demanded money. Mr. N. told him he had no money, and added that he had better go to work and earn some. Upon this the fellow struck him across the eyes and nose with a heavy hardwood stick. Neally was stunned. The vagrant was pursued and committed to jail.

☞ E. C. Goodwin, late editor of the Litchfield Enquirer, has exchanged poverty and a printing office for affluence and a pretty girl, and gone to Europe to enjoy them. Every one to their notion—but most folks could make themselves tolerable comfortable under such circumstances without leaving the country.

Preston Turley, once a preacher, has been convicted before the Circuit Court of Kanawha county, Virginia, of the murder of his wife, and is to be hung. His wife is said to have been one of the best of women, and most respectably connected. The killing was effected by placing a rope around her neck and choking her to death. He then threw her body into the river.

☞ Two millions two hundred thousand of the new cents were coined at the Philadelphia mint in May, and about four hundred thousand of the old cents were returned.

A man who was recently sent up to Sing-Sing for ten years for burglary, hearing that his portrait and life were to appear in one of the papers of New York, ordered five hundred extra copies, which he circulated among his friends.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CONSUMPTION.

How many diseases of debility, incurable by ordinary medicines, are classed by physicians, as well as the public, under the convenient term Consumption! All of them agree in one thing, their fatal tendency; and most of them, in their primary and even secondary stages, may be arrested by purifying the springs of life through the renovating agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

ALLEN & PAINE,
NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,
Have received, and offer for sale, one of the most perfect and best selected stocks of DRY GOODS in the State. Every article is selected for their own retail trade and is perfect of its kind, of the latest and most beautiful style, and unsurpassed in quality,—and, as they buy and sell only for Cash, visit the market often, and keep comparatively a small stock, they offer their customers some real bargains. Read their advertisement in another column, and, when convenient, call and see them.

The only place in Portsmouth where a fine Mellotype (taken on Glass and by the aid of heat brought in the glass,) can be procured, is at SALEN'S DAGUERREAN GALLERY,
CONGRESS BLOCK.

Melainotypes, beautifully colored, (imitation of Ivory Painting,) taken in superior style, on light or dark ground.

Photographs, Ambrographs, Oilographs, plain and splendidly finished in oil, any size up to Life Size, from $3 to $35.

Pictures taken on Patent Leather, Enamelled Cloth and Bristol Board for sending in letters, or to put in Hats, Caps, Porte-Monnaies, Albums, &c., very cheap.

Please call at Salen's Daguerrean Gallery, Congress Block, only one flight of stairs.

N. B.—Any size of picture taken from a small likeness of a Deceased Friend. m 6

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photographs in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

☞ The only place in this city where an Ambrotype can be obtained, is at Davis' Ambrotype Gallery, No. 3 Daniel Street, as they have the Patent, and all infringements will be prosecuted. sept9

☞ Notwithstanding the statements of competitor NEIGHBORS to the contrary, Gregory continues to make the MOST DURABLE Ambrotypes, Melainotypes, Photographs, and all other kinds of pictures that are worth making, at his OLD STAND No 87 Congress street, where he is ever happy to FIX the smiling faces of his friends and patrons.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!
AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.

DON'T fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. It lifts and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of Bottles of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.—None genuine unless the fac simile of "Curtis & Perkins" is on the outside wrapper.

TWENTY FIVE CENTS A BOTTLE.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to cause miscarriage, but at every other time, and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain Iron, Calomel, Antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada
JOB MOSES,
(late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and by Druggists in every town in the United States.

This institution was chartered in 1823, and has been in successful operation 35 years without sustaining a loss by bad investment. The investments are worth par, while they stand at 93.22 per cent., and safe beyond question. The number of depositors having open accounts is 5456, of which 2483 are male and 2973 females. A deposit made Dec. 17, 1823 of $20, now stands at $136.97, and will be increased in July next to over $150 by the extra dividend. The expenses the past year were $3,079.22. Treasurer's Bond is for $6000. No officer of the Bank is indebted. It has no bad or doubtful securities. Four per cent. annually is carried to the credit of depositors; every five years a surplus dividend is added, paying depositors near 7 per cent. No deposit is received from one person beyond $300.

LAW IN VERMONT.—On Saturday, the 19th inst., John Coffran was brought before Hon. Judge Pierpont, Judge of the Supreme Court, on a writ of habeas corpus. He had been tried before a Justice of the Peace for violating the law for "the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of drinking," and found guilty of four violations. It was proved on the trial that he had been twice previously adjudged guilty of the same offence, and he was accordingly sentenced to pay a fine of eighty dollars and the costs of prosecution, and also to be confined in the county jail for the space of three months. In accordance with the sentence he was committed. The habeas corpus was brought up by his attorneys, Jackson A. Vail of Montpelier, and George M. Fisk of Northfield, to test the legality of his imprisonment. After a full hearing, His Honor ordered the prisoner to be remanded to the custody of the jailor, to serve the remainder of his sentence.—Boston Jour.

MILTON, MASS.—Two persons were arrested on Tuesday, in Milton, Mass., who gave their names as "John Smith" and "Louis Kossuth," having in their possession sixteen birds called woodcocks, about two-thirds grown, probably most of them caught by their dog. They were taken before a justice and fined eighty dollars and costs, it being five dollars fine for each bird, according to the law. They paid the fine between them and left, cursing officers, lawyers, and the game law. We are glad to see something done in this matter, for young birds are taken without mercy when they are hardly feathered out and are unfit for the table or for a sport worthy the sportsman (if you can call them such) to shoot at. There are officers appointed to look after these trespassers, and are to put the law in force.—Boston Jour.

GIVEN UP.—With one accord the people of this State, as soon as the pleasant weather set in, gave up digging for gold, and commenced plowing and planting. We shall hear no more about gold in Iowa.—Burlington Hawkeye.

FROM WASHINGTON.—The New York Tribune correspondent says:—

"Some Southern members of the Cabinet are ready to become reconciled with Judge Douglas for the sake of the parties and his future co-operation, and to dismiss the offensive office-holders who have badgered him in Illinois. The President is willing to forgive but cannot forget. Messrs. Grund, Carpenter, Cook and their fellows received their inspirations from the White House, hence Mr. Buchanan is distinctly committed.

No disposition has yet been made of the Army, and through General Scott's programme is mainly made up, a decision will be postponed until information now on its way is received. At present it is determined that General Harney shall advance with reinforcements, so as to concentrate about three thousand troops in Utah, including General Johnston's command.—A portion of the forces in Kansas and elsewhere, originally designed for Utah, will be diverted to the North-west, where the principal fortifications will be opened on Bloody River, near the Canada frontier, in the heart of where the Indian depredations have been carried on. Others will be established according to necessity.

Judge Eckle's charge to the Grand Jury against polygamy in Utah is very annoying to the administration, and it is feared that it will make trouble. The doctrine asserted will be repudiated as neither law or common sense.

There is not a particle of truth in the Utah rumors that Colonel Kane has adopted Mormonism, or in any way has favored it as a form of belief. The report is equally unfounded that he intends returning to Utah.

"It would seem as if the very fiends had been let loose in Kansas recently, with a view to disgust us with our territorial condition and induce us to accept the English proposition, and come into the Union as a State. Horse-thieving and highway robbery are rife throughout the territory.—Hardly a day passes but the news of a dozen robberies and outrages reaches us. In most cases the robberies are confined to horses, but occasionally we hear of a traveller waylaid, or a store visited and plundered.

Armed bands of scoundrels traverse the territory without molestation or hindrance, robbing the pro-slavery men in the name of the free state cause, and professing to be Missourians whenever a free state man is victimized. The great mass of offenders go utterly unwhipt of justice.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—ABOUT FORTY PERSONS INJURED.—Wellsville, N. Y., June 25. A Masonic celebration was held in this place yesterday. After the oration, the meeting adjourned to a large hall for dinner. About 700 persons had entered the hall, when about half its floor gave way, precipitating about 300 of the company to the next floor, and at the same instant the floor above followed, with a quantity of cutters, farming mills, lumber, &c., burying the mass of people in the ruins. No one was killed, but from forty to fifty persons were wounded, some twenty of them badly. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf of Wellsville, Mrs. Daniel Dexter of Independence, Mrs. Colvin of Bingham, Pa., and a Mr. Johnson of Friendship, are reported dangerously injured.

At noon to-day all the sufferers were alive and most of them comfortable.

DANIEL WEBSTER AND THE SUPREME JUSTICES.—"An interesting incident has been related of the Hon. Daniel Webster, on the occasion of one of his last arguments before the Supreme Court. It is said that in closing his argument, Mr. Webster remarked to the Court, that all the then acting Judges had been elevated to the bench since his first acquaintance and practice in the Supreme Court; that in his capacity of Senator he had been called on to pass upon the merits of each member, when the nominations were before the Senate; and he added, as only Daniel Webster could say such a thing, "And your Honors will readily accord me the merit of having treated you all with equal consideration, inasmuch as I voted against every one of you"!

IPSWICH.—Robert McMahon, an Irishman, died very suddenly on Sunday. He was a man of intemperate habits and had been, with a companion, to the clam flats, where he ate some raw clams and drank rum. Soon after his return home he died.

We go to the grave of a friend, saying: "A man is dead;" but angels throng about him, saying: "A man is born."

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Located as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateurs, the house it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.
The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back, Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times.
ANDREW AMEE,
PROPRIETOR.

Private Summer Boarding.
FROM twenty to twenty-five persons, Families or single boarders, can be furnished with good accommodations for Summer recreation, at the house of the subscriber, on Sagamore Road, about 2½ miles from Portsmouth, and a short distance from the Ocean. YES, YOU MAY

READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHOON LAKE, Essex Co., N. Y., February 8, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning gray, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 8th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL D. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
TETFORD, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my hair having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to discovery, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his cleanny features bloom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked inside and outside of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and her roses all withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day

Into the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints, arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cured and laid in the tomb of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford such relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately hale and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough, and his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable name. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection against the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of

A FINE HEAD OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read all obtrusive eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, it need as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEED RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf more or less for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store about 7 of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, it is now two or three inches in length and seems all right. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—DEAR SIR: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head was almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two ball plat bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and I find it also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKSBURG, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I had experienced no benefit to any other. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything is conducted with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to secure tickets for whichever of the 3 lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be under their management every week throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize; Tickets are $5; halves $3; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn and result drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount which each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Augusta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unnatural cravings of mankind are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether male or female, or neuter, that CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone expeditiously all painful suffering, and restoring palpitation of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to those who have been long married, and to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral or other perfidious substances in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it known, that henceforth the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and that this will cause the Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be confined to well and woman; that is to say the PILLS MUST not be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. C. W. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4,231, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warranty deed, free from all encumbrances and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 19 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), new granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running into the kitchen. Fence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, the HOUSE and LOT on Hill and Bridge streets, now unroll, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold in parcels, the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent tillage, and more valuable than any other. The most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or to

je9 S. H. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street, in a pleasant location, and suitable for a large or small family.

If not soon sold, it will be let on a lease for a term of years, if a good offer is given by the first of July. Apply to J. M. EDMONDS.

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear.

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities required to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show to those who may favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them out for sea service.

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and thoroughly changed, and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poison and offensive tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice.

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles of different kinds cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

MR. BLIFKIN'S BABY.

The first baby was a great institution. Soon as he came into this "breathing world" as the late W. Shakspeare has it, took command in our house. Everything was subservient to him. The baby was the balance wheel that regulated everything. He regulated the temperature, regulated the food, he regulated me.—The first six months of that precious existence he had me up on an average six times a night.

"Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, "bring a light here do; the baby looks strange.

"I'm so afraid it will have a fit!"

Of course the lamp was brought, and of course the baby lay sucking his fist like a little white bear as he was.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "I think I need a draught of air; I wish you would get up and see if the window is not up a little, because baby might get sick."

Nothing was the matter with the window as I knew very well.

"Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, just as I was going to sleep again, "that lamp, as you placed it, shines directly in baby's face, strange that you should have no more consideration."

I arranged the light and went to bed once more.

Just as I was dropping to sleep again, "Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "did you think to buy that broma, to-day for the baby?"

"My dear," said I, "will you do me the justice to believe that I could overlook a matter so essential to the comfort of that estimable child?"

She apologized very handsomely, but made her anxiety the scapegoat. I forgave her, and without saying a word more to her, I addressed myself to sleep.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife shaking me, "you must not snore so, you will wake the baby."

"Jest so—jest so," said I, half asleep, thinking I was Solon Shingle.

"Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "will you get up and hand me the warm gruel from the nurse-lamp for baby!—the dear child! if it wasn't for his mother I don't know what he would do. How can you sleep so, Mr. Blifkins?"

"I suspect, my dear," said I, "that it is because I am tired."

"Oh, it's very well for men to talk about being tired," said my wife, "I don't know what you would say if you had to toil and drudge like a poor woman with a baby."

I tried to sooth her by telling her she had no patience at all, and got up for the night. Having aided in answering the baby's requirements, I went into bed again with the hope of sleeping.

"Mr. Blifkins," said she, in a louder key.

I said nothing.

"Oh, dear," said that inestimable woman in great apparent anguish, "how can a man who has arrived at the honor of a baby of his own, sleep when he don't know that the dear creature will live till morning?"

I remained silent, and after a while, seeming that Mrs. Blifkins had gone to sleep, I stretched my limbs for repose.—How long I slept I know not, but I was awakened by a furious jab in the forehead from some sharp instrument. I started up, and Mrs. Blifkins was sitting up in the bed adjusting some portion of the baby's dress. She had, in a state of somnolence, mistaken my head for the pillow, which is customarily used for a nocturnal pincushion. I protested against such treatment in somewhat round terms, pointing to several perforations in my forehead.—She told me I should willingly bear such trifling things for the sake of the baby. I insisted upon it that it was not my duty as parent to that young immortal to surrender my forehead as a pin-cushion.

This was one of my nights passed in this way. The truth was that the baby was what every other man's first baby is, an autocrat—absolute and unlimited.

Such was the story of Blifkins as he recited it to us the other day. It is a little exaggerated picture of almost every man's experience.—Bos. Sat. Gazette.

A VERY HARD CASE.—The New York Times tells the following:—

"An enterprising young man in Albany, a few years ago, who had what he considered to be a valuable medicine, which he wished to sell for the benefit of mankind, prevailed upon an old fellow of his acquaintance to join him in the business, and furnish him with the necessary capital to go ahead with. He came to New York, and at once entered upon a most profligate and ruinous course of advertising, which at last excited the alarm of the old gentleman of Albany, who came down to inspect the accounts of the concern, and to his utter consternation he discovered that his prodigal partner had spent his entire capital the first year in advertising. But examining a little further, he discovered that he was entitled to draw out more than five times the amount of the capital he had furnished, for his share of the profits. The astonishment of the poor old gentleman proved too much for him, for he went home and died in a fit. If merchants do not want to get rich too fast, they should be careful not to advertise."

Plain honesty is the very best kind of politeness, and temperance the best physician.

UNSUCCESSFUL IN LIFE.—There is truth beautifully expressed, and and words of cheer for multitudes, in the sentiment accredited to George S. Hilliard:

I confess that increasing years bring with them an increasing respect for those who do not succeed in life, as these words are commonly used. Heaven is said to be a place for those who have not succeeded upon earth; and it is surely true that celestial graces do not best thrive and bloom in the hot blaze of worldly prosperity.—Ill success sometimes rises from a superabundance of qualities in themselves good—from a conscience too sensitive, a taste too fastidious, a self-forgetfulness too romantic, a modesty too retiring. I will not go so far as to say, with a living poet, the "world knows nothing of its greatest men," but there are forms of greatness, or at least excellence, that die and make no sign; there are martyrs that miss the palm, but not the stake; there are heroes without the laurel, and conquerors without the triumph.

The ruffian, while striking down the champion of freedom, foolishly imagines that freedom herself is stricken down; but his blows really fall on the head of slavery, and are mortal.

A bad cause, like a leaky ship, has constantly to be pumped out to prevent it from sinking.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years in obtaining Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, on advantageous terms, the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, with the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. K. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1858.

BOWDOIN COMMENCEMENT.

BOWDOIN COLLEGE, ME., June 24, 1858.

Dear Chronicle:—We know there are many persons "at home" who take an interest in the affairs of our College, and possibly a programme of the exercises to take place at the coming commencement will not remain unread by them. And yet, while we wish to make our list as complete as possible, there is constantly before our mind one name which we must state before we shall be able to remember any others,—and that is the name of one whom you all love to claim as one of the "Sons"—Albert Laighton. He will deliver the usual poem before the United Literary Societies—before which Rev. Dr. A. P. Peabody delivered the oration last year. And perhaps it is not a small, compliment to Portsmouth that two of the four speakers who are usually invited to appear at each Commencement at Bowdoin, have been selected from their citizens within two years.

Rev. Theodore Parker, of Boston, has accepted an invitation to deliver the Oration before the same Societies on Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 3. This selection has occasioned some comment, both private and public. The Telegraph yesterday spoke very decidedly against it, stating that "Mr. Parker holds extreme opinions upon almost every subject and, when he speaks, regards little the proprieties of place or occasion; that he of late years, rejected as he has been by the Unitarians, of which body he was formerly a member, has run wild upon religious forms and faith, and exhibited a sourness of temper upon almost all subjects, anything but becoming to a literary man,—and that it is for this reason, and because no man can predict what Theodore Parker may say upon any public occasion, they pronounce the selection as unfortunate." However just all this may be, possibly there are some fears unexpressed, that Mr. P. will touch upon subjects which some would prefer to have passed over in silence on all public occasions. There is a little consolation, however, in the hope, which the Telegraph expresses, that "the speaker may do better than they anticipate he will do."

On the evening of Tuesday, Dodworth's celebrated N. Y. Band will give a concert, as usual, and the same band will furnish the music during the week.

On Wednesday, the Commencement exercises of the graduating class will take place. This class numbers forty members and they have "ranked high" during their connection with the College.

The annual convention of the Delta Epsilon Fraternity (one of the secret societies) will be held this year with the Bowdoin Chapter, on Thursday, Aug. 5, when Hon. Anson Burlingame, of Boston, Mass., will deliver the usual public Address, and Hamilton S. Dennis Esq., of Michigan, the Poem.

On Thursday morning, Prof. Alpheus S. Packard, of Bowdoin College, will deliver an Address before the Society of the Alumni, which was organized at the last Commencement.

Prof. Packard has issued a circular stating that "the Association of Alumni, of Bowdoin College, having been revived at the last Commencement, and an arrangement having been made for a public meeting of graduates, to be held every third year, on Thursday, with public exercises in place of those before the Phi Beta Kappa, the graduates of the College are invited to participate in the first meeting under this arrangement on Thursday, Aug. 5."

It seems highly probable that the coming Commencement exercises will not be wanting in interest to any one who takes an interest in old Bowdoin. We would extend a personal invitation to "F." did we not fear he would offer the old scripture excuse and "could not come."

Some poor fellow, wanting evidently in wit if not brains, recently sent a report to the Boston Traveller, that one of the students had committed suicide. There is no one here of exactly the name given, but it was near enough to alarm distant friends and relatives who might see the report.—Such hoaxes are more contemptible than some about which more stir is made.

Were you not slightly wrong in stating that our "editorial career was commenced in the Chronicle office?" We are not quite willing to grant that it has been commenced, but perhaps "John" remembers when the "Yeast for the Rising Generation" engaged our united attention out of, and perhaps somewhat in, "school hours." J. H. T.

Government is a divine ordinance, employing and demanding a high order of wisdom, justice and generosity in its administration.

THE GENERAL COURT of New Hampshire closed its session on Saturday. In the 25 days of their session they passed about 70 public acts and resolutions, 20 private acts; and the usual number of private resolutions; which last is only the payment of so many debts.

In the House, on Friday, the bill in relation to the rights of married women came up, and it was denied a third reading.

The bill in amendment of the act for the suppression of intemperance came up on its second reading, was read a second time, and ordered to a third reading.

The rules were suspended and the bill passed, after an unsuccessful motion that it be indefinitely postponed.

The bill then passed, yeas 154, nays 71.

The resolutions on slavery and national affairs were discussed in the evening, before a crowded assembly. The discussion was commenced by Mr. Todd, of Rindge, (he yielding the floor to Mr. Harriman on the preceding evening,) who delivered an earnest address of about half an hour. Mr. Bryant succeeded Mr. Todd, and closed the discussion, except a few explanatory remarks from Mr. Harriman. Before addressing the House, Mr. Bryant introduced the following resolve:

That Congress possesses the right to legislate for the Territories of the United States—a right so long exercised and so firmly established that it cannot now be questioned without insulting the intelligence of the American people, and the duty to exercise that right, or to advance the cause of universal liberty, cannot be abandoned without proving recreant to the spirit of the Declaration of Independence, and false to the memory of the founders of our glorious confederacy.

The question was then taken on the adoption of the resolutions as a whole, and they were adopted by the following yea and nay vote—yeas, 161; nays, 73.

A Senate message announced the passage of sundry bills and the rejection of others. The Candia Railroad bill was laid over till the next session, with an order of notice.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Count Sartiges yesterday had an official interview with Secretary Cass, during which he tendered the fullest and most satisfactory disavowals of all complicity by the French government in Mr. Belly's project in Nicaragua and Central America.

The Secretary of the Treasury invites sealed proposals until the 9th of August, for $10,000,000 of the stock of the United States, to be issued under the act of the 14th of June. It will be reimbursable in 15 years from the 1st of January next, and bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, payable semi-annually. No bids will be received below par and none for any fraction of $1,000. In all cases they must be unconditional, and without reference to the bids of others, and must state the premium offered therein. The successful bidders will be required to deposit the principal and premium of their accepted bids on or before the 1st of September.

CHICAGO.—A letter written to the Atlas says:—

Our city has gained a reputation abroad for being very near a second Sodom but any one who is familiar with our Courts cannot deny but what offenders have justice meted out to them with a perfect vengeance, especially by the Police Magistrates, who seem to understand that they are expected to collect enough to pay their own salaries and the bill of the Police also. The usual fine for being drunk and noisy is from three to five dollars, for abusing wives, and vice versa, twenty-five dollars, keepers of gambling saloons fifty dollars, proprietors of houses of ill-fame from fifty to one hundred dollars, and other offences in about the same proportion. For the week ending May 15th, the number of cases in the Police Court were one hundred and fifty-two, and the amount of fines assessed $1193; but only a very small part of those fines are paid, consequently the wretches are obliged to work them out at the rate of fifty cents per day pounding stone in the Bridewell. When the Democracy ruled the city, crime of all kinds was left unpunished, and villains of the worst description walked unmasked among us, but since the advent of Republicanism an entire change has taken place, and it is now a hard thing for violators of the laws to get clear. There are in this city nearly two thousand saloons, most of which are called "Lager Beer" shops, and over fourteen hundred of them pay an annual license of fifty dollars, amounting in the aggregate to quite an item towards swelling the treasury receipts. It is a mystery how so many saloons can live and pay expenses, but by some means they do keep their way clear. The German element amongst us have a world wide fame for drinking beer; lager shops, most every hot afternoon, are filled with the Dutch, who swill down glass after glass and still cry for more.

There can be no doubt but what lager is in a measure a preventive of drunkenness, for those who think they must wet their whistle about every hour are usually satisfied with a glass of lager, and it is an established fact than nine-tenths of the drunkenness is among the Dogans who swallow rot gut in all its purity and not among the more decent and respectable lager drinking Germans.

Were we to judge of mankind by the reports of their opponents, there would be no patriots in politics, no heroes in war, no learned lawyers, no honest tradesmen.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 26.—The Vanderbilt steamship Ariel, from Southampton 16th inst., for New York, was boarded off Cape Race yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, by the News Yacht of the Associated Press, and a summary of the leading features of her news forwarded to this place.

Her advice present no political features of special interest.

The Paris Moniteur, in referring to the statements of the British press, denies that any extraordinary war preparations are being made in France.

Gen. Espinasse has resigned the office of General Superintendent of Police, and received a seat in the Senate.

The screw steamer New York, of the New York and Glasgow line, was wrecked on the coast of Scotland on the 12th inst. Her passengers and crew were saved.

The authorities of Geneva have entered a protest against the expulsion of refugees, and demand that no expulsion act shall be enforced.

Later dates have been received from China.

It was rumored that the Chinese were preparing for a general attack on the Europeans, and that they intend to destroy the European dwellings on the Honan side of the river.

It was also reported that the Imperial troops had taken possession of Nankin.

The United States steam frigate Powhatan was at Hong Kong.

The submarine cable between Reggio and Messina had been successfully laid.

Brussels is being fortified at an enormous cost.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, June 16.—The late advices from America had a depressing effect upon the market, and all qualities have declined 1-8d.

LIVERPOOL BREADSTUFFS MARKET.—The weather had been favorable for the crops. Flour was steady, but sales had been unimportant. Wheat very dull and nominal.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

TWO WEEKS LATER.

NEW YORK, June 27.

Steamer Moses Taylor arrived at this port at an early hour this morning, with California mails and passengers of June 5. She left Aspinwall on the evening of the 19th, and brings $1,800,000 in treasure.

She reports at Aspinwall the U. S. Steamer Colorado, which arrived on the 17th from St. Domingo. The Jamestown, from Georgetown, touched the same day, and sailed again for Havana.

The Colorado reports that President Baez of the Dominican Republic, had capitulated to Santana and was to leave San Domingo on the 13th for Curacao. Most of his adherents left the day previously.

Gen. Santana had given to Com. McIntosh the strongest assurances of protection to American citizens, and desired him to express to his government his wish to maintain the most amicable relations with it. It is said the Commodore succeeded in obtaining from President Baez all document for which he had been sent. The Colorado was to sail on the 21st for Havana.

The Saranac and Vandalia were lying at Panama. The Decatur sailed on the 13th and the Merrimac on the 14th.

Schooner Laura Bevan, from San Pedro for Santa Barbara, has been lost with, it is said all on board. Among the passengers were T. A. Ayers, the artist.

Leonard Jervis of Claremont, Vt., committed suicide at Sacramento on the 27th of May.

Advices from Carson Valley state that fifteen Mormon families were on their way thither.

The San Francisco markets are generally dull. Financial maters are satisfactory and money easy.

The excitement in California, concerning the Frazer River gold mines continues.—3000 persons have already left San Francisco for that region.

The California mines were yielding largely, and accounts from every section were highly favorable.

The agricultural prospects of the State were never brighter, and a full harvest is confidently anticipated.

A fire at Nevada on the 23d of May, destroyed nearly all the the business portion of the city. Loss $130,000.

San Andreas, in Calaveras Co. was entirely destroyed by fire on the 2d of June.

Ten buildings were burned on Jackson street, in San Francisco, May 31. Loss $40,000.

The papers contain more than the usual amount of murders, assassinations, casualities, etc.

Advices from Oregon of May 24, announces a general Indian outbreak there.

Col. Steptoe's command on Snake river was attacked on the 16th of May, and forced to retreat, with a loss of 50 privates, 3 officers, 2 howitzers, baggage wagons and nearly all his animals. Three companies of dragoons and one of infantry were engaged with 1500 Indians. Of the officers killed were Capt. Winder and Lieut. Gassen.

☞ A Mrs. Underwood, belonging in Boston, while on the way home from Canada, stopped at the tavern of Patrick O'Sullivan in Buffalo, on the 22d inst., and while she was counting her money, about $100, O'Sullivan rushed into her room and snatched it from her hands. He was arrested.

Major Franklin W. Fish, "24 Foot Guards, U. S. Army" sojourning in Paris, who has been made the subject of newspaper comment, it has been ascertained is no humbug, but a genuine major, commander of the 23d Company Governor's Foot Guards, Connecticut State Militia.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CONSUMPTION.

How many diseases of debility, incurable by ordinary medicines, are classed by physicians, as well as the public, under the convenient term Consumption! All of them agree in one thing, their fatal tendency; and most of them, in their primary and even secondary stages, may be arrested by purifying the springs of life through the renovating agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills during pregnancy, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; but otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ We understand that Stillman B. Allen Esq. of Maine, is appointed Clerk of the U. S. Navy Yard at Kittery, vice Wm. Hammond, Esq. removed. The salary, is $1200. Mr. Allen is a lawyer, a good penman, and a man of business, and will no doubt discharge his official duties faithfully. He is, moreover, one of the hardest possible specimens of Buchanan democracy, following the fortunes of his chief and his party through thick and thin, among hedges and ditches. It is to be considered a political reward for partisan services.

TOURNIAIRE & WHITBY'S CIRCUS.—This grand combination of French English and American Equestrian and Gymnastic talent will give two exhibitions to-day. They were detained by thick weather, having come in a steamer from East Greenwich.—From their high reputation elsewhere we have no doubt they will give a fine and satisfactory performance.

We have received a communication signed GOSPORT, designed to correct "several misstatements" in an article on the Gosport school difficulty. The most material error noticed is, that we understood and stated the school to be a charity school,—but "Gosport" tells us that—"We support the school in summer from our own pockets," and in another place, that "the school now at the shoals is kept by an instructress, who was engaged, is boarded, and her wages paid, by the people of Gosport." One correction less material is, that Gosport states Mrs. Beebes not for her husband, who came in at her call, and did not happen in.

We did not get our version of the story from Mr. Beebe—and we supposed and understood the school was now, as we knew it had been, a mission school. If it were not, then Mr. B. had no more legal right to administer punishment, than Mr. A or Mr. C. And the merits of the case really rest, in great measure, on this very point.

A RARE CHANCE.—Messrs. Allen & Paine offer, during this week, their entire stock of Visites, Mantillas and Stella shawls at cost—giving a fine opportunity to get a nice article for a small sum.

☞ Mr. Wm. Hughes, the Pedestrian who last week performed the feat of walking 100 miles in 28 hours, will give a sparring exhibition at the Temple, some time during the present week.

☞ Diman's strawberries are in a flourishing condition. People seem to appreciate his endeavors to please, as large parties have made arrangements to be there to-day, to-morrow, and the next day after.

"LUCKY DOG."—It is said that one of the sailors who arrived here in the sloop Portsmouth, by the name of Rome, comes into possession of a fortune of $40,000 by the death of an uncle at the South.

☞ A meeting of the Committee of Arrangements will be held this evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Mercantile Rooms.

E. P. NOWELL, Sec'y.

SLAVERS CAPTURED.—Advices from Sierra Leone of 22d April state that brig Caroline, Capt. Gibbs, from Boston, arrived on the 15th, in tow of the British steamer Electra, captured as a slaver, but was subsequently released as a lawful trader.

Schooner General Scott had been captured as a slaver and brought into port.

Since the first of April, schooner Wintemoyah, for Boston; brig R. M. Charlton, from Savannah; bark Almeda, for Boston; and bark Minnetouka, for New York, had been captured as slavers.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—St. John's, N. F., June 27, 6 P. M.—Nothing has yet been heard of the steam frigate Niagara, now about due at Trinity Bay, with her end of the Atlantic cable. She is now hourly expected, and should the enterprise prove successful, may make her appearance at any moment. The weather is very clear and fine at Cape Race, and no steamer has been seen to pass to-day. The news yacht of the Associated Press is on the lookout.

A destructive hail storm passed over the valley of the Cotocoocsk river in Hopkinton on Friday, the 25th inst., seriously injuring the crops, over a space of some four miles, and destroying much other property. In one house sixty lights of glass were broken. Hailstones fell measuring four or five inches in circumference.—Patriot.

☞ Mrs. Littles, tried at Rochester, N. Y., for the murder of her husband, was found guilty of manslaughter in the second degree on Saturday last, and sentenced to Sing Sing Prison for seven years.

Mrs. Sarah Prescott, a niece of Col. Wm. Prescott, one of the Commanders at Bunker Hill, died in Boston on the 18th inst., of paralysis, aged 86 years.

MARRIED.

Trial of Engines.

JULY 5.

AT precisely 6 o'clock A. M., the Engines shall be on the ground between Court and State streets. At a given signal the Engines will start, —separately, according to their numbers,—and the Engine which shall go from the above place to the Reservoir, reel off 200 feet of hose, up Market street, and bring water to the end of the Pipe, in the least time, shall receive as a Prize

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10.00.

The Engines will, after the above trial takes place, limber up and retire to the easterly side of the Reservoir.

The Engines will then, according to their numbers, take ground near the Reservoir, draft and play a horizontal stream through 300 feet of hose. The several Engines shall play through any size pipe they may choose, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet will receive a prize of

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10.00.

Flags will be placed up Congress street, with the distance marked on each flag, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet by the flags will receive the prize as above. No Engine will be allowed over 40 men, except No 4, which shall have her full complement of 50 men. In case of an Engine bursting hose she shall be allowed a reasonable time to procure new hose. Each Engine shall have three lengths of Suction Hose when they play the Horizontal Stream.

No Engine will be allowed to compete for the prizes unless they intend appearing in the Procession.

The Judges are—J. G. Hadley, John Stokells, Jacob Clockett, James Weekes, Gideon Gavour, Sampson B. Lord. Referee—N. D. Miller.

The Truckmen.

THE Truckmen of this city are respectfully invited to parade in the Procession on the 5th of July. A meeting for choice of Officers and other business will be held at Jefferson Hall, this evening at 8 o'clock

AN IMPORTANT ERROR.—A typographical error in the communication from Lawrence, Mass., respecting the trial of the steam fire engine which has been built in that city, made its weight "eight hundred." It should have been "eighty hundred"—quite an important difference.

Rev. Mr. Storrs, of Cincinnati—his people having voted him a furlough of six months—has gone to Marietta, taken a horse, and in the style of the old New England divines, is to take the "overland route" to New England.

ARRIVAL OF FOREIGN EMIGRANTS.—The emigration from Europe to the United States, is very light this year, and likely to be much smaller than for many years past. The number arrived at New York, this year; up to the 23d June, is only 30,450, a falling off of 51,159 from the number arrived up to the same time in 1857.

THE INVITATION OF HENRY WARD BEECHER.—A few days since we copied an article which has obtained a wide currency in the newspapers, that on the occasion of the communion at Mr. Beecher's church, the first Sabbath of this month, he extended an invitationto all who considered themselves Christians, to unite with his church in celebrating the ordinance, whether members of any church or not, contrary to the usages of Congregational churches. A gentleman of this city, who was present on the occasion, states that this is incorrect; that the invitation, though somewhat wordy, contained nothing which could be construed as a departure from established custom.—Lowell Courier.

Indeed! then the frightened ones have been scared as easily as was the Yorkshire peasant who had seen a ghost.

"Where did you see it?" said the minister.

"In the church-yard sir."

"What did it look like?"

"It was in the shape of a great ass up against the wall of the church."

"Ah! you are a very foolish man, and have been frightened at your own shadow."

COST OF LUXURIES.—A New York paper says that in all the villages of Saxony, men, women and children are engaged in making the beautiful lace for which that country is famed; and that when, by the toil of the whole village, enough is ready to make a pack, it is slung over a woman's shoulders, who, poorly clad and without shoes to her feet, takes it to the merchants, who pay in cents for that which brings them dollars. To make their beautiful embroidery, poor women in Saxony and Switzerland are employed by merchants and paid three cents a day, and many are groping in blindness who have wrought their eyes into these delicate meshes.

"Well, Annie, how do you get along with that stupid fool of a lover of yours? Did you succeed in getting rid of him?" "O, yes, I got rid of him very easily. I married him, and have no lover now."

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well rigged field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That sorts down grass and grain, without showing few
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
Together the scatterings of hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, great temper, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling. O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers the centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated on the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Conveyance leaves every day for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times.

READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness, when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had recourse to your Coloring, and when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me, and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL P. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims.
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Ayer's CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quickly, so surely, so safely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health comes anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children will take it in sweets with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten and his countenance lose its long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with quackery which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatic pains in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can remedy; see him go out of them a sound man, and now he walks along; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again — the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lurked the pale form sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the agonized truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the virulent and dangerous diseases against which they are aimed to destroy, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old — they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box — 5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized man, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers whose decay seemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of one who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now. Every cough is loosened, the lungs are healed, he has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found without some living witness of the power of this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the purest sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

A FINE HEAD OF

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids; and, in short, for a dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or the dress in style, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEAR SIRS, COXSACKIE, July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw a New Haven paper, and read "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it took the dandruff and removed the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—DEAR SIR: Your Hair Restorative is proving most beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever, and think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 23, 1853

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers are authorized and put on their oath, to make known to the public the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the receipt thereof. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets will be sent unless accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no complicated scheme to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: New York Herald, Delta, Mercury, Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly and distinctly. S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full— no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound ignorance BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are above the certain pernicious effects of other Pills, and so harmless to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral s, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when MARVELLOUS cures have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst their sisters throughout creation, always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered SOLE and VOID; that is to say the PILLS WERE NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING condition, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1, to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thor. ough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for any gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington, a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD I. HILL, or to

S. B. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street, convenient, in a quiet location, and suitable for a large or small family.

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered of very inferior quality by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed, and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poison gas and of stagnant air.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, celiaic fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

VALUABLE BOOKS.

PUBLICATIONS OF CROSBY, NICHOLS & Co., BOSTON.—This is one of the most prominent and respectable publishing houses in Boston. Their list embraces a wide range of theological, educational, and miscellaneous works, prepared by authors of talent and learning. They are unexceptionable in their moral tendency, printed in good type, which the thousands with eyes weakened by the fine print of so much of our cheap literature are begining to appreciate, and bound neatly and substantially.

We have been recently looking over some of their publications, and have thought we should do a service to the public by making more known some of those which strike us peculiarly worthy of commendation.

"Christian Days and Thoughts." This is a work by the late lamented Rev. Ephraim Peabody, D. D., of Boston. It was prepared from his writings, by his dying request, as a legacy of the most precious kind to the world. It contains an account of fourteen days observed by the Christian Church, such as Advent, Christmas, Easter, &c., with thoughts suggested by each. These thoughts are indeed jewels of rare value, and will be regarded as a rich addition to the religious literature of the country. The style is peculiarly attractive; and the devotional spirit pervading every sentence will find its way to the heart of the reader. The mechanical execution is worthy the publishers and the thoughts—rich old English type—elegant binding such as we like to look upon. A prettier or a more appropriate gift book we have rarely seen, and we doubt not it will find its way into general favor,

"Sermons for the People," by Rev. Dr, Huntington, has been issued but a little time, yet it is in its fifth edition. As the title indicates, it consists of sermons for the people. In the midst of so great religious interest, it is peculiarly a book for the times. It is the earnest appeal of a faithful Christian minister, anxious for the good of mankind, and urging to religion as the necessity of all, a spiritual want without which the soul is barren and unsatisfied. It is eminently practical, aimed at the heart and understanding of its readers; its style is clear, persuasive, rich and eloquent, like all that comes from its gifted author.

Though still a young man, Prof. Huntington is one of the ablest and most esteemed of New England divines. We think this the most useful of his published works, and believe it will be most read. It has a permanent value, and can be read and re-read, with renewed interest and profit.

"Christian Consolation," by Rev. Dr. Peabody of Portsmouth, is a collection of sermons originally delivered to his own society. They were designed to present the consolations of the Christian religion in seasons of trial, a portion of them being written in cases of individual affliction.—Most of the sermons, however, have an application to the feelings and situation of all. Mankind are linked together by common griefs and sympathies, and the same consolations are suited to all. Few clergymen in this day of ministerial itineracy have labored longer in one location than Dr. Peabody, or more united in himself the confidence and attachment of his people. We are glad others have been permitted to partake of some portion of the food on which they have so long fed. The ripe scholarship and warm heart of the author are seen on every page.

"Thoughts to Help and to Cheer" contains a thought for every day in the year, illustrated and enforced by a passage of scripture, remarks and poetry. We cannot better show the design and character of the volume than by quoting what is said of faith under April 30th, the first meeting our eye as we open its pages—"Without faith it is impossible to please God; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is the rewarder of those that diligently seek him."

Faith is the very life of the spirit; how shall we maintain it—how increase it? By living it. Faith grows with well doing. What little faith you have, only live it for one day, and it will be stronger tomorrow.

"'Tis by the faith of joys to come
We walk through deserts dark as night,
Till we arrive at heaven our home,
Earth is our guide, and faith our light."

"At Home and Abroad by: Madame Osoli.," Shortly after Margaret Fuller died, for by that name is she best known, a biography of her was prepared bp Ralph Waldo Emerson and James Freeman Clark, which was read with great interest, heightened by her sad end. Not long after a collection of her writings was issued—"Woman in the Nineteenth Century," the title of the leading article. Wo were not entirely pleased with these writings; though displaying talent and thought, they were, to a certain extent, vague and dreamy. It seemed as if she was not always herself sure what the meant. Of far more value is the present volume. She here deals with the real and not the ideal. It contains a "Summer on the Lakes;" "Things and Thoughts in Europe;" "Letters from abroad to friends at home," and "Homeward Voyage and Memorials!" Much information is contained in the work, especially of the Italian Revolution, with the thoughts and impressions of a remarkable woman. Some one thus speaks of her; "America has produced no woman who in mental endowments and acquirements has surpassed Margaret Fuller," She is said to have produced a stronger impression by her personal intercourse than by her writings. Her powers of conversation were remarkable. In this respect, however, we think ladies excel, as evidence of which we need not go beyond the limits of our own city. The work is edited by her brother, Arthur B. Fuller.

"Pictures of Europe" is by Rev. C. A. Bartol, a scholar and thinker. It is not like so many offsprings of travel, a mere repetition of "Murray's Guide Books;" it has in fact but little of detail; but the pictures formed in his mind by his observation and contemplation are hung up to our gaze, beautiful in themselves, and in the pure English in which they are framed. The author says, "I have not told everything, but the things which made on me the strongest impressions, letting all the rest like the showers I passed through on my way flow off;" and so he has given us a picture of the "Beauty of the World," of the "Mountains," "Rivers," "Lakes," "Society," "Church," &c., &c., forming a gallery valuable and suggestive indeed.—Little as works by returned tourists are now valued, all who read this volume will thank Mr. Bartol for its publication. At the close is an interesting account of Dr. Talbot's ascent of Mount Blanc, which made us strongly wish to pack up our valise and start for Switzerland.

We may at some future time speak of other publications of this firm.—Newburyport Herald.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I record him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30, 1858.

For the Chronicle.

WILLIE'S DOWNFALL

I did not know Willie while young, but I believe that in early life one if not both of his parents were removed from him by death. In circumstances rather indigent, he was thrown upon the mercy of the world—sometimes living in families that exerted a good influence over him, and sometimes in those not good. At length he became a mechanic, was a good workman, and while living in one of the most respectable families in the place, I there first saw him. I called there, expecting to meet a man of one of the learned professions, whom I had not seen. Willie was there, and so manly was his deportment that I supposed at first he was the professional gentleman.

Willie was not known then to have any very bad habits. A few knew that when abroad he would take a glass of spirits occasionally, but it was not thought he was in great danger. Young men, however, should beware. Very many of them, who drink, will fall into habits of confirmed intemperance. There is no safety only in abstinence.

About this time Willie became acquainted with Jenny. I knew her too. For a time she had been in poor health; but recovering, her heart was buoyant with hope of future enjoyment. Willie was to be her end and protector on life's rough sea.—And he delighted in her. They were married and seemed happy.

What a pity they could not have remained so. But, alas! the enemy was near. Strong drink was retailed, and Willie would spend a portion of his evening at dram shops. The habit of drinking grew upon him, and he in a very few short years was a drunkard. He neglected his business, neglected his family, even his two lovely children. He did not seem to know what it was to love them. His wife was treated with coldness, and sometimes with mean insolence and contempt.

Do liquor-dealers ever realize what misery, desolation and ruin they are sending forth into the community? Do they know that they are changing peaceful homes into bedlams, causing men to become fiends, and prostrating rising hopes of future eminence and bliss? They might know this. And realizing it is sufficient to induce them to stop their awful business.

Months passed, Willie lived, but those who once knew him could say, "If thou art he, but oh, how fallen!" He lived so near Portsmouth that some engaged in the traffic there had a chance to help him down to the drunkard's grave. He applied to them, and they sold him the fiery poison. Now, all that he really desired was liquor. He became so furious that his wife had to leave him, and poorly cared for by a few, he lingered for a few days and passed away.

His wife and children now live, but are away from where these awful scenes transpired. Do they not curse those who ruined the husband and father; does not a voice from the ground where his body lies cry out for vengeance? Let every effort be made to stay the desolating tide of intemperance. Domestic peace and the lives of our young men and others are too valuable to be sacrificed in this way. J. P.

☞ The stagnation of labor is shown by the recent letting of contracts on the Sudbury and Erie Railroad. Some twenty-five sections, embracing only thirty-three miles of road, were advertised to be given out, yet contractors came in crowds with bids for the work. More than 600 bids were given in, and the work was distributed among nineteen contractors, at prices lower than have been known for years among railroad builders. This result may be vastly beneficial to the Sudbury and Erie road, but it is disastrous to the poor laborers.

PROMPT.—The Louisville (Ky.) Observer says that a special term of the Jessamine Circuit Court was held at Nicholasville, on Thursday, for the trial of Joshua H. Arnold for the murder of his wife on the first day of June. A jury was empanelled, the testimony heard, a verdict of guilty rendered, and the sentence of death pronounced against the prisoner that day. He is to be executed on the 24th of July.

POVERTY AND CRIME.—From statistics published in hand-bills by the "Citizens League," it appears that about one-eighth of the people of Boston are arrested every year by the police, and one-eighth assisted by the overseers of the poor. The liquor traffic is strongly suspected of having some connection with this matter.—Boston Visiter.

FROM EUROPE.—Steamer Arabia at Halifax has the English mails of June 19th.—The Gulf Visitation question is settled.—The Crown lawyers had decided against the right of England in time of peace to visit ships of other nations, and Lord Derby's government had made their decision a basis of action. Nevertheless it was incidentally still a matter of debate in Parliament Consols 95 3-4; Cotton delined 1-8. The news from France and the Continent is not important. The details of the India news had reached England.—Russell, the correspondent of the Times, had been prostrated by the sun.

The steamer Anglo-Saxon arrived at Quebec on Sunday, with Liverpool dates to the 16th and the latest budget of India news. The rebels have regained several previously lost positions, and have been successful in a few slight engagements.—

The foreign plenipotentaries at Hongkong have gone North, and it is said that foreigners in Canton have been warned to leave, or submit to the burning of their houses, and to be driven away. Five U. S. vessels are now in the China seas.

On the 17th, in the house of lords, the bishop of Oxford presented a petition from Jamaica touching the slave trade, and called the attention of the house generally to the subject. He contended that the present threatening aspect of affairs in the west was occasioned by having so long permitted Spain to break treaty engagements and to continue Cuba as a provocative of dangerous extremities. If Spain would at once give up the slave trade and convert Cuba into a colony for employing free African labor, the desire which many persons in the United States expressed to annex the island would be entirely removed.

REVOLUTIONIZING A PLANTATION.—One of the editors of the New York Evening Post, now travelling at the South, tells the following story, related by Colonel Strother, of Berkley Springs, Va., who is the "Porte Crayon" whose illustrated articles in Harpers' Monthly have delighted the readers of that magazine. It was about an energetic young naval officer who determined to introduce the discipline of the service and the modern improvements upon his newly inherited estate on the James River, which, under bad management, had gone far into dilapidation. On his arrival he ordered the old crazy plows, the spades, rakes and other antiquated implements to be collected in a heap and burned, in presence of the whole plantation.—The next day the miserable horses and cattle were collected together and shot. On the day following the old barns and out houses were fired and consumed. On the next day he commanded the terror-stricken slaves to be led out, and the overseer to pronounce which of them were inefficient and deserving of death. About one hundred and fifty were picked out and led to execution. An immense howl and outcry of memory, mingled with promises of good behavior, arose. The master at first appeared immovable, but the prearranged intercession of the overseer finally induced him to relent, and allow them a further probation of a year and a half. At this exhibition of clemency, the gratitude of the poor negroes knew no bounds. A new spirit of industry seized them, and in a year or two, with the erection of new buildings and the introduction of new methods of agriculture, the energetic young master could boast of one of the best ordered and most productive plantations in the State.

Capt. Seth Barton, U.S.A., is suspended from rank and command for three months, and restricted within the limits of his post, for having a citizen whipped by one of his soldiers. The Secretary of War approves the sentence.

Uncle Toby does not approve it: it is too light. Capt Barton should have been put into the black hole for three days, worn the ball and chain in the fort three months; and then been drummed out of camp and dismissed.—Privates have suffered these things for smaller offences.—And we do not believe in making fish of one and flesh of the other.

STATE PRISON STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—On Saturday, just before 1 o'clock, Concord was visited by a thunder shower and sharp lightning, one bolt of which started down the lightning rod at the State Prison. The connexion being defective, the lightning passed into the building through the stone walls, and then following the steam pipes it went into the cook room, knocking the cook backwards, breaking considerable crockery, stunning one of the prisoners in his cell, and then disappeared. —Ind. Democrat.

ILLINOIS SENATOR.—The black republican State Convention, recently held, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That Hon. Abram Lincoln is our first and only choice for United States Senator, to fill the vacancy about to be created by the retirement of Hon. Stephen A. Douglas."

This don't look much like their supporting Mr. Douglas.—Concord Patriot.

No: truly it does not. It looks as if they confided more in their old and well tried friends than in those new or doubtful.

☞ The recent religious interest is said to still continue with much power in Philadelphia. It is doing a great work among the firemen. Evening meetings are held in almost all the engine houses under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, and with the most gratifying results. The work is also said to have reached the omnibus drivers, a hard set of fellows, many of whom are endeavoring to forsake the paths of impiety and profanity, and live Christian lives. In the Pennsylvania coal mines the revival is also now being felt, and the miners are turning from the ways of sin to the paths of holiness. In New York, the Commercial Advertiser says, "the religious meetings are still going forward, and the prayer-meetings in the lower part of the city are attended by larger numbers than the most sanguine friends of the measure anticipated."

LOST HIS LOBBY FEE.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Mercury tells the following story:

Two or three years ago the railway lines between Albany and Buffalo were consolidated, under the title of the New York Central. Thurlow Weed of the Albany Evening Journal, engineered the matter through the Legislature, and for this service was to receive the handsome sum of $8000, of which Erastus Corning was to furnish $4000 and Dean Richmond 4000. The plan succeeded, and the money was paid over. But as Mr. Weed didn't think it would look well to have the stock stand in his own name, he made it over to an old and particular friend of his—Mr. McIntosh—who had made money as a railroad contractor. It was understood between the parties that McIntosh was to hold the stock, and then quietly make it over to Weed. But, unluckily, McIntosh died, and forgot to leave a will. So the administrators, in making up the account of the assets, stumbled upon the certificates for this $8000, and put them down to Mr. McIntosh's credit, supposing, of course, they were his. The debts were his. The debts were paid and a handsome balance was left for the widow, Mrs. McIntosh, who was married a few weeks ago to Mr. Ex-President Fillmore. Thurlow's eight thousand dollars went along with the widow, into the arms of the man whom Thurlow hates probably as badly as one man can hate another. For a politico-scandalous yarn it is not bad, and makes fun.

SPIRITUAL FUNERAL.—There was a "Spiritual" funeral at Manchester, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremonies were commenced by the singing of an appropriate hymn by some of the ladies and friends in attendance, after which Miss Emma Houston, a trance speaker, offered up a prayer, and then she proceeded to address the assembled friends. The wife of the deceased and her sister wore for mourning habiliments white shawls, with bonnets trimmed with white, and veils of the same color.

A SUPPERLESS WEDDING PARTY.—At a large wedding party at New Orleans, not long ago, the guests were cheated out of their supper in a novel way. A gang of thieves having entered the dining room by a back window, gathered the edges of the table cloth together, and folding it into a bundle, made off with everything that was upon the table, including the family plate, valued at some hundreds of dollars. When supper was announced the table was there, and nix besides.

☞ During the hot weather of the last few days, there have been deaths in many places, attributed to sun-stroke, water-drinking, &c. Near White River Junction, Vt., an Irish laborer, employed by the Vermont Central Railroad as section hand, drank a quart or more of well water, after getting very warm at his work, and died within fifteen minutes afterwards, on Saturday.

The names of twenty-three persons who were sun-struck in New York and vicinity from Saturday to Monday are given, fourteen of whom died, and there were some ten or twelve cases on the coroners' slates which had not been investigated.

At Philadelphia on Sunday five persons died from the effects of the heat.

The New York Evening Post says:

The means of prevention are simple.—Persons in sound health are seldom attacked; previous debility, general depression of the vital forces, unusual and excessive physical exertion, violent gusts of passion, excessive drinking of cold water, or of alcoholic beverages, superadded to exposure to the summer sun or a hot fire, create the danger.

Careful moderation in these particulars will generally secure exemption. The Arab, wandering in the arid desert, subsisting on camel's milk and a few vegetables, usually enjoys immunity; his blood is not vitiated by stimulating food or unwholesome drinking. Fishermen for the sake of protection sometimes fill their hats with moist sea-weed; though any large leaves, or even a wet cloth upon the head, will answer as well. This is an infallible preventive, and should be more generally observed by working men.

☞ Mr. Sinclair, the Scotch Temperance Lecturer, has been lecturing in New York State, speaking in Albany last Sunday, "six times." He is to be at Watertown, Mass., July 3d and 4th.

"FOR WANT OF A NAIL," &c., was illustrated at the burning of the Housatonic paper-mill, mentioned this week. As soon as fire was discovered, a watchman ran to the force pump which would have put it out at once, but he was unable to make the connection as the wrench had been mislaid! Owing to the delay thus caused, the building and stock worth $130,000 were destroyed, and 120 persons thrown out of employment for months. There is a moral to this account. Don't forget it!—Lowell News.

The whole "wise saw" is like this:—"For want of a nail the shoe was lost, for want of the shoe the horse was lost," and by the fall of the horse the rider broke his neck.

☞ Martin Kosta, the Hungarian refugee who was rescued from the Austrian authorities in 1853, by Commander Ingraham, of the United States Navy, died recently in very indigent circumstances, on a sugar plantation, near the city of Guatemala.

LOCAL.

"RETRENCHMENT AND REFORM." — We learn that orders have been received from head quarters, to discharge the following officers from the Custom House, in this city, and to dispense with their offices.

Samuel Rowe, Inspector; Wm. Frye, Measurer; Enoch Bartlett, Dep. Inspector; and three Night Watch.

We understand that some inspectors at Lancaster, &c. are to be dismissed in like manner.

☞ As Uncle Toby was looking round for an item on Tuesday afternoon, he came to a man in Middle street, lying in the gutter, fast asleep, with his hat off, and his cheek pressed to the ground. He was evidently a laboring man and not a loafer, for his hands were hardened inside with toil, and his clothes were not of the shabby genteel order, but in good working day trim. How came he here? has he a fit? No, no: he has evidently been taking some exhilarating beverage, with the idea that it is good and wholesome and refreshing, this hot weather. And this is how much good it has done him. It has made him drunk and landed him in the gutter.

☞ The U. S. Circuit Court is now holding an adjourned session in this city. Present, Judge Clifford, presiding, being his first term here; and Judge Harvey of the N. H. district. The case of Ferdinand Clark, in Bankruptcy, is on trial as the principal business.

Rev. J. M. C. Bartley, has closed his ministry with the Congregational Church in Hampstead. His pastorate commenced in October 1836, and continued 21 and a half years. He had been settled longer than any minister now over a Church in the County. The one now longest over a Church, is Rev. J. Page of Atkinson, who commenced there in June 1845. I believe however, he has not been settled, but is a stated supply. The next longest in point of time is Rev. L. Thayer of Windham, who commenced there Nov. 1845.—Exeter News Letter.

Rev. Andrew J. Peabody, D. D. of this city, pastor of the South Church, was ordained here in 1833, about 25 years ago.

This society is evidently doing good; and deserves the approbation and encouragement of every good citizen.

LAUNCH.—The new ship at the South End ship-yard of Messrs. Marcy & Pettigrew was safely launched on Monday night. Her name we understand to be Orozimbo, and her burthen 1000 tons.

☞ Mr. Wm. Hughes, the Pedestrian who last week performed the feat of walking 100 miles in 28 hours, will give a sparring exhibition at the Temple, on Friday evning next. Mr. H. has performed in various parts of the country, and from this vicinity goes to Melbourne, via St. John. Admission—gentlemen, 25 cents; ladies, 15.

☞ At a special meeting of the Board of Engineers of the Fire Department, held at the Court House, June 21st, 1858,

Voted, that the several Engine Companies be allowed to take out the engines on the morning of July 5th, and to play through 300 feet of hose, and with a one inch pipe, and not less.

L. CORTON, Chief Engineer.

☞ The coal strike, in the region of Pottsville, is at an end. Prices continue very low there, and while freights to the East are without charge, the accumulations of coal are very large. Manufacturing is so depressed that the demands in many cases will not be one-half what they were last year.

The African Methodist Church of the United States, which is of recent date, already numbers 30,000 members, and 300 ministers. It owns Wilberforce University, near Xenia, Ohio, where Bishop Paine, the head of the church, resides.

Is this so?—If so, how long has it had a sectarian or separate existence? And what can be the use of it? Does it believe in a different gospel from the Methodist E. Church, or the Methodist Church South? Can any body tell us?

Edward McCole, an old gentlemen with a young wife, at Fort Ridgley, Minnesota, in a fit of jealousy lately shot his wife and then committed suicide. He was rich, and the unfortunate girl paid a fearful penalty for marrying for money.

MORE DEPRECIATION. — Thursday, at Lawrence, a paper mill that four years ago was started at a cost of $142,000, was put up at auction; the highest bid received was $25,500, and the property was withdrawn, to be put up again when there is a better opportunity.—Manchester Mirror.

MARINE CHRONICLE.

PORT OF PORTSMOUTH.

MONDAY, June 28.

Ar brig Grecian, Mathes, Philadelphia.
steamer American Eagle, Slocum, from East Greenwich, R I, with Circus troupe.

Ship Venice, Whitman, from Liverpool, arr at New York 28th.

The ship Hortense, fm Calcutta, put back May 3 leaky, having rolled over a wreck off Fultah, cargo damaged.

LATER FROM UTAH.— St. Louis, June 28. A despatch from Leavenworth of 24th inst., by the U. S. Express Company to Boonville, says that an express from Camp Scott, bringing dates to the 10th, 5 days later than by mail, just arrived. Letters from the garrison by this arrival report Col. Hoffman within one and Capt. Marcy within two days march of Fort Bridger.—It was stated that Gov. Cumming felt considerable distrust of the Mormons and their promises, and that the army would break camp and march on the capital by the 15th inst. There would be an efficient and well-armed force of 2500 men, provisions in plenty, and the troops eager for the command to march.

The Trial of General Lane.—A despatch from Leavenworth of the 24th, says that the testimony in the case of Gen. Lane was concluded to-day, and to-morrow is fixed for the argument. Public opinion is too much divided to allow a prediction of the result.

TRIAL FOR SHOOTING A SEDUCER. — In New Orleans there has recently been a very exciting trial for murder, before Judge Hunt, of the First District Court. Mr. Harby, a much respected citizen, was tried for murder, in having shot and killed one Charles H. C. Stone, the alleged seducer of his daughter under promise of marriage. He was acquitted, and the crowds out of doors greeted him with cheers.

MECHANICS AND TRADERS VS. THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.—The whole number of places in Boston for the sale of liquor is supposed to be 3500. If they receive three dollars each per day from Boston people, it amounts in a year to about three and a half millions of dollars. This money would be distributed among laborers, manufacturers, mechanics and traders, if it were not spent for rum. The shoemaker or seller, would get it for shoes,—the hatter for hats,—the dry goods dealer for his goods,—the provision dealer,—in a word, every dealer, and every mechanic and workman that furnishes or produces anything necessary to the comfort of man, would get his share of it.

Laborers! Mechanics! Traders! the Citizens League propose a plan whereby you may vote yourselves a share of that money at the next city election.—Boston Visitor.

☞ Business in Canada is very inactive. In the larger cities, the complaint of hard times is almost universal.

Trial of Engines.

JULY 5.

AT precisely 6 o'clock A. M., the Engines shall be on the ground between Court and State streets. At a given signal the Engines will start, —separately, according to their numbers,—and the Engine which shall go from the above place to the Reservoir, reel off 200 feet of hose, up Market street, and bring water to the end of the Pipe, in the least time, shall receive as a Prize

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10.00.

The Engines will, after the above trial takes place, limber up and retire to the easterly side of the Reservoir.

The Engines will, after the above trial takes place, limber up and retire to the easterly side of the Reservoir.

The Engine will then, according to their numbers, take ground near the Reservoir, draft and play a horizontal stream through 350 feet of hose. The several Engines shall play through any size pipe they may choose, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet will receive a prize of

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10 00.

Flags will be placed up Congress street, with the distance marked on each flag, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet by the flags will receive the prize as above. No Engine will be allowed over 40 men, except No 4, which shall have her full complement of 50 men. In case of an Engine bursting her hose, she shall be allowed a reasonable time to procure new hose. Each Engine shall have three lengths of Suction Hose when they play the Horizontal stream.

No Engine will be allowed to compete for the prizes unless they intend appearing in the Procession.

The Judges are—J. G. Hadley, John Stokells, Jacob Crockett, James W. Leavour, Sampson B. Lord. Referee—N. D. Miller.

Wolfe's Celebrated Schiedam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and in disorders and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.

Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin,
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, I think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je28

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.

Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its sure exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishers it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The Gerrish House,

KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,

HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperel and the Sparhawks. The scenery around the house is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known. This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, and for pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always on hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting daily with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times.

YES, YOU MAY

USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S IMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?

READ! READ!! READ!!!

SCHOOLY LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 5, 1858.

W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been cured by them, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to direction, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was returning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYRA BRAMAN.

Essex Co. ss: Myra Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.

JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.

PITTSFORD, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.

I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY,

Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.

The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

Sold by JOSEPH H. THACHER, Apothecary, cor. of State and Pleasant sts, and No. 12 Market Square, Portsmouth, N. H. je4 3mieow

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost care that skill and long profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor, — health courses new through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him about, and the sick man is well; too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done every day from year to year.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, king's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and Kindred diseases from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and makes his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the triumphs of this remedy. Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness, Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and when they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the purest sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, scaling and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, it used as a regular dressing for the hair, will preserve the color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or di-eased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The demand for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff scurf for many years, and for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to come in, and now I have two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the top of my head, is now covered with covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is now receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 23, 1856.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for your discover it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance: and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed to purchasers, at public auction and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL, situated on Islington hill, Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with a large piazza in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen, bath room, dining room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a private residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, the BUILDING LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unroll, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent meadow, and is bounded on two sides by water, desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or to

je9 S. H. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street. Contains 9 rooms, a pleasant location, and suitable for a large or small family.

If not soon sold, it will be let on a lease for a term of years, if applied for, on application by the first of July. Apply to J. M. EDMONDS

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered sweet and wholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and systematically changed. The health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous and offensive tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Professor Hedrick introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice.

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, Butter, Fruit, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

COLORED PREACHER'S ILLUSTRATION. — Among the specimens of sermonizing which have recently had a wide currency through the secular press, the following from a colored preacher in Louisville is noteworthy. A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune touches for its authenticity:

Judge A——, the individual mentioned, is our present member of Congress, and Parson Jones, the old negro preacher (Heaven rest his bones!) with his old gray mare and rickety cart, have long since returned to dust. The judge was present at the delivery of one of his sermons, and was brought in by the speaker by way of illustrating a certain position then and there taken by him.

"My dear friends and brethren," said he, "de soul ob brack man is as dear in de sight ob de Lord as de soul ob de white man. Now, you all see Judge ——, a sittin' dah, leanin' on his golden-headed cane; you all know de judge, niggas, and a bery fine man he is too. Well, now, I'se gwine to make a little comparishment. Suppose de judge, some fine mornin', puts the basket on his arm and goes to market to buy a piece of meat. He soon finds a nice, fat piece of mutton, an' goes off with it. Do you s'pose de judge would stop to 'quire wedder dat mutton was ob a white sheep or ob a brack sheep? No, muffin ob de kind; if de mutton was nice an' fat, it would be all de same to the judge; he would not stop to ask wedder de sheep had white wool or brack wool. Well, just so it is my friends, wid our Hebenly Master; he does not stop to ask wedder a soul 'long to a white man or a brack man—wedder his head was kivered with straight har or kivered wid wool; the only question He would ax would be: 'Is dis a good soul?' an' if so, de Massa will say: 'Enter into the joy ob de Lord, an' sit on de same bench wid de white man; ye's all on a perfect 'quality.'"

THE CRUISE OF THE ARCTIC.—The cruise of the little old Arctic has turned out as we expected it would. She was sent to the Gulf, it will be remembered, to "blow the British fleet out of water," (with two guns and a howitzer.) The first day out, she made three miles an hour. The third day out, she rolled so heavily that a corporal's guard of marines had to hold the howitzer to keep it from pitching overboard. On the seventh day she broke her engine. On the eight she sprung aleak. On the ninth, set all hands at the pumps. Succeeding in stopping the leak, she crept on towards Havanna at Canal-boat speed—two-and-a-half miles an hour. She did not see the British fleet—didn't see Styx—didn't see anything in fact, except when some merchantmen overtook and sailed past her.—Finally, after a voyage of eighteen days, (more than it takes to go to Europe,) she reached Havana. Then it was found that her boilers were out of order, and she started back to Key West for repairs. It is hardly necessary to say that she did not "blow the British fleet out of water."—Albany Evening Journal.

FIRE IN SUMMER.—We have visited many farm houses since the advent of stoves, in all the months usually supposed to be warm, and found that the stoves had all been carefully stowed away in summer quarters. Even the cook stove is turned out into some "lean-to" shed, and not a single chance left throughout the house to dry or warm a wet and shivering mortal. This is a great error. There is not a month in the year that a farmer can safely do without fire. It not only adds to his comfort, but it is a great purifier of the air of the house, and promoter of health, and no farm house should be without the means of making the influence of fire felt in every room whenever a cold or wet spell of weather occurs. In our opinion, it is a great mistake to take down all the stoves in summer, in town or country, in houses that are unprovided with fireplaces.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as r. Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1858.

FATAL ACCIDENT IN MANCHESTER.—Tuesday forenoon about 10 o'clock, a horse belonging to Mr. D. C. Whittemore ran away with a wagon in which were Mr. Whittemore and Mr. Henry T. Wilson.—They were on Bridge street, near the stable of S. L. Fogg, when another horse coming near them, Mr. W.'s horse started quickly. Being suddenly reined up, the breeching broke, and the animal became frightened and ran. Mr. Wilson jumped from the hind part of the wagon while the horse was at full speed, and struck on his back, probably breaking his neck, as he did not become conscious before his death, which happened in less than half an hour. Mr. Whittemore also jumped from the wagon and escaped with slight injury.—The face of the deceased was slightly bruised.

The American says, Mr. Wilson was among the early residents of the city, was an active business man and an esteemed citizen. His sudden death causes a deep sensation.

THE RESULT OF GAMBLING.—Mr. Stofer, editor of the Expositor at Lexington, Mo., was murdered a few days since, on board the steamer A. B. Chambers, by a professional blackleg named Clark. Stofer and Clark had been playing cards on board the boat, and Stofer had won a portion of Clark's money, after which he (S.) declined playing more. Clark was anxious to get his money back, and told Stofer so, using threatening language towards his adversary at the table. To avoid a quarrel Stofer left the table and went out upon the guard of the boat, near the barber's shop. Clark followed and again asked Stofer if he was going to continue the game, telling him if he did not he would kill him then and there. Stofer replied that he would play no more; whereupon Clark presented a pistol to his adversary's head and fired. The shot took effect on Stofer's temple, and he expired almost instantly.—Clark was caught and secured with ropes on board the boat, to be delivered over to the authorities at Lexington.

AMESBURY.—The Villager says that the several mills of the Salisbury Manufacturing Company when in full operation give employment to 850 hands,—450 males and 400 females. At present there are employed 620 hands— 328 of whom are males and 292 are females. The monthly pay roll amounts to $12,500. The number of yards of cloth manufactured during the month of May was 126,000, consuming in the manufacture 100,000 pounds of wool In addition to this, the remaining machinery is being constantly put into operation, and it will not be long before the full number of hands are employed.

The Powow River Mill, owned by a company in this village, engaged in the manufacture of cotton yarn, employs 13 hands, and is apparently doing a profitable business for its owners.

Of other branches of industry in the village of Amesbury and Salisbury mills, the shoe business gives employment to about 400 persons, and the tannery, carriage making, steam sawing and plaining, blacksmithing, and other mechanical pursuits, including the shoe manufactories, furnish employment, in the aggregate, to 700 males and 300 females.

THE PLATFORM.—The Augusta Age says that the Democratic Masses expect "their State Convention will put in nomination a sound and reliable Democrat as candidate for Governor.

They expect that it will take decided ground against the Prohibitory Law of 1858, and the Nuisance Act of the same year, and in favor of the restoration of the license law of 1856.

They expect that it will reaffirm * * * the Cincinnati platform of 1856; and especially, the great doctrine of popular sovereignty, which constitutes the territorial policy of the party.

They expect that the Convention will sedulously avoid all issues calculated to divide, distract or weaken the Democratic forces of Maine * * *

They expect, in fine, that the Convention will take the initial steps to such a re-union, consolidation and augmentation of the Democratic party as will, certainly and inevitably lead to a glorious triumph over the combined forces of Black Republicanism and Maine Lawism in September.

These are somewhat liberal expectations, certainly. We will keep watch to see if they are realized.

☞ A statement is going the rounds of the press "that the cholera prevails in many parts of Arkansas, and is making ravages over other Western States." This is all a mistake, and originated from the fact that the "hog cholera" is prevalent in the Western States.

A UNION MEETING.—The Newburyport Herald says, on Sunday evening two Universalist clergymen, Rev. Charles Spear of Boston, and Rev. Willard Spaulding of Newburyport, attended a prayer and conference meeting at Rev. D. P. Pike's (Court street) church, and took part in the services. The Court Street is a Christian church—republican, democratic, anti-sectarian, the meetings of which are open to all christians, and being without any creed, save the Bible, Universalists, Unitarians, Orthodox and Baptists, may all find a home there and be admitted to equal privileges. Rev. Mr. Muzzey, of the Unitarian Society, has also attended meetings there, and taken part with others.

On Sunday evening (continues the Herald,) we did not hear Mr. Spear's remarks, but did listen to the exhortation of Mr. Spaulding, who, in a truly catholic spirit, and with words of beauty, eloquence, sympathy and pathos, besought men to repent of their evils and sins, and to live new and holy lives. His address was well received and responded to by loud amens, to which he had probably been unaccustomed; and when he closed, the whole congregation struck up a revival melody. It is cheering to see this forerunner of the good time coming, when the lion and the lamb shall lie down together.

TERRIBLE ROMANCE.—The Washington Union, strange to say, is getting to be so fanatical on the matter of temperance as to believe that liquor aided jealousy in committing a murder. The Union of June 26 says:

The vicinity of Georgetown was thrown into considerable excitement yesterday morning, by the brutal murder of a pretty, interesting young lady named Mary Shebey, by William Nugent, an Irish laborer on the Washington aqueduct. It is reported that Nugent became enamored of the young girl, and because she refused to marry him took her life in a fit of jealousy, whilst under the influence of liquor. His conduct previous to the commission of the deed was certainly very singular. He was frequently heard to mutter incoherently to himself, and behaved himself in so extraordinary a manner that he was on Tuesday last taken to Georgetown and placed in confinement, from which he was released as soon as he evinced some of returning self-control. Shortly after his release he returned to work, and was heard to complain of the severity of the tasks imposed upon him. On Thursday night he went to bed quietly, but arose between four and five o'clock, and armed with a sharpened case knife, entered the apartment of the deceased and cut her throat. She lived but ten minutes, and when her father reached her side was just able to inform him of the manner of her death. The murderer was immediately secured by those who were attracted to the spot, but before the arrival of the officers, his fellow-laborers commenced beating him in such a manner that he could not have survived for any length of time had he not been rescued.—At one moment the mob evinced a disposition to hang him, so intense was the feeling excited against him; and this, in all probability, would have been accomplished but for the timely interposition of the murdered girl's father.

There are plenty of young gentlemen as well as plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, which give the former a great deal of uneasiness and exposes the age of the latter. To avoid these little perplexities we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, which will in the course of a few week, change the hair to its natural color, It does not dye the hair like the most of the hair restoratives, but produces a gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives it a fine and glossy appearance. We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, and pronounced it the only invention which had come to their idea of a "curd simplex" head." We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger; in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The change is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now, as it would to find an idea in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old maids and some young widows whose locks are just begining to assume a silvery hue, and who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never fails.—St. Louis. Herald. Sold by all good druggists.

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS.—James H. Gould, who has just been convicted of manslaughter in killing Wm. R. Chapman in Boston, is only twenty years old. When an attempt was made at Washington last week to save the murderer Powers, the only plea urged was his youth, to which the President replied: Nearly all the murders and other crimes of violence so frequent of late in this district, have been committed by such young men."

☞ Fourteen of the wounded on the Pennsylvania, left at Memphis, have died. There were still at the Exchange Building in that city thirty persons under treatment, of whom eight or ten were very low, and their recovery was considered doubtful.

THE SAILOR AND HIS MOTHER.—The Newburyport Herald speaks thus of the sailors just paid off here:

The sailors of all classes endure the most exposures and perils for the money they receive, and are the most prodigal of their earnings. Last week many of them, just paid off from a three years' voyage in an American ship, passed through town from Portsmouth to Boston, with their pockets full of gold. Next week probably not one in five of them will have a dollar left. In the crowd, one, belonging to Newburyport, stopped here—"an old salt," who has seen many years' service in the navy, and has an aged mother whom he would gladly assist, if he could keep run out of him long enough for a sober second thought. Upon his return home, he fell into the hands of those who hastened to steal away his hard earnings—not alone from him, but from his indigent mother, who has spent most of her life between working at the wash-tub for bread and praying for his reformation. In one day the harpy rum sellers fleeced him of sixty dollars in their hells, so lowand mean that they exist without even the shadow of law to cover them, and by the mere sufferance of a too indulgent and over patient people. The facts are all known to the police and to the people. The police office is near enough for the officers to hear the glasses ring—to see the victims go in sober and come out drunk—to see them enter with full pockets and come out penniless; but there stands the building, and there is the rum-bar, and there the keeper, and there the bloated and miserable drinkers that are swilling themselves to poverty, misery and death. It is a sham that such nuisances should exist in our midst—that such dens should be open; but as we are satisfied to have it so, it will not be different probably, till from these dens shall spring some great crime to startle the public, or from some other source shall come a regenerating power to awaken us to better life.

On the morning when most of the sailors left this city, one of the sleekest scoundrels who came hither on purpose to fleece them, took the hand of a mulatto seaman in his own, and held it, when it was nearly tear-time, until by palaver of some kind, either begging, borrowing or charming, he induced the sailor to take from his pocket one of his hard-earned gold pieces and bestow it on the rascal, to whom he certainly could lay once it. If he borrowed, he will such never pay it. If he begged, he deserved no alms. It was a swindle, any way; and a woman who saw it enquired if there was no law to prevent such acts of meanness and fraud. We suppose there is no statute directly against these offences; but they might be reached indirectly.

A British officer writing from Tehera in Persia, to the London Times remarks:—"A Cathartic Pill manufactured by 'an American chemist' (Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass.) has cured the Shah, of a Liver Complaint that threatened his life.—This simple fact, as might be expected, renders the Americans immediately popular here, while we English are overlooked. Doubtless our own scholars made the discoveries which he employs, and thus it is in everything: we do the labor, then the mousing Americans put their mark on it and take the reward.—Dr. Ayer is idolized by the Court and is retainers here, which will doubtless be reflected to him on a gold snuff box, or diamond hilted sword, while not the names even of Davy, Christoson or Brodie—the great lights by which he shines, is known."—New York Sunday Paper.

☞ Senator Crittenden, of Kentucky, who took ground in Congress against the Lecompton and English swindles, has been welcomed home with distinguishing honors and joyful greetings.

☞ The Freewill Baptist paper the Morning Star, calls a convention of Sabbath School Friends in New Hampshire, and of all interested in F. Baptist schools, to meet at New Hampton, July 15th, 1858. The first session to be in the chapel of the Institution, at 8 o'clock A. M.

McGee, the state prison murderer, did not take his hanging very solemnly. To one officer, he said he meant "to die game," and to another—"if I am to be hung, I should like to fall on some of them and break their —— necks."

Law School of the University

At Cambridge, Mass.

THE INSTRUCTORS IN THIS SCHOOL ARE

HON. SIDNEY PARKER, LL. D., Royal Professor.
HON. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Professor.
HON. EMORY WASHBURN, LL. D., University Prof.

THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial; International and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (not by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and as a means by which it is hoped to practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.

The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.

Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

CONSUMPTION.

How many diseases of debility, incurable by ordinary medicines, are classed by physicians as well as the public, under the convenient term Consumption! All of them agree in one thing—their fatal tendency; and most of them, in their primary and even secondary stages, may be arrested by purifying the springs of life through the renovating agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

ALLEN & PAINE,

NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,

☞ Reader, do you want THE picture of the day? If so, have one of Gregory's Photographs in Oil Colors, which he is selling at about half the Boston and New York prices.

☞ The only place in this city where an Ambrotype can be obtained, is at Davis' Ambrotype Gallery, No. 8 Daniel Street, as they have the Patent, and all infringements will be prosecuted. sept9

☞ Notwithstanding the statements of competitor NEIGHBORS to the contrary, Gregory continues to make the MOST DURABLE Ambrotypes, Melainotypes, Photographs, and all other kinds of pictures that are worth making, at his OLD STAND No. 33 Congress street, where he is ever happy to FIX the smiling faces of his friends and patrons.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!!

AN OLD NURSE FOR CHILDREN.

DON'T fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on Earth. No mother who has ever tried Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children will ever consent to let her child pass through the distressing and critical period of teething without the aid of this invaluable preparation. If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of Bottles of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy. None genuine unless the fac simile of "Curtis & Perkins" is on the outside wrapper.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

Sold by DAVID KIMBALL, No. 36 Market Street and by Druggists generally. july21d&wly

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast, and by Well with all dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

CELEBRATION
—OF THE—
EIGHTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY
—OF THE—
NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE.

The Eighty-Second Anniversary of the National Independence of the United States will be celebrated by the citizens of Portsmouth on Monday, July 5, 1858, in the following manner; viz.:

RINGING OF BELLS.

The bells of the various churches will be rung at sunrise, noon and sunset.

SALUTES.

A National Salute will be fired at sunrise, noon and sunset, from Wibird's Hill, and flags will be displayed from all the public buildings.

TRIAL OF ENGINES.

At 6 o'clock, A. M., there will be a Trial of the Engines on Market Square, for four fire trumpets.

The engines will start from a line between Court and State streets, run to the reservoir, reel off 200 feet of hose up Market street, and bring water to the end of their pipes; and the engine making the best time will receive as a prize two fire trumpets, value $10.

The several engines will, after the above trial, play a horizontal stream up Congress street through 300 feet of hose, and the engine playing the greatest number of feet will receive as a prize two trumpets, value $10.

GRAND PROCESSION.

At 9 o'clock precisely a Procession will be formed at the Court House, with the right resting on Middle street, which will proceed through the principal streets to the Tent, near the Court House, where the Declaration of Independence will be read by T. G. Senter Esq., of Lynn, Mass., with other appropriate exercises.

The Procession will move in the following order:

FIRST DIVISION.
Chief of Police.
Four Police Officers with badges and staff.
Aid. Chief Marshal. Aid.

Car of Young America.
Three Marshals.

The Procession will move over the route (not yet designated, but which will be published in the Chronicle, Journal and Gazette,) to the tent near the Court House, where the public exercises before named will take place.

At 6 o'clock, P. M., there will be a Regatta on the Piscataqua River, between a Buoy stationed off the Wharf of the Union Ship Building Company, and the Beacon.

There will be two contests, each for a silver cup worth ten dollars. The first will be open to all wherries rowed by two men with one oar each, and the second to all four oared boats.

In the evening there will be a grand promenade concert in the mammoth tent, by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, the Newmarket Brass Band, and the Epping Cornet Band. Refreshments will be furnished in the tent during the day and evening.

☞ A number of advertisements unavoidably delayed.

INDEPENDENCE CELEBRATION.—The young men of our city who have engaged in the work of getting up a Celebration of Independence are carrying out the work in the right spirit, and observation of their operations the past week has satisfied us that we may confidently assure our country friends that the display to be made here on the 5th of July will surpass that of any other city in New England north of Boston. The designs for the floral procession are numerous and of the most attractive character; and if carried out successfully, as we confidently believe they will be, the affair will eclipse in beauty anything ever seen in New England, Boston not excepted. A full programme of the exercises of the day will be found in another column, and presents features of attraction which excel anything we have seen in any of our exchanges.—Ballot.

ARREST OF A BURGLAR AND JAIL BREAKER.—Mr. Wm. O. Head of this city succeeded last evening in effecting the arrest of a young rascal named McGinnis, belonging in Dover, who broke jail there some three weeks since, where he was awaiting his trial for breaking and entering the store of a Mr. Lothrop and stealing some hundreds of dollars worth of goods. The particulars of the arrest, as we learn from Mr. Head, are the following:—About eight o'clock last evening McGinnis entered the store of Mr. Head and wished to look at some felt hats. He was shown quite a number, but did not appear to get suited, and soon left. In putting the hats in their places one was missed. About half an hour after Mr. Head, being in the front of his store, noticed McG. pass on the sidewalk with the hat on. H. asked him if he had purloined, and wished to look at the article; see McG., stepped toward him he quietly took the hat from his head, noticed his private mark in it, and made a spring at the thief, who eluded his grasp and went down the street like a deer. H. followed in pursuit, succeeded in capturing him, and although he fought like a tiger, handed him over to the officers, and he was lodged in the lockup. Mr. Wiggin, the sheriff of Dover, came to this city the same afternoon in pursuit of McG., and was quite pleased to find him in such safe hands. He was taken back to his old quarters last night, to await his trial for the burglary at Dover. Much credit is due Mr. Head for his cool and prompt arrest of so precious a rascal.—Ballot.

GRASS, in this vicinity, and for a long sweep around us, was never more abundant, nor looked better. Haying will begin in earnest, after the Fourth. Growing crops, of all descriptions, have a vigorous and promising look.

CELEBRATION OF INDEPENDENCE.—A meeting of the Committee of Arrangements will be holden at the Mercantile Library Rooms, this (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock.

All members of the different committees are requested to be present at the meeting, as business of importance will be brought before the committee.

E. P. NOWELL, Sec'y.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Several deaths from sun stroke are reported this morning, and there are some twenty cases on the Coroner's books, awaiting inquiry. The weather is 3 or 4 degrees colder than yesterday.

NEW YORK, June 30.—Twenty inquests were held yesterday in this city, on cases of death from sun stroke. There were also several cases in Brooklyn.

The Times' Utah correspondent states that the Peace Commissioners left Camp Scott previous to June 5, for Salt Lake City. It was ascertained beyond a doubt that the Commissioners had no authority to prevent the army from pursuing its march, but on the contrary that its entrance into the Valley would be insisted on as a sine qua non.

NEW ORLEANS, June 29. — A duel has been fought between Hanlon of the True Delta and Gibbons of the Crescent. The latter was fatally shot in the lungs.

The Board of Health reports two deaths the past week by yellow fever.

☞ Gen. Jim Lane's trial is going on at Lawrence, Kansas. On the 7th day, some women testified, we presume for the defence. Jas. F. Legate testified,—

I know Col. Jenkins, deceased; I saw him last about 12 1-4 P. M., on the third of June, the day of the affray; I saw him drink three or four times that morning; when I last saw him he was not drunk, but considerably under the influence of liquor.

Witness resumed — I know that Mr. Jenkins drank whiskey thrice, because I took some three times out of the same bottle.

LITERARY.—Messrs. Stanford & Delisser of New York, will issue in September a novel from the pen of Mr. Osmond Tiffany, of Springfield, Massachusetts, entitled "Brandon, or A Hundred Years Ago." It will be a tale of the American colonies, the period being from 1855-60, opening in Massachusetts colony, with scenes following in those of Virginia and Rhode Island, and including an episode in some detail of Wolfe's famous and successful attack on Quebec in 1759, in which expedition the hero figures. We have no doubt, says the Springfield Republican, that the work will be one of marked ability and interest.

Wolfe's Celebrated Schiedam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Weak Stomach and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling. O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner.
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je28

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES,
Fancy Doeskins,
AND SATINETS,
which the necessities of the times have forced up on the Boston and New York markets, we have supplied ourselves from these and other sources at low prices, with an unusually large and varied STOCK OF Ready-Made Clothing, particularly adapted to the wants of the New England Trade. Our importations of Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods have been large and varied; and the Trade may be assured of finding with us a stock not to be excelled, either in variety, style or extent, by any other in this market.
Our terms, either for cash or approved credit, shall be of the most liberal character; and we invite the attention of traders to an examination of our goods before concluding their purchases.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious ocean breezes the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.
The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and Mr. Sparkes. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMES,
PROPRIETOR.

Private Summer Boarding.
FROM twenty to twenty-five persons, Families or single boarders, can be furnished with good accommodations for Summer recreation, at the house of the subscriber, on Sagamore Road, about 2½ miles from Portsmouth, and a short distance from the Ocean. YES, YOU MAY USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S IMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?
READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHOOCH LAKE, ESSEX CO., N.Y., February 1 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, it is my pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced cannot be counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N.Y.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost care that the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power in the healing art far beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick, they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return, see the pure blood of health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day.

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sideache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and Kindred complaints, all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to be a tried and tried friend to more more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of aid have been restored to health to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and night sweats, his appetite returns, his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of

A FINE HEAD OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, it used as a regular dressing for the hair will prevent it from fading, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and our friends the young will not fail to value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The following for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" and a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, and I now have two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., REUBEN PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD:—DEAR SIR: YOUR HAIR RESTORATIVE is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well stocked with a healthy crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for the benefit of any concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours quite superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original (youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are charitered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a safe opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the plan. Prizes varying from $100 to $30,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Mercury, Augusta Constitutionalist, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to SAM'L SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of fight, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned, BE IT KNOWN TO ALL NATIONS, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that DR. CHRESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female life; giving relief in all cases attending all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to shed its balmy influence upon the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to offer the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of DR. CHRESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of THREE PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—the very promising fact that Dr. Cheseman in one case must be considered NULL and VOID; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on inclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4,231, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimneys, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. The third floor contains chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and WOOD HOUSE, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) next by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the HILL FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 36 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or
S. H. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street; convenient, in a quiet location, and suitable for a large or small family.

It has not been sold, it will be let on a lease for a term of years, if desired. Possession given by the first of July. Apply to J. M. EDMONDS
June 15 9 Islington St.

Vulcanized Gutta Percha Clothing.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities requisite to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Kalamazoo, who have tested the rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

Nos. 33 & 37 Market Street.
MOSES & DOWNIE.

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded that perfectly ventilated, and in no scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

JEWS IN NEW YORK.—A correspondent of The Jewish Messenger says—

"The Jewish population of the city of New York exceeds in number that of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. He invites us to the 'palatial mansions' in which they reside—to visit the Jew mechanics of every kind; to observe the Jews upon the police; to consider some twenty benevolent aid societies. He bids us scan Chatham street closely, and we shall find as many Christians as Jews among those merchants, and shall discover that there are but about fifteen pawnbrokers of that ilk. Farther down town we are instructed that we shall find them in the California trade, in wholesale furs, dry goods, caps, boots and shoes, and woollens, and some just launching in the shipping business. They have 'stood the panic' well; have employed, and employ, thousands of hands, at regular wages; some are directors in banks, and others in insurance companies. In the doubtful region of Wall street there are but two bill brokers and two bankers of shoreface, and X. knows of no 'shaver' there. In the City Hall we encounter various high officers who are of Hebrew descent. In the courts of law, says X., 'we bow to the city judge, recognize the associate United States district attorney (the letter was dated early in May) shake hands with the best criminal lawyer of the city, say good day to one of the record commissioners, and notice some seven other gentlemen of the long robe, all of whom are professed Israelites. There is a military review, and the troops are passing in front. Notice these troops of cavalry—these other companies of infantry; all of them, officers and men, avowed Jews. The Macedonian's newly appointed commodore is a Jew.' They have their newspapers, scores of physicians and apothecaries, teachers, preachers, artists, and 'that noble institution, the Jews' Hospital.'"

The Gloucester News tells the story of a boy in one of the schools in that town, who is an inveterate rhymster, and who laughed one morning during prayers at the sight of a rat. Being asked why he laughed, he replied:—

"I saw a rat upon the stairs,
Coming up to hear your prayers"

Being told that he must immediately make another rhyme or be flogged, he quickly answered:—

"Here I stand before Miss Blodgett, She's going to strike, and I shall dodge it."

and took his seat, the whole school being in a roar of laughter.

IN AND OUT OF OFFICE.—Lord Lyndhurst tells a good story apropos of his surrender of the great seal of the English ministry in 1846. "When I went to the palace," says his lordship, "I alighted at the grand staircase; I was receive by the sticks gold and silver, and other officers of the household, who called in sonorous tones from landing to landing, and apartment to apartment, 'Room for the Lord High Chancellor of England,' I entered the presence chamber; I gave the seals to Her Majesty; I lolt the apartment by another door, and found myself on a back staircase, down which I descended without any one taking any notice of me, until, as was looking for my carriage at the outer door, a lackey bustled up, and with a patronizing air, said, 'Lord Lyndhurst, can I do anything for you?'"

THEODORE PARKER IN GERMANY.—Under the head of "Theism in North America," the Ausburg Allgemeine Zeitung of June 6 and 7 contains an extended notice of the second edition of Dr. Johannes Ziethens's translation of Theodore Parker's Complete Works. The reviewer considers it a most remarkable circumstance that a country so completely under the sway of materialism, and skin-deep, church-going religion, as the United States, should have produced so competent an expounder of the system of German philosophy known as the Theistic School, of which Fichte, Ulrici, Tioxler, Carriere and others, are the expounents in Germany. The writer even affirms that Mr. Parker has a clearer conception of the system, in its widest scope and ultimate tendencies, than can be claimed for any of its expounders in the country where its doctrines were first developed.

PROPER REPRESENTATION.—A member of a State Legislature was drunk three parts of his time, and on some one remonstrating that he was disgracing his constituents, he said, "Nonsense, three-fourths of them are drunkards, and I represent them fairly.—Go into the National Congress, and if you see a brawling, drunken member—and they are not scarce—you will find that the constituency of that man is of the same character."

"BAPTIZED IN THE CLOUD AND IN THE SEA."—The Manchester American of Monday says:—

During the severe thunder storm of yesterday, the ordinance of baptism was administered to eight persons, quite a large company remaining to witness the scene notwithstanding the shower.

The buildings of a Mr. Brigham, in Dublin, this State, were destroyed by fire on Sunday of last week. Incendiary.

You will never have a good friend if you must have one without a failing.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most well informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and be capable of obtaining their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
CHAS. MASON,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the laws and rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

THU JULY 2, 1858.

CONFLICT OF OPINION IN UTAH.—The federal authorities in Utah are divided in two parties. The one, headed by Gov. Cumming, desires peace; the other, military and under military influence, desires war—even although the object of war be accomplished as easily without striking a blow. Judge Eckles would seem to be in the interest of the war party. The charge in which he pronounced polygamy illegal, and quoted a Mexican law as supreme above the authority of the territorial Legislature, has naturally excited the alarm of the Mormons, who are not likely to remain in a place where they are all liable to indictment for a criminal offence, which they deem a practice imposed upon them by their religion. The Mormons argue, too, very naturally, that President Buchanan, in his proclamation, disavowed all intention and desire of interfering with their adulterous practices, and hence that a federal judge has no right to set up a different rule of law. The action of Judge Eckles has given Gov. Cumming a great deal of difficulty, and has seriously interfered with his efforts for the pacification of the unreasoning and fanatical people with whom he has to deal.

The whole difficulty which now afflicts Utah, (says the Portland Advertiser,) and which threatens to grow still more complicated and embarrassing, results from the mischievous and absurd doctrine of "squatter sovereignty," which the Democratic party in a moment of madness and infatuation proclaimed as the true territorial policy for this government. The wise and sagacious members of that party regret now that such an insane step was over taken, but as it is always easier to plunge into wrong than to walk out of it, these men now find that they have given their consent and lent their endorsement to a monstrosity which they are utterly unable to correct and reform. "Squatter sovereignty" has been fully exemplified in Utah, and the party who preach it in theory must not shrink from approving its natural and practical results.

MAINE CONVENTION.—On Wednesday, at Augusta, the State Democratic Convention nominated Hon. Manasseh H. Smith for Governor.

Hon. N. S. Littlefield was chairman. On taking the chair, Mr. Littlefield made a stirring speech, counseling harmony in the party until the enemy was routed from the citadel.

Hon. Adam Treat of Frankfort, said "Don't for heaven's sake hesitate about endorsing Buchanan in his Lecompton policy." Time would show the wisdom of his opinions as it had those of President Pierce. (Applause.)

L. D. M. Sweat of Portland, felicitated the Convention upon the harmony among its members. Their enemies had counted on a division, but he believed there was not a discordant element present. The talk of slavery extension had no foundation in fact, and was for mere political effect.

Mr. Smith, the candidate for Governor, said when the Democratic party was broken down in the United States, there would be an end of liberty throughout the world.—The Democrats had had their honest differences, and they were now a history of the past. They would be forgotten in this contest with a common foe. The Republican party had been visited upon them as a curse for their sins, and was now crushing them to the earth. The mode of submission of the Liquor Law to the people was characterized as shirking responsibility, and as dishonest and deceptive.

Mr. Pike, of the Augusta Age was glad differences in the party had been overlooked, and hoped the State would now be redeemed.

THE GREAT RAINS OF 1858.—The amount of rain that has fallen over a large portion of the United States in six weeks, running from the 1st of May to the 12th of June, has scarcely a parallel. The Pittsburg Journal says the average of observations will give about 10 inches in May, and 5 inches to the 12th of June, or 15 inches in 43 days. These rains do not appear to have been local, but extend east and west at least 1000 miles, and north and south half that distance.

LIGHTNING.—During the heavy thunder storm of Sunday evening the lightning struck a large elm tree, in front of Rev. Mr. Newhall's house, in Litchfield, Mrs. Newhall, and a little girl receiving quite a severe shock, and a boy residing there, was knocked down. The windows were smashed and some of the crockery broken.

THE SUICIDE OF JULIA A. ZARCHUS.—In the case of this young mulatto woman, who committed suicide by jumping from Cambridge bridge, Coroner Stedman's jury of inquest after a full investigation have returned the following verdict:—

The jurors of inquest on the body of Julia A. Zarchus, have returned—"That the deceased came to her death about 9 1-2 o'clock, P. M., June 17th, 1858, from drowning, she having thrown herself at that time from Cambridge bridge, while laboring under deep mental depression, occasioned by her having been seduced a few months ago, by a married man named Charles R. Williams, residing at the same house with her in this city."

Williams, it is stated, was the father of a child, which its mother, Emma Jones, starved to death, for which she was arrested, but afterwards discharged. Two letters written by deceased were found. One was to her promised husband, stating that she had been deceived by a gray haired man, whom she had looked up to as a father, and that added another to the number of his victims; that her engagement with him must cease, and that she should never see him again, and never should marry any one. The other gave directions to have her body forwarded to Wm. Savoy, Cambridge, and continues, "from a broken hearted and insane young woman." In a rather incoherent manner she continues, "And who has caused this murder? and who has done all this?" To this she signs her name, Julia A. Zarchus. The deceased is described as having been a very well appearing and rather attractive young woman.—Boston Post.

DEFERRED.—Mr. John M. Hill, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, advertises in the Patriot that, in accordance with a general sentiment of the party in all sections of the State, and the recommendation of the Democratic members of the Legislature, the State Committee have decided to defer the meeting of the Convention until a period early in the month of January next.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—In Concord, there is to be a grand Masonic celebration on Monday, under the direction of Blossing Star Lodge No. 11 Free and Accepted Masons, and Citizens, the reading of the Declaration of Independence by Bro. Moses W. Tappan; an Oration, by Bro. Mark L. Foster; the laying of the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple, by the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of N. H., Moses Paul Grand Master. To conclude with a grand display of fireworks in the evening. The procession will be escorted by Trinity Encampment of Knights Templars.

At the election in Warren county, Ohio, in 1856, Jesse Beckley, a colored man, offered his vote, but the judges refused to receive it, upon the ground that he was not "a citizen of the United States," according to the meaning of the act of Congress. Subsequently he sued the judges for $1000 damages, and a few days ago the judges gave him $500. A new trial however has been granted.

RAILROAD TRACK DISPLACED BY THE HEAT OF THE SUN.—On Wednesday, one of the track-men on the railroad between Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that the rails were bent in two places, and an examination showed that the heat of the sun had so expanded the rail that it had curved each way—it being the combination rail—fully six inches out of line.—All this expansion must have taken place within two or three hours, as not more than that time had elapsed since trains had passed the track. The discovery was made just in season to warn an approaching train of the danger.

☞ Hiland Hall has been nominated for Governor of Vermont, by the "republican state convention," which is the forerunner of his election, the same as in Maine this year.

The Supreme Court of Appeals in Virginia has decided that slaves emancipated with the option of accepting their freedom or of remaining in servitude are not entitled to their freedom, because, having no civil rights, they are not capable of making the election submitted to them.

John Pickering, aged about six years, the only son of a widow, was drowned in Augusta on Wednesday last. The little fellow that was with him gave no alarm, but ran a long way off to tell the boy's mother.

☞ Drowned, at Manchester June 23, while bathing, from exhaustion in swimming, Joseph Norris, aged 19, eldest son of D. T. Norris, of the Manchester City Hotel.

☞ The village of New Castle, Westchester County, N. Y., was visited by a violent thunder storm, accompanied by severe lightning, on Saturday afternoon. A lady who walked to the door for the purpose of calling her husband in, was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

COST OF SCHOOLS.—In Boston, the cost of the public schools for the past year has been $349,867.54.

A WENDY WELL.—The Brandon (Mississippi) Republican mentions a curious well discovered in Smith county about a month ago. A Mr. Baugh was boring for water in the piney woods, and when he had bored about forty feet "a mighty rushing wind" came out of the hole which continued for several days. He quit boring and waited to see what would come of it. He placed a bottle over the hole, and the wind makes a noise in it which can be heard a mile. It "blows" about a week at a time, and then it begins to "suck in," which continues for about the same time, and then blows again. So far no diminution of its force has been discovered. It has attracted many persons to see it, and as yet none can tell "whence the wind cometh or whither it goeth."

☞ Bread Enough and to spare, seems to be the order of the day, though some say the times are hard.—In Europe, from all quarters the public journals report the cheering accounts of the appearance of the crops. The weather has been very hot in England and on the continent.

☞ In Newburyport, Wm. Y. Melcher, a young man, for stealing a bundle of clothing from the Railroad Depot, was fined $10 and costs, amounting to $17,99, if not paid in five days to be committed to the House of Correction. In default of the requisite amount he was committed.

BAD ACCIDENT.—Frank Kelly, long known to our community as an extensive brake and baggage man on the Vermont Central trains, found himself yesterday morning on a train of the Rutland and Burlington Railroad, which was conveying passengers to the Sunday meeting of the Miscellaneous Convention, held at Rutland. Near Shelburne his hat was blown off, and in a sudden movement to recover it he fell off the platform, and had part of one hand cut off by a car wheel. Dr Thayer performed the necessary amputation.—Burlington Free Press.

☞ A correspondent of the New York Times, who has been over the route between the Missouri rivers and Salt Lake valley, says—the country west of the longitude of the Big Blue is worthless. With insignificant exceptions, the Western three-fourths of Kansas and Nebraska are utterly unfit for settlement. True, at this season, the whole face of the country is covered with grass, but a single turn of the sod would satisfy the most sanguine that cultivation is out of the question.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Private advices from New Orleans state that a destructive fire occurred there yesterday.

The steamer Empress, schooner Minnie Schiffer, and a Spanish brig, were burned to the water's edge, and the ships Hannah Crooker and Fanny Fosdick slightly injured.

☞ The French Government has published a decree, putting a stop to religious controversy in the newspapers of that country.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics had come under his care, and more than three hundred of this number are inscribed up in his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, will receive the medicines in any part of the country carefully concealed from all enquiring friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be induced to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled for efficacy and superior to all in regularing all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in existence.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Pleasure Sailing.

The Schooner Sibyl,

ONE of the beautiful Yachts built by the late George Steers, will run daily to the Shoals, touching at any of the Islands, to accommodate passengers. She will leave Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning cars from Boston and Concord; (after July 1;) and return in season for the afternoon trains out of Portsmouth—touching in either one or two, to suit parties on board. She will also run as an Accommodation Packet, at the order of individuals or Parties, on application be made, on board, or to the Rider.

The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PREBLE, an experienced Pilot, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers. The Sibyl has an elegant Cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation of a first class Packet. jy 2 1m

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CONSUMPTION.

How many diseases of debility, incurable by ordinary medicines, are classed by physicians, as well as the public, under the convenient term Consumption! All of them agree in one thing, their fatal tendency; and most of them, in their primary and even secondary stages, may be arrested by purifying the springs of life through the renovating agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP.

ALLEN & PAINE,

NOT A GREY HAIR IN ALL PORTSMOUTH, or we are assured there would not be if all our elderly people used HEIMSTREER'S Hair Coloring and Restorative.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a power ful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada
JOB MOSES,
(late I. C BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

LOCAL.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

The U. S. Circuit Court has been in session in this city since Tuesday.

On Tuesday the Bill in Equity, Ferdinand N. Clark v. Wm. H. Y. Hackett, was before the Court. The complainant moved to rescind the order setting down the case at this time for hearing on bill and answer. This motion was resisted by Hackett, Woodbury, and Emery, and supported by Merrin of Boston. The Court allowed the motion. The case was finally set down for hearing on bill and answer and such testimony as may have been taken, on the 8th of October next.

Since Tuesday the bill in Equity brought by the trustees for the bondholders of the Sullivan Railroad to foreclose the mortgage has been before the Court, and was argued at much length and great ability by Joel Parker of Cambridge and H. M. Parker of Boston for the trustees, and by Woodbury and S. C. Sewall of Boston for the defts.

ARRESTS FOR TRUANCY. — Two truant boys, belonging to schools in District No. 2, were complained of and brought before the Police Court on Thursday morning, for truancy. Both were fined, and upon non-payment were imprisoned at the Alms House. The committee of this district are determined to prosecute all boys for truancy who are reported to them by their teachers.

☞ All persons who have flowers of any kind to spare are requested to furnish as many as possible for the Floral Procession. It is desirable that the hardiest flowers should be brought to Jefferson Hall on Saturday, at any time between 8 A. M. and 7 P. M.; and other flowers on Monday morning, between 4 and 8 A. M.

☞ Mr. Hughes, assisted by many gentlemen, will give a grand Sparring Exhibition at the Temple this evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mr. O'Neale, the celebrated Banjo Player, has kindly volunteered his services on the occasion.

☞ The New Orleans and Metropolitan Burlesque Troupe, who favored our citizens with several of their unique entertainments a few weeks since, will sing here again at the Temple on Saturday and Monday.

REGATTA.—The Committee having altered the plan of the Boat Race, persons entering boats will govern themselves accordingly.

☞ The Union Prayer Meeting will be held next Sunday at the Methodist church, and during the week at the vestry in Fleet street. Beginning at 8 1-2 o'clock on Sunday morning, and 7 3-4 on the week days.

ST. LOUIS, 30th.—A despatch from Leavenworth, 18th, says a well-grounded report is in circulation to the effect that Gov. Denver intends to vacate the gubernatorial chair soon after the election in August.—The reason is not stated.

At last accounts the eruption of Mount Vesuvius, after a few hours' apparent lull, continued with great activity. No lives had been lost. There were seventeen openings from which the lava flowed.

☞ The Strafford Bank has declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the last six months, payable on Monday, July 5.

ANOTHER WAR HUMBUG EXPLODED.—The rumor of Col. Steptoe's defeat by the Oregon Indians is undoubtedly a hoax.—Trav.

DISMAL DEATH—The hot weather of the last few days, may have made some of us forget the cold rainstorms of a fortnight ago. But they were cold and dreary to those exposed to them, nevertheless. The Newburyport Herald tells us a sad tale on this wise, of a man who died in that rainy time. Nathaniel Crombie, a shoemaker of Byfield, was found dead in a peat swamp on Wednesday morning of last week. He was last seen at a house about a quarter of a mile from where his body was found, at which house it is supposed he became intoxicated, a habit in which he frequently indulged. It is thought he perished in the cold storm of Monday night. He was about fifty-five years of age, and without a family.

SNOW AT THE WHITE MOUNTAINS. — A gentleman who ascended Mount Willey, from the White Mountain Notch, a few days ago, writes the Transcript that he found patches of snow eighteen inches deep, on the top of the Mountain. This is quite unusual for that neighborhood so late in June. The mountain streams are reported to be very cold at the present time.

The Post puffs J. Glancy Jones of Pa., and styles him the "ex-officio leader of the administration party in the House." We presume that is so, as Mr. Jones has done what he could to lead the administration out of office, and will no doubt succeed in doing it.—Atlas.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.

Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.

There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scattered Strings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Becomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever wanted by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations, rendered it a summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.
The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the residence of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are unknown.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Stages leave daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMES,
PROPRIETOR.

READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.

PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all claimed. WM. KINGSLEY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt

The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they renovate the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with sores; who stands, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which impunity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted the rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago eaten every smile from his face and every vestige of flesh from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and infuse a new vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately hung her sallow face, joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and ears, and restless sleep, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood. Is it nothing to do these things? Nay, are not the many saved at this age? And yet they are done around you every day

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Headache, Sickness, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Kidney's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if not, take them judiciously by such advice as you can get, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box—5 boxes for $1.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Here a cold had settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is gnawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL meanwhile, it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some family in it who like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the purest sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick every where may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of

A FINE HEAD OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—

We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, it keeps the hair from drooping, the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEAR RIVER, CONN., July 22, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth:—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called on your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the greatest of recommendations. The scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all gone. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mrs. Pond, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., REUBEN PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving most wonderful to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is covered with a promising growth of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any good result whatever. It is from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. H. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are charged by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They refer to the public as fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The larger number of prizes call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan are authorized by the legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the receipt of orders to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $20; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. To tickets not containing the money, accompany for the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. Tickets are constantly forwarded to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers: Mobile Daily Herald, Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly and directed to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily imposing upon the public, be it RESOLVED, learned, BEIT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are a sure and safe remedy for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, alleviating pain in the side, and restoring health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—THESE PILLS are prepared by the ONLY regular table and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object. When measures have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread for the benefit of their own sex, they may rest assured—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered FULL AND TRUE; that is to say the PILLS EVER SOT be taken when there is no pregnancy in existence, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Valuable Real Estate

FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the premises:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are SEVERAL and Well-built Stores, of new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business part of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a fashionable boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the HILL FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 25 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, on the Premises, or to

S. H. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street; convenient, in a quiet location, and suitable for a large or small family.

It has been put in good order, and is let for a term of years, if desired. Possession given by the first of July. Apply to J. M. EDMONDS

Winship's Patent Upright

Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being placed in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed, and in which the food and drink are in contiguous proximity. The musty and sour smell common to most ice chests is a sure indication of this poisonous and offensive tendency.

The Refrigerator has the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner that Prof. Silliman has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision shelves.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give the article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

INDIFFERENT STRONG LOVERS.—The Boston Courier of June 30, says editorially:

We are indifferent strong lovers of freedom ourselves; but then it must be freedom regulated by law and gospel.

Freedom, regulated by Law and Gospel, is worthy of the strongest possible love.—And the Courier loves it exactly up to the point of indifference, or lukewarmness.

This puts Uncle Toby in mind of a text in the Book of Revelation, where the Author of the Gospel says to the angel of the church and "respectable" Laodicean church: (Feb. 3: verses 15-17:)

I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.

MORMON ATROCITY.—The Utah correspondent of the New York Tribune relates the following atrocious act:

"Another of those fiendish deeds which cry to Heaven for vengeance upon the perpetrators has, from the publicity which has been given to it among the Mormon people, reached us. The fourth wife of a man living in the vicinity of Salt Lake City, whose name, for the present, I shall suppress—a young amiable, refined woman, beloved by all who knew her, somewhat superior to the common mass, from the influence of early education—became impatient and heart-sickened at the abject state of misery so rapidly gnawing the very cords of her soul, and determined if possible to make an effort to reach the camp of the army. Her husband got some inkling of it. He immediately mounted his horse, rode to Brigham's office, asked of brother Brigham what he should do with her. Brigham told him to cut her throat, thus save her from eternal damnation.—The brute went home and told the poor woman to prepare to die. She seeing the earnestness of his manner, fell at his feet, begging, praying and imploring him for mercy; but he, while she was thus kneeling before him, took her by the hair, and cut her throat from ear to ear. This example was afterwards held up to the Mormon women in ward meetings as a warning to them."

☞ Mr. William Russell of the London Times has recently been induced, by his love of the picturesque, to illustrate, for the second time, the sack of Lucknow, to a degree which other people will not think very flattering to the British character.—It now appears that Delhi, too, was "looted" to a considerable extent, and that besides the Kaiserbagh, the city of Lucknow generally contributed to reward the British soldier for his previous privations and heroic efforts. We quote from Mr. Russell:

"There are companies which can boast of privates with thousands of pounds worth in their ranks. One man I heard of who complacently offered to lend an officer whatever sum he wanted if he wished to buy over the Captain.' Others have remitted large sums to their friends. Ere this letter reaches England, many a diamond, emerald and delicate pearl will have told its tale in a very quiet, pleasant way of the storm and sack of the Kaiserbagh. It is well that the fair wearers saw not how the glittering baubles were won, or the scenes in which the treasure was trove. Some of these officers have made, literally, their fortunes. There are certain small caskets in battered uniform cases which contain estates in Scotland and Ireland, and snug fishing and shooting boxes in every game-haunted or salmon-frequented angle of the world.

☞ Abraham Rising of Southwick, Mass., who died on the 25th inst., aged 99 years, 5 months and 25 days. He was at the taking of Gen. Burgoyne's army, at Saratoga, and was 17 years old when he entered the army as a substitute for a man that was drafted. His term of service was short, I think about three or four months. He has many times told the writer of this article that he carried cartridges for one of the field pieces one entire day.

☞ The Richmond enquirer says, a gentleman in Brunswick Co., in that State, owns two slaves, Burrill and Amie whose marriage has been blessed with seventeen children, twelve of whom are twins. All of these are living except two.

M. BELLY, the French agent, who has recently been figuring at the Isthmus, wants to get up a French protectorate for the Central American States. Evidently M. Belly aches to create trouble between France and the United States.—Louisville Journal.

☞ It is stated that the recent disastrous explosion of the Pennsylvania, on the Mississippi, was caused by negligence of the engineer, who was joking with some female deck passengers, instead of attending to his duties.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 70 State st., opp. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remmitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT SUPPERTENDING OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best Patent Solicitors and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the usual practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Commissioner of Patents.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

THE HOME & GRAVE OF WASHINGTON.

On a most inclement evening of the past winter, our citizens crowded the Temple to listen to Mr. Everett's oration upon the Character of Washington, not only attracted by the greatness of the orator and by patriotic interest in the subject of the oration, but charmed with the disinterested object which the noble speaker had in view—that of purchasing for the nation Mount Vernon. Mr. Everett has continued his labors until he has received and paid over to the "Ladies' Mount Vernon Association of the Union" the sum of forty-two thousand dollars for this object. This Association, on the 6th of April last, entered into a contract with the present proprietor of Mount Vernon for the purchase of 200 acres, including the mansion, gardens landing place and tomb of Washington, for which the sum of two hundred thousand dollars is to be paid, without interest, if the amount is raised by the 22d of February, 1859. The approaching celebration of our National Independence has been deemed a fitting occasion upon which to invite contributions from all parts of the country. And our city government have received a communication, an extract of which we publish below, accompanying a subscription paper, from Ann P. Cunningham, Regent of the Mt. Vernon Ladies' Association, dated Richmond, Va., June 19th, 1858:

GENTLEMEN,—You are aware that the women of the United States are devoting their best energies to the sacred object of perpetually securing to their country, as a "holy shrine" of national affection, the home and the tomb of Washington.

The success which thus far has attended their exertions, aided, as they have been, by the voice of eloquence and the spontaneous offerings of patriotism, emboldens them to appeal to the whole country, not as petitioners for assistance, but as sisters, invoking their brethren to come to the great work, and to place their votive offerings also on the grave of their common Father—of the man who has been unequalled in the tide of time for his wisdom, his self negation, and his purity.

It is believed that the approaching anniversary of American Independence, an event so eminently connected with the memory of the patriot hero whom we all delight to honor, will present to our fellow citizens a fitting occasion to enroll themselves as members of an association whose sole impulse is that of disinterested love of country, and we therefore, respectfully, ask that you will make such arrangements for the 4th of July, 1858, as in your wisdom may seem best for obtaining contributions in aid of the great object to which every American should cherish in his "heart of hearts."

There would be no more appropriate time to take up a collection for this object than at the close of the public Reading of the Declaration of Independence on Monday next. The contribution of $1 gives a title of membership in the Association.

FIRE IN HAMPTON FALLS.—A correspondent informs us that the old parsonage house in Hampton Falls belonging to the heirs of the late Wells Healey and occupied by the Rev. A. M. Bridge the Unitarian Minister, was discovered to be on fire after one o'clock on Thursday afternoon, July 1, and with the valuable library and the furniture of Mr. Bridge was consumed. The house was valued at about eight hundred dollars, insured for five hundred. Mr. Bridge lost the greater part of his library, furniture and even clothing, without any insurance.

This loss falls with great severity upon Mr. Bridge, whose wife has been for some months an invalid, and who is now with a large and interesting family, rendered houseless and destitute.

EASTERN RAILROAD.

The report of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad Corporation, for the year ending May 31, 1858, has just been published. They say, after announcing that their anticipations have not been realized:

It is an encouraging fact, however, that we have been enabled to reduce the funded and floating debt, during the year, in the sum of $214,576 96, which, added to the reduction of the two preceding years, makes a diminution of $770,307 05 in three years.

The resources of the Company, to meet the balance of the floating debt, the annual income bonds of $75,000, and that portion of the funded debt, amounting to $710,000, which will be due in 1862, consist of annual income from the business of the road, $449,050 61; the value of real estate, 12,966 shares of the capital stock, and $300,000 of bonds payable in 1874 now on hand, and may be used as a substitute, to this extent, for the bonds of 1862.

The new debt to the State, by the renewal act of 1857, is payable in sums of $75,000 yearly, on and after July, 1865, at 5 per cent. interest. $160,000 of State scrip have already been renewed; say $34,000 at $98 in August last, $66,000 at par this year. There remains to be renewed this year the sum of $100,000, for which we are offered 3-4 per cent. advance, and next year $300,000 will become due.

Of the whole bonded debt now outstanding, the sum of $1,210,000 is at the rate of 5 per cent. interest, and the balance of $970,500 is at the rate of 6 per cent.

The floating debt, amounting to $186,987 52, is being reduced monthly from the receipts of the road, and we have no bank bills receivable, principally secured by mortgage of real estate, amounting to $52,821 56, which may reduce the floating debt to $134,166 14.

The favorable features in the affairs of the Company are to be found in the constant diminution of its indebtedness, and the certainty of no increase in the construction account beyond a small unsettled land claim.

The receipts of the year were $616,156 47, of which $474,048 54 was for passengers, and $104,582 for freight. The expenditures were $322,353 88, and after payment of interest leaves a net of $134,436 63, showing a net loss of $36,506 99, the larger part of which occurred during the first half of the year, or the net loss for the six months ending May 31, 1858, is only $2481 26. The road is in an excellent condition.

"RAMBLES ABOUT PORTSMOUTH."—Subscription papers for a book with this title may be found at this office and at the Bookstores. In this volume will be collected the matters of local history which have appeared in the course of several past years in the Portsmouth Journal, under the above title, revised and corrected, together with several sketches which have not yet appeared.

As the work will not be prepared unless a sufficient subscription is received to warrant the expense, all who wish copies are requested to give in their names.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JULY 3, 1858.

BUSINESS IN PENNSYLVANIA. — A Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Tribune gives a dismal account of the state of business in the coal and iron regions of Pennsylvania. He says that Lord Napier, the British Minister, who visited the mines last week, expressed his surprise at the air of stagnation and distress pervading every branch of industry throughout the great coal and iron region which he visited. He saw coal mines abandoned by the miners, furnaces blown out, and vast iron foundries entirely idle, and the great bulk of an immense laboring population turned adrift for want of employment.

In Philadelphia there is still more distress. Last week, the hand-loom weavers of Kensington and Fairmount struck for higer wages, and quit work. Cotton is so high and cotton goods so low that these poor creatures are bordering on starvation. The number in that city amounts to thousands. They work fourteen hours a day to earn $4 to $6 a week, and they cannot support their families on this. Crowds of these poor creatures were collected at the corners, haggard, pale, thin, and half famished; not boisterous and rampant, but dejected and sad. They call for an increase of 20 per cent. on their present wages.

The Reading Railroad Company's immense landings are piled up with coal, but nobody wants to purchase it. No crowd of shipping is seen, as in former years, waiting their turn for cargoes. Workmen are idle by hundreds, and everything within the coal atmosphere is depressed. The Kensington ship-yards are employing but few hands, most of whom are merely repairing old vessels. Some one or two of the master builders are constructing vessels of moderate size, in the hope of finding purchasers when finished. Such stagnation at the ship yards is a very unusual thing. Many workmen are entirely idle, and many more would be so had not employers created employment by building on speculation.

BUSINESS AT BUFFALO.—The Buffalo Advertiser, of Tuesday, says, the merchants and grocers of the city report less activity in trade. The demand seems to have suddenly fallen off, especially in the latter branch. Manufactures are quiet, especially those that depend upon commerce, while others are not running within 33 per cent. of last year at this time. Lake business for the week has been more active than was expected, but not more than half of the shipping is employed.

GRAND SWINDLE.—A man calling himself General Proper has recently been swelling largely at Newark, N. J., and duping the ladies and gentlemen of that city to a wonderful extent, by his magnificent pretensions to wealth and respectability. He pretended to own one-seventeenth of Mississippi, a large slice of Arkansas, two or three towns, with school-houses, churches, manufactories, &c., in different parts of the country.

The Newark papers have been filled with accounts of this extraordinary personage, and from all we can learn it appears to be a "fixed fact" that the people generally nibbled at the hook of General Proper.—Business men, ministers, schoolmasters and strong minded women, were enlisted in the General's service, in no small numbers, and when the New York Police Gazette hinted that this marvellous General had served two years in the Sing Sing Prison, many, with the General at their head, rose up and repelled the insinuation with virtuous indignation. The General published cards of denial. The Newark editors backed up his denials with threatening editorials. At last the record of his conviction was published. The General left, and Newark is clothed in sackcloth and ashes.

DECISION ON THE LAGER BEER ACT.—In the Boston Municipal Court, Judge Nash gave an opinion quashing several indictments against dance halls, found under the "Lager Beer Act," on the ground that free amusements of that description were not intended to be prohibited by the act, but only those exhibitions at which the sale of lager beer was a prominent object.

☞ One thousand barrels of flour are contracted for in Cincinnati, to be delivered in September, at $3 per barrel, by parties in Indiana.

☞ The number of emigrants who arrived at Quebec up to the 11th of June, during the year 1857, was 18,225, while the number arrived up to the same date this year is only 4175—a decrease of over 9000.

DEATH OF LIEUT. BROOKS. — The New York Evening Post gives the following particulars of the sudden death of Lieut. Brooks, of the Kane Arctic Expedition, which occurred at the Brooklyn Navy Yard on Tuesday evening:—

"A sad accident occurred Tuesday evening in the Navy Yard, which resulted in the death of Mr. Henry Brooks, who is said to be the last surviving officer of the Kane Arctic Expedition. Mr. Brooks has for some time been subject to fits of an apoplectic nature. It appears that he was taken with one of these fits, and, feeling it approaching, tried to take hold of something near. The fit overtaking him suddenly, he missed his hold and fell backwards on the pavement, striking his head with so much violence as to break the skull. He was taken to the Naval Hospital, where he expired soon after the above occurred. Coroner Redding will hold an inquest to-day.

Mr. Brooks was one of the men who composed the Kane Expedition, and was Dr. Kane's first lieutenant. In the Navy, he held the post of boatswain, which he retained in the Navy Yard till his death. Since the return of the expedition from the Arctic regions, Mr. Brooks has not been to sea, being disabled by losing his toes by the frost. He was in the possession of medals from Queen Victoria, Lady Franklin, President Buchanan and others, presented to him for the manner in which he distinguished himself during the trials of an Arctic winter. Mr. Brooks was of Swedish birth, 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and family."

COURT MARTIAL ON CAPT. BARTON.—On the 24th of Feb., 1857, Capt. Barton, of the 5th infantry, at Fort McKavett, Texas, caused Joseph Heid, a citizen not subject to military authority, to be flogged on the bare back for having entered the barracks armed, and assaulting a soldier. Also, that he caused the said Heid to be tied to a tree there. Capt. Barton admitted these charges, but the court found no criminality in the facts. On a third charge, for beating Private Louis Carter, for refusing to flog Heid, the Court found Capt. Barton guilty, and sentenced him to three months' suspension from rank and command, and confinement to the limits of his post for this period. Upon these findings in part, the Secretary of War has expressed his disapprobation in the following order:

WAR DEPARTMENT, June 17, 1858.

In this trial it was shown for the defence that the citizen who was flogged at the guard-house, had entered the barracks armed and beat a soldier; and that no civil tribunal to punish the offence was nearer than one hundred and seventy miles. But shall the army assume to remedy the defects of the administration of the civil laws? A court martial has here adjudged that no wrong is done by an officer who causes his guard to flog a citizen; therein the court has manifested as little regard for the law as the officer on trial. The virtual acquittal on the first and second specifications is disapproved. The finding on the third specification and on the charge is confirmed. The sentence is confirmed and ordered to be executed.

JOHN B. FLOYD, Secretary of War.

WANT WORK.—There are more men out of employment in Cleveland now than there ever were before at this season. They must live, and are willing to work cheap. Something should be done immediately toward providing work for the needy and deserving mechanic and laborer. In Chicago there are ten men seeking employment where only one can get it. The city laborers there, are now working for half a dollar a day, and thousands are almost starving for want of work. Farmers in Northern Illinois are hiring men at $8 a month. In Buffalo, hundreds of men are out of employment, and in Detroit the same. Hard times have come again.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

☞ The Palmer Journal says the liquor lately destroyed by Sheriff Hill of that town was a queer compound. The grass on which it was turned wilted and died that day, while from some of the kegs several gallons of thick, slimy matter was turned, which turned black, and emitted a putrid, sickening odor, on coming to the air.

☞ John La Farge, a Frenchman who has lived in America 40 years, and was one of the few whites who escaped the negro massacre in St. Domingo, died at his residence at Glen Cove, L. I., on Friday, at the age of 72. He owned a great deal of real estate in New York, including the Lafarge Hotel.

☞ Two Chicago ladies went to a ball the other evening in a furniture wagon;—no ordinary carriage would contain the immense dresses they wore.

☞ A number of gray squirrels, which had been placed in the public squares of New Haven, have been driven from their lodging places by swarms of honey bees.

☞ A suit for slander has been commenced in New Orleans, in which Pierre Soule is counsel for plaintiff, who lays her damages at $100,000. It is alleged that the defendants circulated reports to the effect that plaintiff had been instrumental in causing the death of a son by poison.

CHARLES SUMNER.—A private letter received in Boston from one of the most distinguished physicians in France says that upon consultation by the leading doctors in that empire relative to the case of Senator Sumner, who is now in Paris, it has been decided to perform an operation upon the back, for the purpose of producing a counter-irritation. The operation is that of cauterization—the burning of the flesh and muscle to the spinal column. While this operation is very severe usually, it is said that it can now be performed by the aid of ether, without producing the slightest pain. It is believed that the operation will prove of the greatest advantage to the patient.—Boston Letter to N. Y. Post.

Thus must a good man suffer because he dared to condemn the vilest bondage under the sun, and to speak a little truth against its apologists—who, mingling the assassin and the sot with the tyrant and the coward, came in and struck down an unarmed man in his seat, SO, drunken chivalry—striking a blow at once murderous and suicidal, and tumbling into Sheol by the effort! how vainly you strive against the moral pressure which makes you mad and drives you to self-destruction.

SHREWD ALCHEMY. — The late Rev. Dr. A——, of New Jersey, was eccentric, but always genial and good humored in his oddities. One dark and stormy night he was called away from home to marry a couple. He went reluctantly, performed the ceremony, and was leaving the house, when the groomsman handed him a dollar bill. The doctor looked at it, saw the small amount, and, returning it, told him to keep it till it grew bigger. It grew to an X in the course of a week.

☞ The fare from New Haven to New York has been reduced by the Railroad Company from $1.65 to $1.25.

Bay State Range.

A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.

It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.

For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivalled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better is it to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

NO INTRODUCTION NEEDED.

NEW YORK, April 12, 1858.

W. E. HAGAN, Esq.—DEAR SIR:—About five months since I bought two bottles of your Hair Coloring, and am now desirous of obtaining more, and would inquire where it may be found here. My hair, when quite young, turned grey. I have used a number of articles for the purpose of restoring it, but did not succeed until I obtained this, which has produced the desired effect. I have been requested by a number of my friends (among them several ladies,) to procure it if possible. I am much pleased with it, for it has made a great improvement in my personal appearance. By answering this you will much oblige. Yours very respectfully,

M. O. GOODRICH,

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

☞ There is an old lady now living in the town of Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., by the name of Diana Brooks. She is one hundred and fourteen years old, and yet is intelligent and active, and walks half a mile to church every Sabbath.

CORRECTION CORRECTED.— The telegraph in contradicting the reported death of Major Wayne, U. S. A., made an additional blunder by saying that the person deceased was Major Wayne of Savannah. It should have said Dr. Wayne of Savannah. Mayor of that city. Major Wayne is now at Memphis, Tennessee, by orders from the War Department.

DIGGING CLAMS.—The Sacramento Union says that there are at least two thousand men at different points on Puget Sound, who had been unable to get any further towards the newly discovered diggings.—Many of them were so situated that they could neither go ahead nor return. Claims had been staked off on the shore, and those who were the fortunate holders were engaged in digging clams instead of gold.—They went to dig for gold, and were compelled to dig clams to appease their hunger.

A RICH WAIF.—A Hamburg brig called the Wisch, left St. John's, Newfoundland, on Thursday, June 3d, laden with seal oil, for a port in Great Britain, and getting ashore in a calm the same night, on a point of land a few miles to the southward of St. John's, was abandoned. She was brought back to St. John's the next morning by some fortunate fishermen. The vessel and cargo are supposed to be worth $22,500. A "windfall" for the fishermen occasioned by a lack of wind.

☞ The store and goods of a Mr. Fearing, in Hingham, Mass., were burnt last Sunday morning about 2 o'clock. Suspicion rested on several persons living in an Irish boarding house about half a mile from Mr. F.'s house, and six of them were arrested on Sunday. On Monday they were examined, and James Lowry and —— Robinson were committed to Plymouth Jail for trial. Rum was the cause, and the evidence was that the liquor was bought at the town agency.

AS GOOD AS NEW.—Hundreds are now rejoicing in emancipation from that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, who have been radically cured by using the Oxygenated Bitters, after all other means of relief had failed.

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 3.—The Republican has a letter from Tumpa of 24th inst., reporting the hanging, on the night previous, of four prominent citizens, by the Florida Vigilants. The statement is considered questionable.

RECEIPTS OF BREADSTUFFS AT ALBANY.—Albany, July 1.—The receipts at tide water for the fourth week of June show an increase over the same period of last year as follows: Flour, 61,447 barrels; wheat, 245,044 bushels; corn, 74,233 bushels.—The total increase in receipts of flour to the present time is 832,436 bbls.

HOMICIDE BY AN INSANE SEA CAPTAIN.—A despatch received at the Merchants' Exchange, Boston, Thursday, from Holmes's Hole, announced the arrival at that port of the schooner Cameo, Capt. Estabrook, from Cardenas for Portland. On June 29, the captain, in a fit of insanity, killed the mate, Chas. Miller, of Manchester, N. H., and wounded two seamen. The Cameo was fallen in with by fishing schooner Hall, of Cohasset, off the south shore of Nantucket, and brought into Holmes's Hole. The captain and crew are in charge of the authorities.

A REMARKABLE SCENE.—Dr Rev. John Chamber's church, last Sunday afternoon, nearly twelve hundred persons partook of the Lord's Supper. Of these, seventy then united with the Church, sixty-seven on profession of faith. Five of the latter were boys of about twelve years of age, members of the Sunday School. Previous to the communion, some twenty-five or more adults received the rite of baptism. The services were deeply interesting, and the house crowded to the utmost capacity.—With the exception of Henry Ward Beecher's church, in Brooklyn, we believe this to be the largest number of communicants in any church in this country.—Phila. Gaz.

THE CUSTOMS.—The officers of the New York Custom House were unable to obtain their salaries either on the first or second instant, and it was rumored that all the money appropriated for such purposes is exhausted. The event, it is said, struck terror into the bravest office holders. Custom house officers are peculiarly afflicted just now. While a part are forced to give up their snug berths, the rest cannot get their pay.

The United Presbyterian Church in Freeport, N. Y., was struck by lightning on the 27th ult. while the congregation were engaged in worship, and a Mrs. Ramaly killed, and several persons severely injured.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, perfectly safe, which medical science can afford. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quick and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the internal organs and stimulating them into healthy action, they remove the fountains of life and vigor,—health courses anew through the body, and the sick man is well again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health they produce but little effect. This is the perfection of medicine. It is antagonistic to disease, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will do them no harm.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint: see his bent-up, tottering form straighten with strength again; see his long-lost appetite return; see his clammy features blossom into health. Give them to some sufferer whose foul blood has burst out in scrofula till his skin is covered with blotches, ulcers, or sits, or lies in anguish. He has been drenched inside and out with every potion which ingenuity could suggest. Give him these PILLS, and mark the effect; see the scabs fall from his body; see the new, fair skin that has grown under them; see the late leper that is clean. Give them to him whose angry humors have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he screeches with pain; he too has been soaked through every muscle of his body with liniments and salves; give him these PILLS to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, alas! there are cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him. Give them to the lean, sour, haggard dyspeptic, whose gnawing stomach has long ago banished every smile from his face and every muscle from his body. See his appetite return, and with it his health; see the new man. See her that was radiant with health and loveliness blasted and too early withering away; want of exercise or mental anguish, or some lurking disease, has deranged the internal organs of digestion, assimilation or secretion, till they do their office ill. Her blood is vitiated, her health is gone. Give her these PILLS to stimulate the vital principle into renewed vigor, to cast out the obstructions, and bring back her wonted vitality into the blood. Now look again—the roses blossom on her cheek, and where lately sorrow sat joy bursts from every feature. See the sweet infant wasted with worms. Its wan, sickly features tell you without disguise, and painfully distinct, that they are eating its life away. Its pinched-up nose and eaten, and restless sleepings, tell the dreadful truth in language which every mother knows. Give it the PILLS in large doses to sweep these vile parasites from the body. Now turn again and see the ruddy bloom of childhood, by reason of these things! Nay, are they not the marvel of this age? And yet they are done around you every day

Have you the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the easier cured. Jaundice, Costiveness, Indigestion, Sick-headache, Heartburn, Foul Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these PILLS rapidly cure. Take them perseveringly, and under the counsel of a good Physician if you can; if you cannot, take them judiciously by such advice as we give you, and the distressing, dangerous diseases they cure, which afflict so many millions of the human race, are cast out like the devils of old—they must burrow in the brutes and in the sea. Price 25 cents per box, or five boxes for a dollar.

Through a trial of many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat. Coughs, cold taken settled on the lungs. The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately hale and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is relentless in its attacks, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely was the arrow touched even be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the people everywhere may have before them the information it contains. Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a luxurious flow of the kind of fluid—and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then, young and old, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

MR. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out and stick together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and it proved to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it, and am going to send me two bottles more, by Mr. Post, the beaver of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have as many of my bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, ELIJAH PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact bald. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried many preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKSBURG, LA., June 23, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: At you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it, that I have used it several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to their hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lottories of Samuel Wells & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, and the interest of Samuel Wells & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received before the drawing will go next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can be deceived in them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $10,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. When your order is sent, send it direct to S. Wells & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold cheap, and on easy terms, if guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 76 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thor. high repair, had new chimney, been raised and widened, thoroughly refitted with granite, with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery; the second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious tenement, and a large garden, containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families.

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the HILL FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent tillage and illiage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one desirous to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD H. HILL, or to je9 S. B. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE DWELLING HOUSE No. 2 Mulberry street; convenient, in quiet location, and suitable for a large or small family.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear.

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities required to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provision cooled in refrigerators of very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and sufficiently changed and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most ice-chests is a sure indication of this poison gas and offensive tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in so scientific yet simple a manner, that Mr. Sullivan has introduced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice

The warm air cannot enter upon opening the doors. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles of different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicacies in fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

THE CURRENCY OF ENGLAND.—The business transactions of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, are from five to five times as great in value, as in the United States. Their Bank Station, last year, was about the same. The amount of specie in the two countries is nearly equal. The wonder to many is, how the uniform operations of trade are carried on so easily in England, with so small a circulating medium. It is explained by the peculiarities of living on business in the United States and England, by the difference in passing of mercantile notes. In England, a bill of hand, when given for any business debt, is not taken to some neighboring city to be discounted or sold, but is held with all that difference we give other kinds of notes, signed by officials known as President and Cashier of a Bank, for the simple reason, that if made by an honest, responsible man, it is worth as much. The holder can, any day, go to the neighborhood where its character is known, without any previous notice, buy anything he pleases and pay it with this paper, by simply indorsing it, because the second holder knows he in turn can do the same—and as it goes getting further and further from home until being passed through the hands of more than twenty different persons, and being generally covered with indorsements it is finally lodged in the bank for collection.

This habit, or system of doing business, is gradually gaining currency with us and in proportion to the strength, or acknowledged solvency of a business firm, do their notes go into circulation among the business community. If the latter be not, as the former, payable on demand, they are as good for what they represent, name-their face, less the interest for the time they have to run.—State of Maine.

There have been extraordinary rejoicings at Constantinople, on the occasion of the marriage of the Sultan's daughter. The rites of all the religious denominations were invited. This fact produced a great sensation.

So it should; for it is the triumph of common sense and human brotherhood, over pride, and sect, and foolish prejudice.

THE REASON. — The Cleveland (Ohio) Plaindealer says that its editor was removed from the post-office in that city for "doubting the immaculate conception of the Lexington Constitution:

FREEMASONS. — The Albany Statesman says "it is a curious fact that every General Officer in the American Army of the Revolution was a Freemason, except Benedict Arnold."

PRINCESS OF PRUSSIA.—Prince Albert has gone to see his daughter, the Princess of Prussia. It is stated that the Queen of England will become a mother and a grandmother in the same week.

☞ Albert H. Nelson, late Judge of the Superior Court of Suffolk county, Mass., is at the Somerville Insane Asylum on Sunday, he having been an inmate of that institution some two or three months.

WHAT JUDGE DOUGLAS EXPECTS. — The Chicago Democrat, a decided anti-Douglas paper, declares, upon what it claims as the best authority, that Judge Douglas expects that he will have a choice between the Democrats and Republicans. He hopes to throw the election over for the next two years. Meanwhile he will join either one of the other of the great political parties, and make sure his election to the Senate. The battle ground will be the centre of the State. The Republicans will sweep the North; the Democrats will sweep the South. He has made up his mind that the Republicans will help the Democrats in the South, and the Democrats will help the Republicans in the North, and that his only chance is to hold the balance of power and throw the election over.

☞ We have already published the death of Mr. Robert McMahon, of Ipswich, on the 20th ult., attributed to eating clams. On the 24th, Mr. Benj. Ellsworth, of the same town, found a number of his hens lying upon the ground dead; and upon opening their crops, from two to five clams were found in each. It is supposed that the clams were diseased. Quite an excitement was created at Ipswich and Newburyport several years ago by the sudden death of persons during the summer months, whose decease could be traced to no other cause than that of eating clams.

☞ At the first annual commencement of Mount Union College, Ohio, the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Sciences was conferred, amongst others, upon Miss Jane W. Chapman.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE WOMAN.—Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, the oldest person in the State of Maine, we presume, died in Durham, Cumberland county, on the 22d. Her age was 115 years, She was born in 1743, thirty-three years before the Declaration of Independence.

PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent-granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsideration secured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extensions procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late Principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

CITY GOVERNMENT.—Election Day Changed.—We have not yet seen the law passed by our Legislature for changing the time of our city election, making it distinct from the State election. We understand that the time of our Election of City officers will be the fourth Tuesday in November, and that the city organization for the year will be made the first week in January—thus making the municipal year correspond with the calendar. The law will go into immediate operation—so that the present city officers will hold their places but nine months instead of a year.

For more than a century and a half our town elections were held on the 25th of March, or on the 26th when the 25th was Sunday. The State elections had been held on a different day ever since the organization of the State Government, until a few years previous to the adoption of a City form of government, when the law was changed, blending the town and State elections in one—and the same connection was continued by the City Charter. On several accounts, it is better that the election days should be separate—it is also desirable on account of our town farm and some other departments of the government, that the officers who are to serve for the year should enter upon their duties with the year.

ROUTE OF THE PROCESSION.

The Procession on July 5th will form in the following order:

The First Division on Court street, right resting on Court Place.

The Second Division on Middle street, right resting on Court street.

The Third Division on State street, right resting on Middle street.

The route of the Procession will be from the Court House through Court Place to State st. through State to Pleasant st. through Pleasant to Market st. through Market to Dear st. through Deer to Vaughan st. through Vaughan to Congress st. through Congress to Islington st. through Islington to Cabot st. through Cabot to Middle st. through Middle to State st. through State to Water st. through Water st. to south side of Mill Bridge, where the Procession will countermarch and return through Pleasant st. to Court Place, when it will be dismissed at the Tent.

It is desirable that all companies and associations which are to take part in the Procession, should be in readiness at 9½ o'clock, A. M., and all Marshals are requested to see that the divisions under their charge are in readiness to form into line at that hour.

The Procession will move at 10½ o'clock. A. M.

C. C. JACKSON, Chief Marshal.

While the Procession is in motion, no carriages will be allowed to pass through the streets on which the Procession may be; and all persons are hereby requested not to fire guns or crackers, or make any other unnecessary disturbance while the Procession is passing.

ELISHA G. FERGUSON, City Marshal.

THE STATE PRISON.—We have received from a friend a copy of the report of the Warden of the State Prison, accompanied by those of the Chaplain and Physician, and other documents.

From this pamphlet we learn, that the number of convicts remaining in the prison June 1st, was 110. Of these, there were employed in the cabinet shop, 60; shoe shop, 34; shop waiters, 3; engineer 1; tailors, 2; washing and mending, 2; cooks, 2; sweeping, &c., 3; females, 3. The number in prison is larger than ever before, except in 1852, when there were 111.

Since the establishment of the prison in 1812, the number committed to it has been 1017; of these 515 have been discharged; 342 pardoned; 60 have died; 16 have escaped, and 2 have been removed to the Insane Asylum.

Of the convicts now in prison, four are there for life for the crime of murder: Alfred Hill, of New Market; Lotitia S. Blaisdell, of New Boston; Willard Trask of Swansey, and Cornelius Haskell of Warner; for larceny, 50; arson, 5; burglary, 29; obtaining or attempting to obtain money under false pretences, 2; attempt to kill, 4; altering railroad switch, 2; mutiny, 3; receiving stolen goods, 2; forgery, 1; murder 1, sentenced for six years.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.—Bank Commissioners—Daniel P. Wheeler, Orford; Cyrus K. Sanborn, Rochester; George W. Pinkerton, Manchester.

Insurance Commissioners—Oliver C. Fisher, Henniker; Otis F. R. Waite, Claremont; Benjamin M. Colby, Sanbornton.

Commissioner to survey boundary line between New Hampshire and Maine—Henry O. Kent, Lancaster.

Hon. Nathan Parker, of Manchester, Trustee of the House of Reformation, in place of David Cross resigned.

Trustees of the N. H. Asylum for the Insane—Jeremiah F. Hall, Wolfborough; Ralph Metcalf, Claremont; Samuel Herbert, Rumney.

School Commissioners.

Hiram Smart, Jr., Plaistow, for Rockingham;
Thos. J. W. Pray, Dover, for Strafford;
John H. Merrill, Tamworth, for Carroll;

MONDAY, JULY 5, 1858.

CONDEMNATION.—The Dover Gazette, speaking of the late session of the legislature, says:—

The future historian will look in vain to the Legislature of 1858 for anything above the gratification of party spleen, and the exhibition of partizan bitterness and political proscription. Yes, there is one act which will hand them down to posterity as Cromwell is immortalized by Pope:—

"Damned to everlasting fame."

The election of John P. Hale to the United States Senate will be long remembered; and if in this they do not find an example of that vaulting ambition that o'erleaps itself, we shall be greatly mistaken.

The writer is evidently a poet, and revels in the classics, so that it is refreshing to read after him. Let us see, now, says Uncle Toby, if we can, what he means by his last clause, about "vaulting ambition." Who was it, that gave such an awful jump? Was it Senator Hale, who was so ambitious as to desire a third election to the U. S. Senate, which no man ever had before from New Hampshire? If so, he did not leap ever, but leaped into a comfortable seat. Was it the Republican party that jumped? They nearly all jumped one way, and elected the man of their choice. But how they showed ambition in this, it is difficult to see. Was it the Democratic party in the legislature that vaulted so ambitiously? They being in the minority did not jump high enough to hurt any body—unless they hurt themselves, which we do not suppose the writer meant exactly.

But leaving this, let us go back with the writer to his first clause. Nothing but a dreary waste can he see—party spleen, party bitterness, political proscription—nothing above this,—

But then, presto change,—yes, there is one thing above, viz. the election of John P. Hale, by which they will "damn themselves to everlasting fame," as Cromwell did himself. Well: that is not half so bad as it might be:—John P. Hale compared to Cromwell,—and the Republicans of to-day to those old puritans who trusted in God and kept their powder dry,—will not be very offensive to any one who can pardon something to the spirit of liberty. This, for the Anniversary of Independence, is quite in good keeping.

Among the sad effects of the great storm in New York last week, was the utter ruin of the Church of the Good Shepherd. This house stood out in the extreme part of New York on Fifteenth street. It had been erected as a free church by the almost superhuman efforts of the Rev. Ralph Hoyt. All that he had of time, talent, money, he gave to the great work of his heart. He has been years in this toil. He has gained stone by stone, and rafter by rafter, by improvidence, and borne them to their place. He watched the structure as it rose day by day, and as the last stroke of work was done, and the last touch of the painter's brush was laid on, the whole thing, on the day of its completion, fell to the ground, a mass of unsightly ruins. The loss is not far from $15,000.

NEWBURYPORT POLICE COURT, June 30. Mary Hartnett, for a violation of the liquor law. In consequence of Mary having sacrificed her rum, and giving bonds not to sell for one year, the case is postponed for judgment.

Solomon Gouldthorp, violation of the liquor law, waived an examination and recognized in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

RENEWED EXPORTS OF SILVER TO ASIA.—The demand for silver for China and India has again revived, and gold is withdrawn from the Bank of England for its purchase. The accounts from China, which are more favorable as respects the future commercial relations with that country, have stimulated the late shipments.

☞ On Sunday week, the Rev. Mr. McClernan denounced from the altar of a Catholic Church in New York, one Harry Rice, a notorious "Dead Rabbit." It was supposed that Rice would be greatly affected by the terms lauched at him by the priest, instead of which he caught the priest out one night and pounded him to his heart's content.

A HOT SPRING AT FALL RIVER.—A correspondent of the Post notices a natural phenomenon at Fall River, as follows:—

This (Thursday) morning as the diggers of a well upon Dr. Durfee's estate, in the north part of the city, were blasting, they were surprised by a stream of water bursting forth, throwing a jet some forty feet above the surface of the ground. The stream is clear as crystal and almost boiling hot. What makes it more singular, is that the spot is one of the highest in this city, nearly of the same height as Mount Hope. It is one of the most beautiful sights you can imagine.

BOAT ACCIDENTS ON THE MERRIMAC.—On Wednesday afternoon about five o'clock, two young men, Alfred M. Fitz and James Summer, started from Haverhill to sail down the river in a whale boat, and when a mile from staring, opposite Groveland, their boat was struck by a squall, upset and immediately sunk. Both men were acquainted with a boat and good swimmers, but Mr. Fitz quickly drowned.—Summer swam to the Groveland side of the river, where he was rescued near the shore, so exhausted that he too would soon have gone down. Mr. Fitz was the son of Mr. Joseph Fitz, shoe manufacturer, at Haverhill, and was in business with his father. The body had not been recovered on Thursday morning; upon his person were two gold watches and a sum of money. He was highly esteemed in Haverhill, and was about getting married.

Mr. Alfred Bradley and two other men, one of them over seventy years of age, were coming down the river from East Haverhill, on Wednesday afternoon, in a wherry that was accidentally upset a half mile below the Essex Merrimac Bridge, where her anchor fell out, retaining her in a spot somewhat out from observation, for an hour and a half, till they were rescued from the bottom of their boat. Two of the men were good swimmers but the old man could not swim at all, and after holding on some twenty minutes, he told his companions that his strength was failing and he must let go his hold. They encouraged him and one of them reached over the boat, grasping his hands and supporting him for more than an hour till they were rescued by a passing dory. Mr. Bradley has been a sailor and before exposed to danger on the water, on one occasion having floated at sea upon a plank for three days.—Newburyport Herald.

RUFFIANISM IN PHILADELPHIA.—The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian says:

"The past two days have been a carnival of turbulence, riot and murder in our city. The law has been disregarded and trampled under foot, and the knife and pistol of the desperado and assassin active in all sections of the metropolis of the Quaker State. Rival fire companies meet and engage in mortal combat in our public thoroughfares, fire-arms are freely used, men are carried off the field dead, and others drop in the streets from the effects of wounds received. Gangs of armed miscreants belonging to those belligerent associations blockade the streets, watch for those who are supposed to belong to opposite warlike companies, and strike them down in open daylight, and in the face of hundreds of citizens who are afraid to interfere in behalf of law and order. The door of the hospital is scarcely closed upon one victim before the fresh wounds of another demand attention. Not only is this picture true with reference to the crime of murder, but other species of outlawry are suffered to go unwhipped of justice, and increase with most fatal rapidity."

THE ATLANTIC CABLE.—St. Johns, N. F., July 2.—The telegraph cable between this city and the Bay of Bull's Arm, at which point the cable is to be landed, is now in good order. The steamer Porcupine is stationed off the Bay, and will remain there till the Niagara arrives, when she will pilot her in, and assist in landing the cable. The Niagara is momentarily expected. The weather this afternoon is dull, but not unfavorable for the telegraph fleet.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Thursday, the 17th ult., while Mr. John T. Tucker of Chichester, was engaged in saving shingles, the saw, by some accident, caught a shingle bolt and threw it sidewise, hitting him in the stomach with such force as to cause death after a protracted suffering of some ten days. Mr. Tucker was about forty years of age, and leaves a wife and large family of children to mourn his loss. His residence, until recently, has been in Pittsfield.—Dover Gaz.

CHARLES SUMNER.—The Boston Daily Advertiser prints the following extract of a letter from a gentleman of high character in Paris, to a friend of Senator Sumner in this city:

PARIS, June 17, 1858.

The opinion of both physicians, approved by Dr. George Hayward of Boston, was in favor of cauterization of the spine in order to produce counter-irritation, and in this your friend Brown Sequard, whose speciality is the nervous and cerebral system, fully concurred. He made several examinations, and came to the conclusion that there was still congestion of the integuments of the brain as well as other abnormal conditions. When the fact was announced to Mr. Sumner, and the exact process explained of burning the neck &c. with irons at white heat, he at once said—"Try it without delay—in any form—and to any extent."

The operation was performed by Dr. Brown Sequard, who wished Mr. Sumner to inhale chloroform. This he declined, and refusing all anodynes, went through the painful process without a word or wince. It has been repeated since, and will be again to-day for the fifth time.

REV. MR. CHAPIN.—In a temperance lecture, delivered not long since in Philadelphia, Rev. Mr. Chapin made use of the following illustration:—

"The young 'blood' exclaims, while speaking of the attempts now making to suppress the abuse of alcoholic stimulants—'Am I to be deprived of my liberty to imbibe what I choose to imbibe? Whose business is it? Liberty of action is guaranteed to me.' To which most effectively responds Mr. Chapin—"'Liberty?' Liberty for what? To be hung up, like a dripping dish-cloth?—to be stood up, like a battered rusty stove pipe?—to be kicked about like a 'shocking bad hat' in the gutter?—is this the 'liberty you desire?'"

☞ $670 STOLEN.—A correspondent at Littleton, N. H., telegraphs that the railroad station in that town was entered on Thursday night by a gang of burglars, the safe opened by false keys, and $670 stolen.—About $200 which was in the same drawer where the above amount was placed was overlooked by the robbers in their haste. A large jack knife was left under the window, which was used to hold it up while the scoundrels entered the building. No trace of the perpetrators up to this time.—Boston Herald.

☞ The Boston and Lowell Railroad has been in operation twenty-three years, longer than any other road (throughout its whole length) in the country, and yet not one passenger has ever been killed on it.

The Brodderick democrats of California are organizing "Mud Sill" clubs—the name borrowed from South Carolina Senator Hammond's speech on northern laborers.

Trial of Engines.

JULY 5.

AT precisely 6 o'clock A. M., the Engines shall be on the ground between Court and State streets. At a given signal the Engines will start, —separately, according to their numbers,—and the Engine which shall go from the above place to the Reservoir, full of 500 feet of hose, up Market street, and bring water to the end of the Pipe, in the least time, shall receive as a Prize

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10.00.

The Engines will, after the above trial takes place, limber up and retire to the easterly side of the Reservoir.

The Engines will then, according to their numbers, take ground near the Reservoir, draft and play a horizontal stream through 350 feet of hose. The several Engines shall play through any size pipe they may choose, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet will receive a prize of

TWO TRUMPETS, value $10.00.

Flags will be placed up Congress street, with the distance marked on each flag, and the Engine wetting the greatest number of feet by the flags will receive the prize as above. No Engine will be allowed over 40 men, except No 4, which shall have her full complement of 50 men. In case of an Engine bursting hose she shall be allowed a reasonable time to procure new hose. Each engine shall have three lengths of Suction Hose when they play the Horizontal Stream.

No Engine will be allowed to compete for the prizes unless they intend appearing in the Procession.

The Judges are—J. G. Hadley, John Stekells, Jacob Crockett, James W. Leavavour, Sampson B. Lord. Referee—N. D. Miller.

REGATTA.

Two Prize Boat Races

WILL take place, on Piscataqua River, at Six o'clock, P. M., on July 5, between a Buoy stationed off the Wharf of the Union Ship Building Company, and the Beacon.

1st Race will be open to all WHERRIES rowed by two men, with one oar each.

PRIZE—A SILVER CUP, value $10.00.

2nd Race will be open to all FOUR or SIX-OARED BOATS, and an allowance of Twelve Seconds per oar will be made in favor of the Four-Oared Boats.

PRIZE—A SILVER CUP, value $10.00.

The distance to be rowed by each boat, is from the Judges' Stand to the Buoy near the shipyard of the Union Ship Building Co., rounding the Buoy on the westerly side, to the Beacon; round the Beacon on the easterly side, coming to the Judges' Stand, on the westerly side.

The Judges will be stationed betwee n the wharf of Messrs J. & H. Eldredge and Pray's Wharf.

No Boat shall cross the bow of another so as to interfere with it, or in any manner to impede any boat in turning either Buoy or Beacon so to impede her progress.

A Band of Music will be in attendance at the Judge's Stand during the Regatta.

The boats can be entered at any time previous to the Third day of July by calling on either of the Committee.

All boats will be furnished with numbers at the Judge's stand, previous to the Race.

An Entrance Fee of 50 cts. will be charged each boat. For any further information enquire of either of the Committee.

The Judges are William Pettigrew, William Hanscom and Daniel Little field, Esqrs.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better is it to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

ALLEN & PAINE,

NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,

Have received, and offer for sale, one of the most perfect and best selected stocks of DRY GOODS in the State. Every article is selected for their own retail trade and is perfect of its kind, of the latest and most beautiful style, and unsurpassed in quality,—and, as they buy and sell only for Cash, visit the market often, and keep comparatively a small stock, they offer their customers some real bargains. Read their advertisement in another column, and, when convenient, call and see them.

LOCAL.

"THE DAY WE CELEBRATE."

For the accommodation of the public, we republish the order of the Procession. Its route may be found in another column.

CELEBRATION
—OF THE—
EIGHTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY
—OF THE—
NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE.

The Eighty-Second Anniversary of the National Independence of the United States will be celebrated by the citizens of Portsmouth on Monday, July 5, 1858, in the following manner; viz.:

RINGING OF BELLS.

The bells of the various churches will be rung at sunrise, noon and sunset.

SALUTES.

A National Salute will be fired at sunrise, noon and sunset, from Wibird's Hill, and flags will be displayed from all the public buildings.

TRIAL OF ENGINES.

At 6 o'clock, A. M., there will be a Trial of the Engines on Market Square, for four fire trumpets.

The engines will start from a line between Court and State streets, run to the reservoir, reel off 200 feet of hose in Market street, and bring water to the end of their pipes; and the engine making the best time will receive as a prize two fire trumpets, value $10.

The several engines will, after the above trial, play a horizontal stream up Congress street through 300 feet of hose, and the engine playing the greatest number of feet will receive as a prize two trumpets, value $10.

GRAND PROCESSION.

At 9 o'clock precisely a Procession will be formed at the Court House, with the right resting on Middle street, which will proceed through the principal streets to the Tent, near the Court House, where the Declaration of Independence will be read by T. G. Senter Esq., of Lynn, Mass., with other appropriate exercises.

The Procession will move in the following order:

FIRST DIVISION.
Chief of Police.
Four Police Officers with badges and staff.

Company of Musicians.
Car of Goddess of Harvest.
Company of Farmers following.
Car of Young America.
Three Marshals.

The Procession will move over the route to the tent near the Court House, where the public exercises before named will take place.

At 6 o'clock, P. M., there will be a Regatta on the Piscataqua River, between a Buoy stationed off the Wharf of the Union Ship Building Company, and the Bescon.

There will be two contests, each for a silver cup worth ten dollars. The first will be open to all wherries rowed by two men with one oar each, and the second to all four oared boats.

In the evening there will be a grand promenade concert in the mammoth tent, by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, the Newmarket Brass Band, and the Epping Cornet Band. Refreshments will be furnished in the tent during the day and evening.

FLORAL PROCESSION.

THOSE who are to take a part in the Floral Procession, will meet at Jefferson Hall, dressed in their costumes, at 8 o'clock.

If any one has decided not at take the parts assigned them, they will please notify the Committee early Monday morning.

J. H. HEAD, for the Com.

INDEPENDENCE.

The Declaration of Independence was not the work of one war or of one party, but of our country, and of some of the strongest men in it, particularly John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. The latter was in an important sense its author. In hislife, we read, that in the debates in Congress, in 1776:—

"Every dictum of peculiar political force, and almost every expression was made a subject of acrimonious animadversion by the anti-revolutionists. On the other hand, the champions of Independence contended with the constancy of martyrs, for every tenet and every word of the precious gospel of their faith. Among the latter class, the Author of the Declaration himself has assigned to John Adams the station of pre-eminence. Thirty-seven years afterwards, he declared that 'Mr. Adams was the pillar of its support on the floor of Congress, its ablest advocate and defender against the multifarious assaults it encountered.' At another time, he said 'John Adams was our Colossus on the floor. Not graceful, not elegant, not always fluent in his public addresses, he yet came out with a power, both of thought and of expression, which moved us from our seats.'

The celebrations of this day, are to keep these men and their deeds in lasting remembrance—and they ought to inspire those virtues which at once preserve liberty and make it a blessing.

☞ The Day we celebrate, will so occupy all hands, that we shall print no paper on Tuesday.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD.—The Directors are to be congratulated that they are able with truth to say, "no accident has happened to any passenger during the year, nor has any employee been seriously injured."

☞ The Ferry Boat at Dover Point is to run to-day.

☞ Those favorites, the New Orleans Burlesque Troupe, are to give four grand performances to-day, commencing at 10, 12, 3, and half-past 8 o'clock.

FOR SALE, BY N. L. MERRILL & SON, 10,000 feet Dry Planed Spruce Boards; also a general assortment of Timber, Joist, Boards, Clapboards, Shingles, &c., at the lowest prices, at the Gas Company's Wharf.

CLOUDS ON EUROPEAN HORIZON. — Says the Paris correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial:—

"It is a strange feature in the political history of Europe at the present moment, that every state is arming and fortifying itself against some imaginary enemy, and that the works are being hastened, according to their own words 'in the provision of events that may soon arise.'

Even little Belgium is going to fortify, to the extent of forty millions of francs, one of her towns—at least a majority of her rulers favor the project—and they, like the rest, talk of the overhanging storm.—Whence is this storm coming?

The naval equipments and fortifications of Cherbourg, now the principal French naval station, are said to be something bordering on the marvelous for their perfection and magnitude. These works, which are to be inaugurated by the Emperor in August, will no doubt strike the English naval men with surprise, for nothing in England equals or even approaches them. One hundred English men-of-war will be present at this naval fete."

LADY SHOT BY MISTAKE. — The Grand Rapids (Mich.) Eagle says that a young couple of Newaygo, who were to have been married on Monday of last week, walked out on Saturday and seated themselves upon a log in the shade of the wood, a short distance out of the village of Newaygo; and while thus seated the lady was shot through by a rifle ball, and expired in three hours. A hunter when he saw her through the bushes, thought her a deer, and instantaneously drew his rifle and shot. The lady wore a red dress, and was flirting a white handkerchief to keep away the mosquitos.

☞ Mrs. Cleveland, who lives about two miles from Syracuse, N. Y., on Saturday evening killed, with a barn shovel, a rattlesnake seven feet in length and five inches in circumference, which she discovered in the cellar of her house. Mrs. C. is a spunky woman.

☞ Jean Baptiste Desforges and Marie Anne Belisle, convicted of the murder of Catherine Prevost at St. Jerome, last winter, were executed at Montreal on Friday, in the presence of an immense concourse of people. The prisoners confessed their guilt and showed much calmness. This was the first execution in Montreal for 20 years.

THE ADVICE OF A MURDERER.—James Powers, who was hung in Washington on Friday last, for the murder of Edward A. Lutz, had an affecting interview with his mother, sister and brother a short time before his execution. His last words to his brother were, "Do as I tell you, and let liquor alone."

Wolfe's Celebrated Schiedam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, Spasmodic and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, most temper'd, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a farthing, I think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

DR. DIX
KNOWING that there are at this moment hundreds of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.
DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the past year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.
Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only pills in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Pleasure Sailing.
The Schooner Sibyl,
ONE of the beautiful Yachts built by the late George Steers, will run daily to the Shoals, touching at any of the Islands, to accommodate passengers. She will leave Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning cars from Boston and Concord; (after July 1;) and return in season for the afternoon trains out of Portsmouth—deviating in either course or time, to suit parties on board. She will also run as an accommodation Yacht, to the order of individuals or Parties, if reasonable application be made, on board, or to Mr. John E. Hider.
The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PERRIN, an experienced Pilot, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers. The Sibyl has an elegant Cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation of a first class Packet. jy 2 2m

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness is the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AHEE, PROPRIETOR.

YES, YOU MAY
USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S IMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?
READ! READ! READ!!!
SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Colorings, for my wife, eye, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my thirty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was astonished to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for about two weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSBURY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth; it does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cutterright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any thing of the kind I have ever tried, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Dell, of New York City.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Bond, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. My patients say they are adapted to the disease of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the combined influence of the best of medicine. I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"YOUR PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, in chronic dysentery and diarrhœa. Their purge-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, who operates as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent preventives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend to other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the procreator of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your PILLS effect that organ and cure the disease."

INFIRMITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT-RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Enoch Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. The purgative, alterative, and curry of the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system."

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS — FITS — &c.

From Dr. Edward Kapf, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer your what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that we can to sell such a purgative medicine. I place your PILLS in the front rank as a family medicine, in my daily contact with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

This long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every year it is more known, and its invariable accuracy and cure. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the great remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptives in advanced stages of the disease. As the world makes these facts wide and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of the nobility. It is recommended by this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains. CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In most forms it controls it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the gaunt cheeks of the pale and hectic filled up, if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know; in short, if there is any reliance upon anything, then is it irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, confirmed benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—

We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching and all disagreeable eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age—in all its original beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not; as they value the flowing locks, or the withering curl, ever be without it. The praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

MR. LEAVENWORTH—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out quite fast and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the last of April following and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact said, I was bald, but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the balance is also receiving the benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 465 Vine street.

VICKSBURG, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: I am about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know of. On the contrary, it will leave a glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the vile counterfeits and impostors are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether married, or single, that DR. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for all the troubles incident to female disorganization, they alone correct all painful menstrual irregularities of the female heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the married females, they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operation and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Therefore, we recommend DR. CHESEMAN'S PILLS as Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and let Ladies well consider the fearful results, if they fail to try the PILLS ever to be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. Chesseman, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good title given and guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 16, Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a recitary. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families.

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now uncle, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or to

je9 S. R. GOODALL.

For Sale or to Let.

THE NEWFIELD HOUSE, No. 2 Mulberry street; convenient, in a quiet location, and suitable for a large or small family.

If not soon sold, it will be let on a lease for a term of years, if desired. Possession given by the first of July. Apply to J. M. EDMONDS

Vulcanized Gutta Percha Clothing.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and at sea wear.

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities required to make a perfect article. They have on hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplying some of the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them until for sea service.

MOSES & DOWNIE.

Winship's Patent Upright Self-Ventilating Refrigerator.

IT is now conceded by physicians that provisions are rendered very unwholesome by being confined in a Refrigerator in which the air is not constantly and effectually changed, and the health of many families has suffered in consequence. The musty and sour smell common to most Refrigerators is a sure indication of this poisonous and offensive tendency.

This Refrigerator is the only one ever offered that is perfectly ventilated, and in no scientific yet simple manner. Also, the Patent Ice Pitcher produced a description of it in his new work on Natural Philosophy as the best illustration ever practically tested of a perfect ventilation.

The temperature is always uniform.

The air never becomes stagnant.

There is no waste of ice

The room and cleanest can enter upon opening the door. Access to the ice is had without disturbing the provision chamber.

Articles in different flavors cannot impregnate each other. Milk, delicate fruits, and meats, can be preserved much longer than in any other Refrigerator.

All who value health and pure food are advised to give this article a trial. The cost is about the same as the ice chests, and they are made with panelled sides and top, and tastefully grained.

GREAT CHOIR.—The London papers are largely occupied with accounts of the Queen's visit to Edinburgh, to be present at the inauguration of the beautiful park and noble hall which the working classes of that city have secured for public uses.—The Queen made an impromptu speech to a knot of workmen who were desired to come to her and hear from her own lipe what she thought of their work. One of the most remarkable incidents of the inauguration was the gathering of 47,000 Sunday school children, who sang a hymn to their sovereign, at which—and no wonder—the royal lady was much touched.

THE NEW YORK INEBRIATE ASYLUM.—The location of the New York Inebriate Asylum having been fixed at Binghamton, the citizens of that place have donated to the trustees of the institution two hundred and fifty-two acres of land for their use and occupancy, at an estimated value of fifty thousand dollars. The building will be situated a little way outside the village The work of excavation commences this week, and the walls will go up as rapidly as the funds will warrant. About fifty thousand dollars have been subscribed, a portion of which is paid in already.—Among the subscribers are no less than eight hundred physicians, four hundred clergymen, ninety judges, and ninety editors, the President of the United States and his Cabinet officers, Justices McLean, Grier and Wayne, Martin Van Buren, and other distinguished men.

Of all apparent innocent habits, lying in bed is, perhaps, the worst. Amidst all the different habits through which people have attained a long life, it is said that, in this one respect, and in this only they have all agreed—no very long-lived man has been a late riser.

This comes very near being pure nonsense. If any body has said so, he either deceived himself, or meant to deceive somebody else. No one can live to be very old, who does not get sleep enough. And we have known people live to 80 or 90 years, who were not early risers, by any means. If the statement ran thus, that most people who lived to be old went to bed in good season,—it would have been nearer the truth. And it is also true that most of the long livers got up some time in the morning;—but sleep enough is indispensable. If you don't get it early, get it when you can, or you must die from exhaustion.

SLAVERY IN MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Democrat shows how the increase of free emigration carries with it the natural diminution of the slave, by citing the three following counties in Missouri:

Counties.	Census of 1851. Whites.	Slaves.	Census of 1856. Whites.	Slaves
Gasconade	4886	104	6864	46
St Francois	4285	1321	5033	746
Cole	5771	1037	9210	806

The Democrat also points to St. Louis, St. Charles, Osage, Harrison, Crawford, and twenty other counties, in which slavery is fast disappearing. It is a curious fact that these counties are mostly in the middle and southern section of the State, where, it would seem, the border ruffian demonstrations in favor of forcing slavery upon Kansas have recoiled upon the institution at home.

SUDDING FIRES.—On Wednesday, our firemen had occular demonstration of the utter impossibility of subduing fire in a pile of lumber after it has fairly got under way. They also saw that it was equally impossible to upset a pile of lumber by pulling it from the top. Old and experienced firemen say that the only practicable way of checking the spread of fire in a lumber yard is to face piles of lumber exposed to the fire, by boards extending from the ground to the top of the piles. Water must be constantly applied to them, thus keeping them well saturated. This may prevent the spread of fire, and it is the most feasible plan they have ever seen tried.—Albany Journal.

At a recent meeting of the Massachusetts Historical Society, at the mansion of Prof. Longfellow at Cambridge, Mr. Everett related among other anecdotes one of the British General Clinton, who, while living at the Battery, in New York, was accustomed to take a nap every warm day in the summer-house in the garden attached to his residence. He was observed by a Yankee, who reported through spies to Washington that Clinton could easily be captured. Hamilton came into the room while Washington was consulting with the messenger relative to it, who said to the Commander-in-Chief, "Do not listen for a moment to the suggestion, for if Clinton be captured, the British Ministry will send a capable man to take his place. Clinton is just the man we want."

ROWING BY LADIES.—A correspondent of the Cheltenham Examiner calls attention to the practice now becoming fashionable at the Pittsville Spa, of ladies taking boat exercise on the lake. He says: "There is no exercise that I know of more calculated to expand the chest and give a healthy tone to the system generally, than that of rowing. Followed in moderation, it is an amusement which ladies, and particularly young ladies, would do well to patronize. It calls into healthy action the whole muscular system, without inducing that degree of fatigue which the same amount of exercise in any other way is apt to engender." It is no uncommon thing, we (Cheltenham Examiner) understand, to see parties of ladies thus amusing themselves by the hour "paddling the light canoe."

The Emperor of France spends a couple of hours every day at Fontainbleau rowing, his majesty's physicians having recommended that form of taking exercise.

In a certain village are two public houses. The other day a stranger, stopping at one of them, inquired of the landlord—"Who runs the other house?" The generous landlord replied—"Everybody runs it who stops there."

From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1858.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him pleasant. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1858.

GEORGE STEPHENSON.

This great railway inventor and noble-hearted man is suitably characterized in the North American Review for this month, in an article whence we copy a passage or two:

Mr. Stephenson was not in the least affected either by the wild schemes or by the wilder panic that succeeded; he never speculated in railway shares, and always dissuaded others from doing so. He had now become a rich man, and there was no necessity for him to enter into speculations, from which, however, he was restrained by principle, and not by policy. In 1837 he had purchased Tapton House, an elegant seat near the town of Chesterfield, where he led the life of a country gentleman, gradually withdrawing from active business, which he gave up to his son. He erected gigantic lime-works on his estate, and purchased extensive collieries in addition to those he already worked. His business sagacity and judgment were great, his undertakings prospered, and wealth rapidly flowed in upon him. His fame had gone abroad, and Leopold, King of the Belgians, sent for him and his son, when railroads were projected in his kingdom under his encouragement. The consequence was, that all the frightful Parliamentary expenses were avoided, the whole capital was remunerative, and the Belgians obtained the full advantages of railways at less than one half the average cost of those in England. For his eminent assistance to the Belgian system of roads, the King created Mr. Stephenson a Knight of the Order of Leopold in 1835, and in 1841 a like honor was conferred upon his son. Mr. Stephenson also visited Spain, to examine the merits of a proposed line, the "Royal North of Spain Railway," which, however, did not meet his approbation.

At Tapton he sought repose after the fatigues of a hard life; but he was always busy, and entered into the enjoyment of nature as heartily as he labored on his locomotive. He built melon-houses, pineries, and graperies of great extent—a pine house sixty-eight feet long, and another hot house one hundred and forty feet. His workmen were kept employed in building until he had no less than ten forcing houses heated with hot water. His fruits became well known far and wide, and since his death his pines and grapes have taken the first prize in a competition open to all England, and this even over the famous products of Chatsworth. His early affection for birds and animals revived: he had favorite breeds of dogs, cows, horses, and rabbits, and not a bird's nest on his grounds escaped his attention. "Whilst walking in the woods or through the grounds, he would arrest his friends' attention by allusion to some simple object,—such as a leaf, a blade of grass, a bit of bark, a nest of birds, or an ant carrying its eggs across the path,—and descant in glowing terms on the creative power of the Divine Mechanician, whose contrivances were so exhaustless and wonderful." He had no love of in-door life; he read very little; but he delighted in intelligent conversation, and acquired a vast deal of knowledge from the superior minds with which he came in contact.

As in youth he was prudent and frugal, so in prosperity he was open-hearted and liberal. He dispensed elegant hospitality at Tapton, and his friends always readily accepted invitations to visit him. He delighted to fight his battles over again; nor did he ever display the least false shame of his humble origin, or treat with coldness one of his early friends. He was several times offered knighthood by the Prime Minister; but he always refused it, and made no use of his Belgian title. He frequently invited to his house the humble companions of his youth, talked over the past and present with them, and generally concluded by opening his purse and forcing upon them some solid token of his kindness. When he visited Newcastle, he invariably went his rounds to discover old acquaintances; and if they were retiring and shrank into their cottages, he followed them, striking on the floor with his stick, and holding his noble person upright, while he asked kindly, "Well, and how's all here to-day?"

His forehead was large and high, projecting over the eyes, and of massive breadth across the the lower part. The eyes were gray and keen, the mouth strongly chiselled, while a benignant expression was stamped upon his fair, clear, ruddy face. His hair became gray at an early age, and at the close of his life it was white and silken. He usually dressed in black, with a white neckcloth, and wore a watch-ribbon with a large bunch of seals, and a coat of rather old fashioned cut, having large square pockets in the skirts. His manners and deportment always at once arrested attention, and marked the gentleman; he appeared to advantage in the most distinguished society, and it was frequently remarked of him by thorough-bred aristocrats, that he was one of nature's noblemen.

His health had already begun to decline, from the period of an attack of pleurisy soon after his return from Spain. In July, 1848, he was seized with intermittent fever, from which he seemed to be recovering, when a sudden effusion of blood from the lungs terminated his useful life on the 12th of August, in the sixty-seventh year of his age. His funeral procession was headed by the corporation of the town of Chesterfield, and followed by a large body of his work people and many of the neighboring gentry. His remains were buried under Trinity Church, Chesterfield, where a simple tablet marks the resting-place of a good and great man.

The fame and fortune of Stephenson were due solely to his perfect knowledge of the value of time, united with his unswerving rectitude of purpose. He stands an eminent example of the worth of diligence and character, and his success is but another proof that patient continuance in well doing, and incorruptible integrity, have their reward even in this world.— Wherever he appeared he inspired confidence. He loved truth himself, and exacted it from others. He scorned cant; he hated humbug. He was always ready to aid young men, either through mechanics institutes, in which he was deeply interested, or when they sought his advice singly.— He could tolerate dullness it coupled with industry, but with witless affectation he had no patience. His life-motto was, Persevere. He had always as a humble workman carefully preserved his own self-respect; and afterwards, when visiting Sir Robert Peel at Tanworth, in company with the most distinguished society in the kingdom, he made his mark and maintained his position.

BEECHER ON BURLEIGH.—The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher publishes in the Independent, a correction of current misstatements in regard to his position on the question of Communion. He denounces especially the Rev. Matthew Hale Smith, the New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, who writes over the signature of "Burleigh," and has given currency to the misrepresentations. Mr. Beecher says:

To those who live in Boston nothing more will be needed to cure the thorough falsity of this representation, than to say, it is supposed that "Burleigh" means, in full, "Rev. Matthew Hale Smith." But to others, in other sections, it may be necessary to say that the statement is utterly untrue.

AN APT QUOTATION.—At the Convention in Rutland, after an afternoon spent in denouncing the Bible, the Marriage Institution, &c., and in laudation of Spiritualism, Vegetarianism, and Free Love, Elder Grant, the Millerite, got up, and repeated 1st Timothy, iv. 1-3. "Now the spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, forbidding to marry, commanding to abstain from meats," &c. Whether because this apt passage proved unpalatable, or for some other reason, the Convention incontinently adjourned.

FEES OF U. S. MARSHALS.—The Attorney General has decided that U. S. Marshals may retain for themselves six thousand dollars out of their fees, besides the expenses of the office and a reasonable compensation for deputies. It appears by the paper published from the Attorney General's office that some of the Marshals have not been content with this, but have decided that they were to pay over only what excess had been collected at the time of making their semi-annual returns, and have purposely allowed large amounts to lay over without making any attempt to collect them. The Attorney General censures this conduct.

Bulwer is separated from his wife, Dickens from his wife, and Charles Reade (of Peg Woffington and White Lies notoriety,) is living with another man's wife. From the days of the poet Job, whose wife was the original Mrs. Caudle, down to Socrates and Xantippe, and so on down to Byron and finally to Dickens, matrimonial unhappiness has ever attached to literary men.—Exchange Paper.

Poh, poh! some of them have had bad wives,—but many more have had good ones.

THE BITER BIT.—An Albany gentleman, to prevent his creditors from getting his property, recently signed off some $20,000 worth of real estate to two stepsons. Step-sons had deeds recorded, and in about three days had the real estate converted into money, without the step-father knowing anything about the matter. Having converted real estate into money, step-sons started for the West, leaving step-father to "take it out in swearing." Step-father having put all his property out of his hands, finds himself without sufficient funds to go in pursuit of step-sons.

☞ The 157th anniversary of the Society for the propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts was celebrated in London, June 15th, by a full choral service in St. Paul's Cathedral, and a sermon by the bishop of Derry. The lord mayor, attended by his sword and mace bearers, was present; but the congregation, on the whole, was considered small.

☞ A curious case has been before the Rochester courts in which a mother charged her son with theft, to obtain his committal to the House of Refuge, in order to save him from punishment in private at the hands of his father, of whose cruelty the woman seems to have stood in mortal terror. The boy admitted the theft and was sentenced accordingly.

Dr. Nettleton adopted the following as a maxim for the government of his life: "Do all the good you can in the world, and make as little noise about it as possible."

LETTER FROM KANSAS

WYANDOTTE CITY, KANSAS, June 18, 1858.

Dear Friend:—Wyandotte is progressing slowly, but more than any other town of its size in Kansas, in population.—Money is very difficult to obtain—very little in circulation. Persons having it hold on to it, and those who have it not do without it. There are splendid chances for investment in the West now. Money in demand—property very low. A reaction will follow, and investments made now are sure to pay.

A company is forming here to build a boat on the banks of the Kaw river—to be ready for service next spring. Capt. Simpson, who ran the Lacon last season, and is well acquainted with the river, will build her. A block of five-story brick buildings is being built near the levee, to be completed in December next. A bridge across the Kaw river at the Southern road is being built. One here will soon be started; when completed the communication with the South will be much facilitated.

Many of the Delawares desire to shove off. When their title is extinguished, settlements will multiply, and Wyandotte will become the largest place west of St. Louis. I believe that is her destiny. F.H.B.

4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 4.

The steamship City of Washington, Capt. Petrie, from Liverpool 23d ult., passed Cape Race at 11 o'clock A. M., on Friday, whereshe was boarded by the news yacht of the Associated Press, which arrived here Saturday evening, with a synopsis of her news.

She brings no tidings of the telegraph cable fleet, but reports having experienced strong westerly gales during the entire passage. She has 70 cabin and 220 steerage passengers.

The advices of this steamer, though four days later, do not possess any feature of special importance or interest.

The right of search is still discussed by the English press, and also attracts the attention of continental journals, but there have been no new or definite proceedings in relation to the question.

The London Star gives a rumor that the American Minister, Mr. Dallas, has expressed satisfaction with the arrangements proposed by England for the settlement of the right of search question.

Very destructive fires had occurred in London, involving losses to the amount of several hundred thousand pounds sterling.

The case of John B. Gough, the temperance lecturer against Dr. Lees, for libel, has resulted in favor of Mr. Gough, Dr. Lees having retracted the charges on which the suit was instituted.

The prosecution of two booksellers, for circulating a libel against Louis Napoleon, has ended by an explanation from them, and the rendition of a verdict of not guilty.

Commercial affairs in France show symptoms of improvement.

The Pope of Rome is going to increase his navy.

NAME SUGGESTED.—The Concord (N. H.) Statesman says, if the Hon. Secretary of the Navy wants a lofty sounding name for one of the new steam sloops of war, "Kearsarge" is unappropriated at the sea, and very much at his service. It is the name of a considerable mountain in New Hampshire.

ONE OF THE ITEMS.—Among other items added by the Senate to the army appropriation bill, is $80,000 for three rigiments of Missouri desperadoes, mustered into the service of Shannon and Woodson, and called "Kansas Militia." These are the same cut-throats who sacked and burned Lawrence and Ossawatomie. These are samples of those extras which have swelled the expenditure.

☞ The corner-stone of the first church for the Swedenborgian denomination in the city of New York, was laid with appropriate ceremonies on Thursday morning. It is situated on Thirty-fifth street, near Fourth street.

☞ There will be a temperance lecture before the Mutual Improvement Society, in the Academy Hall, this evening, by Rev. Mr. Patterson; commencing at 1-4 before 8 o'clock.

MARRIED.

In this city, July 6th, by Rev Jona. Hall, Mr Charles W Martin, of Portsmouth, to Miss Ada Amazon of Newcastle.

In this city, July 6th, by Rev Mr Medbery, Mr Wm Ellison to Miss Keziah Cook.

Bay State Range.

A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.

It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cutting out; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.

For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivalled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TO ALL

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better is it to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, for those purposes they relieve so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's price, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a PILL you can rely on. Address

LOCAL.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

The day itself, as to the weather, on Monday, was as fine and favorable as possible. The previous rain had laid the dust; the sunshine was bright and pleasant; and the north-easterly breeze gave us just enough air from the sea to make it comfortably cool.

The show or parade was one of the best we ever exhibited here; and was witnessed by a numerous turn-out of our own people and large numbers from other places.

The bells were rung at sunrise, noon, and sunset; and salutes of cannon fired from the city and the Navy Yard.

The trial of fire engines, and of the speed and spirit of the firemen, which took place at 6 o'clock in the morning, was an exciting piece of sport, and called out a large concourse of spectators.

Laconia Engine Company, No. 2, won the first prize. The time was 1 minute, 40 seconds, from leaving their station to playing through their pipe.

Gov. Langdon Engine Company, No. 3, won the second prize on distance of playing viz., 125 feet horizontal, through one-inch nozzle.

THE PROCESSION.

Guard of Police.
Chief Marshal and Aids.
Portsmouth Cornet Band—17 instruments.
Newcastle Light Guards, Capt. Murray, 28 men in a neat fatigue uniform.

Committee of Arrangements, Reader of Declaration, orators and members of the city government, in carriages.

Mercantile Library Association—30 members. Their banner was inscribed with the title of the Association and the date of its incorporation—July 10, 1855—and the motto—"He so mingled diverse nations by commerce that what was produced in any one spot seemed native in every place."

Young Catholic Friends Society—50 members—established April 1858. They carried no distinctive banner, but bore above them the stars and stripes of their adopted country.

Portsmouth Temperance Mutual Improvement Society—about 50 members. They carried a banner inscribed with the name of the Society, and the date of organization—March 30, 1858.

Newmarket Brass Band—15 instruments.

The Fire Department followed—five full companies, and all in new uniforms—in the following order:

Granite State, No. 1—Capt. A. K. P. Deering—41 men. Uniform—Grey frocks with buff trimmings, black pants, and silver and gold bronze leather caps. Their engine was decorated with boquets in fire buckets, and bore the motto—"We drown to save."

Laconia, No. 2—Capt. Wm. B. Grogan—42 men. They wore a beautiful uniform, consisting of blue frocks with red and white trimmings and silver fringe, black pants with red leather trimmings, and red caps faced with silver bronze. Their engine is in the painter's hands, and was not brought out. The motto of the company is—"We'll try." Their officers carried two of the prize trumpets won in the morning.

Gov. Langdon, No. 3—Capt. Wm. Cornelius—38 men. Uniform, blue coats with buff facings, black pants and water colored silk caps. Their engine was surmounted with handsome boquets, and bore the motto—"Always ready." Two of the prize trumpets were borne by the officers of this company.

Sagamore, No. 5—Capt. E. F. Wiggin—38 men. Uniform, white frocks trimmed with scarles, black pants, and black shining caps.—Their engine was handsomely decorated.

Atlantic, No. 6—Capt. Albert Foye—40 men. Uniform, red frocks trimmed with blue, black pants, and neat fire caps. The motto of the company is "Deeds, not words," and they were accompanied by the South Berwick Brass Band—15 pieces.

Epping Cornet Band—17 instruments.

Portsmouth Hose Company, No. 7—A body of 30 boys under command of Master John J. Laskey, with a light carriage very prettily trimmed, and the motto "We strive to save." Their uniform consisted of white linen shirts trimmed with blue, black pants and red caps.

Portsmouth Light Guard—a boys' company of 26 members, under command of Capt. Robert Shillaber. They wore dark jackets, white pants with red trimmings, and scarlet caps.

A Car descriptive of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, filled with boys in continental costume. The car was appropriately decorated with national emblems, flags, &c, and the team was driven by Mr. Cotton Garland of Newington, who appeared in a cocked hat, silk stockings, silver shoe buckles, and general revolutionary trim.

Car of the months of the Year—with life representatives of every month in the calendar.

Car of America—with eagles, ship, anchor, cannon, and Young American representatives of the army and navy.

Banner—"America, half brother of the world, with something good and fair of every land."

Indian Canoe, filled with representatives of of the forest, bearing the arms of war and the pipes of peace, and the inscription—"We are passing away."

Banner—"The Past has gone; the Future has not come; the Present, where is it?"

Car of Peasants, filled with girls in an appropriate costume, and lads with the implements of husbandry.

Banner—"Seed time nor harvest, summer nor winter, shall fail."

Car of the Seasons—with life representations of Infancy, Youth, Maternity and Widowhood.

Car of Rosebuds—filled with beautiful children of tender years.

Banner—"A laughing child is the best portrait of happiness."

Ship Constitution, full rigged, with an efficient working crew.

A company of boy sailors, under Capt. J. T. Marcy, 24 in number—in blue shirts, white pants, and star hats.

Banner—"We object to the right of search."

Indian Encampment, with representatives of the aborigines in war paint and costume, dogs, &c.

Banner—"The fall of a leaf is a whisper to the living."

Car of the Goddess of Peace, with her attendants, Faith, Hope Charity and Plenty.

Banner—"In her day every man shall live in safety, and sing the merry songs of peace."

Car of the Temple of Knowledge—Represented by a Free School.

Banners—"Despise school and remain a fool.

"Who never tries cannot win the prize."

Car of the Floral Queen, with her attendants—followed by a company of Flower Girls.

Banner—"Flowers are living preachers: each cup a pulpit and each leaf a book."

Car of the States of the Union—filled by thirty-two misses bearing flags for each state of the confederacy.

Banners—"The union of hearts and the union of hands, and the flag of our Union forever."

"America, thy flag floats highest under heaven."

Car of the Flower Garden—with personations of the Rose, Lily, Narcissus, Tulip, Lilac, Scabious, Marigold and Dahlia.

Banner—"Mind your seeds are not of weeds."

Car of Musicians, inscribed with the names of Beethoven, Mozart, Ole Bull, Kate Hayes, Jenny Lind, and other celebrities, surmounted by the Queen of Song. The car was filled with juveniles, who enlivened the march with merry songs and instrumental performances.

Banner—"Praise the Lord with harp; sing unto him a new song."

Company of Highlanders—a corps of 20 boys under Capt. James G. Sanborn—in complete Highland costume.

Car of Goddess of Harvest—represented in a car decorated with agricultural implements and products, and bearing a company of harvesters.

Banners—"Make hay while the sun shines."

"Thrive by honesty or remain poor."

Young America—Represented on a car conveying a juvenile school.

Banner—"Little strokes fell great oaks."

There were many street decorations on the line of the route, the most prominent of which were those at Liberty and South Mill bridges, which were gaudily and tastefully decorated with evergreen and flowery arches.

The bands all played very well and it would be difficult to decide which furnished the best music. We would, however, make particular reference to the Epping Cornet Band, which made its appearance in a procession for the first time on Monday. There was much doubt about the expediency of hiring a new band for such an occasion, but the Epping Band performed its duties to the highest satisfaction of all parties and with much credit to themselves. It numbers seventeen members, who are all good-sized, well-looking men, dressed in a handsome uniform, consisting of round, tall caps with flowing red and white vulture plumes, dark blue coats with white epaulets and silver star on the left breast, dark blue pants with white belt and white stripe. Their instruments are of the best description, and they furnished excellent music in the street and in the tent.

The march of the grand procession terminated at half past 1 o'clock, at the tent erected in Court place. This tent was about 200 feet long, and of ample width and height.

The Mayor and Aldermen, ex-Mayors Jenness and Walker, and others, occupied the platform at the south end of the tent. Mayor Morrison began the services here, by brief congratulatory remarks, and Rev. A. J. Patterson offered an appropriate prayer.

The Declaration of Independence was read by Timothy G. Senter, Esq. After which, by invitation, Hon. Messrs. I. Goodwin, Albert R. Hatch and H. D. Walker made short addresses on topics suggested by the day and the occasion.

These exercises were interspersed with music from the several bands, playing national airs; and were closed with the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Mr. Patterson.

The regatta, or rowing match, at six o'clock P. M., came off agreeably to appointment; and was witnessed by thousands of people, who lined the shores and wharves, occupied the vessels' decks and rigging, and skimmed about the harbor in boats. All these, with the bands and other occupants of the judges' stand, presented a gay scene, befitting the eventide of a holiday. The effect of the music from the band, which played from the judges' stand, was very fine. The stand itself was one of the largest gondolas, (or as they call them elsewhere, scows or lighters,) anchored midway between the Spring Market and Badgers' Island. Of course the band could be seen and the music heard and enjoyed by everybody on both sides of the river.

The first match was between two light boats, with two oars each. The prize was adjudged to boat Flying Cloud, entered by John W. Knight.

The second was between a six-oared boat, entered by Mr. Deering, and the boat Flying Cloud, with four-oars, entered by Mr. Dixon. This match was closely contested, and the prize was awarded to the light boat Flying Cloud.

The Promenade Concert, in the evening, was a fine close of the celebration. The long tent was brilliantly lighted up by rows of gas lights passing down the centre through the whole length. The lively crowds that came and went, and listened and talked and laughed, and saw and were seen, all seemed pleased, and the sight was really pleasing.

The three bands that were present with their different uniforms added interest by their good appearance; and as to the music, both then and in the day-time, it was one of the finest features of the day. The out-of-town bands left at nine o'clock, after which the Portsmouth Band alone kept up their part of the entertainment with sweetness and spirit to its very close.

BANDS.—There were four bands of music in the procession on Monday—the Portsmouth Cornet Band, the Newmarket Band, and the Epping Cornet Band, employed by the general Committee of Arrangements; and the South Berwick Band, employed by Engine Co. No. 6. The bands all played very well, but the two first and last named are too well known to need praise; they furnish music good enough for any occasion. The South Berwick Band was never heard here before, but won much praise on this occasion for their fine performances.

We would, however, make special reference to the Epping Cornet Band, because this was their first appearance in a procession, and the first time they have had occasion to furnish street music. This Band is composed of 17 members, who were all good sized, well looking men, dressed in a handsome uniform, consisting of a tall round cap with red and white (vulture) plumes and gilt trimmings, dark blue military coat with white epaulets and a silver star on the left breast, and dark blue pants with white trimmings; their instruments were of the best description and were played well. They performed their duties in the street and in the Tent, to the satisfaction of the citizens and with much credit to themselves, and were pronounced by good judges to be capable of furnishing good music whenever the services of a band may be required.

☞ We were pleased to see, on the 5th, the great prevalence of sobriety, though there were cases of the vice and folly into which the silliest of simpletons run themselves on such days, by tampering with the dangerous drinks of the day. One such case, was that of a poor fellow, who, at the time of the regatta, lay dead drunk under the lee of a wall, in the sight of hundreds, with the sun shining on his bronzed visage. A kind-hearted teetotaler, who stood by, covered the exposed face with leaves of the burrlock which flourished there, to protect it from the sun. Another was that of a man who did not get sober through the night, but staggered along at 8 next morning; and another who staggered by the writer 4 or 5 times at 9 A. M. on Tuesday.

ALL PROMENADE!—The Promenade Concert on Monday evening was very fully attended, and highly enjoyed. See advertisement of another of these popular entertainments, at the great tent, this evening.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

We would call attention to the notice in another column for a meeting this evening at Exchange Hall, to aid in the establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association in our city. Many are aware that such an association was organized in our city some six years since. From lack of interest on the part of its members and on the part of those without its limits, who should be forward in promoting the interests of such matters, it was suffered to become extinct. A library of some 500 volumes had been gathered, many of which were of value. Previous to the disorganization of this Association, this library was placed in the hands of a number of its members, who were interested in its perpetuation, in trust for any Association that might be formed with the same objects as those had in view by their organization.—

At the present time there are a large number of young men connected with our churches; and no more favorable opportunity could be found for the establishment of such an institution in our city, than the present. In many of the cities and towns all through our land, these Associations are of efficient service in promoting the cause of Christ, furnishing, as they do, channels of usefulness to those who are willing to labor for the good of those around them. Such an Association should be sustained in our city. Let not only our young men be engaged in this enterprise, but those of maturer years and experience, whose influence and counsels should give it permanence and stability, and it would become an agent of great good in our midst. We bespeak for the movement a hearty encouragement from all interested in the welfare of the young men of our city.

THE SHOALS MISSION.—The charitable people of Portsmouth, who are annually solicited to aid in the maintenance of the ministry and the school at Gosport are entitled to know that the Society at Boston and other friends do supply a portion of the funds thus expended. The people (to their great credit) take the burden of the school a part of the year. The Missionary is the teacher and is paid as such in other portions of the year. And he is expected to have, during the whole year, the superintendency and oversight—and there is no committee or superintendent besides.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.

Ho! farmers away to the well-ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.

There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test.

The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insiduous inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last years of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinising friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. DIX. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superiority, virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a cautious article under some cover or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicine.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 dly

Pleasure Sailing.

The Schooner Sibyl,

ONE of the beautiful Yachts built by the late George Steers, will run daily to the Shoals, touching at any of the Islands, to accommodate passengers. She will leave Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning cars from Boston and Concord; (after daily 1½ and return in season for the afternoon trains out of Portsmouth—deviating in either course or time, to suit parties on board. She will also run as an Accommodation Yacht, to the order of individuals or Parties, if reasonable application be made, on board, or to Mr. John E. Rider.

The Sibyl is commanded by Capt. RUFUS A. PREBLE, an experienced Pilot, who will give every attention to the comfort and enjoyment of his passengers. The Sibyl has an elegant Cabin, water closets, tanks, and every accommodation of a first-class Packet. jy 28 2m

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and disease arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict humankind originate in one of these, and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic I know. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more efficacious for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Knox, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you sent me kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an excellent purgative pill. Their mildness and tact adapted to the disease of the human system that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly employ. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"YOUR PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy when cathartic medicine is needed for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. R. Sweet, who recommends as a Medicine and Midwife to Females.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are equally preventive of the natural accompanying pain and suffering of childbirth, and the very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Temple, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our materiality have found them as efficacious as I have, they must be a blessing to mankind; it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although not enough in itself is the progenitor of other diseases, I believe it is confessed by everyone in the free, but your PILLS effect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — ERUPTIONS — ULCERS — SCALDHEAD.

From Dr. Ezekiel Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and agree with your statements of their efficacy. Numerous cutaneous eruptions and every of the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS —FITS—ETC.

From Dr. Edward Bogel, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say off that we use them with a deep-felt satisfaction. I place great dependence on your PILLS in my daily contact with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the PILLS in market contain Mercury, which, while a calomel purge, is a fearful remedy, and dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

HAS long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every dose of it is warranted to be perfectly free from impurity and care, it is well tried and proved by law from constant use, and can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As time passes and its virtues become better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of Kings and Queens. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, it is the most every hamlet it contains. CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them: if we can trust our own senses when we see the dangerous symptoms of our children yield to it, if we can rely on the testimony of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then it is irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the worst of diseases it is claimed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many different remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

☞ Marshall Rynders of New York was serenaded by his friends on Thursday evening, and he invited them in to "take something," but afterwards told them, in a rather ungracious speech, that he considered serenades humbugs as a general thing and a growing evil in the Democratic party. Rynders said, moreover:—

I learn that the other night collector Schell was serenaded. And when I hear of some of those who were present, and enthusiastic in that demonstration, my utter contempt for them cannot be expressed. Because I know that a few days previous to that, when those very men supposed, from the information they had, that he would be defeated, they threw up their hats and hurrahed over what they supposed to be his downfall. Such demonstrations, gotten up by such men, are humbugs, and the men who get them up are sycophants, beneath the contempt of any honest man.

* * Gentlemen, I have detained you so long that you must be dry again. Try a little of that champagne, and you will find the eatables handy, if you want them.

MASON — A correspondent asks through the New York Musical Review, whether "is it proper for the congregation to rise and turn round to face the choir during the singing?" To this question Dr. Lowell Mason replies as follows:—

"Our own taste, or sense of propriety, says it is not. It seems to be disrespectful to the pulpit, where is the word, where is the preacher, and from whence comes the offer of life. It leads to forgetfulness of the true design of singing, and to the mere gratification of the eye, or ear, or to criticism, etc. We think it much better for the people to rise, face the pulpit, and join heart and voice in the song."

The people do like to face the music;—and therefore we think it best to have speakers and singers on the same side of the house. In the Roman and English churches, the people commonly face the altar. In this respect,—as well as in standing and kneeling at different points in the service, other churches would do well to copy them.

The Swedenborgians have their organs by the side of their pulpits, in some of their churches—and always, so far as we have seen, on the ground floor. Their singing is all from one uniform book of chants, with notes; every worshipper has one, and all who can sing do sing, facing the pulpit.

POTATO POISON.—In the Essex Institute, on Wednesday, Mr. Putnam of Danvers read a paper from Prof. Donbar on Solanine or potato poison. Some years ago a provision dealer in Salem distributed a quantity of potatoes among his customers, by which many of them were made seriously ill. As most of them were returned and destroyed, the professor was enabled to obtain but a small number for examination. From 18 ounces of them he extracted a small quantity of solanine, part of which, about one-fifth of a grain, he took to observe its effect upon his own system. He was severely affected, and being somewhat alarmed took ammonia, hoping it might be an antidote, but as the poison turned out to be an alkaloid, this only made the mischief worse, and the professor was obliged to take a strong dose of nitric acid. For some days after, his complexion appeared almost as blue as the potato itself, (so said Mr. Putnam,) and the unwholesome influence lested much longer. These potatoes were very fine-looking, and were considered a prize by the purchasers, but as they had begun to sprout were evidently in a state of incipient decay, of which the poison was judged to be a resultant compound.

Mr. Russell remarked that the whole family of the Solanum were poisonous. He also stated that the tomato, which had hitherto been classed with these had been lately assigned to another genus.—Newburyport Herald.

THE REMAINS OF EX-PRESIDENT MONROE have been exhumed at New York for burial in Virginia. He lived in New York city for half a dozen years before he died, and died there in poverty; and to this day no monument marked the spot where slept the fifth President of the United States.—After more than thirty-three years his dust is given back to mingle with the dust of his native State which he served in various capacities, and with much honor. He was in public life for half a century without cessation, and no better proof of his honesty and patriotism is wanted than that he died poor. The Boston Traveller in a notice of Mr. Munroe says:—

"Like some others of our Presidents, his last days were embittered by poverty. It reflects disgrace on our country that some means are not had to render comfortable the retired servants in the decline of life.—A pension of five or six thousand a year to every ex-President would be nothing more than simple justice dictates as the fact of having held the Presidential office brings heavy expense upon a man. The principle involved in pensions is recognized by the country and acted on by government, in allowing the franking privilege to ex-Presidents."

THE EMPEROR OF FRANCE AND THE BIBLE SOCIETIES.—A singular edict has appeared in the Moniteur relative to the circulation of books and pamphlets by the colporteurs, the individuals so much employed by our English Bible Society. This edict sets out with the assertion that 8,000,000 of immoral books were dispersed over the rural districts of France by 10,000 hawkers about the year 1847—that is to say, before the happy period when a revolution prepared that country for its present ruler. "This was the consequence," we are told, "of the imprudent neglect that is adorned with the name of liberty." For six years the Imperial government has sought to abate the plague; and not having been so successful as could have been wished, severe means are to be adopted. "It is the duty of the administration," we read, "to prevent foreign societies, possessed of considerable resources, from despatching agents to France with the view of producing agitation."—We hope this does not mean that the Bible is the next danger to be apprehended in the land of Fenelon. At all events, it pretty clearly shows that the Emperor has a compact with the French clergy which may involve his retention of power.

"COULDN'T AFFORD IT"—Some months since, on the corner of Nassau and Spruce streets a beggar had taken his stand, and asked alms of all who passed. A gentleman who was engaged in superintending the construction of a new building, thought the beggar looked like an able-bodied man, and went over and asked him if he would not like to work, and offered him a dollar a day. To his surprise the beggar replied, "I couldn't afford to work for that price." "Why not?" was the answer. "Because I average a dollar and a half a day here, begging, and I can't afford to lose the ball dollar." He soon after moved from that stand. This is a specimen of street beggars. They can't afford to work.—N. Y. Post.

The drop which thou shakest from thy wet hand—says Carlisle—rests not where it falls, but to-morrow thou findest it swept away. Already, on the wings of the North wind, it is nearing the tropic of Cancer.—How came it to evaporate, and not lie motionless? Thinkest thou there is aught that God has made, that is motionless, without force, and utterly dead?

PUBLIC WORSHIP. — A tourist in England, writing in an exchange paper says: "There is one thing I see in England, everywhere in places of worship. I allude to a deep, quiet, solemn composure all over the congregation at the close of the service, when the benediction is uttered. It lasts for half a minute. Not a head is raised, not a foot stirs, and there is much reverence apparent."

A most commendable outward observance.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston, AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions;—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a secure form to obtain them a early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1858.

BATTLE OF THE BEES.

Not the battle of the honey bees, but of letter B's,—Beecher, of Brooklyn, and Burleigh, the New York letter writer for the Boston Journal. Burleigh is now well known to be Rev. Matthew Hale Smith Esq. who, as the Boston Journal says editorially, "is not a reporter, [but] his duties require him to communicate the gossip of New York city, rather than the news."

No man could be more in his element when writing gossip, than he; as the Journal says:—

He gives a more graphic picture of life in New York than can be obtained from the metropolitan newspapers. He wields a forcible pen, and presents the matter of his letters in glowing colors. A correspondent so wide awake, piquant and forcible, could hardly fail to make enemies.

He does indeed, make his pictures as "large as life, and twice as natural!"

His rejoinder to Beecher's denial of Burleigh's gossip, is as ingenious as Matthew H. Smith can be, and that is saying a great deal. It is, besides, as fair and as true as his famous books and tracts; quite graphic, and worthy of the man, who when he offered to renew his membership with his former Association in Boston, was unanimously rejected.

Mr. Smith, (as Burleigh,) says of Mr. Beecher, (as Star, *,) :

It was quite amiable in "Star" to correct the falsehoods of Burleigh, when he knew they could do him no more harm than a hot sun could do to the skin of a black man. No man believes that "Star" believes a word of his own statement on this matter of credibility.]

The balance of credibility is easily struck between the two writers, by all who know anything of Burleigh.

Beecher says,—of his invitation to the communion table "I have made actual piety, and not mere church membership, the ground of fitness."

And the Boston Journal adds:

This, if we mistake not, is substantially the position which he was reported as maintaining!

This is, however, quite a mistake. The ground taken was, substantially, that he invited all good people without any regard to church membership,—which the Journal will see to be quite another thing.

We read recently, in a Baptist paper, the Era, a statement in substance that the Baptists did not consider the mere fact of christian character as a passport to the Lord's table, but that they demanded gospel baptism [immersion] besides.

Surely this does not mean that they choose to ignore christian character,—but that they insist on another item of fitness.

So Beecher's saying that mere regular standing does not entitle any man to sit down at his invitation—does not mean that this is nothing, but only that it is not enough.

Universalists, Unitarians and some others give the unlimited invitation. But Beecher, by his own statement, (above quoted,) and by that of a hearer, while he did not go beyond the pale of membership, insisted on some "higher law" than paper rolls or subscriptions of any sort, however regular.

The venerable old Presbyterian, Dr. Dana of Newburyport, forty years ago, after solemnly inviting certain church members (no others) to draw near and partake, used to go on and say, in his splendid trumpet tones:—

"And I solemnly debar"—all persons guilty of open and scandalous sins, of secret crimes unrepented, of thoughtless lives, of unprepared hearts, from partaking of this ordinance. Surely the Doctor did not ignore regular standing—but he asked for something more.

SIX GENERATIONS.—Five generations are sometimes seen in one room in New England. The Boston Transcript says:—"We once met a very active lady of some eighty odd years, who was the grandmother of a person present who was herself holding a grandchild. The infant was passed to its grandmother's grandmother, and thus five generations met. Recent English papers report the death at Norfolk of Mr. John Holmes, in the 100th year of his age."—The Chelmsford Chronicle says: "The deceased leaves behind him a son Thomas, aged 81, and a grandson aged 60, the latter being himself a great-grandfather; thus presenting the remarkable fact of a man living to witness the sixth generation from himself, and to see his great grandson become a grandfather."

☞ The word debt is composed of the initials of "Dun Every Body Twice." Credit is formed of the initial letters of "Call Regularly Every Day—I'll Trust."

MAINE.—The Maine Conference of the M. E. Church speaks to the point.

That we will seek to arouse the people to co-operate in this great work, bringing to bear upon the public mind, especially of the young, all the forces that can be summoned to the conflict—preaching to them of righteousness, temperance and judgment to come—recommending an appeal to the strong arm of law only as a terror to evil-doers, and when other milder means are found powerless and inefficient.

We recommend to all our churches in this Conference, and urgently insist upon the entire abandonment of alcoholic wines and intoxicating beverage for holy sacramental purposes.

MASSACHUSETTS.—Of the people who live there, and their occupations, and so forth, the Christian Examiner says:

Of the 1,132,369 persons in Massachusetts on the first of June, 1855, 1,122,463 were of the Caucasian race; 9776 were of the African race; and 130 were red men; of the whole only six were of unmixed Indian blood. There are 106 women to 100 men in the State. 31.69 per cent. of the whole population are of the "dependent age," from birth to 15; 61.91 per cent. are of the "productive age," from 15 to 60; 6.40 per cent. are of the "retiring age," from 60 to the end. Out of 100 persons in Massachusetts, 32 are under 15; 62 between 15 and 60; 6 are over three-score.

In looking at the occupations of the people we find that about 41,000 men work upon leather, either in manufacturing the article or moulding it into various forms. There are 1800 doctors; 1750 ministers, of large and small denominations; 1545 printers; 1584 coopers; 1116 lawyers; and 1080 peddlers. Out of 100 males over 15 years old, 3 work in factories: 5 are sailors, 9 are traders; 17 are farmers; 18 are laborers; and 37 mechanics, of whom 12 work upon leather; every eighth man in the State is a shoemaker.

In 1856 there were 12,265 couples married in Massachusetts. The number is 1418 less than that of 1854. The writer asks, is marriage diminishing in Massachusetts? He adds, "the extravagant habits of luxurious men and women put marriage out of the reach of many, vanity prevailing over affection. As flounces increase in number and become greater in size, wives diminish and lessen. A woman becomes an article of luxury."

The returns show that women attain a greater age than men. The native males live ten years more than foreign males, and American females twelve years more than their sisters from abroad. After giving a table showing the relations of occupations to longevity, it is stated that—

"It is now quite clear that in all civilized countries the average life of man is lengthening; yet it may be doubtful whether cases of extreme longevity are on the increase. We have never found any well authenticated case of a man reaching his two hundredth year."

Farmers, coopers and lawyers show the greatest average age at death, while painters, machinists and printers show the lowest average. Farmers die at 64, shoemakers at 43, printers at 36. So 36 farmers will live as long as 43 shoemakers or 64 printers!

UNION.—The Republicans of the Minnesota Legislature being in a minority united with fourteen Douglass members and secured a majority. They passed resolves denouncing the policy of the President, and approving of the course of Senators Shield and Douglass.

☞ Mr. James L. Bowers, a worthy farmer in Kent county, Md., was stripped, tarred and feathered on the 26th inst., for being opposed to slavery and a subscriber to the N. Y. Tribune. It was the intention of the mob to hang or burn Mr. Bowers, but they were deterred from so doing by his agonized wife following after them and filling the air with her shrieks and cries.

LIBERAL DONATION.—The Rev. George L. Prentiss recently dissolved his connection with the Mercer street Presbyterian Church, New York, and left for Europe on the 26th ult. A few days before his departure, Dr. Prentiss received a letter from his friends in that congregation, announcing a donation of more than eight thousand dollars, contributed by them for his use and benefit.

☞ The London Times is about to be printed on the beet-paper at a saving of two cents per pound—which, on their edition of seven tons of paper per day, is equal to $100,000 a year. It will be soon used on the Illustrated News and all the leading London periodicals—it having been thoroughly tested.

☞ Abraham Rising, who died at Southwick, Mass., on the 25th ult., at the advanced age of 99 years, was at the taking of Gen. Burgoyne's army at Saratoga, having entered the continental army at the age of 17, and serving there a few months as a substitute for another man.

"MURDER WILL OUT."—The skeleton of a man buried about three feet deep in the sand, near a wood in Laconia, N. H., has been brought to light and identified to be that of a pedlar of Campton, named Blaisdell, who was murdered twenty-five years ago.

STRANGE CASE.—At St. Louis, a few days ago, Joseph King, a book-keeper, was discharged by his employer on account of his dissipated habits. On Thursday he purchased some strychnine, called at Mr. Gilman's store, where he was acquainted, for a tumbler, saying he wanted to get a glass of lager beer to drink with his dinner, which he wanted to eat up stairs. The St. Louis Democrat tells the remainder:—

"He put the strychnine in the beer, and drank half of the mixture. He then lay down upon a pile of leather in the loft and went to sleep. After a while the gentlemen down stairs, wishing to use the tumbler, sent their porter, Patrick Burke, up stairs after the glass. Burke went up to where the glass was placed, and seeing it half full of the lager which he knew King to have purchased, not suspecting such a thing as poison mixed with it, and thinking King had got to sleep before finishing the contents, took it up and drank the remainder of the liquor. Returning down stairs, he was shortly seized with gripings and pains in the stomach, and thinking it the effect of the unwholesome atmosphere of the levee, anticipated an attack of the cholera. He was immediately taken to his house, but not until three hours afterwards was a physician called in.

In the meantime, the parties at the store of Mr. Gilman heard heavy groans, as of a man in great pain, proceeding from the loft above, and upon reaching the place, found King upon the floor writhing in agony. They soon discovered the facts in the case, and in a very few minutes Mr. King was taken to the Health Office. It is said that the porter drank the greater quantity of poison, as he finished the glass, and therefore got the very dregs, and that he cannot possibly survive. In all probability, ere this paper goes to press, the parties will be no longer among the living."

☞ In St. Louis they have been using the steam fire engines as street cleaners.—The Levee was covered with mud deposited by the flood. On Monday last the engines were put to work washing it off, which they did splendidly. The Republican says a saving of $5000, at least, will be effected by the operation, and the health of the city promoted by it.

ABOVE HIGH WATER MARK.—The editor of the Chester (Ill.) Herald says, while speaking of the flood:—

Our office is now two hundred and seventy-six feet above the present tide. Should it reach us the city of Chicago will be sixty-one feet under, and the cupola of the State House at Springfield will be in deep soundings. We will then have to retire to the Lutheran Church, a point in our city some fifty feet higher than our office, and there continue to proclaim the great truths of the Republican party to a diluvian world.

ADDITIONS TO THE CITY CHURCHES.—The Journal publishes a detailed account of the recent additions to the Trinitarian churches in Boston. It says:

In summing up we have the following aggregate figures: Number to be received into the Orthodox churches to-morrow by profession, including nineteen received into the Old South Church last week, 418; by letter, 88; total, 506. Number to be received at the Baptist churches by profession, including the admissions of the last month, 120; by letter, 4. Number to be received into the Methodist churches by profession, including the admissions of the last month or two, 252; received on probation, 707. Total number received on profession, 837; by letter, 92; on probation, 703; total, 1632.

There are many more converts in the Orthodox denomination, who will probably unite with the churches in September.—Also quite a number among the Baptists.

Mr. Delacy—About that washing bill of yours, Mrs. Mooney; I hardly know what to say. You know the banks are—

Mrs. Mooney—Shure I don't know and don't care who they are. I'm wanting me money.

Mr. D.—But how can you expect me to have money when all the banks—

Mrs. M.—What's the banks to me? It wurn't for the banks I did the washing, and I'm wanting me money.

Mr. D.—O, conound the Irish! One can never make them understand a financial crisis.

☞ An infant son of a clergyman named Alexander has recovered $3333 damages from the Cleveland and Pittsburg Railroad Company, for having his hand cut off by a train of cars.

FORCIBLE WOMEN.—The women of Vinalhaven demolished the liquors in a couple of rum shops on Saturday last. They met with some resistance in one case, and several had their dresses torn.

NOBLE SENTIMENTS.—Condemn no man for not thinking as you think. Let every one enjoy the full and free liberty of thinking for himself. Let every man use his own judgment, since every man must give an account of himself to God. Abhor every approach, in any kind or degree, to the spirit of persecution. If you cannot reason or persuade a man into the truth, never attempt to force him into it. If love will not compel him, leave him to God, the Judge of all.—John Wesley.

☞ Answer to the charade in last week's Chronicle. Daniel Boone.

STEAMER BURNT—LIVES LOST.—Chicago, July 3.—On the morning of the 1st inst., the steamer Galena took fire at the landing at Red Wing Minnesota. The flames spread with such rapidity that the boat was soon enveloped in them. About 75 persons were on board, 68 of whom were saved. The following are known to be lost:—John Tyson, Holley Porter, Nancy Porter, Charles Porter, and Lydia Porter, of Michigan. The books and papers were all lost. The boat was valued at $50,000. No insurance.

For the Chronicle.

THOUGHTS—BY ANNIE.

The glorious sun is sinking low
Beneath the amber colored clouds;
While darkness cometh, sure and slow,
And nature with its folds enshrouds.

The lovely flower has closed its cup,
The tuneful bird has sought its nest;
All nature, now the day has passed,
Doth gladly, gently sink to rest:

Thus bright, at the close of life,
Shall the poor spirit pass away;
Leaving behind a halo bright,
That speaketh of a well-spent day.

And gladly shall we take our rest,
When cold death-clouds obscure the sight,
And in the morning, with the blest,
Awake to view a world more bright.

See that bonny boat,
The Sibyl by name,
Commanded by PRESLE,
The Pilot of fame.

From West Quaddy Head
To the Green Derby Shore,
She will take out large parties
The coast to explore;

Your ships on the waters
Will be managed with skill,
When in charge of the master
Of the far-famed Sibyl.

Bay State Range.

A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.

It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.

For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivalled for capacity, economy in convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better is it to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

The Great English Remedy.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the first twenty weeks, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

LOCAL.

WHAT IS IN A NAME?—We have often wondered where our Naval Storekeeper obtained the exceedingly classic name he bears, but the following from a Southern paper, if it does not give us a true statement of the facts, at least affords a capital explanation of the way "it might have been if it wasn't anything else" :—

Virgil D. Parris, of Maine, has been appointed Naval Storekeeper at Portsmouth, N. H., vice Reding removed.

There is a funny story told about the manner in which Mr. Virgil Delphini Parris got his name. His father, an honest but unlettered man, on the day of the young gentleman's birth, happened to take up an old "Delphini" edition of Virgil, printed in France. It being all Latin, except the title page, the old man interested himself with that. After spelling over it for some time he managed to make out the three words,

"Virgil Delphini,"
"Paris,"

the last being the place of publication.

"Ah," said he, "Paris must be some relation of mine. A mighty smart man he is, too, to write such a whaling big book as this, and all in Greek. I'll name my son after him. And so the present worthy bearer of the cumbrous soubriquet was christened. In spite of his name, he has held high honors.

☞ On the 5th, as the morning train for Boston was just leaving the depot at Newburyport, a woman named Elizabeth Ann Locke was thrown under the cars and killed almost instantly. Her age was fifty-six years. It seems she had stepped in the cars while they were stopping at the depot, to bid her daughters adieu. The cars started, and the woman in attempting to jump from the train, fell between the cars. Her body was shockingly mangled, and she expired in about half an hour. A daughter, in attempting to assist her, had her hand and other parts of her body bruised. Mrs. Locke leaves a husband, who is absent at sea, and three daughters.

Mrs. Locke was formerly Mrs. Collins, of this city.

HOW IT HAPPENED.—Although, as we have stated, no accident has happened to passengers the past season, nor has any employee been seriously injured, on the Eastern Railroad, as the annual report said,—yet one man, in a state of partial intoxication, persisted in crossing the track while a train was backing into the station in Boston, and was fatally injured; and another individual was crossing the road in a wagon, and, disregarding the usual signals, was thrown out, and died in consequence of the injury he sustained.

ACCIDENTS ON THE FIFTH.—In New York a daughter of Sergeant Relay, aged 8 years, was burnt to death in consequence of her clothing being set on fire by some fire crackers. John McCanley, a lad of 17, way playing with a loaded pistol, when the weapon discharged, and he was shot in the head, and died soon after. Wm. Cuff was shot in the head by an intoxicated man carelessly handling a pistol, and it is said cannot recover.

In Brooklyn, Richard Brower, a boy of 14 years, was mortally wounded by the accidental discharge of a musket in the hands of another boy.

FIRES ON THE 5TH.—A barn belonging to Mr. Horn, at Dover, N. H., caught fire from fire-crackers which boys were carelessly discharging in the vicinity, and was burned to the ground.

At 10 o'clock A. M., a house and two barns, belonging to Daniel Osborne, South Danvers, were on fire. The house was partially consumed, the barns and their contents entirely destroyed. The origin of the fire was supposed to be fire-crackers, and the property destroyed was valued at from three to four thousand dollars.

During the exhibition of the fire-works in Boston, one of the largest rockets came, down through the sky light in one of the rooms of the American Tract Society, broke a number of lights, and landed upon the counter. It set fire to some wrapping paper on the counter, and went out. Within half a foot of the place where the burning part struck was a pile of some thousand newspapers. Had it struck in that pile, the building would probably have been in a flame.

In the evening, at Newburyport, just after 9 o'clock, the burning stick of a rocket came down between the wooden buildings on Ferry and City wharves, between the stores of D. T. Woodwell and J. J. Knapp, by which they were soon in flames and burned to the ground. Loss $1300. No insurance.

A CENTURY WOMAN.—Mrs. Rhoda Douglas, of Freetown, now in her 99th year, has just recovered from a severe attack of erysipelas, and bids fair to see her 100th birthday. A few days ago, by way of pastime, she went up stairs, and spun six skeins of linen. She distinctly remembers events which occurred more than ninety years ago. Not long ago, while sitting alone, by some means she rocked over backwards, and was considerably hurt; but, as she said, "scrabbled up before any of the folks could come into the room, and said nothing about it for several days." She thinks young people like herself should not fuss about trifles.—Taunton Gazette.

TAKE NO THOUGHT FOR THE MORROW.—"If the most anxious and unhappy men of the world," says Dr. Chalmers, "were examined as the ground of their disquietude, it would be found, in nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of the one thousand, that the provision of this day was not the cause for it. They carry forward their imaginations to a distant futurity, and fill it up with the spectres of melancholy and despair. What a world of happiness would be saved, if the things of the day, its duties, employments, and services, were to occupy all our hearts—and of to-morrow, how delightful to think that we have the sure warrant of God for believing that by committing its issue in quietness to him, when the future day comes, the provision of that day will come along with it. What I would like to impress upon all who are beset with anxieties about the future days they are to live in this world is, that daily bread is one of the objects it is agreeable to the will of God that we should ask, for it is the very petition which the Son of God taught his disciples. We have a full warrant, then, for believing that we shall get it, and according to the faith of our prayer, so it will be done unto us."

GREAT LEAP — Sam Patch Beaten.—A sailor named Griffin, belonging to the schooner Clyde, took a leap on Sunday that casts Sam Patch and his great jumps entirely in the shade. The schooner Hart took out a pleasure party, on Sunday, and after the bar on board had been pretty well patronized, Griffin concluded he would show off some of his feats of agility, and after climbing to the truck of mainmast, and going through some gymnastic feats, made a flying leap into the water, a distance of 125 feet. The only wonder is that he was not instantly killed, and as it was he was quite severely hurt. — Chicago Tribune.

☞ Mr. John M. Bernhisel, delegate in Congress from Utah, publishes an Appeal to the Public, in relation to the march of the army towards Salt Lake City. He declares that the Mormons' profession of a desire for peace is honest, and expresses a fear that the misstatements which he charges upon the Press of the country will have the effect of prejudicing the public mind against the Saints. He adds a threat that war will yet ensue, if the army persists in the pursuit of the Mormons.

☞ The citizens of Kensington had a fine celebration on Monday, which drew together visitors from Exeter, Newton, Hampton, Seabrook, and the vicinity, making a large company. The features of the day were a procession, the usual exercises of reading the declaration of independence, oration, music, &c., a collation and speeches and sentiments. Near one thousand partook at the tables, which were spread in a charming grove near the centre of the town. After the repast, speeches were made by Col. Leavitt of Eastport, J. Wood Esq. of Exeter, Rev. D. D. Pike and J. H. Bragdon Esq. of Newburyport. The whole affair was creditable to the town.

PHILADELPHIA. — A gentleman informs the editor of the Portland Inquirer that the new license law, passed at the last session of the Pennsylvania Legislature, has just gone into effect. It allows any man a license who can pay his three dollars therefor, and the effect is, the addition of three thousand grog-shops in that city.

THE REMAINS OF PRESIDENT MONROE.—Norfolk, July 4.—The steamship Jamestown has arrived from New York, with the remains of ex President Monroe.—Minute guns have been fired, flags placed at half mast, and all the usual ceremonies gone through with.

A CURE FOR INFLUENZA.—This troublesome malady may be cured speedily by using half a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. All irritation of the throat and Bronchial tubes subsides at once under its soothing influence.

AS GOOD AS NEW.—Hundreds are now rejoicing in emancipation from that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, who have been radically cured by using the Oxygenated Bitters, after all other means of relief had failed.

SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away, to the well-ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Stickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling; (I think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner.
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je28

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.
THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.
The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around the premises is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.
This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Rooms and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMES,
PROPRIETOR.

Private Summer Boarding.
FROM twenty to twenty-five persons, Families or single boarders, can be furnished with good accommodations for Summer recreation, at the house of the subscriber, on Sagamore Road, about 2½ miles from Portsmouth, and a short distance from the Ocean. Good advantages for Riding, Sailing, Sea-Bathing, and Roaming in the Woods; and within church going distance of Portsmouth—in a quiet, yet convenient location.

READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHODOC LAKE, ESSEX CO., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Helmstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOHN F. PAYNE, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Helmstreet's Hair Colorings, prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y., for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KIMBALL,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Helmstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and never H. H. THAYER, Apothecary, cor. of State and Pleasant sts, and No. 12 Market Square, Portsmouth, N H. je4 3mdaw

DR. DIX
KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and the money be at his above.
Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secresy preserved.
DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empirics have come under his care, and more than three hundred of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.
Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and enclosing the money, in any part of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.
Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.
This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. They are specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.
The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless. Having got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.
All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.
These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.
P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 diy

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood, for which they are all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of diseases."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Dill, of New York City.

"Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find them beneficial effects in the liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I shall continue to prescribe them, and I have no doubt they will justify the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry N. Kner, of St. Louis.

"The Pills you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have doubtless proved that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and liver complaint with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be efficacious in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. They act mildly and thoroughly, and are, I think, an excellent remedy when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mr. R. Stuart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and bowels of worms. They are an article in the physic we have that I recommend to other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Pamka, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness, of which many of our people have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from this complaint. Indeed, I know of no case to which it is the physician of others that are worse. I believe sufficient to eradicate in the long, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Enskin Bell, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your Pills purify the blood. I have tested them in my practice for years in my practice, and agree with you in the estimate of their efficacy. They eliminate the corruption, and carry off the impurities that otherwise go to the foul, corrupting humors which eliminate the vitality of the system, and induce vitality and vigor into the system.

"Truth compels me to say, I prescribe your Pills as a national benefit, and you have my cordial and unbiased thanks."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PALPITATION—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FITS—ETC.

From Dr. Edward Dupé, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you other complaints. Have used your Pills in my family and practice for years, and find them invaluable. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contact with disease, and believing so I do that your Pills afford us the best way. Of course I value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous as a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury, or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the utmost remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As this result from these facts wider and better known, this medicine has constantly become the best reliance of the afflicted, and the demand is now greater than at present to the public of Europe and America. Throughout this entire country, to every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet, it contains CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every nation utter it has done for them; if we can rely on the testimony of those who are the dearest affections of the lungs, yield to it; if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know, in short, if we can believe those in whom we confide, then just incontrovertibly proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues and the wonderful benefit conferred by thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, she has stood her ground, and by her unsuffered benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

Joy to the Admirers of

A FINE HEAD OF

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—

We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair, covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids—and leaves the hair free and healthy for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEAR SIRS, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir—I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scarf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the best article I ever used, the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more to Mt. Tom. The fever of this place I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., REVOS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—DEAR SIR: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well supplied with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KIDD.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the laws of Georgia, and the Governor's commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a fair and honorable manner. We offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Managers would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. Lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same come to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. Drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of figures to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New York Herald, Tribune, Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & CO., Savannah, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION

TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are last fading away, and WHEREAS the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the confiding and learned, BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the long established and notorious disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, weak stomach and happiness to whole sex; more speedily to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND BE IT FURTHER, that the PILLS are a safe, reliable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired end, when numerous others have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst their friends, and own accordingly—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered SOLE and VOID; that is to say the PILLS ever NOT be taken when it possible to obtain the genuine article, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,651, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold and a good title given, title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite) with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and well adapted for one or two families.

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 25 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow, with tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To those about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or to

JOHN PHILLIPS, LL.D.

Many of our readers, perhaps all of them, know that the academy at Exeter called Phillips Academy; but they may not all know so well who and what the Phillips was, whose name is enstamped on the seminary. Perhaps they would like to know. The following sketch from the North American Review will tell them in a few words:

The Hon. John Phillips, LL. D., was born December 27, 1719. Of his early youth we know but little. He was graduated with distinction at Harvard College in 1735, the same year in which Rev. Eleazer Wheelock opened, in Lebanon, Connecticut, the school, which thirty-five years afterwards, was removed to Hanover, New Hampshire, and transformed into Dartmouth College. After his graduation, he pursued the business of teaching for several years, during which time he studied theology with such helps as he could command. The religious element was the controlling one of his character. "An angel had troubled" the fountains of his being: and in the outflow of his life there was cleansing and health. While in charge of a private classical school at Exeter, he was unanimously invited to the pastorate of the First Church; but not being able to overcome his natural diffidence, he declined, and the vacancy was filled by the Rev. Woodbridge Odlin. The wonderful eloquence of Whitefield, whose preaching at that time in the region round about had caused the "Great Awakening," seems to have elevated the standard of pulpit oratory in the esteem of young Phillips to such an unattainable height, that he abandoned at once his ministerial plans, and devoted himself to business.—The energy and a sagacity of a mind vigorous by nature and quickened by careful culture, could hardly fail of success in any sphere of effort. The unpretending house in which he both lived and "kept store" is still standing, on Water Street, in Exeter. After the decease of his widow, who did not survive him a long time, it was the residence of Dr. Abbot, the Principal of the Academy; but during the last half-century, it has experienced various vicissitudes of fortune, until now it is said to be devoted by its colored occupants to billiards and bad liquor! The dog-kennels of Louis XIV. and his knightly successors have become a famous normal school at Versailles; the very building and grounds, once dedicated to pointers and fox-hounds, are now the beautiful home of young men and women preparing themselves to be the teachers of France. The transformation of Phillips mansion is quite as absolute as that of the royal doggeries, though in the opposite direction.

Dr. Phillips was a vigorous old Puritan, a little sombre in his exterior, but genial and warm-hearted with his friends. He was punctilious in his exactions of outward respect. While expending his fortune for the welfare of the young, he would not give a boy a cherry from his trees, unless the favor were asked with a low bow and in the most reverent tone. The failure of a little girl to make her accustomed courtesy on meeting him in the street would overshadow his face with a frown which hours of sunlight could not dissipate. He was conscious of his position in society, and was not unwilling to receive the homage of youth or age. And yet he did not walk in a vain show, nor were his thoughts all concentred on himself. He was simple in his habits, and far-seeing in all his plans. As a natural consequence, his accumulations of property were rapid—but stripped only by his benefactions. The wealth which he acquired was not wasted in personal extravagance, nor hoarded with miserly greed; but it was used in large measure during his life for noble ends, and the residue was consecrated at his death to the promotion of knowledge and virtue.—His charities did not flow in a single stream, but distilled like the dew. He endowed a professorship of theology in Dartmouth College, and served for twenty years as one of the Trustees of that institution. To Princeton College also he dispensed his bounties with a liberal hand. Every enterprise which his judgment approved, as tending to elevate and enlighten the young, was sure to command his sympathy and unwavering support. The honor of originating the idea of the institution at Andover, it is affirmed, belongs to neither of the three brothers referred to above, Samuel, John, and William; but rather, as we have seen, to the only son of the oldest, Samuel Phillips, Jr. But it is agreed on all hands, that the execution of the various plans depended to a great extent, if not chiefly, upon the intelligent counsel and material aid of Dr. Phillips. The benevolent purpose of the nephew would never have taken form and fulness, had it not been for the practical wisdom and enlightened efforts of the uncle. He was one of the two original signers of the constitution of Phillips Academy at Andover. From its organization to his death, he was one of its most efficient Trustees, and, during the last five years of his life, President of the Board. For its endowment he did more than any other man. He gave to it at the outset, in equal shares with Samuel Phillips, senior, three hundred and forty-one acres of land and the sum of £1614 sterling. His interest in it continued through life, and his contributions to it, as has been stated before, were not less than $31,000.

But, besides these liberal benefactions to Andover, Dr. Phillips was the originator and sole founder of the Academy at Exeter. "Without natural issue, he made posterity his heir." How much he gave at various times to the Phillips Exeter Academy is not easy to determine with mathematical accuracy. But it is indebted solely to him for all its funds, with the exception of a bequest by Nicholas Gilman of $1,000, the income of which he expended for instruction in music, and a donation of $100, by the late Hon. Leverett Saltonstall, for the library. The present property of the Academy may be stated approximately as follows:—

Real estate, including six or seven acres of land in the village, Academy building, Abbot Hall, and the house of the Principal,	$35,000.
Productive funds in notes and stocks,	$101,000.

It is safe to say, that it is altogether the best endowed institution of its class in the State of New Hampshire, if not in the country. The founder, however, did not merely bestow his wealth and then leave it to the control of others, but he watched over its use with a sleepless interest. The same breadth of vision in plans, and the same economy in minute details, which characterized the man of business in his accumulations, were characteristic of the Trustee in the application of funds which he considered sacred to God and humanity. He was constant in his attendance upon the meetings of the Board, as its President, and fruitful in his expedients to promote the prosperity of his favorite institution. When the burden of increasing years grew heavy upon him, he appointed as his successor his Excellency John Taylor Gilman; but still he labored on in the vineyard of his planting, and death found him watching. He died April 21, 1795, at the age of seventy-five years and four months. The Rev. Benjamin Thurston was invited by the Trustees to deliver a eulogy on the deceased, at their next annual meeting. This tribute of friendship was paid, October 14, 1795, in the meeting-house; but no copy of the eulogy has come down to us. The portrait of the founder was taken by Stewart, and placed in the library. A marble monument in the old cemetery covers his remains, and the inscription, from the classic pen of Nathaniel A. Haven, Jr., tells us of his manifold virtues.

WEALTH.—Wealth, true wealth, is that possession which satisfies the heart. Palaces and lands may still leave a man miserable. To be satisfied in one's cell—to feel no aching void—to sleep peacefully, and wake without pain, regret or remorse—such is wealth. With those the hardest pillow becomes soft, the roughest way smooth, the darkest future bright, and their possessor stands up a man, than whom God has made none nobler, free from the canker which follows power and fame, and independent of the exigencies which make and may shiver crowns. For the promotion of the good, the beautiful of the true, gold, goods and lands are a heritage from heaven; but when wrapped in a napkin, and bound to the heart, they congeal human sympathies and blast human life.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in the form most favorable for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1858.

GOUGH AND LEES.

The civil suit by John B. Gough, the temperance lecturer, brought in the English Courts against Dr. Lees, for damages by libel, has been closed by a verdict by agreement, of five guineas damages, Dr. Lees withdrawing and retracting the charges against Gough.

In the Court, the case was opened by a statement by Mr. James, senior counsel for Mr. Gough, of the circumstances under which the action was brought. Premising that a part of Dr. Lee's libel was founded upon attacks made upon Mr. Sinclair, by a Mr. Dexter and others, alleged to be instigated by Mr. Gough, the whole matter will sufficiently appear from the following statement of Mr. Gough, with the other proceedings.

"In 1853 I came to England, engaged by the London Temperance League. Their office is in the Strand. I was engaged for a short time by the Scottish League at Glasgow. In two years I lectured 430 times. The audiences were large. I received ten guineas a lecture. I delivered about two hundred lectures yearly. The admissions are not gratuitous. The league is supported by subscriptions, and hands over the profits to the particular society for which I lecture. The object of these societies is to put down intoxication by persuasion and prohibition. There is a society called the Alliance; their object is 'total and immediate prohibition by law.' Dr. Lees, the defendant, is a lecturer for that society. In spring, 1857, I wrote a letter from Massachusetts to Mr. Campbell. I thought I had an opportunity of knowing what the working of the Maine Liquor Law was. That letter was afterwards printed in the Weekly Record, but without my knowledge. In it I stated that 'the Maine Liquor Law' was a dead letter.' Neal Dow, the originator of the law, is referred to in it. I had formed his acquaintance, and we were on friendly terms.

I made an engagement with the National Temperance League to lecture in England, Scotland and Wales. In January, 1858, I was lecturing at Cupar, and received a letter from Mr. Wilson. He is a friend of mine, a gentleman of property residing at Sherwood-hall, near Mansfield, who takes a great interest in the cause. I had heard rumors before that I took narcotic drugs, but I treated them as such. That letter was the first authentic information I received on the subject. I afterwards heard the same from Mr. Marr, the Secretary of the temperance society. He read a letter publicly and gave it to me. That letter first informed me that Dr. Lees was the author of the charge. I never atoor chewed opium. The whole thing is a fabrication. There is one incident which is published in my "Life." I once wickedly bought sixpence worth of laudanum when a youth and almost destitute. I swear that since 1845 I have never been in the situation described by the letters of the defendant. I know nothing of the article on Mr. Sinclair, attributed to Mr. Dexter in one of his letters. I have not been in correspondence with that gentleman. I saw him once only; the night before I sailed from America. I had nothing to do with the article on Mr. Sinclair published by him, or with one published in the Edinburgh News on Mr. Sinclair, but I expected such an article would appear. He was a lecturer to children on intemperance. There is no truth in the assertion in one of the libels that I have been drunk in the streets of London.

Mr. Baron Martin, before whom the case was tried, here interposed, and suggested that the matter was one which, after the positive denial on oath by the plaintiff, might with great propriety be arranged by the parties.

Mr. James hoped so. The only object of the plaintiff, in bringing the action, was to vindicate his character.

Mr. Macaulay, counsel for Dr. Lees, stated that when the letters containing the libellous matters complained of were written, Dr. Lees acted under information which he believed to be true, and he certainly was not aware that those letters had been communicated by that gentleman to the plaintiff. The letters were also written under the impression that the plaintiff was the author of the attack upon Mr. Sinclair. As, however, Mr. Gough had disavowed any participation in those attacks, and had denied the charges, he (Mr. Macaulay) was prepared on the part of Dr. Lees to withdraw the pleas of justification.

* * * * * *

Mr. James — If I understand that the charges are wholly and distinctly withdrawn, I am satisfied.

Mr. Macaulay—They are withdrawn.

Mr. Baron Martin—Very well. If Mr. James is satisfied, I am. I think the plaintiff is certainly entitled to what he asks for.

Mr. James—I understand that the charges are wholly and distinctly withdrawn, and on that understanding I am content. It is agreed that a verdict should be for the plaintiff, with five guineas damages.

Mr. Macaulay—Yes, I agree to that.

A verdict was then taken by consent for the plaintiff for five guineas.

The criminal suit having been denied, as the judges knew Dr. Lees so well that they were satisfied he could have no malice in the case, this silly contest is ended.

It is remarkable that Mr. Gough should say that the league which employs him go for persuasion and prohibition. For it can be true, he has made himself and others a vast deal of trouble to no good purpose, in endeavoring to prove the New England prohibitory laws a dead letter in the first year or two of their life,—whereas by the process thus begun, a thousand culprits have been fined and imprisoned.

Dr. Lees offered a long time ago, to submit the whole matter to a commitee,—but Mr. Gough, under what we consider the influence of bad advisers, persisted in bringing both suits, the result of which is this retraction to which the reference would no doubt have led.

We are glad, not more for Mr. Gough than for the good cause, that he is not proved guilty of any intemperance since 1845.

He seems to have received a good sum for lecturing, $20,000 in two years.

THE WASHINGTON BANKER AND HIS DAUGHTER'S SPANISH LOVER.—Muruaga, the Spaniard, who was driven out of the house by Mr. Corcoran, the Washington banker, while there engaged in a clandestine interview with the daughter of Mr. C. some weeks ago, on Monday insulted Mr. Corcoran in the street, in the Spanish fashion, we suppose, by throwing his glove in his face. Corcoran drew his pistol at the time, but did not fire. Muruaga stood in an attitude to receive the fire, having his hand on a pistol in his pocket to return the compliment if not mortally wounded.

☞ It is said in some papers, and it may be true, that the accidents and deaths on the 5th, by gunpowder, drink, &c., were fewer than usual. There were a number, however.

In New York, on Monday morning, Mr. Robert Leslie was standing quietly in front of his own door, No. 192 East Eleventh street, when a gang of drunken rowdies came along, one of whom plunged a dirk knife into his left side. The assassin attempted to escape, but was speedily arrest by two policemen of the 7th precinct, still holding the deadly weapon in his possession. His name is John Donnelly, alias Walsh. Leslie cannot recover. He is a man of unexceptionable character, and has a wife and two children.

The Lowell News says that on Monday night, about 8 o'clock, as John Wright, Esq., agent of the Suffolk Corporation, was passing from his house to the barn, on Austin street, he was struck by a bullet that penetrated his abdomen and passed half an inch below the surface along a distance of five inches, where it emerged and was lost in his clothing. He is now quite comfortable, but his escape from a mortal wound was very narrow. The direction of the wound shows that it was fired from an elevation, probably a chamber window.—There is yet no clue to the origin of the shot, but as no report was heard, it is thought to have come from an air gun.—There are very grave suspicions entertained as to the matter.

AN INQUEST was recently held on the body of a female slave, near Richmond, Va., by which some light was thown upon the institution. It appears that her master Mr. Barnes, after returning from church on Sunday, found the cook Cora, less respectful than he required, and whipped her with a raw-hide on the back, while his overseer stood in front and held up her clothes. This did not bring her to submission, and she was taken into the yard and chained by the neck to the limb of a mulberry tree. The master then lit his pipe, and threw himself upon a lounge to reflect upon the blessed gospel he had heard, and the obstinacy of niggers, when he was surprised in a few minutes by the sudden entrance of his overseer announcing that Cora had hung herself with the chain.—Whether this was the fact, or whether the overseer had drawn the chain a trifle too taut in fastening her up, will never be known. The jury decided that it was suicide, and they were particular in the inquest because the woman was only hired by Barnes, and if he had killed her the loss would have come out of his pocket.

CHESTER ITEMS.—The Fourth was celebrated on the 5th at Chester, by a picnic on Basford Hill. Preparations had been made to celebrate on Saturday, but the rain forced an adjournment to Monday. The Chester "Band of Hope" made quite a large show. A goodly number of citizens were present an enjoyed themselves hugely.

Mrs. Abigail Heath, aged about 90, celebrated the day by making for herself a calico dress. She is a smart old lady, and can sew or read without the use of glasses.

LIGHTNING.—The glue manufactory of Dodge & Hayward, Londonderry, N. H., was struck by lightning, during the second shower on Saturday afternoon, June 26th, and damaged badly. It picked out every nail in the north end of the building and shattered the boards connected, but did not set the building on fire.

FATAL AFFRAY.—The Taunton, Mass., Gazette reports that in that town on Monday afternoon, Broun Holt, William Holt, Michael Brady, Peter Conway and others, all probably more or less under the influence of liquor, got into an affray and after something of a row among the parties, Broun Holt, in making his escape from the melee, fell upon his face and was taken up perfectly dead. An inquest was held and the jury, after two sittings, rendered a verdict that "said Broun Holt came to his death in consequence of over excitement, caused by intoxication, and blows received by him from persons to the jury unknown; the said Holt at the time of his death being subject to a disease of the heart." The deceased was thirty years of age, and was employed at the Old Colony Iron Works, East Taunton. Brady and Conway are under arrest.

SIX PERSONS DASHED TO PIECES.—A terrible accident occured at the Thomastown Colliery of the Schuylkill County (Pa.) Mines, on the 29th ult. Four men and two boys were hoisted up the shaft in a car, but on reaching the surface some difficulty was experienced in detatching the car from the "cage" on which it was placed, and a signal was given the engineer to hoist the cage a little. Unfortunately it was hoisted too far, the car tilted, was freed entirely from the cage, and the next instant, with its freight of precious lives, was dashed down the shaft, a perpendicular depth of two hundred and forty feet. The remains of the unfortunate men and boys were removed to the surface in a shockingly mutilated condition. Two of the men were married, and leave families.

☞ The New York 'Independent' independently says the American Tract Society, "which had received a commission to preach the whole gospel in Nineveh, has taken passage to Tarshish; and now begins the storm." . . . "The shipmen may work hard to save Jonah, and bring the ship to land; but at length they will be obiged to cast out the traitor; and it is doubtful if any whale can be found big enough for the corporate prophet, especially with the new edition of Tony and Sambo in his coat pockets."

A WOULD-BE SAILOR.—The following epistle was lately received by the captain of a ship, from a sort of fair weather green hand who wishes to be a sailor but is afraid to go aloft. It is given verbatim et literatim.

——— July 6 1858

Capt. Mr. ————. I see by your advertisement card that the vessel Orion is to sail about the 31 of inst. I would lik to know how much a month you would give me to go to California as a sailor I am a lad of medium size going on 18 years I am a "Yankey" I should like as easy a bearth as possible on less wages as I am not verry much used to hard labor as father is decently well off in this world's goods but I think I should like to take a voiage across the water once for a change the worst thing is I am apt to be dizziy in going up High places and think I should in going alof, but I dont know as I never tryed it I am not obliged to go or to work but want to go for the sake of being where I can't get home in 15 minutes as I always have been please answer as soon as possible yours with respect ——— ———Mass.

P.S. Please not have an advertisement on the envelope

THE HEIR TO THE BRITISH THRONE.—London gossip avers that the Prince of Wales, though only 17 years old, bids fair to become a worthy successor to the last Prince of Wales—the very fast George IV. The Prince, it is reported, to the horror of his mother the Queen, has been detected in an intrigue with one of the ladies-in-waiting to her Majesty. The result was the immediate sending of the precocious youth on a visit of penitence into Ireland. This incident will perhaps delay the establishment of the young Prince in his own house—a measure to which her Majesty had given consent, and which was soon to be realized.

☞ John Farley, a respectable citizen and member of the Methodist church, shot and killed Samuel G. Morgan at Holloway Court, Va., on Saturday week,—submitted himself to a magistrate, and was discharged, a coroner's jury having found that he committed the deed in self defence. Morgan was in the act of shooting Farley, under the instigation of unfounded jealousy that Farley had been intimate with his wife.

A FATAL HOOP.—On Monday evening several young girls were bathing in the Mississippi, a little below the ferry landing, on the Rock Island side, when one of them, a young German girl, being a pretty good swimmer, ventured too far out, and becoming entangled in a hooped skirt, was swept down by the current.

A FRENCH VIEW OF THE GULF TROUBLES. The Patrie devotes an article to the Anglo American difficulty, in the course of which it attributes the excitement in the United States to the desire of the Washington authorities to divert public attention from their Kansas blunders and from the pitiful results of the Mormon campaign:—"The mania of the Americans," it goes on to say:

"Is go to war, but they have always indulged in more noise than deeds, and their sword is never more than half-drawn. Quarrelsome but economical, they hesitate before a heavy expenditure, and prefer a satisfactory arrangement to costly laurels. We must consequently pay little attention to the noise created on the other side of the Atlantic. The warlike articles which fill the immense columns of the American journals, the violent speeches, the orders given for the firing out of fleets, have already been repeated four or five times within 20 years without harming any one; and the Mayor of New York enjoys a light conscience notwithstanding that a journal denounced him as a traitor for having drunk to the health of Queen Victoria at a banquet recently given by the English Consul."

☞ Rev. John G. Adams (a native of this city) has been unanimously invited to become pastor of the Second Universalist Church in Lowell.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better is it to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newburyport by J. H. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

POLICE COURT.

BEFORE JUSTICE ODELL.—John H. Trofatter, a travelling vender of patent medicines, was taken up for a violation of the new pedlar law.—and held to bail in $200, to appear at the S. J. Court. He gave bail with good sureties.

Patrick Lynch and Mary Mills, alias Jane Mills, accused of adultery, were held to bail, Lynch in $400, and the woman in $100, to appear at Court. Both went to jail.

July 7.—Christian Johnson, for assault and battery, fined $3 : costs $14.52. Appealed and gave bonds.

Two prosecutions against truckmen, for keeping on a forbidden stand, were finished a few days since, and the truckmen fined $2 and costs on each case. Appealed.—This decision sustains the city government in making truck stands. It remains to see what the Higher Court will do with it.

Alice Herbert was sent to the House of Correction 20 days, for brawl, tumult, and damaging a house.

Andrew Nute plead guilty to the charge of assaulting Elisabeth Nute. Fined $1 : cost $4.03.

PUNCH AND STOCK SPECULATIONS.—Dr. Mackenzie, the foreign editor of the Philadelphia Press, says in the time of the great railway speculations the greater number of the "Punch" people became wholesale speculators. Some 1400 railway schemes were started, and the "Punch" party "went in" as applicants for shares, on a large scale. There was a necessity for putting into the applications a description of the applicant, and the words "Contributor to Punch" was sufficient, then, to secure a large allotment of shares to the parties so claiming them. Immediately after allotment, the scrip would be sold, by a confidential broker, at good premiums, which the said "contributors" would pocket. This game was played a long time—even after "Punch" had lampooned and caricatured the whole army of share-speculators, really condemning in public what the "contributors" practised in private.

FIGHT IN A RAILROAD CAR.—On Monday, upon a train of the Old Colony Railroad, the passengers in one of the cars of that road, on the passage home from Boston, got into a serious fight, during which the handsome looking-glasses at the ends of the cars were smashed, a number of the windows broken, a portion of the seats torn up, and other outrages committed.—The combatants were more or less bruised, and one man, it is said, was stabbed, but not seriously. The car was plentifully besprinkled with blood, and had, in that respect, the appearance of a pig-sty after a general slaughter.

RE-SHINGLING OLD ROOFS.—I am fully convinced that millions of dollars might be saved in our country every year, by generally pursuing the following method :

Whenever a roof begins to leak and you wish to re-shingle it, do not take off the old shingles—put the new on top of the old ones, using six-penny nails in place of four-penny or shingle nails. The advantage of this method consists in the following particulars :

1st. You will save the expense of removing the shingles.

2d. The building will not be exposed to wet in case of rain, before it is finished.

3d. The roof will be much warmer and tighter.

4th. Neither snow nor rain can beat under the butts of the shingles, by heavy winds.

5th. The roof will last full one-third longer.

I have tried this plan, and find it has these advantages.

It takes no more shingles, no more nails in number—only a little longer, and no more time to put them on, and if done in a workmanlike manner, will look as well as if single. But it should be done before the old shingles are too much decayed. All the moss (if any) should be removed, or swept off with a stiff broom before putting on new shingles.—J. T. Adams, in National Era.

GROVELAND. An Important Question Settled.—At a spiritualist meeting in Groveland, last week, at which Loring Moody of Boston lectured, a young man inquired if the brute existed in the spirit land? The speaker said, he thought not, although others differed from him in this matter. An elderly gentleman present said, he was convinced animals existed there, because he had a communication from a little child, who was leading about a sheep with a silken cord. On being asked if he considered that sufficient proof.—"Why, yes I do," "the child would not lie when in the rudimental life, and certainly he will not in the spiritual.—Salem Gazette.

The fire at Hillsborough Bridge, last Friday night, burning the car-house, consumed one of the best passenger cars belonging to the Northern road, a baggage car, and about 45,000 bushels of charcoal belonging to the Amoskeag Company, and the two temporary buildings in which it was stored. This coal was made from the wood on the Amoskeag Co.'s land at that place.—Mirror.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Africa arrived at New York on Thursday.

Liverpool Breadstuffs Market was dull and quotations nominal.

Government gained large majorities during the progress of the new India bill in Parliament. The debates on the Froboh free labor scheme had excited indignation in France.

A fire in Dantzic destroyed 55 houses, &c. Loss 1,000,000 thalers.

News from India was discouraging. Little progress had been made against the rebels.

The pestilential condition of the river Thames was the prominent topic in London.

FIRE IN GOFFSTOWN.—A large barn seventy by forty ft. belonging to Robert N. Shirley of Goffstown, was burned on Friday evening about half-past 10 o'clock. A valuable horse, a bull, a hog, and farming tools to a considerable amount belonging to Henry F. Phillips, milkman, were burned with the barn. The loss of Mr. Shirley is estimated at $600 ; insured for $300. Mr. Philips' loss cannot be less than $225, who was not insured. The fire was the work of an incendiary. The wind at the time was favorable, otherwise the dwelling house and all the outer buildings would have gone with the barn.

Twelve years ago the house of Mr. Shirley was burned, having caught fire from the hop kiln.—Manchester American.

A GOOD TEXT, BUT NOT OF THE BIBLE.—That was a strikingly intelligent person, who called upon a sign-painter to have a Sunday school procession-banner painted, and said : "We're goin' to have a tearin' time with our Fourth o' July Sunday school celebration, and our folks wants a banner." "Well," naturally enough responded the painter, "you ought to have one. What will you have painted on it?" "Wal, I d'no ; we ort to have a text o' skripter painted onto it for a motto, hadn't we?" "Yes : that's a good idea ; what shall it be?" "Wal, I thought this would be about as good as any—'Be sure you're right, then go ahead!'" It is fair to conclude that he had not "searched the scriptures" attentively.

"Her marble brow
Was pure as though some angel wing had passed,
And swept all time of earthliness away.
She faded slowly, softly from the earth,
And died, as some sweet blossom dies away,
Shedding a heavenly incense to the last."

So from the home on earth to the house of many mansions, passed our departed friend, Mrs. Laura F. Patten, wife of Wm. C. Patten Esq., of Kingston, and daughter of Richard Prescott, on the 14th of June, in the 31st year of her age.

With a strong and unfaltering faith in Him "who doeth all things well," she uncomplainingly yielded up the life at once pleasant and promising, for that of greater promise, even of immortality and eternal life. J. H. S.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in our bowels, and consequently these PILLS are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we have yet seen. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodric Bell, of New York.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Evans, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Gross, of Chicago.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, who practises as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Enskof Bell, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice and agree with your statements of their efficacy. They purge off the corrupted humors, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering diseases. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"Such medicine as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS — FITS — &c.

From Dr. Richard Bogel, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on all official certificates in my daily conflict with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the uncertainty of consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and skill. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints, for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As this has been for a long time more widely spread and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every village, there is hardly a family but some one of its members has experienced its wonderful effects, and knows that it contains CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most eminent physicians. Prudent people in any doubt, or in any case of any stage of any disease, can at least satisfy themselves on what step of every station certify it has done for them; they can trust our own source when we see the dangerous sickness of the lungs yield to it; if we can depend on the testimony of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the class of disease it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many hollow remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair. Then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, the great bane of beauty—and prevents—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEER RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out very and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store and inquired of Mr. Post, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, it is now two or three inches in length and promises to be a good one. I have faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have as much as you can spare after it is known here. Yours with res., RUFUS PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—the fact being, I took one and two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Gentlemen—I feel to manifest my feelings, and to make my report concerning your hair recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and will, moreover, effectual discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having the color and texture to their hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and security that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received the following filler the next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $20; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that some can be taught to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published immediately after the drawing in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from the sum to be drawn for prizes.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and dishonest are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are the certain panacea for the the troubles incident to female disorganization; they alone correcting all painful menstrual irregularities of the female, and preventing sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED FEMALE, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it KNOWN, that SOMBRE but the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the PUBLIC are hereby called upon to circulate the spread amongst them, to their mutual and lasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL AND VOID; that to say the PILLS were NOT to be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement-kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood-house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading out of town, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families.

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unrold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the front of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

MOSES & DOWNIE,

SOLE Agents for the above Goods, have on hand a large Stock of the same, suitable for shore and sea wear

These fabrics, since their first introduction to the public, (almost three years since,) have been fully tested, and the result has proved them to possess all the qualities requisite to make a perfect article. They have hand numerous testimonials from gentlemen in the navy and merchant service, which they would be pleased to show any one who would favor them with a call. They have been supplied with by the officers of the Falmouth, who have tested the Rubber goods, and found them unfit for sea service.

TO THE WHITE HILLS.

The favorite route to this region, with those who have visited it most, is by way of Great Falls and Conway. And the best time to make the trip is reported to be late June or early in July. Take the Great Falls & Conway Railroad, at Great Falls, about noon, and you are soon left at the end of railroad navigation, in Union Village. This road is to be continued up through Conway and the White Mountain Notch, and round to Franconia, and connected down to Plymouth sometime—but it is not easy to say exactly when that good time "a-coming."

From Union Village, now, you stage it on wheels through the two Notches, the Great Pond of the Franconia, to Plymouth, N. H.—the road from Union Village to Conway is rough and tiresome for the first half; but is no more than tolerable the rest of the way.—and the scenery is magnificent—and would pay even for "riding on a rail." We had a staunch old model of a driver, at first; and when we changed coach, horses and whip," mid-way the 40 mile ride; and having shook off the dust and our lethargy, and brushed up our hair and ideas, we started off at a smart pace, — a quaint old gent travelling with us remarking—it was "better riding with the young feller" who now took the ribbons, than with the old one. He was a good driver, certain, and took us 24 miles in four hours, over memorable hills. But the old logies aren't generally so well appreciate Young America.

This route, and all the routes to the White Hills, travelled in all sorts of ways, have been so often described, as to make any detailed notes of our hasty trip, like most such correspondence, too commonplace to be of interest.

There are certain standard attractions which must be visited, if for nothing more than to satisfy curiosity. Mount Washington must be climbed, Nancy's Bridge pushed over, the Notch shuddered at, the site of the Willey family deplored, the Old Man of the Mountain revered; the Echo Lake, Flume, Pool, Basin, &c., admired. Now we enjoyed all these, but the all-pervading sense of grandeur and sublimity of the scenery was so continually present with us, that the seeking out of the wondrous or curious details of nature, seemed almost like trifling. We hardly enjoyed any portion of our trip, more than riding along among the mountains—and a view of these everlasting hills is much more impressive to us, than any view from them can be.

Passengers in the morning up train from Great Falls, dine at Union Village.—Here we found a good hotel, with Mr. Jos. Gilman, formerly of the Franklin in this city, as an assistant. The forty miles of staging mentioned, landed us at the Conway House, at dark; and thirty miles more of like good riding, including the passage of the Notch, left us at the Crawford House,—from which we made the ascent of Mt. Washington, on horseback.

Eastman's White Mountain Guide Book furnished us much entertainment and instruction on our trip. No traveller there should go without it. From it we take the following story of the discovery of the Notch—as it contains somewhat of local interest to our readers:

"In early periods the land on the north side of the mountains was almost valueless, on account of the long circuit which must be made to reach it. It is supposed that the Indians had been acquainted with the pass, now called the Notch, and had taken their prisoners through it to Canada, but it was still unknown to the white inhabitants until one day, about 1771, a solitary hunter, named Nash, happened to climb a tree on Cherry Mountain to look for game. Casting his eye towards the south-east, he thought he perceived an opening through the mountains. Making his way in that direction, he arrived at last at the narrow opening called the Gate of the Notch, and passing through the gorge he proceeded to Portsmouth, and announced the long wished-for discovery to George Wentworth.—Hunters had before scaled the mountains on foot, so the Governor determined to test the practicability of the pass, by promising Nash a large tract of land on the north side of the mountains, since known as Nash and Sawyer's Location, if he would get a horse through and bring him to Portsmouth. This was by no means an easy task, but by the aid of Sawyer, a fellow hunter, he succeeded in bringing the horse through, sometimes drawing him up high precipices with ropes, and then letting him down on the other side. When they let him down the last rock on the southern side, Sawyer drained the rum from his bottle, and dashing it on the rock exclaimed—"This shall hereafter be called Sawyer's Rock," and so it is."

The ascent of Mount Washington is a severe task, take it any way; but not so dangerous as it seems, for no person has ever been injured in the ascent, that we are aware of; though a few who were foolish enough to go without guides, have suffered for their temerity.

Our party, ladies and gentlemen, ascended Washington the 1st of July, and found the temperature at the Tip Top House only 26°, and ice two inches thick. The wind was very heavy and peircing, and it was impossible to keep comfortable. It was also cool in the valley that day, the thermometer only rising to 50.

We walked to the top of Mount Washington, from the old Crawford House, (now closed,) at this the east end of the Notch, ten years ago, or so; and prefer to ride the eight or nine miles from the new Crawford House, rather than walk the fourteen miles or so from the old veteran's. It is better to walk a portion of the way, however, for variety, even if well mounted. The ascent is terribly rough and precipitous, and it would appear that persons, especially ladies, unused to riding, could hardly accomplish it safely—but they rarely or never have an accident there. One lady walked up from the Glen House, and dined with us at the Tip Top House. She wore a homely bloomer, and carried a good staff, and did not seem more fatigued than those who rode. The time of the eight mile ascent, from the Crawford House, is about four hours, the descent being made a little quicker.

CHARADE.

Ho for the land of the prairie grass,
And leave New England's hills,
Where dwells my first like a fair lass
By forest, dell and rills.
My next a covering to my first;
Its color red, blue, green,
Or any other suits your thirst,
To please the eye at e'en,
Or morning, noon, at any time.
Remember well my whole—
Though nurtured in this frosty clime,
My days in glee do roll.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of Twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate,—the immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to Patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

SHADE TREES AS AWNINGS.—A public spirited correspondent ("Franklin") suggests the setting out of shade trees to take the place of awnings in the business portion of the city. The shade is certainly more agreeable, the cost and the trouble of taking care of the trees much less, and they are much more ornamental than the white canvas, which reflects the sun and gives the streets and stores in hot weather a parched and sultry appearance; and, besides all this, they will aid often in checking a conflagration.

While awnings only give shade to one side of the walk, trees give shade both sides, and prevent the street from being so dusty. Fruit trees and shrubbery would be likely to prevent juvenile pilfering from being committed in gardens, and furnish fruit for the inhabitants. But to have the advantages to be derived from trees, they should be set out by those that understand doing it as it should be done. The leafy awning on the corner of Market Square and Daniel street is already an excellent shade, and is every year growing thicker.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Saturday, June 26th, Mrs. Joseph Emery, of Eliot, who visits Portsmouth regularly every Saturday, came that day without her horse and wagon. About ten o'clock, she was returning home, on the railroad track.—She had passed under the bridge over the road, a few rods east of Portsmouth Bridge,—and had reached the place where there is a curve in the railroad track, when she suddenly heard a shrill whistle close to her, and in an instant was violently struck and thrown into the ditch on the side of the track. She saw nothing of the train either before or after the disaster. It appears that she had been walking inside of the rails to avoid the grass, until a minute before, and that she had involuntarily stepped aside far enough to escape the engine and was struck on the arm by the cars. Her arm was cut and bled considerably, but she had so far recovered as to be able to tell us, at our office, of her narrow escape, on Saturday last. There is no safety in walking on the track, even to the most careful—to which class Mrs. Emery belongs.

ODE FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY.

BY BENJAMIN P. SHILLABER.

I.

The day is glad with gun and bell,
In one grand chorus blending,
From every hill, and plain, and dell,
Is Freedom's psalm ascending;
Our hearts, receptive to its strain,
Drink deeper inspiration,
And to our country's shrine again
Bring holier oblation.
Then hail the day with glad acclaim,
And this be our endeavor;
Our Nation's honor and her fame—
Her UNITY forever!

II.

We draw no harsh, invidious lines,
Nor favor creed or section—
As broadly as the heaven that shines
All find with us protection.
Beneath our starry flag enrolled,
We welcome those who seek it;
The honest sentiment we hold
More than the tongues that speak it.
Then hail the day, &c.

III.

No factious note our theme shall mar,
With wild disorder teeming;
The UNION be our polar star,
Our fathers' trust redeeming;—
Their wisdom framed the sacred bond
Transmitted to our keeping;
We prize it with affection fond,
Nor shall our care be sleeping.
Then hail the day, &c.

IV.

But mid our jubilee to-day,
This thought is o'er us stealing:
'Twas God that lit the fathers' way—
'Tis God our path revealing.
Then let us lift to him our heart,
Our gratitude confessing,
And pray that He will still impart
The bounty of His blessing.
Then hail the day with loud acclaim,
And this be our endeavor;
Our Nation's honor and her fame—
Her UNITY forever!

JOHN BENNETT, City Clerk.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JULY 10, 1858.

BRIEF NOTES.—It is only seventeen years since Rufus Choate and Henry Clay "hurled volcanic thunders" at James Buchanan, in the Senate of the United States, for moving to reject the nomination of Edward Everett as Minister to England!

There is some curiosity, (says the Boston Transcript,) to know the name of the "morbid conservative" who warned Mr. Amos A. Lawrence against attending the City Dinner at Faneuil Hall last Monday, as it was to be "a Black Republican" affair. He probably saw the reading of the "Declaration of Independence" announced in the city programme, which gave a color to his brilliant idea, or possibly he was afraid of even the "OLD CRADLE OF LIBERTY."

The assessment for the vacant chairs at the Revere House Banquet is not payable in gold, but the sum suggests the idea that the affair "does not exactly pay."

THE CHINESE IN CANTON.—The China Mail has seen some communications from officials in China reporting the fall of Canton. They state that the English and French barbarians sneaked into the city, scaling the walls, but that the Chinese troops assembled on the streets did not molest them; that they sent respectful messages to the high Mandarins requesting terms of peace; that after a few days the Governor was received in a very gracious manner by the barbarian chiefs, and had proper honors done him; that things were proceeding very peacefully in the city; and also that the barbarians, being very angry with the Imperial Commissioner Yeh, had carried him to a fire-ship, and nobody knew what was to be done with him.

FAREWELL SERMON OF MR. COOLIDGE.—Rev. J. T. Coolidge, for fifteen years pastor of the Thirteenth Congregational Unitarian Church, Boston, having, says the Courier, accepted the call tendered by the Orthodox churches, one Sunday parted from his congregation by preaching a farewell sermon. Mr. Coolidge reviewed the history of his connection with the society, —extending over a period of sixteen years, —and then proceeded to state the causes which produced the change that had been brought about in his religious belief. He openly declared that Unitarianism tends to irreverence, irreligion and disbelief. He spoke of the spirit of his ministry which he affirmed had been characterized by earnestness, sympathy, respectful courtesy and honesty. After touching upon the results of his ministry, he referred to the pleasantness of the relations between himself and his parishioners during the time in which he had been their pastor, and he closed by bidding them an affectionate farewell.

We do not know how accurately Mr. C. is here reported. But if the report be fair, it would seem, either that Mr. C. did not preach Unitarianism,—or, that if he did, the earnestness with which he preached it must have counteracted its tendencies. We would rather see the sermon for ourselves, however, before we judge.

A NOVELTY.—The writer of "Brief Notes," in the Boston Transcript says:

It was indeed a novel sight to see a comparatively youthful minister, whose failure as a minister has elicted but little comment, recently publicly inform the President of Harvard College and Drs. Dewey, Putnam, Hedge, Hall, Gannett, &c., that their preaching tended to irreligion! It was cool.

This remark probably refers to Rev. Mr. Coolidge and his farewell sermon.

DAMAGES IN THE AMERICAN BOTTOM.—The partial subsidence of the waters of the western rivers begins to reveal the extent of the damages which the great floods of the spring and summer have effected. The American Bottom below Alton presents an unwonted appearance. The bridges are wrecks, the plank roads washed away, and the embankments gone. Acres and acres of crops are destroyed, peach trees ruined, wood floated away, corn and potatoes inundated to death. The water is now falling on the Bottom very fast, and some of the farmers are planting again.

BUTCHERY OF A FAMILY.—We learn from the Wilmington Journal that a horrible tragedy occurred in Columbia county, N. C., on the 20th ult. A man named Joshua Rouse, who had been confined in the insane asylum for eighteen months, but who was lately taken out by his guardian and permitted to go at large, deliberately killed his father, his wife, and two of his own small children, cutting off their heads with an axe. His eldest son narrowly escaped.

☞ A woman, named Bridget Calaban, died in Newark on Sunday, from the effects of an eye-wash, which she took inwardly instead of applying externally, as directed by the prescription.

TERRIBLE MORTALITY AT SEA—A HEROIC WIFE.—The following statement in the New York papers reminds us of the courageous conduct of Mrs. Patten, under similar circumstances, with which our readers are doubtless familiar.

Capt. Baird, of the New York steam tug Huntress, on Monday morning, fell in with the British ship Grotta, Capt. Nichols, ten miles east of Fire Island, in a condition of great distress, and towed her into quarantine at New York. The Grotta left Sagua la Grande, Cuba, on the 25th ult., and on the second day out the yellow fever broke out among the crew in its most virulent form, and one after another died and was consigned to the deep, the ordinary remedies proving ineffectual in every case. On the ninth day out there were none left but the captain, his wife, and two of the crew. On the first of July the Capt. was taken down with the fever, and the wife, who had until now been unremitting in her attentions to the sick among the officers and crew, was obliged to nurse her sick husband, and also occasionally to take her position at the wheel, while the surviving crew worked the ship. The Capt. had already decided to put into New York, and was making the best of his way towards Sandy Hook. While he was yet able to give directions, he instructed his wife how to steer the ship. When spoken by the steamer, the captain's wife stood bravely at the helm, directing the vessel toward Sandy Hook. In one hour after the ship was taken in tow, Capt. Nichols died, leaving only three out of eleven persons alive on board,—the two foremast hands, and the courageous Mrs. Nichols.—The lady and the two survivors of the crew have been properly cared for.

A REVOLTING CASE.—A man named David Parker, residing at No. 324 State street, Brooklyn, N. Y., made complaint against a girl named Ann Williams, for stealing a gold watch. A private examination was held in the Deputy Superintendent's office, when the revolting fact came to light that the complainant, though a married man, a member of a church in good standing, had kept a house of ill-repute at No. 68 Crosby street, New York, into which he introduced his daughter as a chambermaid, and according to the testimony actually received pay for her debauchery.

FANNY FERN WEARING THE BREEKS.—In last week's New York Ledger, that audacious daughter of Eve, Fanny Fern, boldly confesses that in the recent rainy spell, which made walking in skirts impracticable, she donned a full suit of the male Fern's habiliments, and thus equipped took a long evening walk, to her eminent comfort and delectation. Her husband accompanied her.

A REVOLUTIONARY VETERAN.—At the celebration of the Fifth at Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. James D. Colt spoke of a visit he had made to a Revolutionary patriot 97 years of age—the only Revolutionary pensioner in Pittsfield, and the oldest person in town —John Patten, a member of the United Society of Shakers. Mr. Patten was with Washington at Trenton, Valley Forge and Yorktown, and witnessed the surrender of Cornwallis.

MARCH OF THE ARMY UPON SALT LAKE CITY.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says that Col. Johnston moved from Camp Scott for Salt Lake City in three divisions of 1000 men each, the first taking up its line of march on the 12th, the second on the 13th, and the third on the 14th of June.

☞ There was a severe freshet in Northern Vermont on Saturday, caused by heavy rains. At Huntington the factory and grist mill of Messrs. Rood was swept away, and their loss is $5000. Several bridges on the Winooski river were carried away, and much damage was done to property on the banks of that and other streams.

INDIAN WHISKY.—A citzen of St. Paul furnishes some pretty hard papers on his fellow sinners who trade with the Northwestern Indians. He say a barrel of the "pure Cincinnati," (?) even after it has run the gauntlet of railroad and lake travel, is a sufficient basis upon which to manufacture one hundred barrels of "good Indian liquor." He says a small bucketful of the Cincinnati article is poured into a washtub almost full of rain water; a large quantity of "dog-leg" tobacco and red pepper is then thrown into the tub; a better specie of root, common in "the land of the Dakota" is then cut up and added; burnt sugar or some such article is used to restore something like the original color of the whisky. The compound has to be kept on hand a few day before it is fit for use. It is then administered to the aboriginies ad libitum. He says all an Indian wants is something that will "bite!" and what is not whether it is pepper, rum or tobacco; that he will give forty acres of land for one dose. He says some of the speculators when they wish to "drive a bargain," have only to administer this innocent preparation to the Chippewas and Sioux simultaneously, and they all start at once for their war clubs and tomahawks, and proceed to cleave each other's brains out.

☞ Brass gold dollars and pewter quarters and halves are in circulation at New Haven.

"THOROUGH" SUBURBANS.—Fifty individuals were fined in the Boston Police Court for drunkenness on "Independence Day," and of this number 39 were persons who came into Boston from other cities and towns.

☞ Great quantities of lager beer are now manufactured in Philadelphia. The flavor is given to the beer by covering the inside of the casks with melted rosin.

What sort of animals are the laziest? Oysters, for they never get out of their beds till they are pulled out.

THE REGATTA.

Messrs. Editors—I notice in your paper of the 7th inst., concerning the regatta, that prizes were awarded to the boat Flying Cloud. Even as it was,—but it did not win either of them. First, because she was rowed by two men as a wherry, no competition,—and was awarded a silver cup. Now, sirs, if wherry racing also cannot be a boat; but to accommodate the natives, she was allowed to enter as a boat with four oars, and then she did not row the race course, but received cup No. 2; shakespeare's boat coming in 14 seconds ahead, (the difference in oars being 24 seconds.)

I was not aware of any boat being entered by Mr. Dearing on that occasion,—but Mr. Dearing, in the article, challenges boat Flying Cloud for a race 1, 2, 3 or 4 miles, for $50.00, and there shall be no blind side in the matter.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the hot and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better to remove the causes of such suffering by stimulating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

ALLEN & FAINE,

NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,

Have received, and offer for sale, one of the most perfect and best selected stocks of DRY GOODS in the State. Every article is selected for their own retail trade and is perfect of its kind, of the latest and most beautiful style, and unsurpassed in quality,—and, as they buy and sell only for Cash, visit the market often, and keep comparatively a small stock, they offer their customers some real bargains. Read their advertisement in another column, and, when convenient, call and see them.

THE NEW NORTH BELL.—The new bell for the North Church in this city, has been received, but is not yet placed in the tower. The bell weighs two thousand pounds, (being more than twice as heavy as the old bell,) and was cast by the Messrs. Holbrook, at their well known foundry in East Medway, Mass. The founders consider it one of their best; and it contains the metal of the old bell.

☞ Elder J. V. Himes will preach in the Advent Chapel to-morrow. Friends are invited.

☞ Rev. Mr. Mott will give a Lecture to Young Men in the Freewill Baptist Church, Pearl St., to-morrow (Sabbath) evening, at 7 3-4 o'clock. Subject—The Formation and Power of Habits. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to attend.

☞ Sabbath School Concert in the Methodist Church, Sunday evening at half-past 7 o'clock,

A new counterfeit bill of the denomination of $5, purporting to have been issued by the Mechanics' and Traders'm's Bank of New Hampshire, is in circulation.

Mechanics & Traders, Portsmouth, we suppose—but look out for the bad bills.

COLLEGE HONORS.—At the commencement at Geneva College, the Degree of LL.D. was conferred upon Rev. Amos Brown, President elect of the People's College, Havana, N. Y.,—a native of Kensington, N. H., and a teacher of one of our town schools in Portsmouth several years ago.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—A reporter of the English Parliament writes to a London paper, that he has received notes in his gallery from the honorable members, with the address of "The Morning Chronical," "Cronical," "Chronocal," and "Cronicle," the first and last forms of spelling being quite common.

Well, we have had our name spelt in almost as many ways as this—and the Chronicle isn't "spelt out" yet.

A WARNING.—Dyer Ames, Esq., whose death by drowning, at Yonkers, was announced a few days since, was very generally known by business men in the vicinity of Middletown, (Conn.) and in the Eastern counties of the State. The Winsted Herald of the 2d says it is a very general opinion among those who knew him, that the act of drowning was voluntary on his part; and adds:

"His personal habits and his family were, however, expensive. To support them, ordinary salaries were insufficient, and Mr. Ames embarked in various speculative operations—at one time visiting Europe in their prosecution, Success still eluded his grasp, and embarrassments followed him with the fidelity of fate, till, at the time of his melancholy end, he had established himself as the keeper of a boarding house at Yonkers. Disappointment preyed upon his; hope no longer allured him, resort to crime or manner practices he would not, and on Sunday last he resigned a life which had been unhappy.—We would have refrained from these remarks, but the moral of so sad an event should not be lost. It is simply this; he lived too fast. He was a man of warm and generous feelings, and leaves many friends to deplore his untimely end."

ENGLISH LIBELLERS ON THE FRENCH EMPEROR.—The trial of the two London booksellers for libels against the Emperor of the French in pamphlets entitled "Tyrrannicide, is it justifiable?" and "Letter to the Parliament and the Press," came on recently, and had a lame and impotent conclusion. The court was crowded, and every one was looking forward to an exciting day, when the Attorney General announced that the respective defendants had signified that they never intended directly or indirectly to incite any one to the commission of crime, and that the government had resolved to accept this apology and absolve them from further proceedings.

This result must be regarded as satisfactory. If the cases had been weak, and an acquittal had taken place immediately after some impassioned appeal to the jury against the attempts of Louis Napoleon to enslave the English press, it is easy to see that serious consequences might have followed.

ADMIRABLE USE OF A MAGNET.—A smith in Brighton, England, while forging a piece of iron, felt something strike his eye, and subsequently feeling great pain, he went to Dr. King in Palace street, who discovered that a piece of iron had embedded itself in the ball of the eye. After vainly endeavoring to extract it in the usual way, Dr. King thought of a powerful magnet which he had. He applied it to the eye and was rejoiced at finding the piece of iron instantly removed. It was as large as a grain of gunpowder.

☞ The Selectmen of Kennebunk, Me., have issued handbills, offering $500 reward for detecting the incendiary who recently fired their town.

LOST.—On Wednesday last, in this city, about sunset, a Gold Pin, with a Red Drop. The finder, on leaving it at the Chronicle Office, shall be suitably rewarded.

MR. KALLOCH IN TROUBLE.—We learn that Rev. I. S. Kalloch attended an evening meeting at the Babtist Meeting House in Rockland, Me. last Sunday evening, and took part in the proceedings. He got into a sharp discussion with Deacon Wilson, who was a prominent witness in the famous Kalloch trial, and Elder J. Baker, a Baptist preacher. Mr Kalloch took offence at some remark of Elder Baker, which he understood to apply to him.—The discussion ended in something very much like a row, which was at length ended by the gas being turned off, leaving the audience in great temporal darkness.—This of course broke up the meeting.—Herald.

TOLEDO, 8th.—Hon. S. A. Douglas arrived here last evening, and was enthusiastically received by upwards of 3000 citizens, and escorted to his hotel amid the firing of cannon, bands of music, &c. &c. He was addressed on behalf of the citizens by D. O. Morton, to whom Mr. Douglas responded in a happy manner. A great display of fireworks concluded the festivities. It was one of the greatest demonstrations that ever took place.

ADVANCE IN WAGES.—The pay of the weavers in the James Mill, Newburyport, has been advanced 10 per cent., by voluntary action of the directors. This example will probably be followed by other corporations. So says the Herald.

☞ The committee appointed to raise by subscription $100,000 to complete Wood's Hotel, Portland, report that the money cannot be raised in this way at present, and that they "are satisfied that further efforts in this direction will be fruitless, and therefore leave the whole question for others to arrange."

☞ The rate of taxation in New York, is one dollar fifty-nine cents and four mills on the hundred dollars. Either the valuation is very low or the rate of taxation is enormously high. It is nearly half the current rate of interest on money at the present time taken to pay municipal expenses.

HOW THE CHINESE PREVENT FINANCIAL CRISES.—Every man in China must pay up his debts at the beginning of the year, and also at the time of a religious festival about the middle of the year. If unable to settle at these times, his business stops until his debts are paid.

☞ The Common Council of Detroit propose to form a chain gang of the prisoners in jail, and make them clean up the streets and do other useful work.

☞ Old Dr. Lyman Beecher is described as now quite feeble; his memory has signally failed; he hesitates at plain words while all his auditors know what is wanted; and it is often quite painful to hear him speak.

☞ John Nussey is one of the apothecaries attached to Queen Victoria's household. His name would give him the catnip tea and paragoric department.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Rev. Wm. Arthur, who resides in State street, near the capitol, came near losing his life on Independence Day. He was firing a musket in honor of "the great principles of '98," when the musket exploded, doing damage to the fence balusters, &c. How Mr. Arthur escaped with his life is more than we can understand. Mr. Arthur preaches in the State street Baptist Church.—Albany paper.

PROVIDENCE, July 8.—An explosion this morning of two steam boilers, at the Manchester Print Works, 5 miles from the city, caused the death of two persons and so severely scalded a third as to leave no hope of his recovery. The damage to the property is estimated at $5000.

A tipsy Irishman leaning against a lamp post, as a funeral procession was passing by, was asked who was dead. "I can't exactly say, sur," said he, "but I presume it is the jintleman in the coffin."

Bay State Range.
A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.
It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.
For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivalled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen pts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.
Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.
The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.
June 12. THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,
HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known. This locality presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Omnibus leaves once daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.
Terms, very moderate, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMES,
PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House,
ON RYE BEACH,
WILL be opened on the 25th of June, for the reception of permanent and transient company.
The proprietors will run a line of Coaches from Greenland Depot to the Beach. Fare, in coaches marked "Job Jenness & Son," 25 cts. Any public or private house on or near Rye Beach.
Take the cars on the Eastern R. Road to Greenland, thence coach to the house.
JOB JENNESS & SON, Proprietors.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you go in.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Snaths, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test.
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner.
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

YES, YOU MAY
USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?
READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., Feb'y 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MILA SHAMAN.
Essex Co., ss. Mila Shaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOHN F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims.
Wm. Kingsbury,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been addressed to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the desired object. Hence the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

Laws of New Hampshire.

AN ACT in addition to an act entitled an act for the suppression of Intemperance, approved July 14, 1855.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That the Governor be authorized and required as soon after the passage of this act as it can be conveniently done, to contract in behalf of, and on the credit of the several towns and cities in this State, with some person or persons to furnish the agents in such towns and cities appointed under said act, with pure unadulterated spirituous and intoxicating liquors, on such terms and under such regulations and restrictions as to him shall seem proper.

SEC. 2. The Governor shall require of such person or persons to give bonds in the State of New Hampshire for the benefit of such towns and cities as shall be injured by a breach of the condition thereof, in such sum, not less than ten thousand dollars, as he shall deem sufficient for the fulfilment of the terms and conditions of such contracts.

SEC. 3. The Governor shall immediately after the making of such contract or contracts, notify such agents severally in such manner as he shall deem proper, of the completion of the same, and it shall thereafter be the duty of such agents to purchase all such spirituous and intoxicating liquors as they may require of such person or persons.

SEC. 4. If any such agents shall adulterate any spirituous or intoxicating liquors which he may keep for sale under such act, or shall purchase any spirituous or intoxicating liquors of any other person than such as the Governor shall have contracted with in the manner aforesaid, he shall for each and every such offence forfeit and pay for the use of the town or city for which he is agent, the sum of fifty dollars to be recovered in the same way and manner as the penalties under the act aforesaid are recovered.

SEC. 5. No such contract shall pledge the credit of the State for the payment of any liquors that may be purchased under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect from its passage. Approved, June 26, 1858.

AN ACT in relation to Hawkers and Pedlers

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That no person except as hereinafter provided, shall travel from town to town, or from place to place in any town in this State, on foot, or by any kind of public or private conveyance whatever, by land or water, carrying for sale, or offering for sale any goods, wares or merchandise whatever, whole or by samples or otherwise under a penalty of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars. And the carriages, trunks, valises, boxes, and goods of any person thus carrying or selling goods in violation of law may be seized upon a warrant from any justice of the peace or justice of any police court in this State, and detained until the payment of all fines to which such person may be liable for a violation of this act.

SEC. 2. The clerk of the courts of common pleas for any county in this State may license, for the purposes aforesaid, any person applying for a license, who shall furnish satisfactory evidence on oath to the clerk so applied to, that he sustains a good moral character, that he has been two years a citizen of the United States and of this State; that he has resided the year previous to his making such application in some town in this State, and shall file with said clerk a receipt from the treasurer of said county, that such applicant has paid to said treasurer the sum of fifty dollars in payment for such license. The applicant shall pay to the clerk granting such license the sum of one dollar, and shall present to such clerk a certificate of good moral character from the municipal officers of the town where such applicant may reside at the time of making such application, which shall be attached to such license. Such licenses shall expire in one year from date. They shall not be transferable or assignable.

SEC. 3. No person licensed as aforesaid shall sell, carry or offer for sale any jewelry, spirituous liquors, playing cards, lottery tickets or any other property the sale of which is prohibited by the laws of this State; but nothing in this chapter shall prevent any citizens of this State from selling any fish, fruit, provisions, farming utensils or other articles lawfully raised or manufactured in this State.

SEC. 4. Every person so licensed shall exhibit his license when requested by any person to do so, and a refusal to so exhibit it shall be evidence that he has none; and he shall be punished in the same manner as for selling, carrying for sale or offering for sale goods without a license; and the carriages, trunks, valises, or boxes and goods, wares and merchandize of any person, thus refusing to exhibit his license may be seized and detained in the same manner and for the purposes mentioned in the first section of this act.

SEC. 5. All penalties herein provided may be recovered by indictment or action of debt, one half to the use of the town where the offence is committed, and the other half to the use of the person prosecuting therefor. And any justice of the peace, on complaint, may cause the arrest of any person accused of violating any of the provisions of this act. And in case of any violation of this act, the carriages, trunks, valises, boxes, and goods detained as hereinbefore provided, shall be kept by the officer seizing the same until trial and judgment in the case, if the person offending shall not pay all fines, penalties and costs adjuged against him by any court competent to try the same, the articles thus detained shall be sold in the same manner as goods taken on execution, and after satisfying all fines, penalties, costs and charges for keeping and selling said property, the balance, if any, shall be paid to such person from whom the said articles were taken.

SEC. 6. Every person licensed according to the provisions of this act shall have painted in some conspicuous place upon any carriage, box or valise, on which he may carry his goods in his name and the word "Licensed."

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. This act shall take effect upon the passage thereof. Approved, June 25, 1858.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE WOMAN.—Mrs Elizabeth Parker, the oldest person in the State of Maine, we presume, died at Durham, Cumberland County, on the 22d. The Maine papers say her age was nearly 115. She was born in 1743, thirty-three years before the Declaration of Independence. Till she was about 110 she possessed bodily vigor sufficient to enable her to work in the garden, an employment she took great delight in.

SENTENCED.—At the late term of the S. J Court held at Exeter, the exceptions in the case of Andrew Wentworth and Gilbert Stone, convicted of placing obstructions on the B. & M. railroad in this town, were over-ruled by the Court, and the prisoners were sentenced to the State prison for the term of seven years each.—Great Falls Adver.

A CURE FOR INFLUENZA.—This troublesome malady may be cured speedily by using half a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. All irritation of the throat and Bronchial tubes subsides at once under its soothing influence.

AS GOOD AS NEW.—Hundreds are now rejoicing in emancipation from that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, who have been radically cured by using the Oxygenated Bitters, after all other means of relief had failed.

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—cures the worst cases of baldness, natural baldness—and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, and we find by since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1855.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to prevent, for I was tored to my affection it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. Please to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, REUBEN PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The facts, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact none. I have used but two bottles, and there is a fine growth of new hair on the top of my head as well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKSBURG, IA., June 23, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, for several years, I was in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one bottle to proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this without staining the handkerchief, apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WINSOR KENDALL.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lottery Office of Sam'l. & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a fair and honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lottery of Samuel & Sewell is authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the receipt of the orders. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50; 10 tickets for $100. Schemes accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. The Manager would respectfully refer to any city buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70, and every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers—New York Herald, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Dey Book. Write your address plain, and direct to SEWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profession of the learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. CHESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are recommended to correct irregularities, or to obviate incident to female disorganization, or to correcting all painful menstruation, to cleansing palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, nervous fits, hysteria, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the sickly portion, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, the PILLS are recommended as safe and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, be it known, that nothing but the said PILLS of Dr. CHESEMAN will accomplish the purpose, as has been successfully tested by experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst their friends, and own sex, for their benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS are to be taken when any female is an interesting situation, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHESEMAN, Box No. 4,651, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:

The hand and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth: Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious fruit yard, and a fine garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city and yet in a quiet retreat, adding to the docorum, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and containing a good cellar, and has a good well and pump.

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 65 acres. Said field is from the farm of Mr. Downing, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river, and is well watered.

To any one purchasing the whole, this offers a rare inducement. Some terms to suit purchasers.

Apply to

A BRIDE IN A BOX.

An Englishman living in Athens, a Mr. X., had become enamored of a young Armenian, of Constantinople, who had a sister. The two sisters were handsome, and marringeable; it was the eldest he loved. It was impossible to ask her in marriage; the laws of Turkey do not permit an Armenian to marry a Frank. Another expedient remained, one a little more violent; but when an Englishman has time to be in love, he does not do things by halves. Mr. X. resolved to carry off the object of his affections: and she did not say no. At Constantinople, elopements are not made in postchaises, there being neither postchaises nor carriage roads.

It was agreed that the damsel should pack herself as comfortably as possible into a cedarwood box, pierced with small holes; that she should be booked in the ordinary manner in a ship bound for Athens, and that, on landing there undamaged, this charming packet should assume the name of Mrs. X. The vessel was about to sail, the box was in readiness, care having been taken to provide both biscuits and sweetmeats as food during the voyage. But when the time came for getting in, the young lady hesitated. Her sister, kindly creature, did all she could to encourage her, but all was unavailing. "Come, sister," said she, "be brave! four days will soon be over, and in four days, with fair wind, you will reach Athens. You will not have every comfort, to be sure; but have we ever that in this life? One readily bears a little squeezing to gain a husband; bear witness, corsets!"

The elder sister laid herself down in the box, but got out again immediately. She screamed like a peacock each time the lid was lowered. At last she cried that she would rather remain unmarried all her life, and dress the hair of Saint Catherine, of Armenia, than travel to her nuptials in a box. "Reflect," said the younger sister, "here is a good cedarwood box that will be lost," "Oh, we will keep our clothes in it," replied the elder. "And this poor Mr. X., who is awaiting you, have you no compassion for him? For my part I feel quite grieved." "Oh, little sister, if you are so bent on this journey, why not take it yourself?" Indeed, I have thought of it," replied the younger. "You! you would go and marry Mr. X?" "Why not?" "Think of the proprieties, sister." "Why did not you think of the proprieties? Is that what stops you? It does appear to me that you fear but one thing, and that is, being rumpled. I am braver than you." "So be it," said the elder; "a pleasant journey to you."

Preparations were made; the younger one embraced her sister, entered the box, was carefully set down on the bridge, and arrived in Athens as brilliant as a doll just brought from Nuremburg. Who was surprised? It was Mr. X. Mr. X. was one of those methodical Englishmen who say, "I am making ten thousand a year; in 1830, I shall have two hundred thousand; in January, 1832, I shall be married; in 1833, I shall have a boy; in 1834, a girl; in 1835, I shall retire from business." It was about the end of January, 1832, (I don't guarantee the dates,) that the marriage suit was ordered; Mr. X. had no other lady in view; to wait longer would have been to derange all his plans; the two sisters somewhat resembled each other, with this difference, that he loved the fair one, and married the brunette. He was wedded, Mrs. X. has never been carried off since her marriage.—Greece and the Greeks of the Present Day. By Edmund About.

NEW ENGLAND.

Stern land! we love thy woods and rocks,
Thy rushing streams and winter glooms,
And memory, like a pilgrim gray,
Kneels at thy temples and thy tombs;
The thoughts of these, where'er we dwell,
Come o'er us like a holy spell,
A star to light our path of tears,
A rainbow on the sky of years!

Above thy cold and rocky breast
The tempest sweeps, the night wind wails,
But virtue, peace, and love, like birds,
Are nestled 'mid thy hills and vales;
A glory o'er each plain and glen
Walks with thy free and iron men,
And lights her sacred beacon still
With Bennington and Bunker Hill.

—G. D. Prentice.

☞ A German paper says that Madame Jenny Lind Goldschmidt resolved, as is well known, a long time ago, after she had given up her projected journey to Russia, to leave her present residence, Dresden, and settle in England. This intention she has now carried out. After all her furniture in Dresden had been disposed of, no inconsiderable number of packages, with articles of value, &c., were forwarded last week, via Hamburg to England, where Jenny Lind will repose in retirement on her laurels, at a villa near London.

ANATOMICAL INQUIRY.—It is said that most every woman in this village has one or more "skeletons" in her closet. Is it so?—Amesbury Villager.

"My dear girl, will you share my lot for life?" "How large is your lot, sir?"

☞ Great Discovery of the Age. ☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying troubling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irrationally undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business, and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

MONDAY, JULY 12, 1858.

VERITIES FROM VERITAS.

KENSINGTON, June 24, 1858.

Messrs. Editors;—I should think you would like to bid adieu to anything like city life, and rusticate in this rural country place. Perhaps you would not be any cooler, if so cool, as where you have the sea-breeze, but everything is so naturally beautiful, so sweet and fresh, that it seems like a new creation. The view from Kensington hill never tires, seen through a glass or with the naked eye. One almost wishes to build tabernacles there for himself and friends, on a clear, bright day. It would be a fine place for invalids who find the sea-side too bracing. If a suitable house were erected I suppose it would soon be under the dominion of fashion, as almost all summer retreats are, and the invalids would not be wanted

Winter has really retreated after a sort of Waterloo siege, and summer set in without any spring such as used to visit New England. If climate would justify slavery, we need it at the North more than they do at the South. The cost of living here is so much more, the heat of summer so often succeeds the temperature of winter so abruptly, that it is a tax upon the constitution sufficient of itself without hard labor. Then our houses are not provided with baths and such other arrangements as the longer warm seasons and mild winters of the South admit.

Is there a free public bath in your city? Have they one at the cotton factory? Every factory should have warm and cold baths for both sexes, that their employees could use both winter and summer, free of charge. It would be more of a charity than many things that make a great noise in the world, and it is strange that it should have been so long overlooked.

Your city is fast gaining an unenviable notoriety. Two murders occasioned by rum, a nose bit off, and the double murder of wife and child by the husband and father. What next?

The church keeps one day for the commemmoration of the "slaughter of the innocents." Modern developements seem to indicate that a second would not be out of place. In this as in every other vice, those who stand at the top of society and exercise a controlling influence are to blame. If there was no bar at the Astor and the —— Houses, there would be no rum sold at the Five Points and ——streets. If Catherine de Medicis and Queen Elizabeth had frowned on tobacco, it would not now be poisoning the life-blood of the old world and the new. There is reaction, and it is often fearful, as was witnessed in France at the time of the revolution, but the leaven of wickedness works downwards in society more than it does upwards in a community. The guardians of the public morals must become lax or very much off their guard before public decency can be outraged. If the advertisements of "Sir James Clarke's Pills" are tolerated in refined circles, something worse will be sure to find its way into the papers of the million, and put money into the pockets of the venders,—and such cases as Mrs. Stuart's will be an every day occurrence. Setting aside drugs and lancets, rum and tobacco, there are other ways of "slaughtering the innocents" that should not go unrebuked. Short skirts, short sleeves and low-necked dresses at all seasons of the year, are filling our grave-yards every day. But it is baptized by the very consoling name of "Afflictive Providence," or "Mysterious Dispensation," and the same thing is repeated without compunction of conscience, in the same community, perhaps in the same family. Where they do not die at once, which is least to be regretted—the foundation is laid for what is called consumption.

If half the time that is spent in getting a smattering of music and ologies in general, were devoted to a thorough understanding of Physiology and hygiene, we might hope for better things.

Have you read an article in the Daily Advertiser on a more efficient and economical form of city government? I wish Portsmouth would try the experiment, if the right kind of a man for Mayor can be found.

Do you think Gov. Haile's suggestion in regard to an agricultural department in Dartmouth or some college in the State, will be heeded? I wish some of your wealthy men would lay the foundation.—How much good they might do to generations yet unborn. Who would wish to be rich and do no good, when there are such glorious opportunities.

It certainly seems most equitable that a great public convenience as rail-roads should be exempt from taxation, at least as long as they manage their own affairs honestly. Should not every state pay a man to overlook their affairs, and make a semi-annual statement to the public, and an annual one to the legislature? What does the rail-road commissioner do? What is required of him? Something more than removing taxation requires to be done before railroads will be paying property to any body but the officers and employees.

That article on dancing from the preface of A. Gillers' book, is the only sensible thing I ever read on the subject. I do not see how a woman who will waltz in public or join any of the indelicate dances can or should be tolerated any more than if she sang a lewd or obscene song. Still, that there are such songs and that they are sung, does not make it necessary that we should banish music from the family or social gathering or prohibit it to the young. His remarks in regard to "dress," will apply to Newport and Rye Beach. Of "gestures and discourse," I do pretend to judge. Every thing "becomes an occasion of sin" to some minds. The great aim of every one should be to cultivate a pure heart, and then all things in themselves proper and innocent will be pure. When I read in the Bible that "the old man and the maiden shall go forth in the dance together, with them that make merry," and when the Savior speaks of there being "music and dancing" at the return of the prodigal, I am not disposed to think there is any wrong in it, or any necessary evil about it. Amusements the young ought to have, and some recreation is needful to every human being who would enjoy a sound mind in a sound body. That which is graceful, cheerful and inspiriting surely must be good. Its adjuncts can be controlled. How much better to gather all the young people to a dance the evening before the Fourth, under proper restraints, and with pleasant surroundings and good associations, than to have night made hideous with all sorts of execrable sounds?

Let a child be taught dancing and the mechanism of the foot, which is more wonderful than the hand even, and he will have something to think of beside dress, and be likely to feel gratitude to the Giver of power to move with ease and comfort, in walking or dancing.

A little boy five years old stood gazing at a beautiful autumn sunset. After some time spent in apparent thought, he asked if the beautiful clouds were the "angels' carpet." Do you think dancing would hurt him, under proper circumstances and at the right time?

One man deems marriage to be the 'great purifier of the heart,' the fountain of all the sweet charities of life. Another looks upon it as a very respectable and economical way of getting a housekeeper, or the way to make his fortune. It is time people were trained to look beyond the surface; and discussion of the subject of dancing by a Catholic priest, may help it.

I find I have written more than usual, without saying half I intended to. Perhaps your readers will thank me, however. Wishing you success and increasing patronage, I remain yours, VERITAS.

ATTEMPTED ABDUCTION.—The Worcester Transcript says, about 11 o'clock Monday night a young person called at the house of the widow Knapp, in Sturbridge, (whose husband recently committed suicide,) and said he was Charles Morse, the son of a near neighbor, whose mother he said was sick, and desired the immediate attendance of Mrs. Knapp's daughter Julia. Miss Julia immediately started to the neighbor's house; but the suspicions of the mother being shortly aroused, she also started for the house of Mr. Morse, and upon arriving there, found as she feared she should, that her daughter was not there. Mr. Morse and one of his lodgers being informed of the circumstances, started in pursuit of the abductor.—They presently found a horse hitched by the roadside, and suspecting that Julia was near, called her name, and she answered. The abductor escaped, but was identified. Nathan Harris, to whom the horse which was found, had been let, was found near the spot, arrested and brought before Sylvester Dresser Esq., trial Justice, who postponed the examination till yesterday morning.

☞ On Wednesday evening, a pleasure boat in Boston harbor picked up a man who said he had had an altercation with somebody on board a steamboat, (then in sight,) and that he was either knocked overboard or fell overboard. It turns out, now, that the man jumped overboard, while some persons vainly tried to catch and save him. He had shipped to go to sea, got $10 advance, and been drinking round Boston during the day.

AN INCIDENT AT A FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mayor Wayne of Savannah, Ga., was attended in that city, on Monday week, by an immense concourse of persons. The News, after stating that the services of the Episcopal Church, and those of the Masons and Odd Fellows were performed at the grave, followed by a volley fired by the military, says:

We must not neglect to mention a most interesting incident of the day, which was alike creditable to those engaged in it, and a feeling testimonial of regard and esteem for the deceased. It is well known that the late Mayor Wayne had endeared himself to all by his uniform kindness of heart and courteousness of manner toward all with whom he came in contact, professionally or otherwise. But none will miss him more than the colored people, to whom he was always a kind friend, and they testified their love for him yesterday in a most beautiful and impressive manner. In the procession, immediately following the hearse, they marched to the number of about three hundred. After entering the cemetery they ranged themselves on one side of the route chosen for the procession, and sung one of the most beautiful and appropriate hymns to one of the sweetest tunes we ever had the pleasure of listening to. It was a grateful tribute to their departed friend, offered in a most graceful and touching manner.

This is touching, and beautiful indeed. But these same black people, Jude Taney says, have no rights which a white man is bound to respect.

☞ Hon. Rufus Choate, the eloquent pleader, made a South-side oration in Boston, on the 5th, full of "glittering and sounding generalities," not such as were found in the Declaration of Independence, however, but rather on the other side.—This oration was followed by a ten-dollar dinner at the Revere.

Hon. Caleb Cushing, at New York, made a speech quite as South-side-ish as Mr. Choate's, but it did not glitter half so much, nor sound half so musical, as Choate's. It will make, though, just as many converts as his—i. e., not one.—They are both Buncombe speeches, for the benefit of the authors, to commend them to the kind regards of the slave power.

☞ We learn from the Newport News that the men connected with a travelling circus in Newport attempted to carry off an orphan girl, fourteen years of age, who had become fascinated with the exhibition and with their wild way of life. The girl was rescued by the vigorous efforts of Mayor Cranston, who arrested one of the men in the ring, and compelled him to discover the place where the girl was secreted.

THE JUDGE CULVER SCANDAL.—A grand council of Baptist Churches was held on Wednesday in Williamsburgh, called by Judge Culver to review the evidence on which he was lately expelled from the First Baptist Church there. Ex-Gov. Fletcher of Vermont and Ex-Gov. Briggs of Massachusetts were among the members of the Council. Judge Culver was completely vindicated, and he and Mrs. Brown, the lady with whom he was charged with improper conduct, were pronounced to be fit members of any Baptist Church.

CHOLERA IN LONDON.—The Thames is making sad work in London. Asiatic cholera has appeared in the great metropolis, caused by the poisonous stench arising from the river, which, as the receptacle of all the filth of the city, has come to be a terrible nuisance. Parliament, which meets near the river bank, can stand it no longer, and it is said that it must either remove or prorogue immediately.

A HARD CELEBRATION.—Three women, strangers, were found early Tuesday morning, on Commercial street, Bath, Me., their clothes muddy and themselves so used up with liquor as to find it difficult to tell where they belonged. It was easy enough to tell where they are going if they don't mend their ways. They were taken care of by the proper authorities.

☞ Saratoga is crowded with fashion, so much so that the hotel proprietors are compelled to advance their charges to ruinous prices, and even to refuse rooms to some of the best families in the South who have arrived late. The invigorating climate of Canada, and the superiority of its mineral baths, will no doubt induce hosts of pleasure seekers to turn their steps north.

☞ Mr. John Shakespeare died at Langley Priory the 10th of June, in his eighty-third year. The deceased gentleman will be remembered for his princely benevolence in giving the sum of £5000 for the purchase and preservation of Shakespeare's house at Stratford-on-Avon.

☞ There are 20,000 women employed in watch making in Switzerland.

SOCIETY AND EARLY MARRIAGES.—Old Blackwood, that Nestor of Magazines, indulges in the following sensible remarks. They were written for the other side of the Atlantic, but will bear transportation:

Seriously, I do not think the clubs have to answer for the decrease in early marriages. Other modern improvements in society must bear their share of blame.—I would back the hearts—I mean the girls—against the clubs any day, only give them fair play. But no sensible man of moderate means—no man who has to work, and is willing to work for his livelihood—I might, perhaps, say no sensible man might in any position—pick his wife out of a ball room or an opera box, however much he may like to see her there. A true woman has much more at stake in her choice than a man. A true woman has much more chance—we all know it—of winning a love that is to be lasting, in her little sphere, every day unstudied graces, sitting on a stile, loitering upon a brook, rattling upon a railway carriage, or busy and unconscious amid common household duties, than in what the sex chooses to consider the scenes of their glories and their triumphs.

I have read, somewhere, or have been told—that any woman, three removes from a Gorgon in personal attractions, can make any man propose to her if she has the chance of living in the same house with him for a month. I am inclined, with some modifications, to believe it, humiliating as it may seem to us noble animals. At all event, there was much more chance of early marriages, and happy ones too, when neighbors of that large class who have children at their desire, but little substance to leave them, met as neighbors; when a lad could grow up in intimacy with another family, and learn to call the girls by their Christian names without any fear of being asked his intentions.

WINE CHEAPER THAN WATER.—The Paris correspondent of the Boston Traveller, under date of June 25th, writes:

Complaints are made from every part of France that the wells and springs are drying up, and it is said that wine will be cheaper than water this year. The wine crop, it is said, promises to be the largest ever seen; old wine casks cannot be had now for love or money, and the potters are busy making huge jars like the oil jars of the Arabian Nights for the superabundant grapes.

Hacking Notice,

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BOILS.

These torments of Job seem to be uncommonly prevalent at the present time. Like the volcano, boils give issue to the foul and fiery contents of the deep interior. How much better it is to remove the causes of such suffering by invigorating the absorbents to healthy activity through the agency of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and to change the disordered secretions into health giving elements.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success, in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them, to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, and observe signature of J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

A Calm Celebration.—"An inmate" of the county jail, grateful for the "largest liberty" and lemonade allowed him in company with the other prisoners on the 5th, sends us two communications on the subject, from which we take our pick, and the following being rather the best, we give it in its natural state. — Springfield Republican.

The 5th of July will be long remembered by the inmates of this institution, owing to the kind and gentlemanly treatment of mine hoste Mr. Adams, who, after comfortable breakfast being served, gave out the program for the day as follows.—Stationary free for all to wright labour being dispensed for the day.—At 12 o'clock fresh & salt meat, with pease, potatoes & fine bread.—Afternoon exercises; promenade in the Hall, & an exchange of civilities, Lemonade all round; reading the declamation of Independence by Mr. Adams with accompaning remarks; Lemonade all round; exchange of civilities; good supper & seperation for the night; in fact, the day was properly & wisely spent & gave good satisfaction to the inmates,—No rum, no profanity; no fighting; such a calm, sober & rational celebration we do not believe was enjoyed by the same number outside the prison, such a demonstration as this, reflects honor and credit on the gentlemanly keeper of our county prison.

An Inmate.

An Indian Lover. — Miss Bishop, the writer of "Floral Home," who went to Minnesota as a teacher, received an offer of marriage from an Indian. He came to her dwelling decked in all his finery—scarlet flannel, rings, feathers, newly scoured brass ornaments, and bear's claws—and, through an interpreter, announced to her that she must be his wife. It was urged that he had one wife. He replied, "All the band have as many as they can keep, and I have but one." As an extra inducement, he promised that she could have the best corner of the lodge, hunt by his side, and eat with him, while the dark squaw was to hush the papoose, cook the food, carry the game, hoe the corn, and provide wood and water. Miss Bishop, a little in fear of the "green-eyed monster," even if the other claimant did hold an inferior position, declined the distinction. The Indian then begged a dollar to buy a shirt, and left with a haughty air. Next day he was drunk. But Miss Bishop's associate almost fared worse. She had only been a few weeks in the country, and was ignorant of Indian customs. A young warrior smitten with her, called often. Hoping to be rid of him, she gave him a ring. He interpreted it as a token of partiality, and returned to take her to his lodge. The next day he again returned, with six young braves, to compel her to go with him.—Explanations and interference saved her.

From Fort Scott.—Washington, July 9. Advices from Fort Scott, Kansas, announce the restoration of peace in that region, through the exertions of Governors Denver and Robinson. The sheriff of the County had been removed, and T. D. Roberts, a free state man, elected by the people in his stead. Gov. Denver announced that the U. S. troops would be removed from the fort, under Major Weaver, a free state man, to protect the settlers from marauding Missourians.

☞ A young man named Reed, of Gloverville, N. Y., by occupation a fisherman or sailor, threw himself, naked, out of a third story window in Newburyport, on Friday evening, in a fit of insanity.

☞ Mr. Fletcher, in his work on Brazil, informs us that good brown sugar could be purchased in Maceio (a great depot on the coast for cotton and sugar) for $2.75 per hundred, and that the planters admit that they can raise sugar at a profit for less than $2 the hundred weight.

☞ The Canadian Fishing Bounty Bill has been ordered to its third reading, and will no doubt pass.

Western Sign of Civilization. — The sight of a gallows used to be considered a sign of civilization. The army correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat has found a more common one. He writes:—

"I have come to the conclusion that the whiskey shop is the harbinger of civilization in the West. Alone on the prairie was a whiskey barrel in the centre of a square. On the four naked posts, which stood on the four corners, was placed a kind of covering from which hung some beddings. Sitting on the grass by the barrel, with a tin measure in his hand, ready to wait on his customers, was the proprietor of the establishment.

☞ Capt. Shannon, of the Arabia, reports that he passed over the longitude where the Atlantic Telegraph fleet should have been, but saw nothing of them. It was foggy at the time.

When erst we did to maidens kneel,
Their hearts alone they cased in steel,
But now more caution they display,
And wear steel armor all the way. Post.

The Weather.—This is too hot a theme to discourse upon. In the classic language of Thermometrus, we can only exclaim: "Helax schorchora hotissimus perspirando, meltemus, fiera burnus," etc.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

ANOTHER GREAT AND PERMANENT CURE OF SEATED CONSUMPTION.

Boston, Feb 27, 1845.

To Dr. D. F. Bradley—Sir—Feeling in compliance with your request, I cheerfully give my recommendation of the Hungarian Balsam. I have been afflicted for nearly two years, with a severe inflammation of the Lungs, attended with a hard, dry cough, acute pains in the side, loss of appetite, and increasing debility, which brought me into a very feeble and dangerous condition. Several physicians whom I consulted, declared that I was in a deep consumption, and that a cure of my case was almost hopeless. I tried several popular medicines, without receiving any essential relief, until I took the Hungarian Balsam.—This medicine relieved me at once, and in a few days changed my whole condition for the better. My cough is now checked, the pain in my side is gone, my appetite has improved, and I consider myself in a fair way to recover my former health and strength. My complaint was caused, at first, by severe colds, and by the dust of a paper mill in which I was employed. Ossawan Hoods.

This may certify that I am acquainted with Mr. Ossawan Hoggs, and was a witness of the relief which he received from the use of Buchan's Balsam. I have used this medicine in my own family, with great benefit.

ON MANHOOD,
AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.
Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand.

A FEW words on the rational treatment, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhœa or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally, by B DE LANEY, M. D. The important fact that the many alarming comulaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMSELF perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 88 East 31st street, New York City.

The Great English Remedy.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS valuable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. Moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a power ful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

Sole Agent for the United States and Canada (late I. C. BALWDIN & CO.,) Rochester, N. Y.

B. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.

Bay State Range.

A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.

It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.

For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

Wolfe's Celebrated Schiedam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Schiedam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.

Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test.
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner.
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat.

Law School of the University
At Cambridge, Mass.

THE INSTRUCTORS IN THIS SCHOOL ARE
Hon. Joel Parker, LL. D., Royal Professor.
Hon. Isaac Ames, Dwight, LL. D., Dane Professor.
Hon. Ezekiel Wadsworth, LL. D., University Prof.

THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial, International and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.

The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.

Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

READ! READ!! READ!!!

Sudbury Lake, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.

W. E. Hagan, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Colorring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. Mrs. Seaman.

Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.

Jos. F. Patten, Justice of the Peace.

Pittsford, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.

I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. Wm. Kingsley,

Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.

The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Y.

THE REASONABLENESS OF ETERNAL LIFE, A Sermon, first delivered in Portsmouth, N.H., and repeated to the Rockingham Conference of Universalists, at Fremont, N. H., May 19, 1858. By T. H. Miller.

☞ No more beautiful lesson has been taught by a modern poet than in these stanzas by Whittier. Adam and Eve, exiled from the Garden, had sat down disconsolately on the outer side of the wall of Paradise, and there an angel found them bewailing their fate. Thereupon the radiant presence spoke:

"Arise!" he said, why look behind,
When hope is all before,
And patient hand and waiting mind
Your loss may yet restore?

I leave with you a spell whose power
Can make the desert glad,
And call around you fruit and flower,
As fair as Eden had.

I clothe your hands with power to lift
The curse from off your soil—
Your very doom shall seem a gift,
Your loss a gain, through toil.

Go, cheerful as you humming bees,
To labor as you play."
While gleaming over Eden's trees,
The Angel passed away.

The pilgrims of the world went forth,
Obedient to the word,
And found where'er they tilled the earth
A garden of the Lord!

Once more, oh, white-winged Angel, stand
Where man still pines and grieves,
And lead, through Toil, to Eden-Land,
New Adams and new Eves!

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these Pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent quality commends any cathartic you may employ. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my hands more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely believe that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the public."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Knox, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly a valuable cathartic. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted other remedies so commonly used. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. A. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy in the bowel complaints of the fall dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mr. E. Stuart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, serve to restore regularity in the natural secretory functions when wholly or partially suppressed, and also vary effective to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them so efficacious as I have, they will join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prolifer of more than any other. I believe disease to originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

INFLUENTIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Enoble Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, analogous with your statements of their efficacy. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and expel vitality and vigor into the system."

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—"FILES"—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS — FITS — &c.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

"THANK DR. AYER! I cannot answer you relief complaints I have tried with your PILLS better than to say all that we ever heard tell of a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficacious cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every course of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As this makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet, it contains CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them, we can trust our own senses when we see the daily testimony of the humble poor, and when we can depend on the sentence of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know, in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then it is undeniably proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the popularity it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, confirmed benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing inside.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and produces speedy relief in a short period of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by unscrupulous parties who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country without exposure. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Joy to the Admirers of
A FINE HEAD OF
RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and as one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids—and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased scalp, to use it and see the young will not, as they use the flowing locks, or the wishing curl, ever be without it. Its praise is by the mouths of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter, in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEEP RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out very fast and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" seems to be just what your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to come in. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Peet, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, REUBEN PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well covered with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,
D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKSBURG, IL., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for the benefit of my concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and find that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed by the State to supervise their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public an opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. Inasmuch as drawings every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the schedule published, every ticket must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2 50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are open to the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to defeat the player. Prizes varying from $100, 000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Mercury, Savannah Georgian, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full, no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION
TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of fight, fuss, fear, and integrity are fast passing away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BEE HIVE HONEY AND BEE HIVE PILLS, whole cures, wives, or widows, that Dr. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the troubles incident to female disorganization, namely, stop, correct and restore menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whomever they shall apply to the MARRIED FEMALE, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed, whereas, we know, that scarcely one but the said PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when DISAPPOINTMENT has been experienced under the regular PHYSICIAN'S PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one case out of twenty, will be found true; that is to say the PILLS NEST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.

Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; the delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Fish Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.
June 12.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,

HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Fort Point Island, Navy Yard, the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The surrounding grounds have at this season surpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.

This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, and the weary, for the pleasure-seeking; and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always ready. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMEE,
PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House,
ON RYE BEACH,

WILL be opened on the 25th of June, for the reception of permanent and transient company.

The proprietors will run a line of Coaches from Greenland Depot to the Beach. Fare, in coaches marked "Job Jenness & Son," 25 cts. to any public or private house on or near Rye Beach.

Take the cars to Greenland on the Eastern R. Road to Greenland, there coach to the house.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warranties from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite step in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two bedrooms and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running into the kitchen and thence to dinitz, room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now unsold, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the HILL FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua River.

To those about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement for a home. Apply to

SHAKER RELIGION.—F. W. Evans, of the New Lebanon Society, delivered a lecture in New York city, on the principles of the Shakers. Among other things the lecturer said:—

"The Apostles led, in this respect, a Shaker Life. Jesus was a good Shaker.—[laughter, and faint applause.] I presume I need say no more to convince this intelligent audience that Jesus taught his disciples to live together with all things in common, for he instructed them to pray for their "daily bread." We do not suppose at all who go to hell are not Christians. We could prove to you, if we had time, that there is not a Christian in the house [cheers and laughter.] It would be no great undertaking to do that; and, yet, we believe that all of you will, probably, go to heaven. If we should prove to you that the Christian character is something higher than any of you possess, we do you no harm—we rob you of nothing but your name. The Apostles were a band of brothers; one of them, it is true, carried the bag, and was not altogether honest, but he was the worst of them all.

The lecturer then proceeded to argue that if there had only been one sex to be saved, there would have been no necessity for a second appearance of Christ in the shape of a female; (viz: Ann Lee.) Adam and Eve were a figure of Him who was to come, and it was indispensible that Christ should appear in both sexes before there could be any true children in the spiritual world.

He concluded by saying that Shakerism was a system composed of certain principles all befitting each other, and it embraced the only theology, in his opinion, that was based upon reason, science, revelation and the scriptures."

☞ The Louisiana Courier, the staunch old French Democratic paper of New Orleans, says:

"Orsini has died in vain; but a Nero life attends his executioner, for he shall live in vain. Not all the honors showered on his servile army, in the shape of lies, can hide the fact that they are but policemen in regimentals. As drudgeism, 1851, they would, for a bottle of champagne, pout forth the manyhood of a woman or a child, and for a sausage lop off a limb of a valued citizen. The traders, who submit to despotism because they debase themselves with the notion that it is stability, are equally blind to the interests of their country. For the courtiers we will say nothing; they are worms who feed on corruption, and provided they can get on gay livery and sell their wives and daughters to advantage, they are always fat and smirking. Orsini rashly plots against a tyrant's life, and dies a felon's death. The ill-natured Louis Napoleon, with his narrow brow, cat-like eyes, and cold, repulsive manners, to abide in whose presence is as disagreeable to a stranger as to pass a night in a swamp, plots against kings, against republics, against liberty; a reckless of honor, of oaths, and of human life, and his reward is an empire. It is true, the end is not yet. We cannot know the moral of a life while the actor is still on the stage. The curtain must fall on the emperor of the barricades, as it has on the Italian, Orsini, before we dare say Nemesis is powerless."

EFFECT OF LIQUORS IN HOT AND COLD CLIMATES.—The British Parliament some years ago appointed a committee to consider the effect of the "Spirit ration" upon the efficiency of the Navy. After collecting evidence not only from all grades of officers, but from common sailors, and from other nations as well as their own, the committee reported that the effect of the spirit ration was injurious to the health and efficiency of the navy everywhere, but more especially in very hot and very cold latitudes.

In consequence of that report and the evidence on which it was based, the men of the first expedition sent out by the British government to search for Sir John Franklin, were enlisted with the express condition that no spirit ration would be furnished.—Visitor.

THE NATIONAL LIQUOR SHOPS.—Congress has its liquor shops,—or rather it had them. The House had one, the Senate another. Speaker Orr, greatly to his credit, ordered the Representative dram-shop to be closed long ago. The Vice President has just directed the Senatorial counseller to shut up. A rose water paragraph now going the rounds of the papers says "it was found to injure the progress of legislation, besides promoting personal difficulties." In other words it made the Senators drunk enough to fight, and too drunk to work. If it won't do to license the sale to Senators, to whom can we license any one to sell?—Visitor.

Among the many good sayings in the vituperated memoirs of Rev. Sydney Smith is the following:—"When you meet with neglect, let it throw you to exertion, instead of mortifying your pride. Set about lessening those defects which expose you to neglect, and improve those excellencies which command attention and respect.

"They who drink beer, think beer," was the remark of one who pretended to know.

☞ Great Discovery of the Age. ☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.

IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the severe

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS

to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven, that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood deange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.

TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Irritude, Nervous Debility, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.

THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES

are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, wherein they have been used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon obtaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.

Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.

These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.

Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

L. D. GALE,
S. H. LAKE,
T. R. TALE,
THOS. T. EVERETT, } Assistant Examiners.
F. SOUTHGATE SMITH,
WM. C. LANDON.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. P. N. FITZGERALD, Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JULY 13, 1858.

THE WHITE MOUNTAINS.

NO. II.

In our notes of Saturday, we had just descended Mount Washington. It was a relief to get on terra firma once more—and on land where you could find a chance to horizontal your horse. The ascent is a good day's work, and rarely "pays" except in the light of a novelty—but yet all who go to the Mountains must make it, of course.

A carriage road upon Mount Washington is about to be opened—not the carriage road to the summit, operations upon which have been suspended—but a new road on the south-westerly side of the mountain, which begins near the former site of Fabyan's Hotel, and follows up a branch of Ammonoosuc River. It extends from the main road to the Cold Spring, about three miles from the summit. This will doubtless be by far the easiest place of ascent.

There was a cheerful fire in the parlor of the Crawford (Gibbs') House, and a merry party congregated around it, on that evening, the 1st of July. More company had visited the Mountains, up to this time, than has been usual—the earlier summer being found the best time for the trip.

On Friday morning, we took stage, or rather the stage took us, round through Littleton, &c., to the Franconia Notch,—about 27 miles, through a fine country.—The rides through the woods, in all this region, are delightful, if not too long. The woods are the finest we ever saw, the walks good, teams smart, drivers pleasant—and the hotels all excellent.

The scenery about Franconia Notch, if less grand than at the Great Notch, is more beautiful, and better repays examination. The Old Man of the Mountain, is one of the most perfect of all natural curiosities—and when we passed round to his front, and his fragmentary composition lost all resemblance to the perfect human face a profile view presents—it seemed as if a spirit had passed away before us.

The Echo Lake is a beautiful curiosity. We could make three or four echoes with our voices—the guide said he could distinctly trace four with his horn—but the seven the Guide Book tells of are a myth. A small cannon discharged on the shore, however, seemed to make seven thousand responses among the hills; and sounded like the report of a park of artillery, or not unlike sharp thunder. It was one of the most startling and satisfactory experiments we ever witnessed.

The Profile, Echo Lake, &c., are near the Profile House, a very fine hotel near Franconia Notch. The Basin and Flume are four or five miles off, near the Flume House—also an excellent hotel, with one of the most gentlemanly landlords we met on our route. The Pool is the most charming and interesting little sheet of water we ever saw; and the Flume one of the most inexplicable of natural curiosities. How a large rock could have become wedged in between the rocky sides of a chasm, in which runs a river on a bed of rock, is a mystery.

Our last stage ride, of about twenty-six miles, with four and six horses, brought us to the famous Pemigewasset House, and the railroad, (thank heaven!)—grand dinner with mine host Burnham, and a ride to Centre Harbor, by rail and steamboat, left us at the Senter House to spend the Sabbath. But getting there was easier said than done. First, we left cars at Lake Village, where we waited two hours for the up-train to leave us at the Weirs. But we made the acquaintance of a gentleman traveller, at Lake Village—to meet whom was worth more than two hours of anybody's time. He was a jolly farmer and trader, from old Coos, who had just returned from a Western examination trip, and lauded the East above the West, in the strongest terms—as is all correct, we believe.

A return ride in the cars, to the Weirs,—and the nice little steamer Lady of the Lake soon landed us at the wharf of the Senter House. The landlords of this excellent and popular hotel, are Messrs. Gilman & Hentress, well known in this city. It is delightfully located, and kept in the best manner—a traveller's home, indeed.

On Sunday morning, we gladly accepted the invite of our friend above named, to accompany him to church. He declined going to the Universalist Church, but said he would take us to the Methodist, where we should "get the real suckatush." As we were willing to "prove all things" he took him for spiritual guide; and could not but smile, on taking up a hymn-book in the pew we entered, to find it a "Universalist collection." That he was "sold" was sure—but after all we thought we got "the real suckatush."

On Monday morning, we took steamer and cars again for Concord. The train was full of jubilant Young America, celebrating the Fourth—and they had a grand Masonic display in Concord, laying the corner-stone of their new Masonic building. At the new Phenix Hotel we found most luxuriant quarters for the day. This is one of the finest hotels in America, and is kept in the most unexceptionable manner.

Five or six days will accomplish the trip we have thus hastily spoken of—and a pleasanter week's journey can hardly be imagined. The whole arrangements and fittings of the route, are excellent—travelling conveniences and hotels; and the scenery unequalled in this whole region of country.

A host of our brethren of the press, including one of the editors of each paper in this city, and the "reporter" of the Chronicle, went on a complimentary trip to the White Hills, last week—of which, perhaps, more anon. F.

THE NEWS.—By the steamer Fulton (intercepted off Cape Race) we have news from Europe to the 30th of June, and late and important intelligence from India.—Queen Victoria had visited the "Great Eastern"; additional steamers are to be put on the Galway-American route; the question of admitting clergymen to Parliament was under debate in England; and Barey had given a horse-taming exhibition in presence of Victoria. Cotton had advanced 1-8d. The India news despatch is meagre, but enough is foreshadowed in it to show that there has been severe fighting on both sides. The defeat of the rebels at Calpee—where they had been concentrating for months past—is an important victory; but the disturbances in the Bombay Presidency indicate a spread of the mutiny. Lucknow was threatened by a new attack, but it is strongly garrisoned.

We have advices from Mexico to the 8th of July. The English and French ambassadors had advised Comonfort to comply with the terms of the forced loan under protest, but Mr. Forsyth opposed the demand. The civil strife had interrupted business. The city of Mexico on the 18th ult. was visited by an earthquake, and fifty persons were killed.

Senator Douglas reached Chicago on Friday evening. He was honored by a public reception, and the President of the Board of Trade welcomed him in behalf of the people. Mr. Douglas responded in an elaborate speech. He avowed himself as standing upon the Cincinnati platform and President Buchanan's inaugural address. He reviewed the speech of Mr. Lincoln, expounded the doctrine of popular sovereignty, and vindicated his recent course in the United States Senate. In conclusion he said he did not agree that it was a great wrong to deprive negroes of the rights of citizenship—it was never intended that they should be citizens. Our government was founded on a white basis—was created by white men. True humanity required that negroes and other inferior races should be permitted to enjoy only such rights and privileges as they were capable of exercising consistently with the good of society.

The 7th regiment of the New York National Guard, which went to Virginia as the guard of honor over the remains of President Monroe, reached New York at two o'clock Sunday morning. They were received with the greatest enthusiasm and escorted to their armory by the New York Light Guard and the 71st regiment.

☞ In Newburyport, July 11, Mary Hartnett, for violation of the liquor law, was discharged, she first putting into the hands of the officer her stock of liquor, which was destroyed.

The case of Ann Beal which was continued from last week, for violation of the liquor law, was also discharged, she first giving up her stock in trade, some three or four barrels of liquor.

☞ The Charlestown (Mass.) Advertiser describes a very pleasant Pic-Nic given at the residence of Rev. Thomas R. Lambert, in that city, last week; which was attended by more than 350 joyous children and older guests—including Rev. Dr. Burroughs of this city,—who passed a merry afternoon, amid music, flowers, romping, feasting, &c.

☞ The New York Ledger is a weekly paper of but few years' experience, but its publisher has expended about a quarter of a million in advertising it—$100,000 of it within the last year. The results have justified this magnificent outlay.

☞ The Boston correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says that Massachusetts might, with propriety, be called the "Shoemaker State." It appears that every eighth man in the State does something towards making shoes! It has generally been supposed abroad that Massachusetts was most largely engaged in cotton and woolen manufactures; but that is but a small thing when compared with her leather interests.

☞ Mr. John Drake, of Tuftonboro', 80 years old, came to his death from injuries received from falling down the cellar stairs, the door of which in the darkness he mistook for another. Mr. Israel Blanchard of Tuftonboro' received a severe injury from a pair of cattle which he was in the act of unyoking—breaking his collar bone, and otherwise injuring him.

GEN. LANE ACQUITTED.—Kansas advices report that the Board of Magistrates before whom Gen. Lane was examined for killing Jenkins, have unanimously agreed that he was not guilty of murder. The testimony is conclusive that Col. Jenkins was the aggressor, and that Gen. Lane was actually shot at twice before he showed signs of self-protection."

☞ Mary A. Foole, at North Wilbraham, a girl of 15 years, killed a black snake measuring eight feet and nine inches; but her courage gave way and she fled, on seeing another and a larger one coming to the rescue of his companion.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL AT ANDOVER.—At the approaching anniversary of the Andover Theological Institution, the first week in August, Rev. Dr. Bacon of New Hampshire will deliver a commemorative address, which will take place on Thursday forenoon, and will be followed by a dinner to the Alumni and invited guests.

SERMON TRADE IN ENGLAND.—The following incident reported in the London Athenæum shows the extent of the sermon trade in England:

Our correspondent tells us that having been annoyed by a nonsensical sermon in his own parish on the late Thanksgiving Sunday morning, he sought in the evening of the same day for improved spiritual food in the church of the adjoining parish. There, in due time, to his horror and amazement, he re-heard the same text given out, and was compelled to sit through the same identical sermon, delivered over again, word for word, by another clergyman. He was at first inclined to believe that this was mere evidence of the good understanding between the rector of one parish and the curate of the other, a proof of a kind of intercommunage between those reverend worthies, by which one set of sermons was made to do duty for two preachers.

But chancing the following morning to take up one of the clerical newspapers, his attention was arrested by the following advertisement: "To the Clergy—Sebastopol.—Sermons ready for Sunday next," being the day appointed for offering up prayer and thanksgiving for the capture of Sebastopol. Curiosity led our correspondent to expend half a crown in the purchase of one of the ready-made ecclesiastical articles.—On looking at it he found that it was merely Monsieur Tonson come again, the very same identical thing, about religion and patriotism, that he had been twice entrapped into listening to the day before.

TEMPERANCE FANATICISM.—Possibly you don't believe there is such a thing as temperance fanaticism. Well, some folks insist there is such a thing. Suppose we admit it. Will they tell us what evil it has done? Whose families has it brought to poverty? What young man has it ruined? What husband has it separated from his family? What parents has it caused to separate from their children? What children has it brought to disobedience and crime? What prisons or poorhouses has it filled? Where has it lowered the standard of morality? Where has it increased the taxes and the public expenditures? If it has done none of these, what is its crime? What evil hath it done?—Visitor.

What fools men are to worry because they are not as well off as "that fellow across the street." The richest man in town will be as forgotten in fifty years from now, as the mason who built the Rocky Mountains. In 1843, we attended the funeral of a millionaire. We visited his grave yesterday, and what do you suppose we saw—four bobtail pigs rooting the soil from his grave. And this was the end of all his influence—a neglected grave, with four snub-tailed pigs rooting up the subsoil. "So passes the glory of the world."

A GOOD REASON.—A grand jury out South ignored a bill against a huge negro for stealing chickens, and before discharging him from custody, the Judge bade him stand reprimanded; he concluded as follows:

"You may go now, John; but (shaking his finger at him) let me warn you never to appear here again."

John, with delight beaming from his big white eyes, and with a broad grin, displaying a row of beautiful ivory, replied:

"I wouldn't bin dis time, Judge, only the constable fotch me!"

☞ Hank Henderson, who was arrested in Kansas, charged with complicity in the Bellaire Crossing election fraud, has been discharged by Judge Lecompte, who declared his arrest to have been illegal.

LYNCH LAW IN KENTUCKY.—Lexington, Ky., July 10.—City Marshal Beard was murdered by a man named Barker, while endeavoring to arrest him. A crowd collected and hung the murderer a few hours afterwards.

A man can no more believe with another man's faith, than he can satisfy his hunger by seeing another man eat.

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

☞ A serious riot was threatened at Hoboken Sunday, in consequence of the efforts made by the Mayor to enforce the law against the running of omnibuses on Sunday. The proprietors of the line, backed by the keepers of lager beer saloons, were determined to resist the law, but were finally overpowered, and their horses and vehicles seized. A large number of special police were sworn in. The omnibus proprietors and saloon keepers subsequently entered a complaint against the Mayor for disturbing the peace.

On the subject of the removal of the body of ex-President Monroe to his native State, the N. Y. Tribune comments as follows:

Now that Virginia has ceased to produce any great men, and has substituted the demon of Slavery as her tutelary saint in place of the goddess of Liberty, she takes, as naturally as the Pharisees and Sadducees of old, to the business of whitewashing the tombs of her dead prophets. While the Court of Appeals is very busy in upsetting the law of the State as established by their predecessors, on the avowed ground that it has become the policy of Virginia to make slavery perpetual, her Legislature is engaged in erecting a costly monument to the man who avowed, to all his correspondents, that "it was among his first wishes to see some plan adopted by which slavery might be abolished by law." The removal of the bones of Monroe from their resting place in this city, is another tribute of honor paid to the dead relics of a man whose living sentiments, on the subject of slavery, would subject anybody, bold enough now-a-days to avow and maintain them, to a coat of tar and feathers, or at least to expulsion from the Ancient Dominion. While the Virginians drive the living Underwoods from their State, they bring back the dead Monroes.

A LETTER FROM MR. RAREY.—We find in a Nashville paper the following extracts from a letter written by Mr. John S. Rarey, the celebrated horse-tamer, now at the height of his triumphant career in England, to his nephew, Mr. C. W. Farrington. It is positively delicious in its honest simplicity and frankness.

LIVERPOOL, Apr. 23, '58.

MY DEAR NEPHEW:—I wrote you two sheets this morning, but was called away before I had quite finished, and now as I have just got through with the day, and had my tea, will hurry to finish your letter before any one calls. There is no rest for the wicked and no accomplishment without great labor. I have just had a very hard day, and between the hurrahs, the rush of people, the lecture, the breaking of three very bad horses, (one so as to be shot,) the excitement, and the perfect volley of all manner of questions, I feel very much like leaning back in my chair and taking a quiet snooze.

They tried to bring some horses to-day to defeat me, but they couldn't come it, and I as usual, came off victorious, amid the loud cheers of about one hundred scholars.

I wish you could be here just one day to see how enthusiastic the people are.—This morning when I stept into the school and took off my hat, they set up such a cheering and clapping of hands that made everything ring, and so animated me, I was full of eloquence, and addressed them with as much enthusiasm as though I was a second Kossuth. The streets outside of the building were crowded, and when I rode out on the back of a vicious stallion that no man had been able to mount for three years, they, too, set up a loud hurrah for the great American that they think I am. They don't know that I am nobody but your Uncle Jack, that used to break horses in the little town of Groveport.

Well the name American sounds well, and I think I would be justifiable in being proud of the name, if I am not of myself. I wouldn't like to be called the great Frenchman or the great Englishman.—Nothing caries with it so much music as the name of American, etc. etc.

As ever, your friend and uncle,
J. S. RAREY.

One likes always to see an impudent lawyer, whose forte is to banter and bully witnesses, brought up with a round turn by some victim of his ill-mannered bearing. We heard a recent instance the other day, which is worth relating. A case was being tried on Long Island, about the soundness of a horse, in which a clergyman not very conversant in such matters, was a witness. He was a little confused in giving his evidence, and a blustering fellow of a lawyer, who examined him, at last exclaimed—"Pray sir, do you know the difference between a horse and a cow?" "I acknowledge my ignorance," replied the clergyman. "I hardly know the difference between a horse and a cow, or a bully and a bull, only that a bull has horns, and a bully, (bowing in mock respect to the pettifogger) luckily for me has none!" "You can retire, sir," said the lawyer; "I've no further questions to ask you!"—New York Dutchman.

HOW TO BREAK UP A COLD.—Dr. Hall, in his Medical Journal, gives the following directions for breaking up a cold:

A bad cold, like measles and mumps, or other similar ailments, will run its course of about ten days, in spite of what may be done for it, unless remedial means are employed within forty-eight hours of its inception. Many a useful life may be spared to be increasingly useful, by cutting a cold short off, in the following safe and simple manner: On the first day of taking cold, there is a very unpleasant sensation of chillness. The moment you observe this go to your room and stay there, keep it at such a temperature as will entirely prevent this chilly feeling, even if it requires a hundred degrees Farenheit.

In addition, put your feet in water, half limb (leg) deep, as hot as you can bear it, adding hotter water from time to time for a quarter of an hour; so that the water shall be hotter when you take your feet out than when you put them in; then dry them thoroughly, and put on warm, thick woolen stockings, even if it be summer, for summer colds are the most dangerous, and for twenty-four hours eat not an atom of food, but drink as largely as you desire of any kind of warm teas, and at the end of that time, if not sooner, the cold will be effectually broken, without any medicine whatever.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF
Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,
THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR
Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.
ANOTHER GREAT AND PERMANENT CURE OF SEATED CONSUMPTION.

BOSTON, Feb 27, 1845.

TO DR. D. F. BRADLEE.—Dear Sir—in compliance with your request, I cheerfully give my recommendation of the Hungarian Balsam. I have been afflicted for nearly two years, with a severe cough, which not the Lungs, attended with a hard dry cough, acute pains in the side, loss of appetite, and increasing debility, which brought me into a very low condition. Some medical physicians whom I consulted, declared that I was in a deep consumption, and that a cure of my case was almost impossible. I tried several popular medicines, without receiving any essential relief, until I took the Hungarian Balsam.—This medicine relieved me at once, and in a few days changed my whole condition for the better. My cough is now checked, the pain in my side is gone, my appetite has improved, and I consider myself in a fair way to recover my former health and strength. My complaint was caused, at first, by severe colds, and by the dust of a paper mill in which I was employed. OCTAVIAN HOGGS.

This may certify that I am acquainted with Mr. Octavian Hoggs, and the condition of the relief which he received from the use of Buchan's Balsam. I have also used this medicine in my own family, with great benefit.

Bay State Range.

A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.

It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.

For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivalled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen pints, and cases of two dozen pints, and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.

Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Ride, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test.
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner.
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make your work easy, and laugh and grow fat.

Law School of the University
At Cambridge, Mass.

THE INSTRUCTORS IN THIS SCHOOL ARE

Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royal Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Professor.
Hon. ESTES HOWARD, LL. D., University Prof.

THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial; International and Constitutional Law, with the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.

Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Books and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.

Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.

They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.

The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.

During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.

The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.

Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S IMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?

READ! READ!! READ!!!

SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.

W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir:—Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last January I had reached the forty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and to a few days surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLA SEAMAN.

Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.

JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.

PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.

I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY,

Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.

The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not color the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

THE REASONABLENESS OF ETERNAL LIFE,

A Sermon, first delivered in Portsmouth, N. H., and repeated to the Rockingham Conference of Universalists, at Fremont, N. H., May 19, 1858. By T. H. Miller.

I WONDER.—When a young man is clerk in a store and dresses like a pince, smokes "foine cigars," drinks "noice brandy," attends theatres,'balls, and the like, I wonder if he does all upon the avails of his clerkship?

When a young lady sits in the parlor all day, with her lilly white fingers covered with rings, I wonder if her mother don't wash the dishes and do the work in the kitchen?

When a deacon of the church sells strong butter, recomending it as excellent and sweet, I wonder!

When a man goes three times a day to get a dram, I wonder if he will not by and by go four times?

When a young lady laces her waist a third smaller than nature made it, I wonder if her pretty figure will not shorten her life some dozen years or more, besides making her miserable while she does live?

When a young man is dependent upon his daily toil for his income, and marries a lady who does not know how to make a loaf of bread, or mend a garment, I wonder if he is not lacking somewhere, say toward the top for instance?

When a man receives a periodical or newspaper weekly, and takes great delight in reading them, but neglects to pay for them, I wonder!

JOHN MITCHELL.—The Charleston News says that John Mitchell's ability and boldness seems to surpass his discretion and modesty, and he now vapors and struts as if the whole South belonged to him.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these Pills are found to cure many various ailments.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any article of the kind I know of; are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Dell, of New York City.

"Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked. Many persons have in my presence cured themselves for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Knox, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine, so peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies commonly used. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. O. Green, of Georgia.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy when bilious derangement gives rise to dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, wife of Stuart, late practising as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent preventatives of those evils which are so frequently suffered from, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should be more generous and not keep it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the parent of other ills that are more fatal, but which would be avoided if the original trouble, costiveness, be removed."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT AND NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Reddell Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and rejoice with your numerous friends in your success. They purge, purify, invigorate and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system."

Such testimonies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FITS—&c.

From Dr. Edward Bogel, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you about complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that you ever heard said of a purgative medicine. I place your Cherry Pectoral on an equal footing with them in my daily contact with diseases, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford in the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in the hands of the unskilful, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every dose of it under his own eye, which is a guarantee that it may be relied on. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It supplies the surest remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all bronchial complaints for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. At time before these diseases were well understood or known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on weight and of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the dangerous affections of the lungs yield to it, if we can believe in the testimony of the most eminent physicians, whose business is to know; in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it irrefutably proven that this medicine does cure the class of diseases it is designed for, better and surer than all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. Nothing but intrinsic merit could have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too public for any doubt.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to any one who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are referred upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Joy to the Admirers of
A FINE HEAD OF
RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids;—and hence, it used as a regular dressing for the hair, preserves its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased, in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not be without it, when they see how it stimulates curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The great for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

DEER RIVER, CONN., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for about a year, my hair began to come out, curl and hang together. I saw in a New Haven paper about Wood's Hair Restorative, and thought I would your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow in two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Peet, the bearer of this. If you know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., RUFUS PEET.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front and side hair has grown quite thick, and I almost lost its curling—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is covered with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal experience, that it can do no more than it will to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKNESS, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will say, for whomever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that find you vastly superior to any other I know. cleanses the head of dandruff, and with proper use will restore any person's original youthful color and texture, healthy, soft and glossy appearance; his, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn to faithfully execute the trust reposed in them by their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a strictly honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year. All orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten gains a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to puzzle the buyer. Prizes may be left in the drawing, or they may be drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from this school, with the amount of prizes, will be printed to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia

Prizes paid in full, without any deduction from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION
TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, and honor, and integrity are passed and gone, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, BELL, PORTER, CARVER, or WHITE, that Dr. CRESSEY'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain panacea for the the trouble incident to female disorganization; they alone can relieve the very painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and causing health and happiness to whole sex; more especially do they do away entirely with certain pain attendant upon the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. Pennsylvania, on the twenty second day of June, PILLS of Dr. CRESSEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when INAPPROPRIATELY has been experienced under the regime of THREE PILLS; whereas, we will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their own everlasting benefit—always promising that said Proclamation in one number be considered worth two, that I hereby say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CRESSEMAN'S Principal Office, No. 1,031 Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS,

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patrons.

Beomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere so perfect purity its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,

Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier 36 Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Island, and return in the afternoon. June 12. THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, NEAR PORTSMOUTH.

HAS just been refitted, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish Island, White's Rock and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the mansions of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season of the year is beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known. The house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave twice daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMEE,
PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House,
ON RYE BEACH,

WILL be opened on the 25th of June, for the reception of permanent and transient company.

The proprietors will run a line of Coaches from Greenland Depot to the Beach, to carry the coaches marked "Job Jenness & Son," 25 cts. to any public or private house on or near Rye Beach.

Take the cars on the Eastern R. Road to Greenland, there coach to the house.

Valuable Real Estate
FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title given, free from all encumbrances, except taxes and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thor-ough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the spacious hall and seven chambers. There also four attic chambers. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorableness of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable place for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first-class boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families.

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSE and LOT on Hill and Bridge streets, now unroll, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased.

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington, a street out and known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It adjoins from the main road to the Piscataqua river but partially.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms and further particulars, apply to CREEDS.

A very pious brother said to us the other day, (says the North Christian Advocate,) in regard to a very severe affliction—the misconduct of a member of his family—that it had ceased to trouble him. On further inquiry, he said he believed he had in all integrity tried to do his duty to his child from infancy, that his efforts to bring the boy to Christ had failed, and that in his sad career he neither had a reproach on his own conscience, or was able to see his own faults laid on Christ. The long and bitter agony of a father's heart was now over.—The color and complexion of all earthly things were indeed changed from what they were before his fond hope was blasted, but his victory was complete. He could think of, and talk of his woes, without losing for an instant the deep peace of soul which faith imparted. "Thy will be done," had become a glad utterance, and he could see that this particular disaster, seeing that his son had chosen a career of evil, was the one to best humble, chasten and purify him. "They are the sword, the hand is thine."

Our friend is a Methodist. "Ah," said a worthy member of a Calvinistic Church, "that is my creed. You have come to that, I am glad to see."

My mind ran curiously off on the inquiry as to what is the actual difference between the Arminian and Calvinistic creeds. It seemed as if a little of both—a composite creed—was what men practically entertain. It looked as if a high Calvinist could never heartily labor to persuade men to resist the suggestions of a depraved nature, and turn to the Lord. It looked as if a high Arminian could never know the contentment of perfect acquiescence in the divine will. Yet Calvinists do labor for souls, Arminians do acquiesce in the will of God.

We find nobody fully carrying out his creed. We naturally infer that creeds are not very perfect transcripts of the sentiments of the soul. By a sort of linguistic weakness, men often say more than they mean, and a creed seems to overstate its own meaning. Men live and love to labor inside of the formulas of their creed, as freely and easily as they can think inside of their hats. The rim of the hat is not the outline of their brain, neither is the working of their creed the limit of their Christian life. All the phenomena of faith and practice find room far within, or, if you choose, beyond the stiff outward bulwarks of fixed fate, free will and immersion.

THE SHORTEST WAY.—Some twelve years ago, Napoleon, Indiana, was celebrated for two things—one for the carousing propensities of its inhabitants, and the other for the large number of its roads. It appears that an earnest collector had stopped at Dayton and become acquainted with an old drover, who appeared to be well posted as to the geography of the country.

"I wish to go to Greenfield," said the collector;—"now which is the shortest way."

"Well, sir," said the drover, "you had better go to Napoleon, and take the road leading nearly north."

The traveller noted it down.

"Well, if I wish to go to Edinburgh?"

"Then go to Napoleon and take the road west."

"Well, if I wish to go to Vernon?"

"Go to Napoleon and take the road south-west."

"Or to Indianapolis?" asked the collector, eyeing the drover closely, and thinking he was being imposed on.

"Go to Napoleon and take the road north-west."

The collector looked at his note-book; every direction had Napoleon on it; he began to feel his mettle rise, and he turned once more to the drover with

"Suppose, sir, that I wanted to go to the devil?"

The drover never even smiled, but he scratched his head, and after a moment's hesitation said,

"Well, my dear sir, I don't know of any shorter road you could take than to go to Napoleon."

CAN A MAN BE HIS OWN GRANDFATHER? The Query answered in the affirmative:—"There was a widow and her daughter-in-law, and a man and his son. The widow married the son, and the daughter the old man; the widow was therefore mother to her husband's father, consequently grandmother to her own husband. They had a son, to whom she was great-grandmother: now as the son of a grand-mother, must be either a grand-father or great-uncle, this boy was therefore his own grandfather.—N. B. This was actually the case with a boy at school at Norwich.—Notes and Queries.

☞ Great Discovery of the Age. ☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.
IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of men is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in nature, they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reexaminations procured, and objections that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and sincerity that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
HENRY B. REWNION, L. D. GALE, S. H. LANE, T. R. FRALY } Principal Examiners.
THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LONGDON. } Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. P. N. FESSENDEN,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

EDITORIAL EXCURSION.

At this season of the year, when so many are in search of a retreat from the overheated atmosphere of our cities, it is well to know where we can find the most agreeable spot. To facilitate the public in this search, a party of editors started from Concord on Wednesday morning, en route for the White Mountains.

A portion of the party arriving Tuesday evening were received by Messrs. Corning & Clark of the Phenix House, one of the finest hotels in New England, and one where the traveller will find all wants supplied.

Of that assemblage of talent,—it was our good fortune to be a unit. In addition to the editorial corps, some few such men as John P. Hale, Daniel Clark, Henry Wilson, John H. George, the Secretary of State, and the State Treasurer, were thought worthy to be admitted as members of the party, and accepted the honor accordingly.

The day was very fine. Taking seats in a car reserved for their especial benefit through the kindness of Hon. Joseph A. Gilmore, (the projector of the excursion,) the party were carried over the Concord & Montreal Railroad to Wells River Junction, and from thence to Littleton by the White Mountain Railroad, stopping to dine at the Pemigewasset House, at Plymouth, kept, and well kept, by D. R. Burnham. Very conveniently situated as a Railroad hotel, passengers step from the cars on to the piazza, and its close proximity to the rails seems to have imparted speed to the pretty waiters who attended the tables.

Betwixt Plymouth and Littleton the party was allowed to step out and drink from a stream issuing from the rock,—not the rock smitten by Moses, but that blasted by Irishmen.

At Littleton,—the terminus of the railroad in this direction,—the party partook of the hospitality of H. L. Thayer, mine host of the White Mountain House. Immediately taking stages we had a fine ride of about twenty miles to the Crawford House, at the White Mountain Notch, kept by J. L. Gibb, where we had an opportunity to test the sleeping arrangements of the house, and also the cuisine in the morning. The party here numbered 90. It may save repetition to say here that at all the hotels the landlords were obliging and courteous, the tables well spread, the waiters attentive, the accommodations ample;—that the railroads run through a most beautiful and picturesque country, the cars are comfortable, and the time made is good; that the stage drivers are, as a class, as far in advance of some drivers in the social scale, as regards physique and morals, as the steam engine is of the tread mill;—that the horses are plenty, sure-footed and very good; that the whole excursion was admirably planned and admirably carried out; and that Mr. Gilmore is "the right man, and in the right place."

From Gibb's a large party, about fifty, ascended Mt. Washington via the New Carriage Road, and some few visited the Falls of the Ammonoosuc but a short distance from the road. At the Tip-Top House, kept on the highest portion of the Mount by Messrs. Hall & Spaulding, we were agreeably surprised to find so nice a dinner. A few of the party received falls and bruises; but nothing serious occurred, to mar the pleasure of the company from its setting out to its return. Down the mountain and then to Brabrook's White Mountain House was the next move. Supper being discussed, a portion of the party went on to the Profile House, but the remainder chose to stay in preference to getting caught in a shower which soon came on. Early were the rest called to take their places, and just before daybreak the last team had left "Brabrook's" for the Profile.

As the Travellers moved on through the Fogg, the wagons kept within Hale of each other, while one which was Fuller than the rest carried one who be-Guild the passing hours with humorous remarks which ever and anon brought out a Clapp which would have disturbed even a seven Sleeper, and added to the huge enjoyment of Alexander "the Great."

Arrived at the Profile the party chose their own amusement, some went to see the waters roll and some went to roll themselves; Echo Lake, the Cascade, The Old Man of the Mountain, Ferrin's Pond, all had their visitors.

The dinner at the Profile was the gem of the excursion so far as palate-ial gratification was concerned. Speeches were made and sentiments were given. Charles Hale of the Boston Advertiser leading with a neatly turned speech of a few minutes, followed by Dr. Geo. B. Loring, Hon. Dan'l Clark, Judge Upham, Hon. N. B. Bryant, Mayor Beard of Nashua, Geo. G. Fogg, John B. Clark, Col. John H. George, Edward Binner, Z. K. Pangborn and others.

From the Profile House to the Flume House, stopping at the "Basin" on the way; from the House to the Flume, from the Flume to the Pool, from the Pool to tea, were all trips which had to be performed, and not so fearful a task after all.

Plenty of amusement was to be had at the House in the evening, but the charms of sleep were overpowering, and the majority retired early.

On Saturday, in the grey of the morning, a large portion of the company rode down the charming valley of the Pemigewasset to Plymouth, where we again tested the hospitality and coffee of our friend Burnham. Thence, taking the cars to the "Weirs," we proceeded in the fine steamer "Lady of the Lake" to Centre Harbor, at which place the Senter House lost nothing of its former reputation, but rose in the estimation of many.

Returning to the Weirs, the down train took us into Concord, where the party separated, pleased with themselves, pleased with each other, with the trip, its projector, and with those who so ably seconded him. It has been a favorable opportunity for the press to mutually extend its acquaintance, and many pleasing impressions will be borne to distant cities. Not a cloud was on any countenance as they changed cars for the last time;—out through the dust and perspiration shone gleams of the joy and satisfaction within;—Binner still made his jocose remarks, Pangborn could not resist his inclination to be lively, the while conspicuous among all was the genial countenance of Hon. Joseph A. Gilmore, irradiated with smiles at the successful termination of his experiment. "May his shadow never be less."

To those wishing to see the mountains, we can recommend no better route; and can assure all those who try it, that they will find themselves under the guidance of gentlemen, when entrusted to the care of the parties above named. We should like to have been more prolix, but as "F." went to the mountains the week before, we are afraid to lengthen our narrative, lest the public might consider that the hills were getting "rather steep."

BLACK PEDLERS.—Something was said, not long ago, about the new pedler law being dreadfully severe on black men, inasmuch as the law prescribes that the pedler must be a citizen of the United States, and inasmuch also as certain old grannies have said, contrary both to the fact and the constitution, that negroes are not citizens.

Now, says Uncle Toby, without undertaking to settle the negro-citizen question until it comes before the court, let us settle the negro-pedler question in the first place, and get it out of the way. The best way to begin, is to follow the example of Judge Taney in the Drod Scott case. He went back to the revolution, and fished up some bogus tales. Uncle Toby will go further back, and recollect an old story.

Once on a time, long, long ago, a good mother was heating her oven, while she was mixing up her bread, making her pudding, and fixing her beans for the baking. The fire snapped, and crackled, and roared in the oven and up the chimney, and sent a cheerful glow of light and heat across the room, until the bed of coals was perfect, and the oven exactly at the highest point desired. Just then the good dame, as she passed in and out, observed her daughter, not yet in her teens, sitting down in a corner and weeping bitterly.

What is the matter? my dear,—said the mother.

O, I was thinking how dreadful it would be, if I should grow up and be married and have a dear little boy, and he should climb up in a chair and get into the oven, and be burnt to death! O dear, dear!

Now if a black man from Exeter or Jericho or Jeremingo, just as the new pedler law has passed, should get a horse and wagon, and a tin box, and some needles and thread, and some fine tooth combs, and should apply for a pedler's license, holding fifty gold dollars in his hand to pay—may be our Court would not grant the license! They would not if they believed Judge Taney and the N. H. Patriot on these important questions.

But in the first place we have no black pedlers; in the second we are not likely to have; and in the third, if we had, they would stand a good chance before our courts and juries. So let those who have tears to shed cry over something else beside negro pedlers.

EXETERIANA.

EXETER, Tuesday, July 13th.

Dear Chronicle:—History informs us that when Xerxes invaded Greece with the millions of many a city on the line of march was brought to the brink of ruin by being obliged to furnish the barbarians with a day's meal; and a witty citizen of Abdera recommended his countrymen to return thanks to the gods because Xerxes was satisfied with one meal in the day. We would not be considered unpatriotic, but it strikes us that many a thank ought to be rendered that Independence day, as construed by the Exterians, comes but once a year. The whole town was a perfect Pandemonium from midnight of the 4th. Three of the church bells were rung by fire and starts all the morning, one of them with so much zeal that the bell rope was worn out and parted. Besides bonfires and the discharge of small arms, an innumerable force of tin horns added to the charms of the occasion.

If there was no public demonstration of joy, etc., the private recognition of the day was by no means kept secret, and we can congratulate the young patriots of our town that they succeeded but too admirably in keeping the whole town awake for six long mortal hours. Every thing was quiet during the day, many having left for Portsmouth, where nearly all agree in saying they had a most pleasant time.

The last term of the year 1857-8 at the Academy was terminated by an examination this morning. We understand that the exercises were uncommonly interesting. A dozen or twenty students intend leaving for college, the majority for Harvard. The academic system will be changed next term so that the students will be detained in the rooms at recitation only, and no studying will be done in school, as at present.

Twenty individuals were taken into the First-Congregational Church on the Sabbath of last week. On the same day Rev. Mr. Cook baptized three persons, and ten joined Rev. Mr. Lamphear's church. Last Sabbath the heat was so intense that services were postponed for the afternoon.

A party of our citizens have just returned home from a pleasure trip to the Shoals and Gloucester in the Piscataqua of Portsmouth. Among them was "Hugo" of the Boston Ledger,—just the man to have on board in a gale. Their breezes, however, were all prosperous.

The regular Exeter and Hampton stage coach will commence running on Thursday next. This line is well patronized while the warm weather lasts.

F. G.

"I hope so," was the reply, when Jerrold was asked by a Grub street author if he had read his last book. The readers of the Chronicle may think their stars—if they feel so inclined—that we have penned our last letter. We could hope that the numerous articles written hastily from time to time, under the signature of "F. G.," have been the source of half as much pleasure to the public in their perusal, as they have been to the author in their construction. For the CHRONICLE and its gallant crew of readers—we wish all success.

Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee.
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee,—are all with thee!

☞ On Sunday last, at the King's Chapel, in Boston, better known as the Stone Chapel, the Episcopal Church of the Advent held their meeting and read their usual service;—the house being kindly loaned to them by the Unitarians who own it.

The morning service was read by Bishop Southgate, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Burroughs, of Portsmouth, and the Rev. Mr. Stickney. In the afternoon the service was read by Rev. Dr. E. M. P. Wells and the Rev. Dr. Burroughs, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Stickney, assistant minister of the Church of the Advent. It is more than four score years since ritual worship was held in the Chapel on the Sabbath, in which the doctrine of the Trinity was recognized.

☞ We are glad to see that Crosby, Nichols & Co., of Boston, have published, in a separate pamphlet, the fine address, from the North American Review, of "The Phillips Family and Phillips Exeter Academy." We have already given our readers a liberal extract from it. The whole is equally interesting with that part.

☞ A mixed-up blunder occurred the other day, which is worth telling. Mr. Collamer, Superintendent of the Central Road, at Niagara Falls, sent a despatch to a subordinate in Buffalo, requesting him to send down four leeches for his wife—who had a swelled face. The operator mistook the word leeches and made it coaches—whereupon down they came, at the tail of the next passenger train.

☞ Frederick W. Porter, the defaulting agent of the American Sunday School Union, has made a full confession of his frauds. They commenced nineteen years ago with the mulberry and silk-worm speculation, and have continued ever since, and cover transactions to the amount of $600,000. The amount of loss to the society by his fraudulent use of its name is $40,000.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This prevalent disease is manifestly one of general and local debility, and requires for its alleviation the alterative and tonic virtues of iron. The PERUVIAN SYRUP offers this element in the only form in which it can enter the blood. Its administration is safe, certain, and free from the disagreeable effects of other preparations of iron.

GOOD.—A lunatic once informed a physician who was classifying cases of insanity, that he lost his wits by watching a politician, whose course was so crooked that it turned his brain. If on the contrary, he had been been watching the effects of HEINSBERGER'S HAIR COLORING, he would have saved his wits and learned a cure as triumph of Art over Nature.

French Periodical Golden Pills,

FOR FEMALES;

Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public, for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.

Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.

N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills, and see that signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

☞ The installation of officers in Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, I. O. of O. F., took place on Monday evening. The officers are:—Wm. Dow, Past Grand; E. G. Adams, Noble Grand; John R. Holbrook, Vice Grand; Samuel G. Folsom Permanent Secretary; C. S. Toppan, Recording Secretary; Benj. Parker, Treasurer; A. J. Patterson, Chaplain.

☞ Workmen were busy on Tuesday in getting spars and rigging up into the belfry of the North Church, and in planting a windlass in Market Square, to hoist the new bell into its elevated post of duty.

At 7 P. M., when the day's work ended, the bell was in the belfry, whose openings were scarcely wide enough to edge it in.—The hanging, we suppose, will be completed to-day.

☞ Rev. T. H. Miller is to deliver a Temperance Lecture this evening at 1-4 before 8 o'clock, in Academy Hall, before the Temperance Mutual Improvement Society.

☞ A handsome looking stallion, apparently six years old, was seen about Portsmouth Plains on Saturday, and on Sunday he died, apparently in fits, near Great Swamp, so called. He was of a red roan color, with black mane and tail, the tail short. His ownership is not known in this neighborhood; but he was a valuable horse, and must have been stolen.

Deaths in June.—Mr. Bell's record of mortality for the past month shows the number of deaths in this city to have been ten.

Males five, aged 2 years, 40, 48, 54, 55.
Females 5, aged 5 months, 1 year, 2 years, 33, 59.

NEWS FROM THE CABLE FLEET.

Quebec, July 13.—Ship Windsor Forest, Capt. Graffam, from Liverpool June 4, arrived here this morning. Capt. G. reports having seen the steamers Agamemnon and Niagara, in longitude 30, latitude 53, on the 19th of June; was three days in company with them; had heavy west-southwest gales and a high sea; parted company on the 20th June, the fleet steering more to the southward. Both had light steam on, and would reach the beginning ground about the 23d.

The weather on the 23d and 24th was fine; 25th, 26th, 27th, and 28th, heavy; wind SW., and WSW.

The Niagara went ahead at night, with a white bright light at the mizzen-topmast head; and by day the Agamemnon went ahead.

They had no other vessels in company, and were cautious in keeping together at night.

☞ The steam tug Blue Jacket, from Liverpool June 14, arrived at St. John's, N. F., reports that on the 24th of June, she saw what purported to be the Atlantic Telegraph fleet.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

New Orleans, July 13.—The steamer Empire City has arrived, with California mails of the 20th ult. She reports the Star of the West en route for New York, with 400 passengers and $1,500,000 in treasure. She connected with the Sonora.

☞ Additional advices from the seat of war in Utah, say the army had advanced to within fifty miles of Salt Lake city. It was stated that a "treaty of peace" had been concluded with the Mormons.

Washington, July 12.—A letter received by the Interior Department from Dr. Forney, Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Utah, alludes with confidence to the peaceable disposition of the Indians, including the tribe which Brigham Young boasted could be depended upon by him on the side of the Mormons, should hostilities ensue between them and the United States.

Secretary Floyd has left for the West, leaving Col. Drinkard as acting Secretary.

Mr. J. D. Fairbanks, connected with the National Hotel, and well known to the travelling public, died here to-day.

Louisville, July 12.—The Memphis Citizen's Bank, located at Nashville and Memphis is in trouble. Its bills are refused, and it is expected that its doors will close to-morrow.

☞ Miss Dravo, who warned an approaching train, at a bend on the Pennsylvania railroad, that a tree had fallen across the track, and thus probably saved the lives of all those on board, has received a free pass to last for life.

Murderer Sentenced.—Micheal Cancemi was yesterday sentenced to be hanged on the 20 of September at New York, for the murder last summer of policeman Anderson of that city.

☞ An umbrella has been manufactured in Connecticut, called "the lending umbrella." It is made of brown paper and willow twigs, intended exclusively to accommodate a friend.

Lord Kenyon told a witness angrily, that he would commit him. "I hope," answered he, "you will not commit yourself."

MARRIED.

In Newburyport, Charles E. Tuck, of Kensington, to Sarah J. Eaton of South Hampton.

DIED.

In this city, at the Alms House, Hannah Yeaton, aged 83 years.
In Roxbury, Mass., July 3d, Henry Y. Wiggin, aged 69, formerly of Exeter, N. H.

Foreign News.—The steamship Canada, from Liverpool July 3, for Boston, was intercepted off Cape Race. Her news is three days later. Nothing later from India. The bill to admit Jews to seats of the House of Commons passed to a second reading in the House of Lords by a majority of 46 votes. The Commoners were still debating the India bill. In the Lords, the bill to abolish the Church rates was rejected by a large majority. The London shareholders of the Illinois Central Railroad had held a meeting and deputed an agent to visit New York for the purpose of making investigations. No news from France. A new Ministry, with O'Donnell at the head of Foreign Affairs, had been appointed in Spain. The sales of cotton at Liverpool for the week foot up 77,000 bales—including 11,000 to speculators and 8000 for export—with an advance on all qualities. The accounts from the manufacturing districts are favorable. The Canada brings news of the loss of ship Ariadne, Capt. Knight, bound from Bombay to Boston, she having foundered at sea, the date and other particulars not given. The crew were rescued by the ship Arabia, which vessel subsequently ran ashore at Table Bay, C. G. H. Both crews were saved.

Not so Easy.—An officer on the United States Steamer Arctic saw the notorious steamer Styx in the Gulf, and says:

"She appears to be a very fine vessel, but little smaller than the Saranac, and if we had engaged, could have made short work of us. Indeed, if it is true that some of our Senators wish the Styx to be captured and brought into one of our ports, it may be for their edification to be informed that the Wabash is the only vessel in these waters which could do it, and that even the little gunboat Jasper could capture three vessels like the Arctic with the greatest ease. It is said, in fact, that the English are very much disgusted to think that vessels of this class should be sent by our government to teach them better manners."

Venerable Women.—The oldest person in New Bedford is Mrs. Elizabeth Fuller. She is 101 years old. She is the granddaughter of the Rev. Mr. Calendar, who came from Europe with his family and settled in Boston. She was born in Newport, R. I., and has a daughter at the ripe age of 74. Both are yet vigorous.

The "Friends' Review," the organ of the Quakers in the United States, has the following account of the eldest preacher of the Society of Friends:

At the last Quarterly Meeting at Leeds, England, Mary Wright, a minister, who formerly resided in Pennsylvania, now in her 105d year, stood up and began to preach, but finding a standing position painful, she sat down and continued preaching for about twenty minutes; her voice was clear and distinct, and her sermon, in some parts of it, truly impressive. This ancient Friend will be remembered as Mary Witchell, by some in this country whose memory extends backward half a century.

Forgetfulness.—Two nephews of the old Emperor of Austria (Ferdinand) were disputing in the presence of their uncle, who was considered not over-gifted with brains, when one getting angry with the other, said' "You are the greatest fool in all Vienna." "Young gentleman," said the sapient Emperor, startled at his want of decorum, "you seem to have forgotten my presence."

An Up and Down Reply.—During the examination of a witness as to the locality of the stairs in a house, the counsel asked him, "Which way did the stairs run?"—The witness, a noted wag, replied that "One way they ran up stairs, but the other way they ran down stairs." The learned counsel winked his eyes, and then took a look at the ceiling.

"L. s. d."—The English Government has lately sold "Longwood," Napoleon's prison at St. Helena, to the Emperor of the French, for the sum of $35,000! J. Bull may sneer at the money making propensities of the Yankees as much as he pleases after this, for we can tell him that if we are a "nation of money makers," it is because it "runs in the blood."—Charlestown Adv.

Bay State Range.
A NEW and improved Cooking Apparatus, invented by the maker of the celebrated Bay State Stove, of which so many are in use in this city. It has two large ovens and six boiler holes, giving it greater capacity for cooking operations than any range now in use.
It is complete in itself, and can be set in any chimney without cost; or it can be used outside of and independent of the chimney, if desirable. Water backs are introduced to give an ample supply of hot water for bathing and other purposes.
For families, boarding houses or hotels, this Range is unrivlled for capacity, economy or convenience. For sale by E. A. STEVENS.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic
SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen pts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat.
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, of steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner;
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat.

Law School of the University
At Cambridge, Mass.
THE INSTRUCTORS IN THIS SCHOOL ARE
Hon. Joel Parker, LL.D., Royal Professor.
Hon. Theophilus Parsons, LL. D., Dane Professor.
Hon. Emory Washburn, LL. D., University Prof.
THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial; International and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.
Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are two every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceeding.
Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.
They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.
The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.
During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.
The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.
Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

YES, YOU MAY
USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?
READ! READ!! READ!!!
Scroon Lake, Essex Co., N. Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. Hagan, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. Myra Eastman.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1857.
Joel P. Patten, Justice of the Peace.
Pittsford, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. Wm. Kingsley,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of the skin, invigorator of the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It is free from Sediment. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.
Sold by JOSEPH H. THACHER, Apothecary, cor. of State and Pleasant sts, and No. 12 Market Square, Portsmouth, N. H. je4 3msdaw

THE REASONABLENESS OF ETERNAL LIFE, a Sermon, first delivered in Portsmouth, N. H., and repeated to the Rockingham Conference of Universalists, at Fremont, N. H., May 19, 1858. By T. H. Miller.

A LUCKY BRIDEGROOM.—It will be remembered that our marriage notices several days since, contained one as having had its occurrence "at the German pic-nic in Westfield." The facts are somewhat amusing and romantic. A cigar maker had long sought the hand of one of the daughters of Westfield, but met with continuous disappointment. It happened that both were at the pic-nic, and amid the other pleasures, some one suggested in sport, that "we have a wedding." The lady unsuspectingly turned to her oft-discarded lover with a jocose invitation to join hands; and a magistrate, who also fills the office of town clerk, performed his duty less in fun than the bride had imagined, as was apparent when the husband came with a properly made out certificate to claim her hand. It is said there was a brief exhibition of tears, a very modest lingering between maiden and wife, and then a very hearty acceptation of the band that had so gallantly but unceremoniously won. The bridal pair entertained their friends that night with champagne and good things, and there was a bridal tour over into the West Parish next day.—Springfield Republican.

☞ Col. Forney, does not seem to be relaxing at all in his contempt for Lecomptonism. He says:—

Lecomptonism is not a virtue, but a lie—it is not a principle, but a heresy—it is not even a decent expedient, but an incarnate and festering corruption.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these Pills are used to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. A. W. Cartwright, of New Orleans.

"Your Pills are the best of cathartics for general use. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find a single dose to exert upon the liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative pill which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Dunn, of St. Louis.

"The Pills you were kind enough to send me have been fill used in my practice, and have proved so that they are truly extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which we prescribe cathartics."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mm. E. Stowe, who practises as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our family have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although but common, is one of the most genuine of all causes that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Ezekiel Bell, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do them. I have used them for years in my practice whenever with your sentiments of their efficacy. They stimulate the excretories, and carry off the impurities that originate in the blood, engendering disease. They also improve the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system.

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

HEAD AGHES—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—DYSPEPSIA—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FITS—&c.

From Dr. Edward Dupal, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than to say all that we ever have cured with your PILLS. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course make them my cathartic."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It is the purest medicine of the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of advanced patients in advanced stages of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet, it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. As a last resort, consumptives it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence to be placed on testimony, we can give it in abundance; there is not a town or city in the whole civilized world, some instances of the most astonishing character have been published among the thousands of intelligent physicians, whose business is to know, in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, they will tell you that they do use this medicine and cure the class of diseases it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtue, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of suffering and religious men, maintains the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, confidence and esteem by every year's use, and the unsolicited testimony of those who have tried it, of the wonderful cures to numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, poisoning their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and directed as above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most invincible secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by empyrics have come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. Females who have taken these, have got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of a genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Joy to the Admirers of
A FINE HEAD OF
RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and so you can judge.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—

We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back it into original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluid (oil), and, in a word, is a regular dressing. The hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or the diseased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the pitching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 1, 1858.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out quite and hair long and coarse. I tried every proper sheet "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of August, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I hoped to be able to satisfie you of its value. I have used it, and now the scurf and new hair began to grow. It is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I should know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, REUBEN PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VICKNESS, IL., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it, with the most satisfactory results, been selling other Hair Restoratives, and that is vastly superior to any other I know. cleanses the head of dandruff, and with a proper use will restore any person's original youthful color and texture, healthy, soft and glossy appearance; hair, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours,

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is conducted in a fair and honest manner.

They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the receipt of the orders, according to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination to confuse or mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000 every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers, viz: Boston Post, Nashville Banner, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your address plainly and direct to S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m18ly

A PROCLAMATION
TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the confiding and learned, BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that Dr. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are a sure and safe remedy for the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and ill health, the "happiness" of the whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral's, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the same object already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of Dr. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when nothing else may have been performed under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, in their own sphere, and be acquainted with the glorious tidings that a Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL and void; that is to say the PILLS NEVER NOT be taken when any female is in an interesting condition, as to bring a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price 62½ Cents by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal,

APPLEDORE HOUSE,
ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and happiness of its patronages.

Boscombe as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,

Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston to the Island, and return in the afternoon.

June 12. THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

The Gerrish House,
KITTERY POINT, NEAR PORTSMOUTH,

HAS been newly furnished and supplied with all the best appointments of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within minute walk of the Kittery station on the William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around our watering places seldom reach here.

This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Omnibus leaves the Kittery Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times.

ANDREW AMEE,
PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House,
ON RYE BEACH,

WILL be opened on the 25th of June, for the reception of permanent and transient company.

The proprietors will run a line of Coaches from Greenland Depot to the Beach. Fare, in coaches marked "Ocean House & Jenness & Son," 25 cts. to any public or private house on or near Rye Beach.

Take the cars on the Eastern R. Road to Greenland, thence coach to the house.

Valuable Real Estate
FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers, one of which is a large ball room; the house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall, connected with said mansion are a STABLE and WOOD house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorable location of the house, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a first class boarding house. The house is well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now owned, belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the HILL FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. "OLD HUNDRED."

In a rustic old church opposite, while we write, a company of worshippers are singing the old, old hymn, "Be thou, O God, exalted high." The air is old, also; the immortal "Old Hundred."

If it be true that Luther composed that tune, and if the worship of immortals is carried on the wings of angels to heaven, how often has he heard the declaration, "They are singing 'Old Hundred' now."

The solemn strain carries us back to the time of the Reformers—Luther and his devoted band. He, doubtless, was the first to strike the grand old chords in the public sanctuary of his own Germany. From his own stentorian lungs they rolled, vibrating not through vaulted cathedral roof, but along a grander arch, the eternal heavens. He wrought into each note his own sublime faith, and stamped it with that faith's immortality. Hence it cannot die! Neither men nor angels will let it pass into oblivion.

Can you find a tomb in the land where sealed lips lay that have not sung that tune? If they were gray, old men, they had heard or sung "Old Hundred." If they were babes, they smiled as their mothers rocked them to sleep singing "Old Hundred." Sinner and saint have joined with the endless congregation, where it has, with and without the pealing organ, sounded on sacred air. The dear little children, looking with wondering eyes on this strange world, have lisped it. The sweet young girl whose tomb-stone told of sixteen summers, she whose pure and innocent face haunted you with its mild beauty, loved "Old Hundred," and as she sung it, closed her eyes and seemed communing with the angels who were so soon to claim her. He whose manhood was devoted to the service of his God, and who with faltering steps ascended the pulpit stairs with white hand placed over his laboring breast, loved "Old Hundred." And though sometimes his lips only moved, away down in his heart, so soon to cease its throbs, the holy melody was sounding. The dear white-headed father, with his tremulous voice, now he loved "Old Hundred." Do you see him now, sitting in the venerable arm-chair, his arms crossed over the top of his cane, his silvery locks floating off from his hollow temples, and a tear, perchance, stealing down his furrowed cheeks, as the noble strains ring out? Do you hear that thin, quivering, faltering sound now bursting forth, now listened for, almost in vain? If you do not, we do; and from such lips, hallowed by fourscore years' service in the Master's cause, "Old Hundred" sounds indeed a sacred melody.

You may fill your churches with choirs, with Sabbath prima donnas, whose daring notes emulate the steeple, and cost almost as much, but give us the spirit-stirring tones of the Lutheran hymn, sung by young and old together. Martyrs have hallowed it; it has gone up from the dying beds of the saints. The old churches, where generation after generation has worshipped, and where many scores of the dear dead have been carried, and laid before the altar where they gave themselves to God, seem to breathe of "Old Hundred" from vestibule to tower-top—the very air is haunted with its spirit.

Think, for a moment, of the assembled company who have, at different times and in different places, joined in the familiar tune! Throng upon throng—the stern, the timid, the gentle, the brave, the beautiful, their rapt faces all beaming with the inspiration of the heavenly sounds!

"Old Hundred!" king of the sacred band of ancient airs. Never shall our ears grow weary of hearing, or our tongues of singing thee!—And when we get to heaven, who knows but what the first triumphal strain that welcomes us may be—

"Be thou, O, God, exalted high!"

WIT AND GAYETY.—Mr. Stowe, in a letter to the Independent, speaks of Sydney Smith as the "joyous, witty, wise Sydney, who turned the silver lining to every cloud of life, and whose whole course shows how beautiful a present our Heavenly Father has made in that love of humor which so many solemnly fold away in a napkin."—The following criticism on two famous English wits is quite good:

"We have the impression that a vast deal of genial humor is conscientiously strangled in religious people, which might illuminate and warm the way of life.—Wit and gayety answer the same purpose that a fire does in a damp house, dispersing chills and drying up mould, and making all wholesome and cheerful. The difference between such a man as Theodore Hook and Sidney Smith is all the difference between lively nonsense and lively sense. Wit is a flask of oil to keep the machinery of life in smooth and kindly play, but he who lives on oil has too much of a good thing.

RAPID OVERLAND TRIP FROM CALIFORNIA.—A Lawrence (Kansas) correspondent, under date of July 2d, writes:—

"A party of men from Southern California reached here two nights since, having made the trip with mule trains, in sixty-five days. This is considered very expeditious. They are camped near town, resting themselves and animals."

☞ Great Discovery of the Age. ☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.
IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe
NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used, being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the Taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the fetidness and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.

THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1858.

THE PEDLER LAW.

It may be worth while to show, in a brief article, what can be, and what cannot be done, under this new law.

Sec. 3 provides that "nothing in this chapter shall prevent any citizen from selling any fish, fruit, provisions, farming utensils or other articles lawfully raised or manufactured in this State."

Under this proviso, the pedler may sell tin ware and wooden ware, brooms and sieves, combs and all other things that are lawfully manufactured in this State.

It may be said that no combs are made in this State; nor any brooms except by the Shakers.—If this be true, somebody will probably establish manufactories both of brooms and combs just inside our State line, before next Thanksgiving Day.

But the Manufactures of other States, or of Foreign Countries, cannot be peddled here, without a license tax, of $50 per annum,—and this license is only to be given to a citizen of good character with vouchers.

Why is this restriction on the pedler, and this heavy tax? Answer, the shopkeeper, who hires a store, may sell these foreign wares, without a voucher, or a character,—because he stays in one place for a year or more, so that people can find him, and find their remedy against him, if he cheats them, or sells them bad wares,—while the pedler is off, and if he cheats ever so badly, the purchaser can hardly catch him, if he roams from State to State, as the worst cheats would do, were there no pedler laws.

Again, the shopkeeper pays rent for his store, and so contributes to the general wealth. But the pedler's horse and horse-keeping, his carriage and tolls, go to offset the shopkeeper's rent. Truly they do so, and so far he contributes to the general wealth. But the shopkeeper is taxed for his average stock, which often lasts a year or six months—and the pedler, who turns his stock twenty times a year, is not taxed for it, except as he pays a license fee, which has been ten or twenty dollars, but is now fixed at fifty dollars per annum.,

Under this new act, the New Hampshire farmer may peddle his produce from door to door in this city; but the Maine farmer cannot do it so safely. He may, however, deliver his produce here, in a lump, at any one place, either store, or house, or market, and take his pay for it—but he cannot hawk it round and offer it for sale, without running the risk of fine.

Meat and milk from Maine, and newspapers from Massachusetts, we suppose, may be delivered to regular subscribers or customers at their doors, without infringing the law—but neither, we presume, can be safely hawked round.

It is not true that our butchers cannot hawk round the meat of animals which they bought in Maine and slaughtered here. For when the animal is killed and dressed, in New Hampshire, he is manufactured into provisions, which may be sold by anybody anywhere in this State, without license. A Kittery butcher may hire a stall or building here, and sell; but he may not hawk his meat round in his cart.

Massachusetts bakers cannot peddle their bread in New Hampshire; but they may sell it to stores or from stores. So cigars and tobacco, made here, can be peddled here without license; but made elsewhere, cannot be peddled without the $50 license.

Certain things may not be sold by even licensed peddlers. Sec. 3 says:

No person licensed as aforesaid shall sell, carry or offer for sale any jewelry, spirituous liquors, playing cards, lottery tickets, or any other property, the sale of which is prohibited by the laws of this State.

These things are not allowed to be sold thus at all—the spirits, tickets and cards because they are contraband—and the jewelry—ah! why not! why should not the girls in the woods get rings as well as ribbons from a licensed peddler? We can think of no other reason than because the legislature supposed there would be no limit to the cheating of the customer, or to the stealing of jewelry to sell.

This prohibition was in the former pedler law, passed 1848. And it is proper here to say that pedler laws, more or less restrictive and prohibitory, are not a new thing in New Hampshire; but have been in force many years, have been changed several times, and in a great many instances evaded or disregarded. It remains to be seen how well this will be enforced.—This depends much on the traders, who can prosecute when they think their interests are invaded.

The effect of the law, in some cases, as in Portsmouth, for a time, may be awkward on some kinds of traffic, especially between Eliot and Kittery marketmen and our citizens. And the $50 tax seems very high, unless the design is to stop all peddling of foreign wares.

But the probable effects will be: first a little diminution in the number of pedlers, by throwing off those not citizens, or who cannot get vouchers of character.

Second, an increase of small manufactories of such things as may go free, in the tin carts and bread carts.

Third and last, the establishment of a few well known pedlers, who can do business enough in foreign goods to pay the $50 tax.

☞ The young woman who was found in Boston, deranged, has been ascertained to be Mrs. Nancy Jane Churchill, a native of New Hampton, N. H. She has a husband in business in Minnesota, and was recently discharged, "cured," from the Insane Retreat at Indianapolis, Ind. She came to Boston last Thursday, and will remain at South Boston until her friends can make proper arrangements for her return to her husband.

Her relapse was probably induced by the fatigue of her journey, the great heat, and some excitement. It is supposed to be only temporary.

☞ The Charleston Mercury says, that if the recent meetings for the reception of Senator Crittenden in Kentucky are the reflex of the feelings or opinions of the people of that State, she may as well be stricken from the roll of Southern States. It says:—Senator Crittenden is a true exemplification of an old inveterate Southern federalist or whig. There has not been a single measure of usurped authority in Congress, from the tariff of 1818 to the last contest in Congress on Kansas, that he has not been on the side of the North.

☞ A friend has sent us the catalogue and regulations of the New Hampshire (Methodist) Conference Seminary and Female College, for the Academic year 1857-8. During the year, 205 ladies and 136 gents have belonged to the Seminary, 380 in all.

The largest number in any quarter, was 215 in the spring. The smallest, 80 in the summer.

☞ The Charleston S.C. News says that John Mitchell's boldness seems to surpass his discretion and modesty, and he now vapors and struts as if the whole South belonged to him. Mitchell so out-Herods Herod in defence of the "peculiar institution," and in favor of re-opening the slave trade, that he excites the contempt of genuine Southerners.

PRIZE FIGHTING—WHAT IT COSTS.—John Morrisey, the pugilist, thinks that Canada is the only place where a fight could take place without interruption. In a published card he says: "I once fought in the States for one thousand dollars a side, and it cost me eighteen hundred dollars to save myself from the State Prison."

☞ If you want your yard green, fresh and sward, thick and thrifty, mow it often; and if you have a force pump and hose, give it an occasional watering. If you have not got the chips, old barrels, blocks of wood, &c., off, do not delay it any longer, and prepare to build a good fence.

☞ The gold coinage at the United States mint, since its establishment in 17-92, has amounted up to the present time to five hundred millions of dollars, of which four hundred and fourteen millions have been coined since 1849.

☞ It is estimated that the bank note circulation of the banks throughout the United States, on the 1st of July, was one hundred and fifty millions of dollars, resting on a specie basis of one hundred millions.

CONTROVERSIAL RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPERS. The General Association of Congregational Ministers of Connecticut, recently adopted the following resolution by a large majority:

Resolved, That the General Association regard with disapprobation the too common asperity of religious newspapers, especially in matters of controversy; that while we would encourage freedom of discussion, we yet deprecate all discourtesy and bitterness between religious journals, as between other Christian brethren.

A SOUTHERN TOAST ON THE FOTE.—The following volunteer toast was read at the celebration of Independence at Lunenburg, Va.:

By Washington Madder.—The Reopening of the African Slave Trade in the United States—A blessing to Africa, but a curse to the United States, both commercially and nationally; therefore, bad policy.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Steamship Philadelphia, from Havana July 8, arrived this morning. She brings California papers of the 21st ult. received by the Granada.

The Frazer river gold excitement is increasing in consequence of the glowing accounts furnished by the miners who have returned from that region.

Labor is scarce, and wages have gone up 20 and 30 per cent. It is estimated that 8000 people have already left for the diggings. Six steamers have been put on the route, besides ten sailing vessels.

Several American newspapers are projected in the British possessions, and one, the North American, is already announced at Victoria. The steamer Cortez took 1300 passengers for that city, and every berth in sailing vessels was taken for days in advance.

The Hudson Bay Company have stationed armed vessels on Fraser's River, to prevent emigrants from carrying goods into the interior to sell. One American vessel, it is reported, had entered the river in spite of the blockade, the English commander not daring to fire upon her.

The defeat of Col. Steptoe is fully confirmed. His troops fell into an ambuscade, were attacked by a large number of Indians, and forced to retreat, with the loss of 7 killed and 15 wounded.

A general Indian war is expected.

Much excitement exists in San Luis Obispo county, and also in Carson Valley, in consequence of numerous robberies and assassinations by organized banditti. In the former place a Vigilance Committee had been formed, and had already hung four culprits. In the latter, a murderer named Snow had been seized and hung by the people. Before his death he made a confession, which led to the capture of seven confederates, who at last accounts were under trial for their lives before a body of citizens.

WAR, THE MADNESS OF NATIONS.—The Philadelphia Ledger has an excellent article on the general subject of war. It argues that the most patient, self controlling and peaceful nations will eventually rise to influence and power, and extend their institutions in the earth. The concluding sentence of the writer is as follows:

Capital will be invested by millions where at once most safe and most reproductive, and these two can only unite where there is peaceful industry at work. Population will always follow capital, and thus they embrace each other. Here in this great home of peace, plenty and liberty, if we can only be kept from the fatal bite of war madness, we may go on augmenting our resources almost incalculably, while all the despotisms of earth are wearing out and exhausting themselves. The spectacle of our quiet, peaceful growth and grandeur will win us more respect, influence and power among the nations of the earth than a thousand victories like those of Alma, Inkerman, or Sebastopol.

DECREASE OF DRINKING SHOPS IN BOSTON. By order of the Chief of Police, a return has been made from the different stations of the number of public drinking shops in the city, excluding groceries, &c.

The number returned was	1659
Last year the number was	1985
Decrease	326

The Ledger speaks of this diminution as taking place in a quarter, and says: "the returns show a decrease of 334 as compared with the number open at the close of the month of March. One street, in which quite a number of small groggeries existed three months ago, is now without even one. The consequence of this fallling off may be seen in the concurrent decrease of crime which has characterized the last in comparison with previous quarters, and cannot fail to be a matter for congratulation on the part of every good citizen."—This is true:—they have been diminished by enforcing the nuisance act. And with this lesson before us, it would seem best to keep on applying it, till the whole brood should be crushed out.

THE FOURTH AT NASHVILLE.—A New York printer, writing in Nashville, Tenn., 4th inst., says:—

"Yesterday (the third) was observed here as the Fourth of July. I have not heard the sound of fire arms; and even the boys, so far as know, have not fired a cracker in honor of the occasion. There is little patriotism in Nashville. The business of the city went on as usual, and not a banner floated to the breeze to commemorate Independence day, in this the principal city of the State—once the home of James K. Polk and Andrew Jackson.—The members of the Typographical Union, numbering about fifty, enjoyed the hospitality of the citizens of Franklin, twenty miles from this city, where a barbecue and fish-fry distinguished the day.

POTTSVILLE, PA., July 13.—Nine men were instantly killed this morning at Harper's Mines, by the falling of black damp. Five others were seriously injured, but it is supposed they will recover.

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 13.—Mrs. Patrick Pope and family were poisoned by arsenic being put into their coffee by a slave girl 10 or 12 years old. Mrs. Pope is in a critical situation. The rest of the family are recovering.

☞ One good thing has just been done in Boston, viz: a teamster put in jail for putting out a horse's eye by a blow with a stake on the head.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for August, has for a frontispiece "the New Baby." It has fashion plates as usual, and a rare lot of short tales by the best writers.

Money invested in a tool, and the tool left exposed to the weather, is like money loaned to a spendthrift with no security received. In both instances it is a dead loss, and the result of indolence or inexcusable indifference to one's own interest.

THE RIVER OPPOSITE VICKSBURG.—We learn from accurate measurement, by a scientific gentleman, that the Mississippi river opposite this point is now forty-eight and a half feet above low water mark.—The present depth of the channel just below the wharf boat, opposite the Prentiss House, is twenty-seven feet. The usual average width of the river between Vicksburg and De Soto is about six hundred feet—its width now, from the extremity of the water to the bank, is nine hundred and ten feet.—Vicksburg Whig, 1st inst.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.
This prevalent disease is manifestly one of general and local debility, which requires for its alleviation the alterative energies of a tonic of iron. The PERUVIAN SYRUP offers this element in the only form in which it can enter the blood. Its administration is safe, certain, and free from the disagreeable effects of other preparations of iron.

GOOD.—A lunatic once informed a physician who was classifying cases of insanity, that he doubt his wits by watching a politician, whose course was so crooked that it turned his brain. If, on the contrary, he had been watching the effects of HEINITZSHEET'S HAIR COLORING, he would have saved his wits and learned a curious triumph of Art over Nature.

ALLEN & PAINE,
NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,

A CARD TO THE LADIES.
DR. DUPONCO'S
French Periodical Golden Pills,
FOR FEMALES
Infallible in Removing Stoppages or Irregularity of the Menses.

THESE Pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalled success in every case; and he is urged by many thousand ladies who have used them to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent pregnancy in those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while pregnant, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise these Pills are recommended. Full and explicit directions accompany each box.
Price $1. Sold in Portsmouth by JOSEPH H. THACHER, in Dover by Chas. A. Tufts, in Exeter by C. A. Merrill, and in Newmarket by J. A. Prendergast. They will supply dealers at the Proprietor's prices, and also send the Pills to the Ladies (confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Post Office.
N. B.—Ladies will be particular in asking for Dr. Duponco's Golden Pills. Observe the signature J. Duponco is upon each box. You will then obtain a Pill you can rely upon.

LOCAL.

THE PEDLER LAW.

Messrs. Editors:—There was much rejoicing among most of the traders here on the passage of the new law prohibiting pedlers from running our local trade. It is to be hoped that the next legislature will make an amendment to the law and prohibit the pedling of Coal as well as other articles. I am informed that some three or four men who are reputed to be the wealthiest in our city, have this season bought three cargoes of coal (600 Tons) and pedled it out to persons who wished to join them at the prime cost, thereby saving 18 or 20 cts. per ton, and at the same time spoiling the local trade of our dealers here, who keep a large number of men employed, and have the reputation of being honest men. Now, gentlemen, is it any wonder that traders complain of hard times? If every one should pursue this course, how long would there be any business done in Portsmouth? All in business would have to leave or fail, for none of them could exist by trade.

It seems small business for wealthy men to be engaged in, and particularly so for those who have made their money out of Portsmouth people, and are now unwilling for any one else to even earn a living. Suppose all the hard ware, dry goods, groceries, ship chandlery, &c., &c., had been purchased in this way for the last twenty years, would there have been a rich man among us, or one who had earned a competency in trade?

Portsmouth can never become a large or prosperous city, if her principal men are guided by such mean and narrow views; and it should be the feeling of all to encourage our own HOME TRADE.

A PLEASING INCIDENT.—About six years ago, when we started the Chronicle machinery, which has revolved so steadily ever since,—we made a bargain with a lady living near, to cleanse our office towels, for which service we were to furnish her a daily paper. This contract—which we were induced to make, by the faithful manner in which she had for a long while purified white vests, &c, for us—has remained unbroken to this time—doubtless to our mutual advantage.

Well, this is not of much importance—certainly possesses not much public interest—but on entering our office on Wednesday morning, we found a dish of the largest and most luscious ox-heart cherries, from this same good lady neighbor—which kind remembrance has recalled so much of reminiscence in our heart, that we can but draw a few reflections from it. We all speak of half a dozen years as a brief period—and yet many are the changes to most mortals in that time. Since we three boys (we were hardly more than that then) issued our prospectus, one of our number, and apparently the least likely to leave earth first, has gone to "that undiscovered country" from whence he may send us no intelligence; and our other associate having engaged in less responsible duties elsewhere, we were long since left to do alone, what we could not have accomplished at first.

Then the lady herself, whose decidedly acceptable little present has set us to thinking of the past—she, from one of the liveliest and smartest of housewives,—probably too industrious—at that time, has long since become a confirmed invalid, hardly able to minister to her own necessities—much less to conduce so greatly to the comfort of her household, as it was formerly her joy and pride to do. Many the kind and cheering word we have now in our memory from her—when we were apprentice, journeyman and publisher; and though for the past two or three years, a smile and nod, with her window between us, have taken the place of our former pleasant chats at her door—yet we are good friends still—witness it, ye blushing cherries. Old friends, like old subscribers, we prize far higher than new; and we will close this item by wishing our kind neighbor, if her deprivation, the fruit of all earthly consolations, and the still greater satisfaction of knowing that to her must be awarded the highest possible praise: "She hath done what she could."

All this about a plate of cherries. May it not be termed a cheery item? F.

☞ The new North Bell gave us its first salute on Wednesday about 4 P. M., after silence had reigned in the tower for about six weeks, and the music had been gone three times as long. The new bell does not sound exactly like the old,—but there is a good wake up in its tone, which will startle the boys when fire is cried at midnight. The tone is said to be about F sharp, and it certainly is clear, resonant and agreeable.

☞ Our good friend B. P. Shillaber (may his shadow never be less—though it liked to have been this time,) while on his way from Portland to Boston a day or two since, had a very narrow escape from death, at the Eastern depot in this city.—Two trains pass here; and while he was watching one, the other, unknown to him, was rapidly approaching and very near him;—when Dr. Frank Fuller saw his danger, and without recognizing Mr. S., gave him a shout and a push, and sumarily removed him from his imminent danger. Neither party was the less surprised or pleased, on discovering in each other an intimate and valued friend.

☞ Mr. George P. Pearson, son of Mr. George W. Pearson of the Revere House, Boston, aged about 20, while laboring under a distressing disease, became insane, and drowned himself in the Black Bay on Friday night.

The young man was a native of this city, where his father formerly kept the Rockingham House. The body has been found.

☞ Many thanks for that pretty bouquet from our fair correspondent "Annie"—sparkling with dew, and eloquent of kind wishes and beautiful thoughts.

A GOOD BED.—Most sensible people have learnt that it is neither comfortable nor healthy to sleep on feathers—but all do not know the best substitute for that objectionable substance. A good one, at any rate, is Tolman's Self-Ventilating Bed, which consists of a hair mattress of medium thickness, attached to firmly-set springs, so constructed that the air passes through and ventilates the whole structure. They have been in use about three years, and given great satisfaction. A few have been tried in this city—and more "are found wanting." Messrs. A. T. Joy & Son are agents for Portsmouth and vicinity, and are prepared to exhibit and supply this excellent bed to order.

The Fitchburg Reveille says:—

This new and curious bed has stood the various tests to which it has been subjected, and has proved itself superior to everything else of the kind. It is simple and thorough in its construction, and free from all the unwholesome qualities of feather beds; in fact its use is calculated to promote health as well as comfort—and then the prices at which they are sold, bring them within the reach of every one. People should now throw aside their old feather beds, and at once supply themselves with a self-ventilator.

HARVARD COLLEGE.—A writer in the Traveller, who signs himself "An Alumni and Friend of the College," after regretting that College Presidents should be nominated through the newspapers, says:

Two of the gentlemen named are too young, however otherwise well qualified. One thing is very important, as it regards its influence on the under-graduates. The person elected should have had a high rank as a scholar while in college, and in his deportment.

If your correspondent should express his own opinion of those nominated, he would not place either Mr. Winthrop or Dr. Putnam the lowest in his estimation. If he added clergymen, it would be Dr. Hedge of Brookline, or Dr. Peabody of Portsmouth, the editor of the North American Review, who has been an instructor at the college, and a good one.

A DRY JOKE ON A WET SUBJECT.—Near the mouth of the Ohio are two rival cities, which sometimes manage to keep their heads above water. The editors of both towns have been telling some queer stories about the late submerge. The Mound City Emporium is responsible for the subjoined dry joke on a wet subject:—"The steamer Manchester has been engaged inside the levee at Cairo, during a considerable portion of the past week, towing houses from one point to another, and getting drift out of the town. The report that she tore part of her bottom off by running over the top of the Taylor House is without foundation."

Wolfe's Celebrated Schiedam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.

This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its medicinal and medicinal properties to any alcoholic cordial ever made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.

Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin.
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Rifles, steel tempered, and made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test.
The Basket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling, O think!
And the Pin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat.

THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial International and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.
Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also holden in each week, at each of which a cause, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.
Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.
They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.
The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.
During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.
The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.
Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning gray, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLE RAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myle Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOH. P. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, Vt., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, (prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y.,) for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter in the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not rub off on the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N.Y.

☞ In Buffalo, N. Y., a few days ago, some workmen were engaged in removing a platform in front of a store, when an editor of the Advertiser, Mr. Gilbert, happening to pass at the moment on his round of duty, seeing that they were short of help, undertook to assist them. The platform fell in a direction not expected, and a heavy timber struck him upon the head, and bore him down to the surface of the wharf, instantly crushing out his brains and causing his death.

☞ Another mass of rock, earth and trees separated themselves from Goat Island, at Niagara Falls, last week, and went thundering down into the chasm.—The Niagara Falls Gazette thinks that at this rate, Buffalo may hope "in time" to have the Falls within the city limits.

☞ Queen Victoria has long shown an aversion to Buckingham Palace, which has puzzled the Court gossips to explain. It now appears that the building is infested with rats and bugs. Every attempt to expel the vermin has proved unsuccessful. The rats have got into the new ball room, and every apartment displays the wonders of the insect world.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these PILLS are found to cure many varieties of diseases.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice.

AS A FAMILY PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Cottwright, of New Orleans.

"YOUR PILLS are the Family Physic. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Dell, of New York City.

"Not only are your PILLS admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effect upon the liver very marked. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Hunn, of St. Louis.

"The PILLS you were kind enough to send me have been all used in my practice, and have indeed proven that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them alone. I have cured some cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your PILLS have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTION—WORMS—SUPPRESSION.

From Mrs. E. Smart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Boston.

"I find one or two large doses of your PILLS, taken at the proper time, are excellent to restore the action of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

"Too much cannot be said of your PILLS for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have proved them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the prolific parent of other ills and miseries. I believe costiveness originate in the liver, but your PILLS affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Fowler Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your PILLS purify the blood. They do that. I have used them of late years in my practice, and can speak from experience of their efficacy. They stimulate the excretories, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the blood, engendering disease. They stimulate the organs of digestion, and infuse vitality and vigor into the system."

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

FOR HEADACHE—SICK HEADACHE—FOUL STOMACH—PILES—DROPSY—PLETHORA—PARALYSIS—FITS—ETC.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

"DEAR DR. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your PILLS better than by saying that I have cured them with a purgative of some kind. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your PILLS afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly."

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration. It ripens with the mature growth of the world, has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptives, it has proved its value in advanced stages of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them; if we can trust our own senses when we see the decided gains and benefits the lungs yield to it; if we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, whose business it is to know; in short, if there is any reliance upon any thing, then is it irrefutably proven that the Cherry Pectoral is more the class of disease it is designed for, beyond any and all other remedies known to mankind. Nothing but its intrinsic virtue, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies have been thrust upon the community, have failed, and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted that cannot be estimated, and produced cures too numerous and remarkable to be forgotten.

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in the surrounding towns, surrounding their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter addressed as below.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated by other hands, came under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and the medicine sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

Be particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of life, a healthy constitution.

The medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

Joy to the Admirers of
A FINE HEAD OF
RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids; and besides being a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call them upon you to hide the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it, and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

Mr. Leavenworth:—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together, I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., ROYAL PARDY.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact bald. I have used but two bottles of your Hair Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,
D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IN., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it, for the last twelve or fifteen years, and in all cases of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find you a vastly superior to any other! Know, entire cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one more to proper use will restore any person's hair to its original youthful color and texture, leaving it healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours,

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a manner honorable to men. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as if they were present. The Manager respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the lotteries of Samuel Swan & Co. are authorized by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand, according to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No tickets sent unless the money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following leading Journals: Philadelphia Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. Write your orders plainly, and direct to S. SWAN & CO., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

All communications strictly confidential. m181y

A PROCLAMATION
TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are fast fading away; and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of the credulous and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, OR WIDOWS, that DR. CHEESEMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are alone the certain sanctioner for the female disorders and female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, pain in the side, and restoring health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from mineral; therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicines thrust upon the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of DR. CHEESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when numerous others have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cause this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to their mutual advantage, by ever always prescribing that said Proclamation in one case must be considered NULL AND VOID; that is to say the PILLS MUST NOT be taken when any female is in an INTERESTING SITUATION, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to DR. CORNELIUS L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

Given under my hand and seal.

Capt. GEO. PERKINS,

Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, and leave on return in the afternoon.

June 12. THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

The Gerrish House,

KITTERY POINT, Me., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,

HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whale's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the celebrated Sir William's Spring and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many seaside places are seldom known.

This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Coaches leave once daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times. ANDREW AMES,
PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House,
ON RYE BEACH,

WILL be opened on the 25th of June, for the reception of permanent and transient company.

The proprietors will run a line of Coaches from Greenland Depot to the Beach. Fare, in coaches marked "Job Jenness & Son," 25 cts. to any public House or private house on or near Rye Beach.

Take the cars on the Eastern R. Road to Greenland, thence coach to the house.

JOB JENNESS & SON, Proprietors.

Rye Beach, June 22, 1858.—1m

Valuable Real Estate
FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs, and quitclaims from mortgagees and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains a good cellar, basement kitchen, and, on the first floor, a large hall; two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers. There also has been water introduced, is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly in a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the favorable location of the location, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or for a first-rate boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families;

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) near by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now owned and belonging to the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

EDWARD L. HILL, or to
S. B. GOODALL.

ANDREW JACKSON DAVIS AND THE IRISHMAN.—At the free-love convention at Rutland, Andrew Jackson Davis, according to the Troy Times, remarked that the results of spiritualism were to make men happier, and better, and one of its greatest effects to have done away with the Mrs. Grundy who used to get in the pulpit with her nightcap on, to frighten silly people out of their senses. Spiritualism teaches that there is no devil, and as the individual with the cloven foot is removed from society, men will lose their superstition and become sensible, rational beings.

There was an anecdote of an Irishman suffering from a disease which his physician pronounced incurable, who received extreme unction at the hands of the priest. Whether it was that the unction cured him, or because he was afraid to try the experiment of dying, he got well. The priest coming, and seeing him cured, said: "Well, Patrick, I am glad you have recovered, but were you not afraid to meet your God?" "O, no, your riverence," replied Patrick, "it was the other chap."

Immense laughter followed, which was broken by an angry voice, in a rich Irish brogue, exclaiming:—"Give us the name iv that Irishman, will yez?"

Davis—"He had no name."

Irishman—"Then what are yez blowin' about?"

Davis—"Oh, my friend, it was merely an anecdote."

Irishman—"A nanny goat, was it?—Well, I want the names and dates, or I tell ye that yo'r a dirty liar."

Chairman—"Well, friend, have your own way. Say that it's a lie, if you please; we'll call it a lie."

Irishman—"It's a lie, and a dirthy lie, and yez all are a pack of dirthy liars and thieves, and yez know it. Yo'r a set of vagabonds and haythen."

The Republicans of the Minnesota Legislature being in a minority, united with fourteen Douglas members and secured a majority. They passed resolves denouncing the policy of the President, and approving of the course of Senators Shields and Douglas.

The Legislature of Louisiana has abolished capital punishment, substituting therefor hard labor for life.

At Delhi, N. Y., Elder Heywood, a Christian Baptist preacher, with a consumptive wife, made an appointment to elope with a young girl named Sarah Blanchard. The plot was discovered, the girl locked up, and the Elder booted out of town, and then the people hung and burned his effigy.

The Bangor Whig says the Penobscot Indians are now doing a smashing business in manufacturing hoops for ladies' dresses, out of basket stuff. The red ladies have adopted the fashion in its greatest amplitude.

It is said that Secretary Cobb, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of the Interior, have returned from Philadelphia, laden with gloomy tidings as to the future of the Democratic party in the Keystone State; and that Judge Black states, that unless the administration shall cease its war upon Judge Douglas and his friends, defeat is inevitable in Pennsylvania and throughout the entire North and Northwest.

The colored people of Warren, Ohio, have given one of the number fifty lashes on the bare back for acting as stool pigeon to the slave hunters, and disclosing the direction which a fugitive had taken.

During a display of fireworks at Michigan City, on the 3d inst., a rocket was accidentally fired into a crowd of people. The rocket struck a boy in the face, carrying away one cheek, while the rod passed through the neck of Mrs. Sherman, wife of Dr. N. G. Sherman, inflicting a severe wound.

Three young noblemen from Senegal, of the brightest ebony tint, have arrived in Paris from that French colony, and have entered the military academy at St. Cyr.

Two millions two hundred thousand of new cents were coined at the Philadelphia Mint in May, and about four hundred thousand of the old cents were returned

Over 900 Norwegian and Swedish emigrants have passed over the Galena Railroad within a few days, bound for La Crosse and McGregor's, in Wisconsin.

☞ A Mariner in the Boston Journal says:

The almost daily accounts of persons losing their lives by the upsetting of boats, induces me to mention the mode practised by the natives in the Pacific Ocean, when their canoes are upset at a distance from the shore, and with whom it is an object to save the boat as well as their lives.—They sustain themselves by joining hands across the bottom of the boat, and use the other hand to paddle home, changing hands when fatigue prompts it. It is surprising how long persons can sustain themselves in this way.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF APPEARANCE.—Personal Friend—"I say, Jones, how is it that your wife dresses so magnificently, and you always appear out at the elbow?"

Jones—"You see, Thompson, my wife dresses according to the Gazette of Fashion, and I dress according to my Ledger."

☞ Great Discovery of the Age. ☜
IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.
IT is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying tickling sensation of the Throat—which are always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Troches immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO
WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent-granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations pursued, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extensions procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the duties of the place, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
HENRY B. REDWICK, L. D. GALE, S. H. LAKE, T. R. PEALE — Principal Examiners.
THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LANDON. — Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. F. A. FITZGERALD,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

MORE POLITICAL PREACHING.

The Concord, N. H., Patriot of July 14 contains an editorial with the above head, from which we make the following extract, appending a few notes by Uncle Toby:

In former times, the Democratic party was, by its very constitution and organization, brought into hostile array with the church. In defending the rights of man and in maintaining constitutional equality, the Democratic party early took ground against the maintenance of a State church, as the Congregational church then was, and against the exclusiveness of the Congregationalists (1.) It incurred the enmity of that denomination by this fearless discharge of duty; but it triumphed at length; and to its noble efforts in behalf of religious freedom, the Methodists, Baptists, Universalists, Unitarians, and other denominations, owe their equal privileges in all church matters in this state. For a considerable time these denominations acknowledged their obligations to the Democratic party—not by advocating the claims of that party from the sacred desk—preaching politics, for that the Democratic party always discountenanced; (2) but by abstaining from active partizanship, and the great body of them voting with the party that sustained and vindicated their rights. A large body of them still pursue this sensible and Christian course, but by far the largest number of their clergy now appear to find especial delight in prostituting their sacred calling to the service of a party built up in opposition to their old defenders and their true friends, who manifested their friendship by deeds. (3.)

NOTES.

1. The Democratic party did no part of this; no such party existed till after the toleration act was passed. It was the old Republican party, to which John Langdon and William Plumer belonged, that passed the toleration act.

2. Whatever the Democratic party might do, after it was formed, it is quite certain that the old Republican party did not discountenance political preaching, unless it happened to be Federal.

The well known Elias Smith, then a Baptist, preached politics here, very often, many years ago; and published a paper, equally anti-Federal and anti-clerical, as much political as it was religious.

Rev. and Hon. John Brodhead, a Methodist, preached politics here before the war, and went to Congress after the war, as the consequence of being a decided Republican politician.

And the Rev. Hosea Ballou, when pastor of the Universalist society here, in the time of the war, preached politics, and took so active and decided a stand on the Republican side, as to throw off some of his richest hearers who happened to be Federalists.

Other ministers also preached politics 40 years ago,—here and elsewhere,—so that, good or bad, it is an old practice, and not an innovation.

3. If any minister can pick out or fish up the old Republican party from the mixed parties of to-day, he must be a workman indeed, and can be trusted to vote and preach as he pleases, without any newspaper prompter. Not much capital can be made in New Hampshire, now, by any blarney about political preaching.

☞ A correspondent of the Boston Transcript hopes the Young Men's Democratic Committee will take measures to expose the gentleman who brought a female in male attire to the dinner at the Revere House on the 5th inst. No good can possibly result from such an investigation. Was not the banquet a "Union affair!" and are not most women advocates of union. Besides the damsel alluded to was one of the most gentlemanly behaved of the party.

☞ It is stated that Charles Letcher, the printer of the Free Love paper at Berlin Heights, Ohio, has committed suicide. His mother, an excellent woman, living in Iowa, did all she could to win her son from the seductive influences of a sensual fanaticism, but in vain: and the end has been desperation, insanity and suicide.

☞ Tufts College, at Somerville, Mass, held its second annual commencement on Wednesday, when the degree of Doctor in Divinity was conferred on Rev. Thomas Whittemore. Addresses at the dinner were made by Rev. Drs. Whittemore of Cambridge, O. A. Skinner of Illinois, and Gannett of Boston, and by Hon. Israel Washburn, M. C. of Maine. Geo. Sumner delivered the Oration, and John Pierpont the Poem, before a literary society in the college.

One of the finest writers says that "nightly dews come down upon us like blessings." How very differently daily dues come down upon us in those hard times.—Nevada (Cal.) Journal.

☞ The Turkish Admiral, Mehemet Pasha, and suite, left Boston for home in the steamer of Thursday, orders having been received to that effect. The Courier says:—"During a somewhat protracted visit to this country, they have remained chiefly in Boston, and the Admiral holds it, we understand, to be his special favorite in the United States, and between him and some of its inhabitants there has been no little interchange of courtesy. He is undoubtedly a very intelligent, amiable and agreeable person. He has made such good use of his time among us, as to have become already quite a proficient in the English language. This is a fair example to some of our foreign ministers."

The Turks have also spent considerable time in this city; and while leaving pleasant remembrances with many of our citizens, will no doubt carry with them a favorable opinion of the city, Navy Yard, officers, &c.

AN HONORABLE ACTION.—The Transcript says:—"Mr. Albert Summer, of Newport, R. I., his wife and child, some time since were shipwrecked and all undoubtedly perished. By the presumptions of the law, the wife and child died first, and the husband became entitled to the property. Mrs. S. was a daughter of the late Walter Channing, of this city, and enjoyed the income of a large estate. Under these circumstances, more than $30,000 became legally vested in the late Mr. Sumner, and through him came to his mother and sister and two brothers—Charles Sumner, the Senator, and George Sumner, Esq. The estate was administered upon by Mr. George Sumner, and, with the consent of all these heirs, the whole of this property, which the deceased had derived from his wife, has been surrendered to her relations."

THE LEVIATHAN.—The London commercial correspondent of the Livirpool Mercury, writing on the 22d ult., says that "the scheme for raising the additional sum of £220,000 for the finishing of the Leviathan is said to have failed, and it is supposed that some other plan will have to be tried."

☞ Three groggery cases were tried in Salem, Mass., last week,—one culprit went to jail; one paid a $20 fine; and the third appealed and gave bonds.

Two or three such people were bound over for trial at Manchester, N. H.

☞ The colored citizens of New Bedford have made arrangements for a State Mass Convention, to be held in New Bedford August 2, to take into consideration the many grievances under which they now labor, imposed upon them by the Fugitive Slave bill and Dred Scott decision.

In Kansas, two weeks ago, Miss Irene Baker, a girl of seventeen, married a man of seventy-five, from admiration of one of his political speeches. Thus is a common saying verified—"Politics make strange bed-fellows."

This is rather a strange marriage—but the "common saying" is almost as strange. The quotation which the writer might have made, and which he might think he was making, is "Misery (sometimes or often) makes us acquainted with strange bed-fellows."

☞ Dr. Lees publishes in the Glasgow News a statement that the retraction made in his recent libel case, in which he was the defendant and John B. Gough the plaintiff, was made by his counsel and against his wishes. Dr. Lees wished the case to be tried by a jury.

☞ Ex-President Pierce and wife were to leave Madeira on the first of June for Lisbon; thence, avoiding the larger European cities, for Vevay in Switzerland, where he will spend the summer. Mr. Nathaniel Hawthorne and Mr. John Howard March will be with him in Switzerland.

☞ Horace Mann, President of Antioch College, has been elected President of the Faculty and Professor of Ethics in the Northwestern Christian University at Indianapolis.

☞ In the Dover Police Court, this week, Lewis Chamberlain and Daniel Cody, were severally bound over on complaints of selling liquors, &c. There were five complaints against Cody.

The attempt to secure $100,000 to complete Wood's Hotel in Portland, on a mortgage of the property, has proved a failure. Portland is behind any other place of its size in the Union, on the score of hotel accommodations.—Bath Organ.

That's a fact, and a pity too, for such a beautiful and enterprising city as Portland. That great hotel has got to be finished—and the sooner the better for all concerned, including the travelling public.

A PIC NIC INCIDENT.—Two young men from Wheeling, Va., attempted to ford Wheeling creek in a buggy, on the 5th, found the water too deep, and the buggy getting fast on the the rocky bottom, they stripped to the skin, to release their vehicle, but seeing a large pic-nic party of ladies and gentlemen approaching, they took to the woods, leaving their clothing, horse and buggy behind. The pic-nic party coming up and seeing the horse, buggy and clothing, supposed that something dreadful had happened, and were about taking the horse away. One of the young men had a view of the proceedings, from his retreat behind a large tree, and the idea of being left in the woods without a garment to his back, nerved him to a desperate resolve, and he bawled loudly to the party to let that arrangement alone.—One of the gentlemen replied and kept up a conversation with the unseen spirit, in which he learned the truth of the whole affair, and the picknickers proceeded on their way full of mirth at the incident.

THE EFFECTS OF JEALOUSY.—On the 5th of July a pic-nic party consisting of two young men and two ladies, proceeded over the Anne Arundel shore for the purpose of passing the day in rural sports and pastimes. After re-embarking for home the demon of jealousy took possession the breast of one of the men, who fancied that his belle inclined a too willing ear to the affectionate endearments of the other. A violent altercation ensued at once, followed by a collision between the two beaux, in the midst of which they were precipitated into the water. Fortunately one of the ladies had the presence of mind to extend an oar to one of the men, who managed to scramble on board and afterwads extricate his companion. The remainder of the trip passed away very peacefully, neither party being willing to resume the contest.—Baltimore Paper.

Some women look well at all times, just as pretty at the wash-tub as at the piano, and not because of any especial mark of beauty, but a general neatness and fitness of all things on and about them—but another with a fair face, perhaps, may put on the costliest silks, and bedeck herself with diamonds and jewels, and be hardly passable—and why? Not from any marked defect of form and feature, but an entire want of taste in "making up and putting on things."

COMICAL INNOCENCE.—An exchange says a little boy had made a stool, no two of the legs of which were of a length. While trying in vain to make it stand upon the floor, he looked into his mother's face and asked, "Does God see everything?"—"Yes, my child." "Well," replied the son, "I guess he will laugh when he sees this stool."

A RUM AFFAIR.—We learn from the Ellsworth American, that a small vessel named the General Jackson of Gouldsboro' came into Tremont from Rockland, on Thursday evening, manned by one James Good and his son Charles. They had supplied themselves with rum, and as a consequence had a quarrel, in the course of which the old man used a hatchet upon the head of Charles, inflicting eleven bad cuts upon his head, but did not kill him.

LIQUOR SEIZURE.—Our police officer seized a wagon load of jugs and demijohns, yesterday, belonging to some Boston liquor dealer. The driver was peddling his liquors at the various low tippling shops in the city. Nearly one hundred gallons were seized and deposited in the City Hall. The liquors were all of the r. g. brand, and we understand will be destroyed.—Lynn News 13th.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PROLAPSUS UTERI.

This prevalent disease is manifestly one of general and local debility, and requires for its alleviation the alterative and tonic virtues of iron. The PERUVIAN SYRUP offers this element in the only form in which it can enter the blood. Its administration is safe, certain, and free from the disagreeable effects of other preparations of iron.

GOOD.—A lunatic once informed a physician who was classifying cases of insanity, that he lost his wits by watching a politician, whose course was so crooked that it turned his brain. If, on the contrary, he had been been watching the effects of HEINSTREET'S HAIR COLORING, he would have saved his wits and learned a curious triumph of Art over Nature.

ALLEN & PAINE,

NUMBER FIFTEEN MARKET ST.,

Have received, and offer for sale, one of the most perfect and best selected stocks of DRY GOODS in the State. Every article is selected for their own retail trade and is perfect of its kind, of the latest and most beautiful style, and unsurpassed in quality,—and, as they buy and sell only for Cash, visit the market often, and keep comparatively a small stock, they offer their customers some real bargains. Read their advertisement in another column, and, when convenient, call and see them.

The Great English Remedy.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

Prepared from a prescription of Sir Jas. Clarke M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen.

THIS invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous disorders to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

TO MARRIED LADIES

It is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

Each bottle, Price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.

These Pills should not be taken by females that are pregnant, during the FIRST THREE MONTHS, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at every other time and in every other case they are perfectly safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions accompany each package.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, July 15.

Before Justice Odell.—Thos. Smith, for stealing carpenter's tools, was fined $5; costs $6.30; $1 for stolen goods. For want of funds he was committed.

On the 10th of July Daniel Sullivan was taken up for keeping a gambling house, but was discharged. And on the 15th he charges three police officers with an assault, for some force in putting him into the lock-up. This case is continued.

Bartholomew Conner, for keeping a disorderly house, for tippling purposes, &c., was bound over in $200—but not finding sureties went to jail.

John Smart, for stealing cherries from a garden, was fined $3; costs $3.86. Committed to House of Correction, and afterwards paid.

Messrs. Editors,—Allow me to say, that I do not think, that, by the terms of the pedler law, a Massachusetts baker can sell his bread to any number of stores, or even to one, without a previous order or regular bargain which would change the place of sale into his own state.

Neither do I think that the law was intended to cut off our supply of eggs and butter, &c., from farmers in Kittery and Eliot; though by a careless drawing of the bill, it may be so construed as to trouble us a little; but as I suppose no one feels disposed to complain of these farmers, because they really stand in nobody's way.

I think it somewhat doubtful whether any coal has been peddled here at all, except charcoal. Selling coal at cost, and in small quantities, from a yard or wharf, is not pedling in the sense of hawking it round, even if it is delivered in carts at the buyer's door. It may be bad policy, perhaps, but it is not pedling.

The new law differs from the old in several particulars. It requires two years' residence in the State intead of one, before obtaining a license, and imposes a sum of $50 instead of $10 and $20, for a license. It differs from the old law by providing that the complainant may have one half the fine, which provision will be more likely to secure an enforcement of the law. It differs also by requiring pedlers to show their licenses upon the request of any person, as well as any Justice of the Peace.

The exemptions in the late law were rather more numerous, and better expressed.

It is obvious that all licenses, not yet run out, hold good till their term expires.

LEX.

Messrs. Editors.—I noticed in your paper this morning an article in regard to peddling Coal in this city. The statements made therein are correct, but Home Trade was not posted up; he is not probably aware that our High School Committee for the last few years, have purchased coal in the same manner. COAL.

At a meeting held last Tuesday evening, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:—J. G. Hadley, President; A. K. P. Deering, Vice President; S. G. Folsom, Secretary; B. M. Parker, Treasurer.

Committee of Relief:—A. K. P. Deering, H. Danielson, A. Foye, B. M. Parker, Wm. H. Cornelius.

☞ The smart little yacht "Hiawatha," owned by Thomas H. Odion, of this city, sailed for Boston on Thursday, to enter for the Regetta there. She is commanded by Capt. Merrill, (the same, we think, who won the prize at the Newburyport Regatta,) and some folks here think she will bring back the highest prize and glory on the occasion referred to.

☞ Our advertising columns announce that a steam ferry-boat is again plying across the Piscataqua, at Dover Point.—This will accommodate much business as well as pleasure travel; and the boat is now in responsible hands, and will doubtless be run in a manner to be relied on.

BANKS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The Banks here have declared the following semi-annual dividends, viz:—

Rockingham, - - -	3½ per cent.
Piscataqua Exchange -	3 "
Mechanics & Traders' - -	4 "
Bank of New Hampshire	3 "

The several Banks in Dover have declared the following semi-annual dividends:

Never ridicule sacred things, or what others may esteem as such, however absurd they may appear to be.

☞ At a meeting of the Committee of Arrangements for the Celebration of the Fifth of July, a vote of thanks was passed to all persons who contributed money towards the celebration; to Rev. A. J. Patterson, and Messrs. Senter, Goodwin, Jenness, Hatch and Walker, for the part they took in the exercises of the day; to the New Castle Guards, the Associations and Engine Companies who took part in the proceedings of the day; and to all who helped carry out the celebration. The Committee would express particular gratitude to the ladies who rendered valuable assistance in Jefferson Hall and other places, in the decorations for the floral procession; and to those children who took part in the floral procession.

☞ Union Prayer Meeting on Sunday Morning at 1-2 past 8 o clock, in the North Church. On Monday and through the week, at the Chapel in Fleet street at 1-4 before 8 o clock.

☞ The Rockingham Association of Universalists will hold its annual session on Wednesday and Thursday, 18th and 19th days of August. The place of the meeting will be Kingston Plain.

RAILROAD MEETING.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Railroad in New Hampshire held their annual meeting in this city on Tuesday. Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, the President, took the chair, and on calling the meeting to order, remarked that the only report the Directors had to make was a verbal one, and that the stockholders of this road were referred to the annual report of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad, copies of which were furnished for the use of the stockholders of this road.

The meeting then voted to proceed to the choice of Directors, and Messrs Ichabod Goodwin and Daniel P. Drown of Portsmouth, Stephen A. Chase of Salem, Isaiah Breed of Lynn, and Benjamin T. Reed of Boston, were elected, by nearly all the votes cast. While the committee was engaged in counting the votes, an inquiry was made whether the terms of the lease of this road to the Eastern Railroad had been complied with. The President answered in the affirmative, and after some discussion it was voted, on motion of Mr. Rollins of Portsmouth, that a committee of three be appointed to examine the lease of this road to the Eastern Railroad company, and report whether the conditions thereof have or have not been complied with, and also to investigate any other affairs of this corporation that they may deem proper. The following gentlemen were appointed such committee: William H. Rollins, William H. Hackett of Portsmouth, and Abbott Walker of Salem. Ballot.

THE REGATTA.

To the Editors of the Morning Chronicle.—In your paper of July 10, I notice an article under the caption of "The Regatta," which is calculated, if no notice is taken of it, to give the impression that unfairness was exhibited by the Judges, in awarding the prizes to the "Flying Cloud," in the Boat Race which came off July 6th.

Without discussing the question so confidently affirmed by the writer of that article, that "a wherry cannot be a boat,"—we are of the opinion that the Flying Cloud, rowed by four oars, came as near to the published programme of the arrangements, as the boat Shakespeare, rowed by six oars, as no provision was made by the Committee for boats to be rowed by that number of oars. But as there seems to be considerable dissatisfaction manifested by the writer, as he seems to speak by the authority of the defeated party, we will not attempt to decide the contest by a war of words; but accept the challenge he offers for a test of superiority, by rowing for a prize of $50, the distance to be 1, 2, 3 or 4 miles, with the following conditions, viz:

The course and distance to be determined by 3 Judges, one of whom to be selected by each party, and these two to select the third man; the Flying Cloud to be rowed by 2 oars, and the Shakespeare to be rowed by 4 oars, with no coxswain in either boat; and no difference in time to be claimed for extra oars.

Or the Flying Cloud to be rowed by 4 oars and the Shakespeare by 6 oars, with each a coxswain; and 20 seconds allowed for each of the two extra oars.

If Mr. Dearing, as announced by the writer of said article, or either of the defeated parties, wishes to accept either of these propositions, he will please call on the owner of the Flying Cloud, who will cheerfully accommodate them;—and there is no Blind Side in this matter.

Wolfe's Celebrated Scheidam Aromatic SCHNAPPS.
This medicinal beverage is manufactured by the proprietor, at Scheidam, Holland, expressly for medicinal use, by a process peculiar to his own Factory. It is the pure Tincture of the Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, which thus becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether, transcendant in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcoholic stimulant now made in the world. It is now prescribed by more than 5,000 physicians in the United States, in cases of Gravel, Gout, Dropsy, and Bladder and Kidney Complaints.
Put up in Quart and Pint Bottles, in cases of one dozen qts., and cases of two dozen pts., and for sale by all Druggists and Country Merchants.

Haying Tools.
Ho! farmers away to the well ripened field,
Where a burden of grass to your mowing will yield,
But as you go by, you will surely do well
To look into the shop of URIAH BLAISDELL,
And buy a good Scythe as sharp as a razor,
That cuts down grass and grain, without showing favor
To the great or the small, to the thick or the thin.
But buy a good Rifle, before you begin:
There are Horse Rakes, and Drag Rakes, and Hand Rakes made neat,
To gather the scatterings of Hay or of Wheat,
And Sickles, steel tempered, all made of the best,
That reap Rye, Wheat or Barley when put to the test,
The Bucket and Tub, to hold water to drink,
The Threshing Machine, for a shilling. O think!
And the Tin Pots and Kettles, to carry your dinner,
Lest, if you go hungry, your face may be thinner,
So sharpen your tools, fill your kettles, and that
Will make you work easy, and laugh and grow fat. je23

Law School of the University At Cambridge, Mass.
THE INSTRUCTORS IN THIS SCHOOL ARE
Hon. JOEL PARKER, LL. D., Royal Professor.
Hon. THEOPHILUS PARSONS, LL. D., Dane Professor.
Hon. EZRA RICHARDS, LL. D., University Prof.
THE course of instruction embraces the various branches of the Common Law; Equity; Admiralty; Commercial, International and Constitutional Law; and the Jurisprudence of the United States. The Law Library consists of about 14,000 volumes, and as new works appear they are added, and every effort is made to render it complete.
Instruction is given by oral lectures and expositions, (and by recitations and examinations in connection with them,) of which there are ten every week. Two Moot Courts are also held in each week, at each of which a case, previously given out, is argued by four students, and an opinion delivered by the Presiding Instructor. Rooms and other facilities are also provided for the Club Courts; and an Assembly is held weekly for practice in debate, and acquiring a knowledge of parliamentary law and proceedings.
Students may enter the School in any stage of their professional studies or mercantile pursuits, and at the commencement of either term, or in the middle, or any other part of a term.
They are at liberty to elect what studies they will pursue, according to their view of their own wants and attainments.
The Academical year, which commences on Thursday, six weeks after the third Wednesday in July, is divided into two terms, of twenty weeks each, with a vacation of six weeks at the end of each term.
During the Winter Vacation, the Library is opened, warmed and lighted, for the use of the members of the School.
The exercises of the next term will commence on Monday, Sept. 6, 1858.
Applications for admission, or for Catalogues, or any further information, may be made to either of the Professors at Cambridge.

YES, YOU MAY
USE or recommend HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE HAIR COLORING, and find it to be all its proprietors claim for it. Do you doubt it?
READ! READ!! READ!!!
SCHROON LAKE, Essex Co., N.Y., February 6, 1858.
W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Having used your Hair Coloring and Restorative, and having been much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fit of sickness when about eighteen years of age my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had reached my fifty-third year, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was turning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color. MYLES SEAMAN.
Essex Co. ss: Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of Feb., 1858.
JOEL F. PATTEN, Justice of the Peace.
PITTSFORD, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.
I hereby certify that my having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Coloring, prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y., for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims. WM. KINGSLEY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.
The above are but two of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietor of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring and Restorative. It has been used by hundreds of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of hair. This singular effect is produced as when dyes are used; for it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and thus effects the change. Beside, the color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural shade of youth. It does not soiled the skin. Prepared and sold by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.

BEYOND THE RIVER.

Time is a river deep and wide;
And while along its banks we stray,
We see our loved ones o'er its tide
Sail from our sight away, away.
Where are they sped, they who return
No more to glad our longing eyes?
They vepassed from life's contracted bourne
To land unseen, unknown, that lies
Beyond the river.

'Tis hid from view; but we may guess
How beautiful that realm must be;
For gleamings of its loveliness,
In visions granted oft we see.
The very clouds that o'er it throw
Their veil, unraised for mortal sight,
With gold and purple tintings glow,
Reflected from the glorious light
Beyond the river.

And gentle airs, so sweet, so calm,
Steal sometimes from that viewless sphere;
The mourner feels their breath of balm,
And soothed sorrow dries the tear.
And sometimes list'ning car may gain
Entrancing sound that hither floats,
The echo of a distant strain
Of harps' and voices' blended notes,
Beyond the river.

There are our lov'd ones in their rest;
They've cross'd Time's river; now no more
They heed the bubbles on its breast,
Nor feel the storms that sweep its shore.
But there pure love can live, can last;
They look for us their home to share:
When we in turn away have passed,
What joyful greetings wait us there,
Beyond the river.

Ayer's Pills

Are particularly adapted to derangements of the digestive apparatus, and diseases arising from impurity of the blood. A large part of all the complaints that afflict mankind originate in one of these, and consequently these pills are found to cure many varieties of disease.

Subjoined are the statements from some eminent physicians, of their effects in their practice:

AN A FAMILIE PHYSIC.

From Dr. E. W. Carswell, of New Orleans.

"Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, while they are thus invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease."

FOR JAUNDICE AND ALL LIVER COMPLAINTS.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

"Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as a cathartic, but I believe they exert a decided influence upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely trust that they may be kept within a preparation which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people."

DYSPEPSIA — INDIGESTION.

From Dr. Henry J. Bauer, of St. Louis.

"The Pills you took kind enough to send us have been all used in my practice, and have satisfied me that they are truly an extraordinary medicine. So peculiarly are they adapted to the diseases of the human system, that they seem to work upon them almost as a charm. I have cured some very obstinate cases of dyspepsia and indigestion with them, which had resisted the other remedies we commonly use. Indeed I have experimentally found them to be effectual in almost all the complaints for which you recommend them."

DYSENTERY — DIARRHŒA — RELAX.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

"Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Combined with calomel, they are a most efficient and an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their compactness makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children."

INTERNAL OBSTRUCTIONS — WORMS — SUPPRESSION.

From Rev. R. Stuart, who practices as a Physician and Midwife in Jackson.

"I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the system from worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients."

CONSTIPATION — COSTIVENESS.

From Dr. J. P. Pamlin, Montreal, Canada.

"You much request to send of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. I, diligent and extensive purgers have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint which, although not a disease in itself, is the germ of others that are worse. I believe sufferers to relapse in the habit, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease."

IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD — SCROFULA — ERYSIPELAS — SALT RHEUM — TETTER — TUMORS — RHEUMATISM — GOUT — NEURALGIA.

From Dr. Reuben Hall, Philadelphia.

"You were right, Doctor, in saying that your Pills purify the blood. They do that, in my practice, beyond all other pills I have ever prescribed, with your sarsaparilla of their efficacy. They stimulate the digestive, and carry off the impurities that stagnate in the liver, and, in consequence, the blood, effectually by an easy laxative operation, and impart vitality and vigor into the system."

"Such remedies as you prepare are a national benefit, and you deserve great credit for them."

SICK HEADACHE — FOUL STOMACH — HEARTBURN — DROPSY — PLETHORA — PARALYSIS — FITS — &c.

From Dr. Edward Dorsey, Baltimore.

"Sir: I cannot answer you what complaints I have found with your Pills more effectual than my own bowels, which they never fail to relieve. I place great dependence on an efficacious cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and I believe that a trial of your Pills will rank the best we have, for complex reasons highly valuable."

Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilled hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its injudicious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has long been manufactured by a practical chemist, and every ounce of it under his own eye, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, and consequently can be relied on as genuine without adulteration. It supplies the best remedy the world has ever known for the cure of all pulmonary complaints; for COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, ASTHMA, CROUP, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease. As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best reliance of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American pioneer to the palaces of European kings. Throughout this entire country, in every state and city, and indeed almost every hamlet, it continues, CHERRY PECTORAL is known as the best of all remedies for diseases of the throat and lungs. In many foreign countries it is extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. If there is any dependence on what men of every station certify it has done for them, it is certainly our duty to make known what we not the dangerous affections of the lungs yield to it. If we can depend on the assurance of intelligent physicians, where business is to know its nature, it is our duty to make it known. If there is any reliance upon testimony, it will be our aim to furnish any style of HAT or CAP at the shortest notice and at the lowest Cash prices. jun 6

DR. DIX

KNOWING that there are at this moment thousands of persons in this surrounding towns, surrendering their lives to the insidious inroads of certain dangerous maladies who still suffer from the reluctance to make known their complaints, and consult a physician, he would state that any of his medicines will be sent by express or otherwise, to all who may order them, provided the true description of the disease be sent by letter and inclosed in a above.

Full and explicit directions will accompany every package, and the most inviolable secrecy preserved.

DR. DIX can with safety say that, during the last year of his practice in Boston, more than three hundred cases of disease which have been improperly treated, by regular practitioners, come under his care, and more than three-fourths of this number are inscribed upon his books as perfect cures.

Patients treated by letter by addressing Dr. Dix, post paid, and medicines sent to all parts of the country, carefully concealed from scrutinizing friends.

In particular in finding Dr. Dix. Do not be lured from the right path, or be persuaded to try experiments with false and fictitious remedies at the expense of destroying what is the great pillar of strength in this mortal tenement.

This medicine can only be obtained at the Office of Dr. DIX, 21 Endicott street, Boston.

DR. L. DIX'S UNIVERSAL FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS. These pills are unrivalled in efficacy and superior virtue in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a short space of time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practiced by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the Dr. at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—the only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent by mail to any part of the country with directions. Remember the number—21 Endicott street, Boston.

P. S.—The best of accommodations furnished, with kind and attentive nurses if they wish, at a reasonable rate. jy2 4tf

Joy to the Admirers of A FINE HEAD OF RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and as one or more.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young, to this wonderful preparation, which turns back to its original color, gray hair—covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth—removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions—causes a continual flow of the natural fluids and heads it used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call upon the bald, the gray, or diseased in scalp, to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of all who use it.

Dr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together, and I was fast becoming bald. I read a paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow, it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with res., REVEL PRATT.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1848.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact nearly bald. I have used but two thirds of a bottle of your Restorative, and now the tip of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully,

D. R. THOMAS, M. D., No. 464 Vine street.

VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Are you sure about the manufacture and rend your recently discovered Hair Restorative. I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it, for the last 10 years, and have never been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING.

LOTTERIES.

THE Lotteries of the Sunset Co. are chartered by the State of Georgia, and have sworn commissioners appointed to superintend their drawings, and certify that everything connected with the same is done in a fair and honorable manner. They offer to the public a fair opportunity for investment, the interests of parties at a distance being as well protected as those who are present. The Manager would respectfully call attention to the fact that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Georgia, as the Lottery Co. are authorized by a law passed by the Legislature of that State. A lottery will be drawn every Saturday throughout the year, all orders received being filled in the drawing next to take place after the same comes to hand. According to the scheme one ticket in every ten must draw a prize. Tickets are $10; halves, $5; quarters, $2.50. No fee is charged when money accompanies the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket, and are so simple that none can fail to understand them. There is no combination of numbers to mystify the buyer. Prizes vary from $40 to $70,000; every prize being drawn, and result of drawing forwarded to all purchasers.

☞ A list of the numbers that are drawn from the wheel, with the amount each prize is entitled to, will be published after every drawing, in the following papers:—New Orleans Delta, Mobile Register, Charleston Standard, Nashville Gazette, Atlanta Intelligencer, and New York Weekly Day Book. We refer to any of the above papers for proof.

S. SWAN & Co., Augusta, Georgia.

Prizes paid in full—no percentage deducted from prizes as in other lotteries.

A PROCLAMATION TO THE LADIES.

WHEREAS, it appears that the days of right, honor, and integrity are last fading away, and WHEREAS, the unscrupulous and ignorant are daily taking advantage of very profound and learned. BE IT KNOWN THEREFORE, to all, whether MAIDS, WIVES, or WIDOWS, that Dr. CHRESMAN'S FEMALE PILLS are the safest and best remedy for all the troubles incident to female disorganization; they ALONE correcting all painful menstruation, assuaging palpitations of the heart, disturbed sleep, nervous affections, restoring health and happiness to whole sex; more especially to the MARRIED PORTION, as they are certain to bring on the monthly period with regularity.—AND WHEREAS, these PILLS are purely vegetable and entirely free from minerals, therefore perfectly harmless in their operations and wholly unlike other medicine in this respect, they recommend themselves to the notice of the public, purporting to effect the objects already detailed. THEREFORE, BE IT KNOWN, that NOTHING but the said PILLS of Dr. CHRESEMAN will accomplish the desired object, when instances have been experienced under the regime of OTHER PILLS; and the Ladies will cease this Proclamation to spread amongst them, to the exclusion of any other, as they promising that said Proclamation in one case must be considered null and void; that is to say the PILLS THEY NOW BE taken when any other medicine is unsuccessful, otherwise a MISCARRIAGE will be the inevitable result.

Explicit directions, to be carefully read, accompany each Box. Price $1. Sent by mail on enclosing $1 to Dr. CORNELIUS L. CHRESMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City. Sold by Druggists in every town in the United States.

APPLEDORE HOUSE, ISLES OF SHOALS.

THIS well known Ocean Retreat is again open for visitors. The house has been refurnished, and every preparation made to secure the health, comfort and pleasure of its guests.

Bosomed as this locality is, in the Atlantic ocean; ever surrounded by an atmosphere of perfect purity; its delicious coolness in the hottest days of summer; its entire exemption from all epidemics, and its freedom from dust and odious exhalations render it a superior summer residence for invalids and all those who wish to restore their wasted energies. To amateur fishermen it offers a centre of the most glorious sport that can be conceived.

The new and beautiful Packet
GOLDEN EAGLE,
Capt. GEO. PERKINS,
Will, after the 20th inst., run daily (Sundays excepted) from Pier Wharf, Portsmouth, on the arrival of the morning train of cars from Boston, to the Islands, and return in the afternoon.

June 12. THOMAS B. LAIGHTON.

The Gerrish House,

KITTERY POINT, ME., NEAR PORTSMOUTH,

HAS been newly furnished, and supplied with all the conveniences of a summer resort, and is now open for visitors. The house is pleasantly situated near the mouth of the Piscataqua, in full view of the United States Navy Yard, Fort McClary, Fort Constitution, Gerrish's Island, Whaley's Back and the Isles of Shoals, and is within ten minutes walk of the residence of Sir William Pepperell and the Sparhawks. The scenery around here at this season is unsurpassed in beauty, while the heavy fogs which hang around many watering places are seldom known.

This house presents a pleasant and quiet resort for the invalid, for the weary, for the pleasure-seeking—and the proprietor will do all in his power to make his guests comfortable and happy. Horses and carriages always at hand. Good and safe boats for fishing and sailing, and a fine beach for bathing. Omnibus leaves the house daily for Portsmouth, connecting with trains to and from Boston and Portland every morning and afternoon.

Terms, very reasonable, in accordance with the times.

ANDREW AMEE, PROPRIETOR.

The Ocean House, ON RYE BEACH,

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

THE following Real Estate will be sold, and a good and clear title guaranteed by warrantees from heirs and quitclaims from spouses and all others having any legal interest in the same:—

The large and commodious mansion, known as THE HILL HOUSE, No. 18 Vaughan st., Portsmouth. Said house, within a few years, has been put in thorough repair, had new chimney, been raised and underpinned (partially with granite), with granite steps in front. It contains 8 good cellars, basement kitchen and, on the first floor, a large hall, two handsome front parlors, a large dining room, two kitchens and a scullery. The second floor comprises the upper hall and seven chambers, three also four chambers on the third. The house is well supplied with water by aqueduct running to the kitchen and thence to dining-room and hall. Connected with said mansion are a STABLE and Wood house, nearly new; a commodious front yard, and a large garden containing a variety of choice fruit trees. In addition to the above, the house and lot, which is in a pleasant, being central, in the business portion of the city, and on the main street leading to the depots, renders it a desirable purchase for a gentleman's residence, or to be kept as a genteel boarding house. The house is also well arranged for two families:

Also, for sale, the COTTAGE HOUSE (so called) next by, on Hill street; said house being nearly new and suitable for one or two families;

Also, for sale, all the HOUSES and LOTS on Hill and Bridge streets, now owned and occupied by the estate of Samuel Hill, deceased;

Also, will be sold, a portion of the Hill FARM, in Newington; a tract of land known as the "Downing field" containing about 35 acres. Said field is from the best of the farm, being excellent meadow and tillage land, and the situation most desirable. It extends from the main road to the Piscataqua river.

To any one about to purchase, this offers a rare inducement. For terms, &c., apply to

VERMONT STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION. The annual meeting of the Vermont State Temperance Society took place at West Rutland on the 6th and 7th inst. The Burlington Free Press says:

The able Committee on Overtures, Hon. W. C. Kittredge, J. S. Adams, Esq., Rev. C. C. Parker, Rev. Mr. Leavitt and Rev. Alsace Walker, reported a resolution declaring that the Powers resolution, (which declared that the use of alcohol for any purpose whatever, ought not to be sanctioned by law,) adopted at the last meeting of the Society, did not then and does not now, represent the sentiments of the Temperance men of the State, and that it endangers the permanency of the present law, which, after spirited discussion, was unanimously adopted.

Another resolution, not less important, was also unanimously adopted. It declares, in effect, that, whatever be the value of the prohibitory law, its practical benefit is in occupying ground won by other means, rather than in making new advances; that it ought not to occupy the attention of the friends of Temperance to the exclusion of other instrumentalities; and that now as ever, the reformation of those already addicted to bad habits, the support of those who are wavering, and the guarding of the young, should be the main objects of Temperance action of the State; and invoking attention to resuscitation of Temperance Societies, for young and old, in all parts of the State.

In view of recent statements of Mr. Gough, in England, that the prohibitory law is a dead letter throughout New England, the Convention passed a resolution declaring that, the law in Vermont is not a dead letter, but that all the benefits naturally to be expected from its enforcement follow, in exact proportion to the energy and efficiency of the execution of the law.

The time for the next annual meeting was fixed for the third Wednesday in December.

Mr. Peter Sinclair of Southand, addressed the Convention on Wednesday evening.

COLLAPSE OF CRINOLINE.—The Paris correspondent of the Boston Post contains the following important intelligence:

With unmitigated regret I desire to communicate a very important piece of news, viz.: voluminous skirts are no longer the fashion! Crinoline, practically is a defunct article, and borax powder will no more be put into starch to give petticoats the stiffness hitherto requisite. It is the bien chic now to wear few skirts, and in fact collapse the balloon! I derive my information from that popular journal of the fashions, the Gazette Rose, edited by the Vicomtesse de Renneville, a lady generally supposed to dwell in a magnificent palace in the Faubourg St. German, but who in reality, I am assured, lives in a garret, smokes a black pipe, and wears very seedy black pantaloons and no end of beard!"

CHURCH TAX.—A recent debate in the British House of Commons on the Edinburgh Annuity Tax Bill—a clerical question—it is curious and illustrative. The said tax was established by Charles I. The annual provision in 1661 was for six ministers. It has reached £10,667, of which £2287 are paid by the members of the Episcopal Church, and £8000 by parties who have no interest in that church; two-thirds of the citizens do not belong to it; many believe that to pay the tax is repugnant to the Gospel; in one year eight hundred and forty-six persons were prosecuted for non-payment; five were imprisoned and a number had their goods sold; the population of Edimburgh is 160,000; there are twenty clergyman of the Episcopal Church; nineteen are supported by the tax; the bill proposes to abolish £9000 of the endowment; the salaries would be cut down to a very meagre stipend. The representatives of Edinburgh argued vehemently for abolition; the Lord Advocate of Scotland would never consent unless an ample equivalent were provided for the Church. The bill was lost by a majority of one vote.

ADVERTISE.—At the commencement of a new year, or half year, nearly all engaged in business seeks to add to the chances for success, by adopting such additional means for advancement as circumstances may dictate. Many are disposed to try the merits of advertising, and it is a most judicious choice. Advertise freely, liberally, and long, and its return will be four-fold. Like seed sown in spring time, it will bear fruit after many days, as well as its immediate results. Spasmodic advertising is not the thing to thoroughly test its virtues. Ask our constant advertisers, and they will declare, that it gathers as it goes, and ultimately benefits the advertiser beyond his first expectations.—Gloucester Telegraph.

A fellow coming out of a tavern one frosty morning, rather top heavy, fell on the door step; trying to regain his footing, he remarked, "If it be true that 'the wicked stand on slippery ground,' I must belong to a different class, for 'tis more than I can do."

IMPORTANT TO
TOBACCO CHEWERS.
DR. GUSTAV LINNARD'S
TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES,
The Great Substitute for Tobacco.
It is a well known and incontrovertable fact that the use of Tobacco is the promoting cause of many of the most severe
MENTAL AND PHYSICAL DISORDERS
to which the race of man is subject, as careful analysis and long and painful experience have clearly proven, that it contains certain narcotic and poisonous properties most dangerous in their effects, which by entering into the blood derange the functions and operations of the Heart, causing many to suppose that organ to be seriously diseased.
TOBACCO affects also the entire nervous system, manifesting itself—as all who have ever used the noxious weed will testify—in Lassitude, Nervous Irritability, Water Brash, Dyspepsia, and many other disorders of a similar character.
THE TASTE RESTORATIVE TROCHES
are designed to counteract these baneful influences, and have proved entirely successful in a multitude of cases, and wherever used. Being harmless in themselves they exert a beneficial effect upon the system, restoring the taste which has become vitiated or destroyed by great indulgence, completely removing the irritation and accompanying sickening sensation of the Throat—which always consequent upon abstaining from the use of Tobacco, and by giving a healthy tone to the Stomach, invigorate the whole system.
Persons who are irretrievably undermining their constitutions and shortening their lives, should use these Trochies immediately and throw off the injurious and unpleasant habit of Tobacco Chewing.
These Troches or Lozenges are put up in a convenient and portable form at the low price of 50 Cents per Box. A liberal discount to the Trade.
Prepared solely by the undersigned, to whom all orders should be addressed.

UNITED STATES AND FOREIGN
PATENT AGENCY.
SAMUEL COOPER,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents in the United States Patent Office, at Washington,
HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE TO
WEBSTER BANK BUILDING,
13 EXCHANGE STREET, BOSTON.
PATENTS secured in the United States, and in all other patent-granting countries. Specifications and drawings prepared. Caveats filed.—Reconsiderations procured, of applications that have been rejected upon imperfectly prepared papers. Interferences prosecuted. Re-issues and extension procured, and in general, all business connected with the Patent Office transacted with care and promptness.
British and other foreign patents procured through prompt and confidential agents in London and Paris.
Persons residing at a distance may obtain all necessary information, and have their business transacted, by writing to the subscriber, without the trouble and expense of a visit to Washington.
He begs leave to refer those unacquainted with him to the following testimonials:—
From Hon. Chas. Mason, Commissioner of Patents.
U. S. PATENT OFFICE, Feb 23, 1855.
I take great pleasure in stating that during the time I have been acting as Commissioner of Patents, Samuel Cooper, Esq., of Boston, has been engaged as Solicitor, and has been in that capacity in constant correspondence and intercourse with the office; he has evinced a thorough acquaintance with the Patent Law, and with the rules and practice of the office, a close attention to the interests of his clients, and a marked candor and courtesy that has rendered the transaction of business with him a pleasure. I have no hesitation in stating that I regard him as one of the very best agents for the transaction of business with this office with whom I am acquainted.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner.
From the Examiners of the Patent Office.
The undersigned, Principal and Assistant Examiners in the United States Patent Office, have for several years been well acquainted with Mr. Samuel Cooper, late a principal Examiner in this office, and take pleasure in stating that he is a gentleman of the highest moral character, of unquestioned knowledge in the business and practice of the office, and that his scientific attainments are such as eminently fit him for the business in which he is about to engage.
HENRY B. RENWICK, L. D. GALE, S. H. LANE, } Principal Examiners.
T. R. PEALE, THOS. T. EVERETT, F. SOUTHGATE SMITH, WM. C. LANGDON, } Assistant Examiners.
From long acquaintance and intimate official relations with Mr. Cooper, I fully and heartily concur in the foregoing recommendation made by my late colleagues. W. F. FRANCIS,
Late Principal Examiner of Patents.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

PISCATAQUA BATH HOUSE.—This institution at Noble's Island offers the advantages of salt water bathing to old and young, with all the benefits of sea bathing. There is no exercise so agreeable and beneficial in warm weather as the exertion of swimming.

It is much to be wished that the art of swimming might not be restricted in Portsmouth to the male sex. The want of the ability on the part of females exposes many lives in the course of the summer, in the river and harbor excursions, and calls for an establishment where ladies can conveniently and safely learn to support themselves in the water.—Aside from any other considerations, an establishment of this kind would no doubt meet with favor and much patronage, and with the pleasure and sport of the thing, would be liberally patronized.—Doubtless, with good and judicious arrangements, and a gymnasium attached, such an establishment would be a paying investment. Why will not some one try it?

So far as it goes, the present bath house is an admirable institution for men and boys; and there are those who attend it who would not be deprived of the bath on any consideration. Keys may be procured at Mr. J. H. Foster's.

CITY COUNCIL.

In the BOARD OF ALDERMEN, on Thursday evening, a petition was received from the Concord & Portsmouth Railroad, for permission to run a track for freight cars from their depot to some convenient place or places upon the river, through the public streets of the city. Referred.

A bill, in amendment to Ordinance 48, regulating the pay of watchmen, was referred to committee on bills on second reading.

A committee was appointed to ascertain what repairs and alterations are needed at the Court House.

☞We rarely meet with a more beautiful gem than the following, from the Boston Transcript of Wednesday last.

THE SUMMER SHOWER.

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

A white haze glimmered on the hills,
The leaves were parched and dry,
And glaringly the beaming sun
Coursed in the summer sky.

The cattle, in the distant woods,
Sought shelter from its beams;
Or, motionless and patient, stood
Knee-deep amid the streams.

The house-dog lay, with panting breath,
Close where the elm tree grew;
The blue-birds and the oriole
To shady coverts flew.

Day after day, the thirsty earth
Looked up to heaven for rain;
The gardens held their flower-cups,
The fields their lips of grain.

With doubting hearts, men, murmuring, said—
"Our toils have been in vain,
We sowed in spring, but shall not reap
When autumn comes again."

But while they spoke, within the west,
At sunset's glowing hour,
God's voice proclaimed, in thunder-tones,
The coming of the shower!

The deepening shadows slowly crept
O'er mountain and o'er plain,
Until in cool and copious floods
Came down the blessed rain.

All nature smiled: and when at last
The cloudy wings were furled,
The evening star shone regally
Above a thankful world.

O love of heaven! O fear of man!
O faith so cold and dim!
When shall we own the ways of God,
And learn to trust in Him.

Portsmouth, July, 1858.

VISITORS.—The Boston Journal of Wednesday last says: Lieut. Gov. Trask, members of the Council, Inspectors of Almshouses, Hon. Henry Wilson, and other gentlemen, left this city yesterday morning in the yacht "Wm. P. Thacher," on a pleasure trip along the northern coast, visiting Portsmouth, N. H. and other places.

NAVAL.—The following is an extract from a letter written on board the United States steamer Fulton, dated Pensacola, July 3. We will coal ship at this port and leave about next Thursday, the 8th, for Portsmouth, N. H. where we will refit entirely for the river Platte, in Paraguay, South America, to settle the difficulty now pending between that country and our own. The sloops-of-war Jamestown and Macedonian were cruising off Havana when we left.
